NOTE

This volume contains the text of Acts assented to in 2004.

It also contains information that enables the reader to locate an Act, to trace the stages of its consideration in the National Assembly and to determine its effects on existing legislation.

Each Act is preceded by an introductory page indicating, in addition to the chapter number and title of the Act, the corresponding bill number, the name of the Member who introduced the bill, the date of each stage of consideration in the National Assembly, the date of assent, the date or dates of coming into force if known on 1 March 2005, and a list of the Acts, regulations and orders in council amended by the Act.

The table of amendments is a cumulative listing of all amendments made to the Revised Statutes of Québec, 1977 and other public Acts, including amendments made by the Acts passed in 2004. It is followed by a table of general amendments and a table of corrections made for updating purposes since 1979 pursuant to the Act respecting the consolidation of the statutes and regulations (R.S.Q., chapter R-3).

A table of concordance lists the chapter number in the Revised Statutes of Québec assigned to Acts adopted between 1 January 2004 and 1 January 2005.

A table, compiled since 1964, shows the dates on which public legislative provisions came into force by proclamation or order in council. The next table enumerates legislative provisions which have yet to be brought into force by proclamation or order in council. Other tables contain information relating to letters patent, supplementary letters patent, orders, proclamations and orders in council required by law to be published.

Two more tables of concordance list, opposite each other, the bill number of each Act and its chapter number in the annual volume of statutes.

Most of the information described above can be found in the yellow pages of the volume. An index is provided at the end of the volume.

Outsized load.

“517.2. Where the load of a heavy vehicle that is outsized with respect to the total loaded mass is considered to be a full load for the purposes of transportation and the shipper, consignee and transport service intermediary fail to provide written information to the operator of the heavy vehicle referred to in Title VIII.1 that enables the operator to determine the mass of the load, they are guilty of an offence and are liable to the same penalty as that prescribed for the operator in paragraph 5 of section 517.1, whether or not the operator has been prosecuted or convicted. The same applies to any person having entrusted the load to the operator in charge of transporting the load.

Inaccurate information.

Where the mass determined on the basis of the information provided to the operator by one of the persons referred to in the first paragraph is less than that calculated by subtracting the net mass of the vehicle from the recorded total loaded mass, the person who provided the inaccurate information is guilty of an offence and is liable to either

(1) the same penalty as that prescribed in paragraph 5 of section 517.1 if the difference between the calculated mass and the mass previously determined is equal to or more than the overload ; the operator may only in that case be found guilty of the offence referred to in section 513 or 517.1 if it is proven that the operator was aware of the overload ; or

(2) a reduced penalty if the difference between the calculated mass and the determined mass is less than the overload ; the fine that may be imposed on the operator under paragraph 5 of section 517.1 must in that case be reduced by the amount of the fine imposed under this paragraph.

Fine.

For the purposes of subparagraph 2 of the second paragraph, the fine must be calculated by multiplying the amount of the penalty prescribed in paragraph 5 of section 517.1 by the result of the following operation, rounded off to the nearest dollar : the result obtained by subtracting the determined mass from the calculated mass, divided by the overload.

Full load for the purposes of transportation.

For the purposes of this section, a “load is considered to be a full load for the purposes of transportation” if all the goods making up the load are transported for one shipper only or to one destination only, or were loaded at the same place of shipment or consignment. In the absence of shipping documents, a load shall always be so considered. Where an outsized vehicle is being operated under a special permit, this section applies only if the total loaded mass limit authorized under the permit is exceeded; in that case, the penalty is calculated by applying subparagraph 3 of the third paragraph of section 513 rather than paragraph 5 of section 517.1.

Shipping documents.

The information contained in any item that may constitute the shipping documents prescribed by the Regulation respecting the requirements applicable to shipping documents, leasing contracts and contracts for services, made by Order in Council 61-2001 (2001, G.O. 2, 1132) is sufficient, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, to identify the shipper, consignee, transport service intermediary and any person having entrusted the load to the operator, and to establish the place of shipping, consignment and destination. The information contained in the registration certificate of a vehicle is sufficient, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, to establish the net mass of a vehicle.

