THE PARLIAMENT OF QUÉBEC ENACTS AS FOLLOWS:

PRELIMINARY PROVISION

Purpose

1. The purpose of this Act is to affirm the specific character of administrative justice, to ensure its quality, promptness and accessibility and to safeguard the fundamental rights of citizens.

Rules of procedure

This Act establishes the general rules of procedure applicable to individual decisions made in respect of a citizen. Such rules of procedure differ according to whether a decision is made in the exercise of an administrative or adjudicative function, and are, if necessary, supplemented by special rules established by law or under its authority.

Administrative Tribunal

This Act also institutes the Administrative Tribunal of Québec and the Conseil de la justice administrative.

TITLE I

GENERAL RULES GOVERNING INDIVIDUAL DECISIONS MADE IN RESPECT OF A CITIZEN

CHAPTER I

RULES SPECIFIC TO DECISIONS MADE IN THE EXERCISE OF AN ADMINISTRATIVE FUNCTION

Procedures

2. The procedures leading to an individual decision to be made by the Administration, pursuant to norms or standards prescribed by law, in respect of a citizen shall be conducted in keeping with the duty to act fairly.

Administration

3. The Administration consists of the government departments and bodies whose members are in the majority appointed by the Government or by a minister and whose personnel is appointed and remunerated in accordance with the Public Service Act (chapter F-3.1.1).

Duties

4. The Administration shall take appropriate measures to ensure

(1) that procedures are conducted in accordance with legislative and administrative norms or standards and with other applicable rules of law, according to simple and flexible rules devoid of formalism, with respect, prudence and promptness, in accordance with the norms and standards of ethics and discipline governing its agents and with the requirements of good faith;

(2) that the citizen is given the opportunity to provide any information useful for the making of the decision and, where necessary, to complete his file;

(3) that decisions are made with diligence, are communicated to the person concerned in clear and concise terms and contain the information required to enable the person to communicate with the Administration;

(4) that the directives governing agents charged with making a decision are in keeping with the principles and obligations under this chapter and are available for consultation by the citizen.

Order or unfavourable decision

5. An administrative authority may not issue an order to do or not do something or make an unfavourable decision concerning a permit or licence or other authorization of like nature without first having

(1) informed the citizen of its intention and the reasons therefor;

(2) informed the citizen of the substance of any complaints or objections that concern him;

(3) given the citizen the opportunity to present observations and, where necessary, to produce documents to complete his file.

Exception

An exception shall be made to such prior obligations if the order or the decision is issued or made in urgent circumstances or to prevent irreparable harm to persons, their property or the environment and the authority is authorized by law to reexamine the situation or review the decision.

Decision

6. An administrative authority that is about to make a decision in relation to an indemnity or a benefit which is unfavourable to a citizen must ensure that the citizen has received the information enabling him to communicate with the authority and that the citizen's file contains all information useful for the making of the decision. If the authority ascertains that such is not the case or that the file is incomplete, it shall postpone its decision for as long as is required to communicate with the citizen and to give the citizen the opportunity to provide the pertinent information or documents to complete his file.

Application for review

In communicating the decision, the administrative authority must inform the citizen that he has the right to apply, within the time indicated, to have the decision reviewed by the administrative authority.

Observations

7. Where, upon the request of a citizen, a situation is reexamined or a decision is reviewed, the administrative authority shall give the citizen the opportunity to present observations and, where necessary, to produce documents to complete his file.

Reasons

8. An administrative authority shall give reasons for all unfavourable decisions it makes, and shall indicate any non-judicial proceeding available under the law and the time limits applicable.

CHAPTER II

RULES SPECIFIC TO DECISIONS IN THE EXERCISE OF AN ADJUDICATIVE FUNCTION

Procedures

9. The procedures leading to a decision to be made by the Administrative Tribunal of Québec or by another body of the administrative branch charged with settling disputes between a citizen and an administrative authority or a decentralized authority must, so as to ensure a fair process, be conducted in keeping with the duty to act impartially.

Hearing

10. The body is required to give the parties the opportunity to be heard.

Hearings

The hearings shall be held in public. The body may, however, even of its own initiative, order hearings to be held in camera where necessary to maintain public order.

Hearing

11. The body has, within the scope of the law, full authority over the conduct of the hearing. It shall, in conducting the proceedings, be flexible and ensure that the substantive law is rendered effective and is carried out.

Evidence

It shall rule on the admissibility of evidence and means of proof and may, for that purpose, follow the ordinary rules of evidence applicable in civil matters. It shall, however, even of its own initiative, reject any evidence which was obtained under such circumstances that fundamental rights and freedoms are breached and the use of which could bring the administration of justice into disrepute. The use of evidence obtained in violation of the right to professional secrecy is deemed to bring the administration of justice into disrepute.

Requirements

12. The body is required to

(1) take measures to circumscribe the issue and, where expedient, to promote reconciliation between the parties;

(2) give the parties the opportunity to prove the facts in support of their allegations and to present arguments;

(3) provide, if necessary, fair and impartial assistance to each party during the hearing;

(4) allow each party to be assisted or represented by persons empowered by law to do so.

Decisions

13. Every decision rendered by the body must be communicated in clear and concise terms to the parties and to every other person that the law indicates.

Admissibility as evidence

122. Unless the parties consent thereto, nothing that is said or written in the course of conciliation may be admitted as evidence before a court of justice or before a person or body of the administrative branch exercising adjudicative functions. The parties must be so informed by the member who pronounces the suspension of the proceedings.

Disclosure

123. A conciliator may not be compelled to disclose anything made revealed to or learned by him in the exercise of his functions or produce a document prepared or obtained in the course of such exercise before a court of justice or before a person or body of the administrative branch exercising adjudicative functions.

Access to documents

Notwithstanding section 9 of the Act respecting Access to documents held by public bodies and the Protection of personal information, no person may have access to a document contained in the conciliation record.

