Bill 69
(2009, chapter 55)

An Act to amend the Highway Safety Code as regards driving schools

Introduced 11 November 2009
Passed in principle 19 November 2009
Passed 2 December 2009
Assented to 4 December 2009
EXPLANATORY NOTES

This Act amends the Highway Safety Code to extend by one year the suspension of the power to recognize new driving schools.

The Act grants the Government the regulatory power to set the minimum and maximum amounts chargeable for a course to drive a passenger vehicle.

The Act also provides that the Société de l’assurance automobile du Québec has jurisdiction over the withdrawal of a driving school’s recognition.

Lastly, the Act dissociates, in chapter 40 of the statutes of 2007, the coming into force of certain provisions relating to sanctions applicable to the holder of a driver’s licence from the coming into force of the requirement to take a driving course, and associates it instead with the coming into force of provisions relating to the number of demerit points that result in a sanction. It also contains a transitional provision.