Copies.

Copies of the items that may constitute the shipping documents, including printouts of computer files containing such items, are admissible as evidence of the information they contain in penal proceedings under this section, if the copies are dated and signed by the inspectors or peace officers who reproduced them. To be admissible as evidence for the purposes of the second paragraph, the written document containing the information allowing the mass of the load to be established must have been given to the peace officer when the vehicle was being weighed.”

| Consents. | 6. The adoption may proceed under subparagraph c of article 17 of the Convention only if the consents required for adoption have been given for the purposes of an adoption resulting in the dissolution of the pre-existing bond of filiation between the child and the child's family of origin. |

Adopter outside

CO-OPERATION IN RESPECT OF INTERCOUNTRY ADOPTION
(Concluded 29 May 1993)

The States signatory to the present Convention,

Recognizing that the child, for the full and harmonious development of his or her personality, should grow up in a family environment, in an atmosphere of happiness, love and understanding,

Recalling that each State should take, as a matter of priority, appropriate measures to enable the child to remain in the care of his or her family of origin,

Recognizing that intercountry adoption may offer the advantage of a permanent family to a child for whom a suitable family cannot be found in his or her State of origin,

Convinced of the necessity to take measures to ensure that intercountry adoptions are made in the best interests of the child and with respect for his or her fundamental rights, and to prevent the abduction, the sale of, or traffic in children,

Desiring to establish common provisions to this effect, taking into account the principles set forth in international instruments, in particular the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child, of 20 November 1989, and the United Nations Declaration on Social and Legal Principles relating to the Protection and Welfare of Children, with Special Reference to Foster Placement and Adoption Nationally and Internationally (General Assembly Resolution 41/85, of 3 December 1986),

Have agreed upon the following provisions:

CHAPTER I

SCOPE OF THE CONVENTION

Article 1

The objects of the present Convention are:

(a) to establish safeguards to ensure that intercountry adoptions take place in the best interests of the child and with respect for his or her fundamental rights as recognized in international law;

(b) to establish a system of co-operation amongst Contracting States to ensure that those safeguards are respected and thereby prevent the abduction, the sale of, or traffic in children;

(c) to secure the recognition in Contracting States of adoptions made in accordance with the Convention.

Article 2

(1) The Convention shall apply where a child habitually resident in one Contracting State (“the State of origin”) has been, is being, or is to be moved to another Contracting State (“the receiving State”) either after his or her adoption in the State of origin by spouses or a person habitually resident in the receiving State, or for the purposes of such an adoption in the receiving State or in the State of origin.

(2) The Convention covers only adoptions which create a permanent parent-child relationship.

Article 3

The Convention ceases to apply if the agreements mentioned in Article 17, sub-paragraph c, have not been given before the child attains the age of eighteen years.

CHAPTER II

REQUIREMENTS FOR INTERCOUNTRY ADOPTIONS

Article 4

An adoption within the scope of the Convention shall take place only if the competent authorities of the State of origin :

- (a) have established that the child is adoptable ;
- (b) have determined, after possibilities for placement of the child within the State of origin have been given due consideration, that an intercountry adoption is in the child’s best interests ;

(c) have ensured that :

(1) the persons, institutions and authorities whose consent is necessary for adoption, have been counselled as may be necessary and duly informed of the effects of their consent, in particular whether or not an adoption will result in the termination of the legal relationship between the child and his or her family of origin,

(2) such persons, institutions and authorities have given their consent freely, in the required legal form, and expressed or evidenced in writing,

(3) the consents have not been induced by payment or compensation of any kind and have not been withdrawn, and

(4) the consent of the mother, where required, has been given only after the birth of the child ; and

(d) have ensured, having regard to the age and degree of maturity of the child, that :

(1) he or she has been counselled and duly informed of the effects of the adoption and of his or her consent to the adoption, where such consent is required,

- (2) consideration has been given to the child's wishes and opinions,
- (3) the child's consent to the adoption, where such consent is required, has been given freely, in the required legal form, and expressed or evidenced in writing, and
- (4) such consent has not been induced by payment or compensation of any kind.