Agreement

124. Each agreement shall be recorded in writing. The agreement shall be signed by the conciliator and by the parties and shall bind the latter.

Termination of proceedings

The agreement, confirmed by the Tribunal, shall terminate the proceedings, and become executory as if it were a decision of the Tribunal.

DIVISION V

PRE-HEARING CONFERENCE

Pre-hearing conference

125. The president of the Tribunal, the vice-president responsible for the division concerned or the member designated by either of them may call the parties to a pre-hearing conference if he considers it useful and the circumstances of the case allow it.

Purpose

126. The purpose of the pre-hearing conference is

- (1) to define the questions to be dealt with at the hearing;
- (2) to assess the advisability of clarifying and specifying the pretensions of the parties and the conclusions sought;
- (3) to ensure that all documentary evidence is exchanged by the parties;
- (4) to plan the conduct of the proceedings and proof at the hearing;
- (5) to examine the possibility for the parties of admitting certain facts or of proving them by means of sworn statements;
- (6) to examine any other question likely to simplify or accelerate the conduct of the hearing.

Minutes

127. Minutes of the pre-hearing conference shall be drawn up and signed by the parties and by the member who called the parties to the conference.

Agreements and
decisions

Agreements and decisions recorded in the minutes shall, as far as they may apply, govern the conduct of the proceeding, unless the Tribunal, when hearing the matter, permits a derogation therefrom to prevent an injustice.

DIVISION VI

HEARING

Hearing

128. The Tribunal shall, so far as is possible, facilitate the holding of a hearing at a date and time when the parties and their witnesses, if any, are able to attend without unduly disrupting their usual occupations.

Hearing

The Tribunal shall facilitate the holding of the hearing within six months after the filing of the motion instituting the proceedings.

Notice

129. Notice shall be sent to the parties within reasonable time before the hearing or within the time fixed by law, stating

(1) the purpose, date, time and place of the hearing;

(2) that the parties have the right to be assisted or represented, and listing the classes of persons authorized by law to assist or represent a party before the Tribunal;

(3) that the Tribunal has the authority to proceed, without further delay or notice, despite the failure of a party to appear at the time and place fixed if no valid excuse is provided.

Journalists

130. A journalist who proves his status shall be admitted, without further formality, to any hearing held in camera, unless the Tribunal considers that the presence of the journalist can be prejudicial to a person whose interests may be affected by the proceeding.

Publication of information

No such journalist shall publish or broadcast information that would allow the identification of a person concerned, unless the journalist is authorized to do so by the law or by the Tribunal.

Publication ban

131. The Tribunal may, of its own initiative or on an application by a party, ban or restrict the disclosure, publication or dissemination of any information or documents it indicates, where necessary to maintain public order or where the confidential nature of the information or documents requires the prohibition or restriction to ensure the proper administration of justice.

Examination of witnesses

132. Any party may examine and cross-examine witnesses to the extent necessary to ensure fair proceedings.

Witnesses

133. A witness may not refuse, without valid reason, to answer a question legally put to him by the Tribunal or by the parties.

Exception

However, no witness may be compelled to answer in the cases and conditions described in articles 307 and 308 of the Code of Civil Procedure.

Adjournment

134. The Tribunal may adjourn the hearing, on the conditions it determines, if it is of the opinion that the adjournment will not cause unreasonable delay in the proceeding or a denial of justice, in particular, for the purpose of fostering an amicable settlement.

Depositions

135. In matters of expropriation, and in matters of municipal taxation where a proceeding pertains to a unit of assessment or place of business whose real estate value or rental value entered on the roll is equal to or greater than the value fixed by the Government, all depositions shall be conserved by stenography or by a recording, according to the method authorized by the Tribunal, unless the parties waive their right to appeal from the decision. Any such waiver shall be in writing or be recorded in the minutes of the proceedings.

Depositions

In the case of other proceedings heard by the immovable property division and of proceedings heard in matters concerning the preservation of agricultural land, depositions shall be conserved only if the applicant so requests in writing.

Continuance of hearing

136. Where a member is unable to continue a hearing, another member designated by the president of the Tribunal or by the vice-president responsible for the division concerned may, with the consent of the parties, continue the hearing and, in the case of oral evidence already produced, rely on the notes and minutes of the hearing or on the stenographer's notes or the recording of the hearing, if any.

Continuance of hearing

The same rule also applies in the case of a hearing continued after a member who began to hear the matter ceases to hold office.

DIVISION VII

EVIDENCE

Grounds of law or fact

137. Each party may plead any ground of law or fact relevant to the determination of his rights and obligations.

Prior communication

138. The Tribunal may make the admission of evidence subject to rules on prior communication.

Refusal of evidence

139. The Tribunal may refuse to admit any evidence that is not relevant or that is not of a nature likely to further the interests of justice.

Judicial notice

140. In addition to facts so well-known as to not reasonably be questionable, the Tribunal must take judicial notice of the law in force in Québec in the fields within its jurisdiction. Unless the law provides otherwise, statutory instruments not published in the Gazette officielle du Québec or in any other manner provided for by law must be pleaded.

Judicial notice

141. A member shall take judicial notice of facts that are generally recognized and of opinions and information which fall within his area of specialization or that of the division to which he is assigned.

Evidence

142. No evidence may be relied on by the Tribunal in making its decision unless the parties have been given an opportunity to comment on the substance of the evidence or to refute it.

Observations

Other than in the case of facts of which judicial notice must be taken pursuant to section 140, the Tribunal may not base its decision on grounds of law or fact judicially noticed by a member if it has not first given the parties, other than parties who have waived their right to state their allegations, an opportunity to present their observations.

DIVISION VIII

RECUSATION OF A MEMBER

Cause

143. A member who has knowledge of a valid cause for his recusation must declare that cause in a writing filed in the record and must advise the parties of it.

