Bill 216

(Private)

AN ACT RESPECTING DIXVILLE HOME INC.

AS Dixville Home Inc. is a public institution constituted as a legal person on 22 March 1965 under Part III of the Companies Act (R.S.Q., 1964, chapter 271) and its mission is to operate a rehabilitation centre of the class of rehabilitation centres for mentally impaired persons or persons with a pervasive developmental disorder, in accordance with section 84 and paragraph 1 of section 86 of the Act respecting health services and social services (R.S.Q., chapter S-4.2);

AS Dixville Home Inc. is a legal person designated by the Minister of Health and Social Services under section 139 of the Act respecting health services and social services;

AS, by a deed registered on 23 July 1974 at the registry office of the registration division of Coaticook under number 49 704, Dixville Home Inc. acquired the immovable summarily designated as lots number 110, 111, 112, 117 and 118 of the cadastre of the village of Dixville in the registration division of Coaticook and parts of lots number 108 and 117 of the cadastre of the village of Dixville in the registration division of Coaticook, identified as the Old Mill;

AS, by a deed registered on 23 July 1974 at the registry office of the registration division of Coaticook under number 49 705, Dixville Home Inc. acquired the immovable summarily designated as part of lot number 120 of the cadastre of the village of Dixville in the registration division of Coaticook, identified as the Village Store;

AS, by a deed registered on 2 December 1977 at the registry office of the registration division of Coaticook under number 53 617, Dixville Home Inc. acquired the immovable designated as lots number 114, 115 and 116 of the cadastre of the village of Dixville in the registration division of Coaticook;

AS, by a deed registered on 6 April 1978 at the registry office of the registration division of Coaticook under number 54 037, Dixville Home Inc. acquired the immovable summarily designated as parts of lots number 101, 102, 152 and 153 of the cadastre of the village of Dixville in the registration division of Coaticook;

AS, contrary to section 44 of the Act respecting health services and social services (1971, chapter 48) applicable at the time, Dixville Home Inc. failed to obtain the authorization of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council to acquire lots number 110, 111, 112, 117 and 118 as well as parts of lots number 108 and 117, part of lot number 120, lots number 114, 115 and 116 and parts of lots number 101, 102, 152 and 153 of the cadastre of the village of Dixville in the registration division of Coaticook, and its deeds of acquisition are therefore null under section 48 of that Act;

AS, by a notarial deed made on 1 June 1986 before John Everett Todd, notary in Westmount, and registered on 8 June 1987 at the registry office of the registration division of Coaticook under number 66 522, Dixville Home Inc. acquired the immovable summarily designated as part of lot number 132 of the cadastre of the village of Dixville in the registration division of Coaticook, identified as the Thomas Markey Building;

AS, contrary to section 72 of the Act respecting health services and social services (R.S.Q., chapter S-5) applicable at the time, Dixville Home Inc. failed to obtain the authorization of the Government or consult the regional council concerned to acquire the lot, and its deed of acquisition is therefore null under section 75 of that Act;

AS, by a deed registered on 7 November 1991 at the registry office of the registration division of Coaticook under number 72 840, Dixville Home Inc. acquired the immovable designated as part of lot number 133 of the cadastre of the village of Dixville in the registration division of Coaticook, identified as the Parking Area;

AS, contrary to section 72 of the Act respecting health services and social services (R.S.Q., chapter S-5) applicable at the time, Dixville Home Inc. failed to obtain the authorization of the Conseil du trésor or consult the regional council concerned to acquire the lot, and its deed of acquisition is therefore null under section 75 of that Act;

AS, by a deed registered on 9 May 2003 at the registry office of the registration division of Coaticook under number 10 391 008, Dixville Home Inc. acquired the immovable designated as lot number 208 of the cadastre of the village of Dixville in the registration division of Coaticook, identified as Church Street;

AS, contrary to section 260 of the Act respecting health services and social services (R.S.Q., chapter S-4.2) applicable at the time, Dixville Home Inc. failed to obtain the authorization of the Minister and the Conseil du trésor or the advice of the regional board concerned to acquire the lot, and its deed of acquisition is therefore null under section 264 of that Act;

AS Dixville Home Inc. acquired all of those immovables to carry out the mission of the institution and used them for that purpose for many years;

AS it is in the interest of Dixville Home Inc. that its failure to obtain the required authorizations at the time it acquired the immovables, and the resulting defects of title affecting them, be remedied;

THE PARLIAMENT OF QUÉBEC ENACTS AS FOLLOWS:

1. Despite sections 44 and 48 of the Act respecting health services and social services (1971, chapter 48) applicable at the time, the deed of sale registered under number 49 704 at the registry office of the registration division of Coaticook, by which Dixville Home Inc. acquired the immovable summarily designated as lots number 110, 111, 112, 117 and 118 of the cadastre of the village of Dixville in the registration division of Coaticook and parts of lots number 108 and 117 of the cadastre of the village of Dixville in the registration division of Coaticook (the Old Mill), the cadastral designation of which, as established at the time, appears in Schedule I, may not be annulled on the grounds that the authorization of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council was not obtained, and no allegation of irregularity or illegality may be raised against the right of ownership of Dixville Home Inc. in the immovable.