Article 5

An adoption within the scope of the Convention shall take place only if the competent authorities of the receiving State :

- (a) have determined that the prospective adoptive parents are eligible and suited to adopt ;
- (b) have ensured that the prospective adoptive parents have been counselled as may be necessary ; and

Article 10

Accreditation shall only be granted to and maintained by bodies demonstrating their competence to carry out properly the tasks with which they may be entrusted.

Article 14

Persons habitually resident in a Contracting State, who wish to adopt a child habitually resident in another Contracting State, shall apply to the Central Authority in the State of their habitual residence.

(a) prepare a report including information about his or her identity, adoptability, background, social environment, family history, medical history including that of the child's family, and any special needs of the child;

(b) give due consideration to the child's upbringing and to his or her ethnic, religious and cultural background;

(c) ensure that consents have been obtained in accordance with Article 4; and

(d) determine, on the basis in particular of the reports relating to the child and the prospective adoptive parents, whether the envisaged placement is in the best interests of the child.

(2) It shall transmit to the Central Authority of the receiving State its report on the child, proof that the necessary consents have been obtained and the reasons for its determination on the placement, taking care not to reveal the identity of the mother and the father if, in the State of origin, these identities may not be disclosed.

Article 17

Any decision in the State of origin that a child should be entrusted to prospective adoptive parents may only be made if:

(a) the Central Authority of that State has ensured that the prospective adoptive parents agree ;

(b) the Central Authority of the receiving State has approved such decision, where such approval is required by the law of that State or by the Central Authority of the State of origin ;

(c) the Central Authorities of both States have agreed that the adoption may proceed ; and

(d) it has been determined, in accordance with Article 5, that the prospective adoptive parents are eligible and suited to adopt and that the child is or will be authorized to enter and reside permanently in the receiving State.

Article 18

The Central Authorities of both States shall take all necessary steps to obtain permission for the child to leave the State of origin and to enter and reside permanently in the receiving State.

Article 19

(1) The transfer of the child to the receiving State may only be carried out if the requirements of Article 17 have been satisfied.

(2) The Central Authorities of both States shall ensure that this transfer takes place in secure and appropriate circumstances and, if possible, in the company of the adoptive or prospective adoptive parents.

(3) If the transfer of the child does not take place, the reports referred to in Articles 15 and 16 are to be sent back to the authorities who forwarded them.

Article 20

The Central Authorities shall keep each other informed about the adoption process and the measures taken to complete it, as well as about the progress of the placement if a probationary period is required.

Article 21

(1) Where the adoption is to take place after the transfer of the child to the receiving State and it appears to the Central Authority of that State that the continued placement of the child with the prospective adoptive parents is not in the child's best interests, such Central Authority shall take the measures necessary to protect the child, in particular :

(a) to cause the child to be withdrawn from the prospective adoptive parents and to arrange temporary care ;

(b) in consultation with the Central Authority of the State of origin, to arrange without delay a new placement of the child with a view to adoption or, if this is not appropriate, to arrange alternative long-term care ; an adoption shall not take place until the Central Authority of the State of origin has been duly informed concerning the new prospective adoptive parents ;

(c) as a last resort, to arrange the return of the child, if his or her interests so require.

(2) Having regard in particular to the age and degree of maturity of the child, he or she shall be consulted and, where appropriate, his or her consent obtained in relation to measures to be taken under this Article.

Article 22

(1) The functions of a Central Authority under this Chapter may be performed by public authorities or by bodies accredited under Chapter III, to the extent permitted by the law of its State.