Recusation

144. A party may, at any time before the decision and provided he acts with dispatch, apply for the recusation of a member seized of the case if he has good reason to believe that a cause for recusation exists.

Application

The application for recusation shall be addressed to the president of the Tribunal. Unless the member removes himself from the case, the application shall be decided by the president, by the vice-president responsible for the division concerned or by a member designated by either of them.

DIVISION IX

DECISIONS

Decision

145. Where a matter is heard by more than one member, it shall be decided by the majority of the members having heard it. If any member dissents, the grounds for his dissent must be recorded in the decision.

Referral

When opinions are equally divided on a question, it shall be referred to the president, the vice-president responsible for the division concerned or a member designated by either of them among the members who shall decide according to law.

Advisement

146. In any matter of whatever nature, the decision must be given within three months after being taken under advisement, unless, for a valid reason, the president of the Tribunal has granted an extension.

Withdrawal

Where a member seized of a matter fails to give a decision within three months or, as the case may be, within such additional time as has been granted, the president may, of his own initiative or on an application by a party, withdraw the matter from the member.

Extension or

Before granting an extension or withdrawing a matter from a member who has failed to give his decision within the required time, the president shall take account of the circumstances and of the interests of the parties.

Decision

147. A matter that has been withdrawn from a member shall be decided by the other members having heard the matter if their number is sufficient to constitute a quorum. Failing a quorum, the matter shall be heard again.

Rules

148. A matter heard by a member and which has not been decided at the time the member ceases to hold office is governed by the rules set forth in section 147.

Oral testimony

149. The president, a vice-president or any member called upon to hear a matter pursuant to the second paragraph of section 145 or to section 147 or 148 may, as regards oral testimony, and with the consent of the parties, rely on the notes and minutes of the hearing or on the stenographer's notes or the recording of the hearing, if any. If the vice-president or member finds them insufficient, he may recall a witness or require any other evidence.

Signature

150. Where a member is unable to act or has ceased to hold office and cannot sign the minute of a decision given at the hearing, another member designated by the president of the Tribunal or by the vice-president responsible for the division concerned may sign the minute of the decision.

Order

151. Any order made by the Tribunal in the course of a proceeding for a hearing to be held in camera or banning disclosure, publication or dissemination of documents or information shall be stated expressly in the decision.

Copy

152. A copy of the decision shall be sent to each of the parties and to any other person specified by law.

Clerical errors

153. A decision containing an error in writing or in calculation or any other clerical error may be corrected, in the record and without further formality, by the member who made the decision.

Correction

Where the member is unable to act or has ceased to hold office, another member designated by the president of the Tribunal or by the vice-president responsible for the division concerned may, on an application by a party, correct the decision.

Review or revocation

154. The Tribunal, on an application, may review or revoke any decision it has made

(1) where a new fact is discovered which, had it been known in time, could have warranted a different decision;

(2) where a party, owing to reasons considered sufficient, could not be heard;

(3) where a substantive or procedural defect is of a nature likely to invalidate the decision.

Restriction

In the case described in subparagraph 3, the decision may not be reviewed or revoked by the members having made the decision.

Motion

155. Proceedings for review or revocation are brought before the Tribunal by a motion filed at the secretariat of the Tribunal within reasonable time following the decision concerned or following the discovery of a new fact susceptible of warranting a different decision. The motion shall refer to the decision concerned and state the grounds invoked in support of the motion. It shall contain any other information required by the rules of procedure of the Tribunal, and shall indicate, where applicable, the name, address, telephone number and fax number of the representative of the applicant.

Copy

The secretary of the Tribunal shall send a copy of the motion to the other parties, who may respond to it in writing within 30 days after receiving it.

Record

The Tribunal shall proceed on the basis of the record; it may, however, if it considers it appropriate or if a party requests it, hear the parties.

Decisions

156. Decisions of the Tribunal are executory according to the terms and conditions stated therein provided the parties have received a copy of the decision or have otherwise been advised of it.

Compulsory execution

Compulsory execution of decisions is effected, by deposit at the office of the competent court, in accordance with the prescriptions of the Code of Civil Procedure.

Rules

However, execution of a decision that contains a determination in respect of a proceeding under the provisions of the Expropriation Act (chapter E-24) is effected according to the rules prescribed in the said Act.

Contempt

157. Any person who contravenes a decision or an order which is executory is guilty of contempt.

Recourses

158. Except on a question of jurisdiction, none of the recourses provided in articles 33 and 834 to 846 of the Code of Civil Procedure may be exercised and no injunction may be granted against the Tribunal or against any of its members acting in their official capacity.

Judgment

A judge of the Court of Appeal may, upon a motion, annul by a summary proceeding any judgment rendered or order or injunction pronounced contrary to this section.

DIVISION X

APPEALS

Appeal

159. An appeal lies to the Court of Québec, irrespective of the amount involved, from decisions rendered by the Tribunal in matters heard by the immovable property division, and from decisions rendered in matters concerning the preservation of agricultural land, with leave of a judge, where the matter at issue is one which ought to be submitted to the Court of Québec.

Application for leave to appeal

160. An application for leave to appeal shall be made in the office of the Court of Québec of the place where the property is situated, and shall be presented by motion accompanied by a copy of the decision and of the documents of the contestation, if they are not reproduced in the decision.

Time limit

The application shall be made within 30 days of the decision. The time limit is peremptory; it may be extended only if a party establishes that he was unable to act.

Service

161. An application for leave to appeal, accompanied by a notice of presentation, shall be served on the adverse party and filed in the office of the Court of Québec. The application shall state the conclusions sought, and shall summarize the grounds the applicant intends to set up.

Execution of
decision

162. An application for leave to appeal does not suspend execution of the decision. However, a judge of the Court of Québec may, on a motion, suspend such execution if the application establishes that such execution would cause serious harm and that he has filed an application for leave to appeal.