2. Despite sections 44 and 48 of the Act respecting health services and social services (1971, chapter 48) applicable at the time, the deed of sale registered under number 49 705 at the registry office of the registration division of Coaticook, by which Dixville Home Inc. acquired the immovable summarily designated as part of lot number 120 of the cadastre of the village of Dixville in the registration division of Coaticook (the Village Store), the cadastral designation of which, as established at the time, appears in Schedule II, may not be annulled on the grounds that the authorization of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council was not obtained, and no allegation of irregularity or illegality may be raised against the right of ownership of Dixville Home Inc. in the immovable.

3. Despite sections 44 and 48 of the Act respecting health services and social services (1971, chapter 48) applicable at the time, the deed of sale registered under number 53 617 at the registry office of the registration division of Coaticook, by which Dixville Home Inc. acquired the immovable summarily designated as lots number 114, 115 and 116 of the cadastre of the village of Dixville in the registration division of Coaticook, the cadastral designation of which, as established at the time, appears in Schedule III, may not be annulled on the grounds that the authorization of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council was not obtained, and no allegation of irregularity or illegality may be raised against the right of ownership of Dixville Home Inc. in the immovable.

4. Despite sections 44 and 48 of the Act respecting health services and social services (1971, chapter 48) applicable at the time, the deed of sale registered under number 54 037 at the registry office of the registration division of Coaticook, by which Dixville Home Inc. acquired the immovable summarily designated as parts of lots number 101, 102, 152 and 153 of the cadastre of the village of Dixville in the registration division of Coaticook, the cadastral designation of which, as established at the time, appears in Schedule IV, may not be annulled on the grounds that the authorization of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council was not obtained, and no allegation of irregularity or illegality may be raised against the right of ownership of Dixville Home Inc. in the immovable.

5. Despite sections 72 and 75 of the Act respecting health services and social services (R.S.Q., chapter S-5) applicable at the time, the deed of sale registered under number 66 522 at the registry office of the registration division of Coaticook, by which Dixville Home Inc. acquired the immovable summarily designated as part of lot number 132 of the cadastre of the village of Dixville in the registration division of Coaticook (Thomas Markey Building), the cadastral designation of which, as established at the time, appears in Schedule V, may not be annulled on the grounds that the authorization of the Government was not obtained or the regional council concerned was not consulted, and no allegation of irregularity or illegality may be raised against the right of ownership of Dixville Home Inc. in the immovable.

6. Despite sections 72 and 75 of the Act respecting health services and social services (R.S.Q., chapter S-5) applicable at the time, the deed of sale registered under number 72 840 at the registry office of the registration division of Coaticook, by which Dixville Home Inc. acquired the immovable summarily designated as part of lot number 133 of the cadastre of the village of Dixville in the registration division of Coaticook (Parking Area), the cadastral designation of which, as established at the time, appears in Schedule VI, may not be annulled on the grounds that the authorization of the Conseil du trésor was not obtained or the regional council concerned was not consulted, and no allegation of irregularity or illegality may be raised against the right of ownership of Dixville Home Inc. in the immovable.

7. Despite sections 260 and 264 of the Act respecting health services and social services (R.S.Q., chapter S-4.2) applicable at the time, the deed of sale registered under number 10 391 008 at the registry office of the registration division of Coaticook, by which Dixville Home Inc. acquired the immovable summarily designated as lot number 208 of the cadastre of the village of Dixville in the registration division of Coaticook (Church Street), the cadastral designation of which, as established at the time, appears in Schedule VII, may not be annulled on the grounds that the authorization of the Minister and the Conseil du trésor or the advice of the regional board concerned was not obtained, and no allegation of irregularity or illegality may be raised against the right of ownership of Dixville Home Inc. in the immovable.

8. This Act must be registered at the registry office of the registration division of Coaticook and the appropriate entries registered against lots 101, 102, 108, 110, 111, 112, 114, 115, 116, 117, 118, 120, 132, 133, 152, 153 and 208 of the cadastre of the village of Dixville in the registration division of Coaticook.

9. This Act comes into force on 15 June 2012.