(2) Any Contracting State may declare to the depositary of the Convention that the functions of the Central Authority under Articles 15 to 21 may be performed in that State, to the extent permitted by the law and subject to the supervision of the competent authorities of that State, also by bodies or persons who :

(4) Any Contracting State may declare to the depositary of the Convention that adoptions of children habitually resident in its territory may only take place if the functions of the Central Authorities are performed in accordance with paragraph 1.

(5) Notwithstanding any declaration made under paragraph 2, the reports provided for in Articles 15 and 16 shall, in every case, be prepared under the responsibility of the Central Authority or other authorities or bodies in accordance with paragraph 1.

CHAPTER V

RECOGNITION AND EFFECTS OF THE ADOPTION

Article 23

(1) An adoption certified by the competent authority of the State of the adoption as having been made in accordance with the Convention shall be recognized by operation of law in the other Contracting States. The certificate shall specify when and by whom the agreements under Article 17, subparagraph c, were given.

(2) Each Contracting State shall, at the time of signature, ratification, acceptance, approval or accession, notify the depositary of the Convention of the identity and the functions of the authority or the authorities which, in that State, are competent to make the certification. It shall also notify the depositary of any modification in the designation of these authorities.

Article 24

 - (a) the legal parent-child relationship between the child and his or her adoptive parents;

- (2) In the case of an adoption having the effect of terminating a pre-existing legal parent-child relationship, the child shall enjoy in the receiving State, and in any other Contracting State where the adoption is recognized, rights equivalent to those resulting from adoptions having this effect in each such State.
- (3) The preceding paragraphs shall not prejudice the application of any provision more favourable for the child, in force in the Contracting State which recognizes the adoption.

Article 27

- (1) Where an adoption granted in the State of origin does not have the effect of terminating a pre-existing legal parent-child relationship, it may, in the receiving State which recognizes the adoption under the Convention, be converted into an adoption having such an effect:
 - (a) if the law of the receiving State so permits; and
 - (b) if the consents referred to in Article 4, sub-paragraphs c and d, have been or are given for the purpose of such an adoption.

25. The said Act is amended by inserting the following sections after section 40.1 :

Authorization following information.

“40.1.1. A judge of the Court of Québec may, on an ex parte application following an information laid in writing and under oath by a public servant of the Ministère du Revenu authorized by regulation, issue an authorization in writing permitting any public servant of the Ministère du Revenu to use any investigative technique or procedure or do anything described by the judge that would, if not so authorized, constitute an unreasonable search or seizure in respect of a person or a person’s property ; the public servant so authorized may call upon the assistance of a peace officer.

Respect for privacy.

The judge may not, however, authorize the interception of a private communication, as defined in section 183 of the Criminal Code (Revised Statutes of Canada, 1985, chapter C-46). Nor may the judge authorize the observation by means of a television camera or other similar electronic device of any person who is engaged in an activity in circumstances in which the person has a reasonable expectation of privacy.

Conditions.

The judge may issue the authorization if the judge is satisfied

(a) that there are reasonable grounds to believe that an offence against a fiscal law for which a person is liable to imprisonment has been or will be committed and information concerning the offence will be obtained through the use of the technique, procedure or device or the doing of the thing ;

(b) that it is in the best interests of the administration of justice to issue the authorization ; and

(c) that there is no other provision in a fiscal law or in the Code of Penal Procedure (chapter C-25.1) that would provide for a warrant, authorization or order permitting the technique, procedure or device to be used or the thing to be done.

Interpretation.

Nothing in the first paragraph shall be construed as permitting interference with the physical integrity of any person.

Reasonable search or seizure.

The authorization shall set out such terms and conditions as the judge considers appropriate, in the circumstances, to ensure that the search or seizure is reasonable, to protect the reasonable expectation of privacy and to protect lawyers' and notaries' professional secrecy.

Notice.

In the case of an authorization to enter and search a place covertly, the judge shall require that notice of the entry and search be given after its execution within the time that the judge considers appropriate in the circumstances.