Judgment

163. If an application for leave to appeal is granted, the judgment authorizing the appeal shall stand for the inscription in appeal. The clerk of the Court of Québec shall transmit a copy of the decision without delay to the Tribunal and to the parties and their attorneys.

Respondent

In the same manner and within the same time limits, the respondent may bring an appeal or an incidental appeal.

Execution of
decision

Except where provisional execution is ordered, an appeal suspends the execution of the decision.

Hearing

164. The Court of Québec hears the appeal according to the evidence presented before the Tribunal, without further proof. No appeal lies from the decision of the Court of Québec.

"DIVISION VI.1

"PROVISIONAL ADMINISTRATION

Scope

Powers suspended

"85.2 The Minister may, after taking cognizance of facts revealed as a result of actions taken to ascertain compliance with the law, and after giving the directors of the housing agency concerned an opportunity to present their observations in writing on those facts within 15 days of receipt of a written notice of the Minister to that effect, suspend the powers of the directors from the date he determines, for a period not exceeding 120 days, and appoint provisional administrators to exercise the powers of the directors during the suspension, if the facts give him cause to believe obligations arising out of a housing program or agreement under the terms of which the agency receives financial assistance;

Report

“85.4 The provisional administrators shall, not less than 30 days before the date on which their term is to expire, file a report with the Minister setting out their findings and recommendations. The report must contain any information the Minister requires.

Corrective action

“85.5 The Minister may, after examining the provisional administrators’ report, and where he considers it warranted to remedy a situation described in subparagraphs 1 to 4 of the first paragraph of section 85.2 or to prevent the reoccurrence of a situation,

- Decision Every decision of the Minister shall contain reasons and be sent with dispatch to the directors of the housing agency.
- Final account “85.6 The provisional administrators shall, at the end of their administration, give a final account to the Minister. The account must give sufficient detail to enable its accuracy to be verified and must be accompanied with the books and vouchers relating to their provisional administration.

- Immunity “85.8 No proceedings may be brought against the provisional administrators acting in the exercise of the powers and duties conferred on them under this division in respect of an act performed in good faith while exercising those powers and duties.
- Remedies “85.9 No extraordinary recourse provided for in articles 828 to 846 of the Code of Civil Procedure (chapter C-25) may be exercised nor any injunction granted against the provisional administrators acting in the exercise of the powers and duties conferred on them under this division.
- Annulment A judge of the Court of Appeal may, on a motion, summarily quash any judgment, writ, order or injunction delivered or granted in contravention of this section.
- Report “85.10 In the annual report tabled by the Minister on the activities of his department, the Minister shall under a special heading report on the application of this division.”
- Pre-existing facts 2. This Act shall not be construed as preventing the minister responsible for the administration of the Act respecting the Société d'habitation du Québec from taking into consideration facts existing before the coming into force of this Act in examining the facts giving rise to the provisional administration of housing agencies.

Legal proceedings

Notwithstanding the first paragraph, the Minister may not, in examining the facts giving rise to the provisional administration of a housing agency, take into consideration facts existing before the coming into force of this Act if those facts, insofar as they concern the administration of the agency, are the subject of legal proceedings brought before the courts by the Société d'habitation du Québec.

Rate fixing or
modification

48. The Régie shall, on the application of an interested person or on its own initiative, fix or modify the rates and conditions for the transmission or supply of electric power by Hydro-Québec or for the transmission, delivery or supply of natural gas by a natural gas distributor or for the storage of natural gas. The Régie may ask Hydro-Québec or a natural gas distributor to file a modification proposal.

Applications

Applications must be filed with the documents and fees prescribed by regulation.

Rate fixing or
modification

49. When fixing or modifying rates, the Régie shall, in particular,

(1) determine the rate base of the distributor after giving due consideration to the fair value of the assets it considers prudently acquired and useful for the operation of electric power production equipment, of a transmission system or of a distribution system, as well as to the undepreciated research and development and marketing expenditures, commercial programs, preliminary expenses and the working capital required for the operation of such equipment and systems;

(2) determine the overall amounts of expenditure it considers necessary to cover the cost to the distributor of providing the service, including the cost of acquisition;

(3) allow a reasonable return on the rate base of the distributor;

(4) determine measures and incentives for improved distributor performance and increased satisfaction of consumer needs;

(5) ensure that the distributor's financial ratios are maintained;

(6) consider the distributor's cost of service, the varying risks according to classes of consumers, the competition between the various forms of energy and the maintenance of equity between rate classes;

(7) ascertain that the rates and other conditions for the provision of the service are fair and reasonable;

(8) consider the distributor's sales forecasts;

(9) consider service quality;

(10) consider such economic, social and environmental concerns as have been identified by the Government.

Compensatory rates	The Régie may, in respect of a consumer or class of consumers, fix a rate to compensate for energy savings which are not beneficial for the distributor but are beneficial for the consumer or class of consumers.
Methods	The Régie may use any other method it considers appropriate.
Distributor's assets	50. The fair value of a distributor's assets shall be determined on the basis of the original cost, less depreciation.
Restrictions	51. No tariff may impose higher rates or more onerous conditions than are necessary to cover capital and operating costs, to maintain the stability of the enterprise and the normal development of the electric power production equipment and of transmission and distribution systems or to provide the distributor a reasonable return on the rate base.
Storage of natural gas	The same applies to the storage of natural gas by the operator of a natural gas storage facility insofar as it is warranted by the rate determination method employed by the Régie.
Actual cost	52. In any tariff for the supply of electric power or natural gas, the rates and other conditions applicable to a consumer or class of consumers must reflect the actual cost of acquisition to the distributor or any other terms granted to the distributor by producers of electric power or natural gas or their representatives in consideration of the consumption of that consumer or class of consumers.
Acquisition-related cost	A tariff may also reflect any other acquisition-related cost of the electric power or natural gas to the distributor.
Restriction	53. Hydro-Québec or a natural gas distributor may not, in respect of a consumer, impose or agree to a rate or to conditions other than those fixed by the Régie or the Government.
Prohibition	Nor may Hydro-Québec or a natural gas distributor discontinue or interrupt service to a consumer because of his refusal to pay an amount other than the amount resulting from the application of a rate or condition fixed by the Régie or the Government.
Nullity	54. Any stipulation of an agreement which is at variance with a tariff fixed by the Régie or the Government is null.

CHAPTER V

MONITORING OF STEAM AND PETROLEUM PRODUCT PRICES

Monitoring	55. The Régie shall monitor, in the various regions of Québec, the prices charged for petroleum products and those charged for steam supplied or distributed by means of pipes for heating purposes.

Required information	56. The Régie may, at any time, order any person to furnish any information concerning the person's sales or distribution of petroleum products or steam or concerning the prices, taxes and duties charged and paid.
Compliance	The person concerned must comply with the order issued by the Régie.
Advice to Government	57. The Régie shall, on its own initiative or at the Minister's request, advise the Government or the Minister concerning steam or petroleum product prices.
Information	58. The Régie may, on request, provide information to consumers on the prices charged by a steam or petroleum products distributor.
Consumer needs	The Régie may promote awareness of consumer needs and demands among steam and petroleum products distributors.
Determination of operating costs	59. For the purposes of section 45.1 of the Act respecting the use of petroleum products (R.S.Q., chapter U-1.1), (1) the Régie shall determine annually an amount per litre representing the operating costs borne by a gasoline or diesel fuel retailer; different amounts may be determined according to regions determined by the Régie; (2) the Régie shall assess the expediency of excluding the amount from or including the amount in the operating costs borne by a retailer; the Régie shall specify the period and the zone to which its decision applies; (3) the Régie may determine zones.
Operating costs	For the purposes of subparagraph 1 of the first paragraph, the operating costs are the reasonable and necessary costs involved in retailing gasoline or diesel fuel efficiently.
Interests of consumers	In exercising its powers, the Régie must ensure that the interests of consumers are protected.

CHAPTER VI

EXCLUSIVE ELECTRIC POWER OR NATURAL GAS DISTRIBUTION RIGHTS

DIVISION I

GRANT OF EXCLUSIVE DISTRIBUTION RIGHTS

§1. — Distribution of electric power

Exclusive distribution rights	60. Exclusive electric power distribution rights confer on the holder, within the territory where they obtain and to the exclusion of anyone else, the right to operate an electric power distribution system.
Restriction	Such rights do not prevent anyone from producing and distributing via their own system the electric power they consume.
Prohibition	61. No one may operate an electric power distribution system within the territory of the holder of exclusive electric power distribution rights.
Hydro-Québec	62. Hydro-Québec is the holder of exclusive electric power distribution rights throughout the territory of Québec, excluding the territories served by a distributor operating a municipal or private electric power system or by the Coopérative régionale d'électricité de Saint-Jean-Baptiste de Rouville on (insert here the date of coming into force of this section).
Distributors	All distributors operating a municipal electric power system as well as the Coopérative régionale d'électricité de Saint-Jean-Baptiste de Rouville are also the holders of exclusive distribution rights within the territory served on that date by their distribution system.
Agreement	Notwithstanding sections 60 and 61, holders of exclusive electric power distribution rights may agree on terms and conditions for the provision of service to a customer in each other's territories.
Continuing operation	This Act does not operate to prevent a holder of exclusive electric power distribution rights to continue to operate his installations for the supply of electric power which, on (insert here the date of coming into force of this section) are situated within the territory served on that date by another holder of exclusive electric power distribution rights.

§2. — Distribution of natural gas

Exclusive distribution rights	63. Exclusive natural gas distribution rights confer on the holder, within the territory where they obtain and to the exclusion of anyone else, the right to operate a natural gas distribution system and to transmit and deliver by pipeline natural gas intended for consumption.
Restriction	Exclusive natural gas distribution rights do not confer the exclusive right to purchase, sell or store natural gas.

Exclusive distribution rights	64. After obtaining the advice of the Régie, the Government may grant to a person or partnership, subject to the conditions it determines, exclusive natural gas distribution rights within the territory it determines.
Application	65. An application for exclusive natural gas distribution rights must be made in writing to the Régie and filed with the documents and fees prescribed by regulation.
Application	Upon receipt of an application, the Régie shall inform the Minister.
Notice	66. The Régie shall publish a notice of the application in the Gazette officielle du Québec and in a daily newspaper distributed in the territory for which the application is made. The notice shall state (1) that an application for exclusive natural gas distribution rights has been filed with the Régie; (2) that a public hearing will be held to examine the application; (3) that interested persons will be given the opportunity to present observations; and (4) the place, date and time of the public hearing.
Public hearing	The public hearing may not be held before the expiry of 30 days after the later of the publications.
Advice to Government	67. After the public hearing is held, the Régie shall advise the Government concerning the application for exclusive natural gas distribution rights.
Term of distribution rights	68. Exclusive natural gas distribution rights may be granted for not more than 30 years. They may be renewed subject to the conditions determined by the Government.
Public interest	69. Whenever the public interest so requires, the Government may, after obtaining the advice of the Régie, modify or revoke exclusive natural gas distribution rights.
Notice	70. The Minister shall give notice in the Gazette officielle du Québec of every grant, renewal, modification or revocation of exclusive natural gas distribution rights.
Prohibition	71. No one, except the holder of exclusive natural gas distribution rights, may operate a natural gas distribution system.