Extension.

Where the judge who grants an authorization to enter and search covertly or any other judge having jurisdiction to grant such an authorization is satisfied, on an ex parte application made on the basis of an affidavit submitted in support of an application for extension of the period referred to in the sixth paragraph, that the interests of justice warrant the granting of the application, the judge may grant an extension, or a subsequent extension, of the period, but no extension may exceed one year.

Time limit for execution.

The execution of an authorization issued under this section may not commence more than 15 days after it is issued or end more than 30 days after the expiry of that 15-day period. However, where the judge is satisfied, on an ex parte application made on the basis of an affidavit submitted in support of an application for extension to complete the execution of the authorization, that the interests of justice warrant the granting of the application, the judge may grant an extension of not more than 30 days. The execution of the authorization may not commence, without the written authorization of the judge who granted it, before 7 a.m. or after 8 p.m., or on a non-judicial day.

Telewarrant.

The authorization provided for in this section may be obtained by telewarrant in accordance with the procedure set out in the Code of Penal Procedure, with the necessary modifications.

Order to assist.

“40.1.2. The judge who granted an authorization under section 40 or 40.1.1 may order any person to provide assistance, where the person's assistance may reasonably be considered to be required to give effect to the authorization.

Order to communicate.

“40.1.3. At an inquiry relating to an offence against a fiscal law or a regulation made by the Government under a fiscal law, a judge of the Court of Québec may, on an ex parte application following an information laid in writing and under oath by a public servant of the Ministère du Revenu, order a person, other than the person under inquiry,

(a) to produce documents, or copies of them certified by affidavit to be true copies, or to produce information; or

(b) to prepare a document based on documents or information already in existence and produce it.

Content. The order shall require the documents or information to be produced within the time, at the place and in the form specified and given to a public servant named in the order.

Grounds. Before making an order, the judge must be satisfied that there are reasonable grounds to believe that

(a) an offence against a fiscal law or a regulation made by the Government under a fiscal law is being or has been committed;

(b) the documents or information will afford evidence respecting the commission of the offence; and

(c) the person who is subject of the order has possession or control of the documents or information.

Terms and conditions. The order may contain any terms and conditions that the judge considers appropriate, including terms and conditions to protect lawyers' and notaries' professional secrecy.

Variation or revocation of order or new time limit. Where the judge who makes the order or any other judge having jurisdiction to make such an order is satisfied, on an ex parte application made on the basis of an affidavit submitted by a public servant of the Ministère du Revenu in support of the application, that the interests of justice warrant the granting of the application, the judge may vary or revoke the order or set a new time limit.

Keeping of documents. The documents or information so produced shall be kept until they are produced in judicial proceedings.

Copies. Every copy of a document produced under this section, on proof by affidavit that it is a true copy, is admissible in evidence in any proceeding and has the same probative force as the original document would have if it had been proved in the ordinary way."

(2) a reference to section 217.15 of the said Act, has effect from 1 January 1995;

c. I-3, s. 23, am.

13. (1) Section 23 of the said Act is amended by replacing the second and third paragraphs by the following paragraphs:

Taxable income of a resident.

“The taxable income, for the taxation year, of an individual referred to in the first paragraph who was resident in Québec on that day is the amount by which the amount determined under the third paragraph exceeds the aggregate of

(a) the deductions permitted by sections 727, 728.1, 729 and 733.0.0.1 and, to the extent that they relate to amounts included in computing an amount referred to in the third paragraph, the deductions permitted by sections 725, 725.1.2 and 725.2 to 725.4; and

(b) any other deduction permitted by Book IV, to the extent that

i. the deduction can reasonably be considered to be attributable to the part of the year throughout which the individual was resident in Canada, or

ii. if all or substantially all of the individual's income for the part of the year throughout which the individual was not resident in Canada is included in the amount referred to in the third paragraph, the deduction can reasonably be considered to be attributable to that part of the year.

Computation of amount.