DIVISION II

OBLIGATIONS OF DISTRIBUTORS

Resource plan	72. Hydro-Québec and every natural gas distributor shall submit to the Régie for approval, at the intervals fixed by regulation of the Régie, a resource plan, the form and tenor of which are determined by regulation of the Régie, proposing strategies for achieving a balance between the supply of and the demand for the energy distributed by the distributor, through means which operate on both supply and demand, in keeping with economic, social and environmental concerns and having due regard for the risks inherent in the chosen sources of supply.
Authorization	73. Hydro-Québec and every natural gas distributor must obtain the authorization of the Régie, subject to the conditions and in the cases the Régie determines by regulation, to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (1) acquire, construct or dispose of immovables or assets intended for the production, transmission or distribution of electric power or natural gas; (2) extend or modify their distribution system; (3) cease or suspend operations; (4) alter the use of their distribution system; (5) restructure their operations so as to exclude part thereof from the application of this Act; or (6) export electric power from Québec, subject to the Act respecting the exportation of electric power (R.S.Q., chapter E-23).
Energy needs	In examining an application under subparagraph 1 of the first paragraph, the Régie shall give due consideration to the justification of energy needs.
Economic, social and environmental concerns	In examining any application under this section, the Régie shall give due consideration to such economic, social and environmental concerns as have been identified by the Government.
Other required authorizations	An authorization under this section does not dispense Hydro-Québec or a natural gas distributor from seeking any other authorization required by law.
Approval	74. Hydro-Québec may not enter into any contract for the purchase or exchange of electric power without obtaining the approval of the Régie in the cases determined by the Régie.
Approval	The commercial programs of Hydro-Québec and of natural gas distributors also require the approval of the Régie.

Commercial programs	In a territory served by an independent electric power distribution system, Hydro-Québec may also submit to the Régie, for approval, commercial programs relating to other forms of energy in order to ensure that consumers in that territory are treated equitably in terms of energy supply in relation to any other consumer of electric power supplied by Hydro-Québec for residential and water heating.

The person is deemed to carry on, in that place, an activity referred to in section 232 of that Act, unless an activity referred to in that section is carried on by another person, for more than one year, in a part of the unit of assessment that constitutes the place of business, in which case that part constitutes a separate place of business.

Notification

The person referred to in the first paragraph is required to notify the city that an activity referred to in section 232 of the Act respecting municipal taxation is being carried on, for more than one year, in a part of the unit that constitutes a place of business entered in the person’s name.

Chapter 68

AN ACT TO AMEND THE CIVIL CODE OF QUÉBEC AND THE CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE AS REGARDS THE DETERMINATION OF CHILD SUPPORT PAYMENTS

[Assented to 23 December 1996]

THE PARLIAMENT OF QUÉBEC ENACTS AS FOLLOWS:

C.C.Q., aa. 587.1-
587.3, added

1. The Civil Code of Québec (S.Q. 1991, chapter 64) is amended by inserting, after article 587, the following articles:

“587.1. As regards the support owed to a child by his parents, the basic parental contribution, as determined pursuant to the rules for the determination of child support payments adopted under the Code of Civil Procedure, is presumed to meet the needs of the child and to be in proportion to the means of the parents.

The basic parental contribution may be increased having regard to certain expenses relating to the child which are specified in the rules, to the extent that such expenses are reasonable considering the needs and means of the parents and child.

“587.2. The support to be provided by a parent for his child is equal to that parent’s share of the basic parental contribution, increased, where applicable, having regard to specified expenses relating to the child.

The court may, however, increase or reduce the level of support if it is of the opinion that, in the special circumstances of the case, not doing so would entail undue hardship for one of the parents. Such hardship may be caused by, among other things, the costs involved in exercising visiting rights in respect of the child, obligations of support toward persons other than the child or reasonable debts incurred to meet family needs. The court may also increase or reduce the level of support if it is warranted by the value of either parent’s assets or the extent of the resources available to the child.

“587.3. Parents may make a private agreement stipulating a level of child support that departs from the level which would be required to be provided under the rules for the determination of child support payments, subject to the court being satisfied that the needs of the child are adequately provided for.”

c. C-25, aa. 825.8-
825.14, added

2. The Code of Civil Procedure (R.S.Q., chapter C-25) is amended by inserting, after article 825.7, the following chapter:

“CHAPTER VI.1“APPLICATIONS RELATING TO CHILD SUPPORT

“825.8. The Government, by regulation, shall establish standards for the determination of the child support payments to be made by a parent, on the basis of the basic parental contribution determined in respect of the child, of the child care expenses, post-secondary education expenses and special expenses relating to the child and of the parents’ custodial arrangement in respect of the child. The Government shall prescribe the use of a form and of a related table determining, on the basis of the parents’ disposable income and the number of children, the basic parental contribution, as well as the production of evidentiary documents.

“825.9. No application relating to child support may be heard unless it is accompanied by the form prescribed for the determination of child support payments, duly completed by the plaintiff, and by the prescribed documents.

Likewise, no contestation of the application may be heard unless the prescribed form has been produced with the prescribed documents by the defendant. The court may, however, relieve the defendant from his default on the conditions it determines.

The rules provided in this article do not apply to a plaintiff or defendant who is not a parent of the child.

“825.10. The plaintiff parent must serve a copy of the prescribed form and prescribed documents with the application. Not less than one clear day before the presentation of the application, the defendant parent must serve a copy of the prescribed form and prescribed documents on the plaintiff parent.

“825.11. The parents may produce the prescribed form and prescribed documents jointly. If they do, they are exempted from service requirements.

“825.12. If the information stated in the prescribed form or prescribed documents is contested or incomplete or if the court considers it necessary, it may make good the deficiency and, for instance, establish the income of a parent. In establishing the income of a parent, the court may have regard, among other things, to the assets held by the parent and attribute to those assets the production of such income as it sees fit.

“825.13. The support to be provided to a child is determined without regard to support claimed by a parent of the child for himself.

A judgment granting support to a child and to a parent of the child must state separately the amount of support to be provided to each.

“825.14. Parents who make a private agreement stipulating a level of child support that departs from the level of support which would be required to be provided under the rules for the determination of child support payments must state precisely, in their agreement, the reasons for such departure.

Likewise, any judgment granting a level of child support which is at variance with a private agreement between the parents or, in the case of a contested application, with the information stated in a form filed by the parents, must state precisely the reasons for such variance and include references to the relevant items of the prescribed form.”

Proceedings in progress

3. With the exception of the second paragraph of article 825.13 of the Code of Civil Procedure enacted by section 2, the provisions enacted by this Act are not applicable to proceedings in progress.

Report

4. The Minister of Justice shall, on or before (insert here the date occurring three years after the coming into force of this Act), report to the Government on the implementation of, and advisability of amending, the provisions of this Act.

Tabling

The report shall be tabled by the Minister in the National Assembly within the ensuing 15 days or, if the Assembly is not in session, within 15 days of resumption.

The Regulation respecting the amount payable by the municipalities for the services of the Sûreté du Québec made by Order in Council 326-92 dated 4 March 1992 and amended by Orders in Council 247-94 dated 9 February 1994 and 1318-95 dated 27 September 1995 is again amended by replacing section 10 by the following section:

“10. Notwithstanding section 9, the rate by which the standardized real estate value of a municipality resulting from an amalgamation that came into force after 31 December 1990 is multiplied is, for any of the eight fiscal years, or in the case of municipalities which amalgamated between 9 February 1994 and 31 December 1996 for any of the first 11 fiscal years following the last fiscal year that began before the amalgamation came into force, the product obtained by multiplying the rate that would otherwise be applicable under section 9 by the coefficient established in accordance with the second or third paragraph, as the case may be.

For the purpose of establishing the rate referred to in the first paragraph for any of the first five fiscal years, or in the case of municipalities which amalgamated between 9 February 1994 and 31 December 1996 for any of the first eight fiscal years following the last fiscal year that began before the amalgamation came into force, the coefficient referred to in that paragraph is the quotient obtained by dividing the aggregate referred to in subparagraph 1 by the product referred to in subparagraph 2:

(1) the aggregate of the contributions payable, by the municipalities whose territories have been amalgamated, for the last fiscal year that began before the amalgamation came into force;

(2) the product obtained by multiplying the aggregate of the standardized real estate values of the municipalities referred to in subparagraph 1 for the second fiscal year preceding the fiscal year referred to in that subparagraph by the rate appearing in Column B of Schedule I opposite the range, in Column A of that Schedule, that comprises the total population of the municipalities on 1 January of the fiscal year referred to in subparagraph 1.

For the purpose of establishing the rate referred to in the first paragraph for any of the sixth, seventh and eighth fiscal years, or in the case of municipalities which amalgamated between 9 February 1994 and 31 December 1996 for the ninth, tenth and eleventh fiscal years, following the last fiscal year that began before the amalgamation came into force, the coefficient referred to in that paragraph is the sum obtained by adding to the quotient established under the second paragraph one-quarter, one-half or three-quarters, depending on whether it is for the sixth, seventh or eighth fiscal year, or in the case of municipalities which amalgamated between 9 February 1994 and 31 December 1996, depending on whether it is for the ninth, tenth or eleventh fiscal year, of the difference obtained by subtracting that quotient from 1.00000.

For the purposes of the second paragraph, a situation described in section 1 is deemed to have existed for the entire fiscal year referred to in subparagraph 1 of that paragraph and, if that fiscal year precedes the 1992 fiscal year, this Regulation and the legislative provisions to which it refers are deemed to have applied during the fiscal year.

Notwithstanding section 3, the product resulting from the multiplication referred to in the first paragraph, the quotient resulting from the division referred to in the second paragraph and the results of the operations referred to in the third paragraph are expressed as a decimal number comprising 5 decimals. The fifth decimal is increased by 1 where the sixth decimal would have been greater than 4.”

Chapter 83

AN ACT RESPECTING THE PENSION PLAN OF CERTAIN EMPLOYEES OF THE COMMISSION DES ÉCOLES CATHOLIQUES DE QUÉBEC

[Assented to 21 November 1996]

THE PARLIAMENT OF QUÉBEC ENACTS AS FOLLOWS :

Amendment of pension plan

1. Notwithstanding section 125 of the Act respecting the Government and Public Employees Retirement Plan (R.S.Q., chapter R-10), the pension plan of certain employees of the Commission des écoles catholiques de Québec may be amended to the extent provided by this Act without increasing the member contributions, and the additional costs resulting therefrom shall be paid out of the actuarial surplus of the plan.

Annual indexing

2. Every pension in course of payment and payable to a member or to a surviving spouse under the provisions of the plan shall be indexed each year on 1 January

(1) for that part of the pension that pertains to service prior to the reference year of service, at the rate of increase in the Pension Index for the year within the meaning of the plan in relation to that of the preceding year;

(2) for that part of the pension that pertains to service from the reference year of service, at the rate by which the said rate exceeds 3%.

Adjustment

The first adjustment of any pension resulting from such indexing shall be in the proportion that the number of months in which the pension was paid during the year in which the member retired is of 12 months.

Reference year

For the purposes of the first paragraph, the reference year of service is 1990.

Adjustment

3. Every pension in course of payment on the date of effect of the amendment referred to in section 2 shall, where applicable, be adjusted from that date so that it is equal to the amount of pension that would be payable on that date had the part of the pension that pertains to service credited from 1984 to 1989 been indexed each year on 1 January from the date of retirement at the rate of increase in the Pension Index for the year within the meaning of the plan in relation to that of the preceding year.

Early retirement

4. Every member is entitled to early retirement from any date preceding the normal retirement date by not more than ten years. The amount of the early retirement pension shall be the amount of the normal pension reduced by

0.33% for each month between the date of retirement and the earliest date on which the member would have been entitled to a retirement pension without reduction.