"The amount to which the second paragraph refers is the amount that would be the individual's income for the year if, for the part of the year throughout which the individual was not resident in Canada, only the following elements were taken into account:

(a) the elements described in section 1090; and

(b) the income that would be included in computing the individual's income earned in Canada for the year under subparagraph g of the first paragraph of section 1090 if the part of the year throughout which the individual was not resident in Canada were a whole taxation year."

(2) Subsection 1 applies from the taxation year 1998.

c. I-3, s. 58.2, am.

14. (1) Section 58.2 of the said Act is amended

(1) by replacing the portion before paragraph b by the following:

Rebate in respect of the goods and services tax.

"58.2. Where an amount in respect of a particular outlay or particular expense is deducted under Chapter III in computing the income of a taxpayer for a taxation year from an office or employment, or an amount is included in the capital cost to the taxpayer of a particular property described in section 64 or 78.4, and a particular amount is paid to the taxpayer in a particular taxation year as a rebate under the Excise Tax Act (Revised Statutes of Canada, 1985, chapter E-15) in respect of any goods and services tax included in the amount of the particular outlay or particular expense or the capital cost of the particular property, as the case may be, the particular amount,

(a) to the extent that it relates to the particular outlay or particular expense, shall be included in computing the taxpayer's income from an office or employment for the particular year; and";

(2) by replacing "aux fins" in the French text of paragraph b by "pour l'application".

(2) Subsection 1 applies from the taxation year 2002.

c. I-3, s. 58.3, am.

Rebate in respect of the Québec sales tax.

“58.3. Where an amount in respect of a particular outlay or particular expense is deducted under Chapter III in computing the income of a taxpayer for a taxation year from an office or employment, or an amount is included in the capital cost to the taxpayer of a particular property described in section 64 or 78.4, and a particular amount is paid to the taxpayer in a particular taxation year as a rebate under the Act respecting the Québec sales tax (chapter T-0.1) in respect of any Québec sales tax included in the amount of the particular outlay or particular expense or the capital cost of the particular property, as the case may be, the particular amount,

(a) to the extent that it relates to the particular outlay or particular expense, shall be included in computing the taxpayer’s income from an office or employment for the particular year; and”;

(2) by replacing “aux fins” in the French text of paragraph b by “pour l’application”.

(2) Subsection 1 applies from the taxation year 2002.

c. I-3, Div. V.2,
ss. 75.2-75.5, added.

16. (1) The said Act is amended by inserting the following after section 75.1:

“DIVISION V.2

“APPRENTICE MECHANICS

Definitions:

“75.2. In this division,

“eligible apprentice

“eligible apprentice mechanic”, at any time in a taxation year, means an individual who, at that time,

(a) is registered in a program established in accordance with the laws of a province that leads to designation under those laws as a mechanic licensed to repair self-propelled motorized vehicles; and

(b) is employed as an apprentice mechanic;

“eligible tool”.

“eligible tool” of an individual means a tool, including ancillary equipment, that

(a) is acquired by the individual for use in connection with the individual’s employment as an eligible apprentice mechanic;

(b) has not been used for any purpose before it is acquired by the individual; and

(c) is certified in a prescribed form signed by the individual's employer to be required to be provided by the individual as a condition of, and for use in, the individual's employment as an eligible apprentice mechanic.

Eligible apprentice mechanic.

For the purposes of paragraph a of the definition of "eligible apprentice mechanic" in the first paragraph, an individual is considered to be registered in a program established in accordance with the laws of a province that leads to designation under those laws as a mechanic licensed to repair self-propelled motorized vehicles if the individual holds an apprenticeship card issued by a parity committee of the automobile industry formed pursuant to the laws of a province, to obtain from that committee designation as a mechanic licensed to repair self-propelled motorized vehicles.

Deduction.

"75.3. An individual who is an eligible apprentice mechanic at any time in the year after 31 December 2001 may deduct an amount not exceeding the lesser of

(a) the individual's income for the year computed without reference to this section; and

(b) the amount determined by the formula

$$(A - B) + C.$$

Interpretation.