Early retirement	5. Every active member at least 60 years of age or with at least 30 years of service is entitled to early retirement equal to the normal retirement pension credited at that time, without reduction, from the first day in the month following the date on which his employment ceases.
Applicability	The first paragraph applies to every active member who retires within the period extending from the date of effect of the amendment referred to in that paragraph to 30 June 1999.
Redemption	6. Every active member whose first day of employment is prior to the date on which he became a member of the plan is entitled to redeem all or part of the period of service prior to that latter date. Every active member is also entitled to redeem any leave without pay following a maternity leave.
Contribution	For the purpose of such redemption, the active member shall pay into the pension fund, in accordance with the provisions of the plan, a contribution determined according to the annual rate of salary on the date of his application for redemption, to the rate of member contribution in force on that date and to the period of redeemed service. The redeemed service shall be added to the service credited.
Maximum amount	The part of the retirement pension relating to the period of redeemed service shall not exceed, on the date of retirement, the amount obtained by multiplying two-thirds of the limit of the benefits determined, applicable in respect of the year of retirement under the Income Tax Act (Revised Statutes of Canada, 1985, chapter 1, 5th Supplement) by the number of years of redeemed service.
Deferral of reference year	7. The pension committee may, with the authorization of the Commission des écoles catholiques de Québec and the Government, defer the reference year of service referred to in section 2 and make the adjustment resulting from such deferral and corresponding to that which is provided in section 3, adapted as required, in respect of pensions in course of payment on the date of effect of the deferral, and extend the period referred to in the second paragraph of section 5 if the report on the actuarial valuation required under the Supplemental Pension Plans Act (R.S.Q., chapter R-15.1) shows the existence of a reserve sufficient to provide for the various risks covered by the plan and of an actuarial surplus sufficient to cover the total cost of the amendments.
Effect	8. The amendments provided for in sections 2 and 4 to 6 may have effect from 1 July 1995.
Coming into force	9. This Act comes into force on 21 November 1996.

An Act respecting Ville de Val-d'Or and the classified historic site of the mining village of Bourlamaque

[Assented to 30 October 1996]

Preamble

WHEREAS the mining village of Bourlamaque is a classified historic site pursuant to an entry to that effect made in the register of cultural property on 1 June 1979 under number IV-071, and whereas a notice of such entry was registered in the registry office of the registration division of Abitibi under number 174012;

Whereas such classification took effect on 20 December 1978, that date being the date on which the notice of intention of the Minister of Cultural Affairs, now called the "Minister of Culture and Communications", was sent to the owner of the immovable affected by the classification;

Whereas as of that date, the mining village of Bourlamaque was subject to the provisions of the Cultural Property Act (R.S.Q., chapter B-4) having regard to classified cultural property, and as a particular consequence, was subject to the requirement that various cadastral operations on the land situated on the site and various construction work on the immovables situated on the site be submitted for authorization to the Minister of Culture and Communications;

Whereas on 17 June 1979, in accordance with section 49 of the Cultural Property Act, as amended by section 21 of chapter 23 of the statutes of 1978, the Minister of Culture and Communications notified his approval of zoning By-law 790 and construction By-law 791 passed by Ville de Val-d'Or and that applied to the historic site of the mining village of Bourlamaque;

Whereas as a consequence of that approval, pursuant to the third paragraph of section 49 of the Cultural Property Act, as amended by section 21 of chapter 23 of the statutes of 1978, any operation subject to a regulatory provision approved by the Minister could not be undertaken in the mining village of Bourlamaque except in accordance with the terms and conditions provided for in the regulatory provision, and whereas such an operation no longer required the authorization of the Minister;

Whereas on 19 January 1981, the town council of Ville de Val-d'Or passed By-laws 869 and 870 which replaced By-laws 790 and 791, and whereas on 2 July 1985, the town council passed By-law 85-23 to amend By-law 869, but whereas, contrary to section 49 of the Cultural Property Act, as amended by section 21 of chapter 23 of the statutes of 1978, Ville de Val-d'Or did not submit the new by-laws for approval to the Minister of Culture and Communications;

Whereas on 2 June 1986, the town council of Ville de Val-d'Or passed By-law 86-33 to amend By-laws 869 and 870, but whereas, contrary to section 100 of the Cultural Property Act, enacted by section 41 of chapter 24 of the statutes of 1985, the town did not notify the Minister of Culture and Communications of the draft by-law;

Whereas municipal permits were issued in accordance with the terms and conditions of municipal By-laws 869, 870, 85-23 and 86-33;

Whereas the operations covered by the permits or, if applicable, that would also have been covered by the provisions of the Cultural Property Act having regard to authorizations of the Minister of Culture and Communications, were not authorized under that Act;

Whereas it is expedient to remedy any irregularities and illegalities that could be raised against acts performed pursuant to municipal By-laws 869, 870, 85-23 and 86-33;

THE PARLIAMENT OF QUÉBEC ENACTS AS FOLLOWS:

By-laws validated

1. By-law 869 entitled Règlement concernant la construction dans la Ville de Val-d'Or, passed on 19 January 1981, By-law 870 entitled Règlement concernant le zonage dans les limites de la Ville de Val-d'Or, passed on 19 January 1981, and By-law 85-23 to amend By-law 870, passed on 2 July 1985, are validated to the extent that they were not submitted for approval to the Minister responsible for the application of the Cultural Property Act (R.S.Q., chapter B-4), now called the "Minister of Culture and Communications", as required by section 49 of that Act, amended by section 21 of chapter 23 of the statutes of 1978.

By-law validated

2. By-law 86-33 to amend By-laws 869 and 870, passed on 2 June 1986, is validated to the extent that it was not the subject of a notice sent to the Minister of Culture and Communications as required by section 100 of the Cultural Property Act, enacted by section 41 of chapter 24 of the statutes of 1985.