In the formula provided for in subparagraph b of the first paragraph,

(a) A is the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the cost to the individual of an eligible tool acquired in the year by the individual or, if the individual first becomes employed as an eligible apprentice mechanic in the year, the cost to the individual of an eligible tool acquired by the individual in the last three months of the preceding taxation year;

(b) B is the lesser of

i. the aggregate determined for the year under subparagraph a in respect of the individual, and

ii. the greater of $1,000 and 5% of the aggregate of all amounts, each of which is the individual's income from employment for the year as an eligible apprentice mechanic, computed without reference to this section; and

(c) C is the amount by which the amount determined under subparagraph b of the first paragraph for the preceding taxation year in respect of the individual exceeds the amount deducted under this section for that preceding taxation year by the individual.

Certification by employer.

No amount may be deducted for the year by an individual under the first paragraph, unless the individual files with the Minister, together with the individual's fiscal return for the year under this Part, the prescribed form referred to in paragraph c of the definition of "eligible tool" in the first paragraph of section 75.2.

Carry-over of excess.

"75.4. An individual who, at any time in the year, is not an eligible apprentice mechanic and has an excess amount determined under subparagraph c of the second paragraph of section 75.3 is, for that year, entitled to deduct an amount under section 75.3 as if that excess amount were wholly applicable to an employment of the individual.

Cost of tools.

"75.5. Except for the purposes of subparagraph a of the second paragraph of section 75.3, the cost to an individual of an eligible tool the cost of which was included in computing the aggregate determined under that subparagraph in respect of the individual for a taxation year is the amount determined by the formula

$$A - (A \times B/C).$$

Interpretation.

In the formula provided for in the first paragraph,

(a) A is the cost to the individual of the eligible tool, computed without reference to this section;

(b) B is the amount that would be determined under subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 75.3 in respect of the individual for the year if the excess amount determined under subparagraph c of the second paragraph of that section were nil; and

(c) C is the aggregate determined under subparagraph a of the second paragraph of section 75.3 in respect of the individual for the year."

(2) Subsection 1 applies in respect of eligible tools acquired after 31 December 2001.

c. I-3, ss. 83.0.4-83.0.6, added.

17. (1) The said Act is amended by inserting the following sections after section 83.0.3:

Withdrawal of property from inventory.

"83.0.4. Where at a particular time a taxpayer not resident in Canada ceases to use, in relation to a business or part of a business carried on by the taxpayer in Canada immediately before that time, a property that was immediately before that time described in the inventory of the business or the part of the business, other than a property that was disposed of by the taxpayer at that time, the following rules apply:

(a) the taxpayer is deemed to have disposed of the property immediately before that time for proceeds of disposition equal to its fair market value at that time; and

(b) the taxpayer is deemed to have received those proceeds immediately before that time in the course of carrying on the business or the part of the business.

Property added to inventory.

“83.0.5. Where at a particular time a property becomes described in the inventory of a business or part of a business that a taxpayer not resident in Canada carries on in Canada after that time, other than a property that was, otherwise than because of this section, acquired by the taxpayer at that time, the taxpayer is deemed to have acquired the property at that time at a cost equal to its fair market value at that time.

Work in progress.

“83.0.6. For the purposes of sections 83.0.4 and 83.0.5, property that is described in the inventory of a business includes property that would be so described if section 215 did not apply.”

(2) Subsection 1 has effect from 24 December 1998.

c. I-3, s. 93.3.1, am.

18. (1) Section 93.3.1 of the said Act is amended

(1) by replacing “corporation, trust” in subparagraph a of the first paragraph by “person”;

(2) by replacing “section 785.1, 785.2 or” in subparagraph 3 of subparagraph iii of subparagraph b of the second paragraph by “Chapter I of Title I.1 of Book VI or section”.

(2) Paragraph 1 of subsection 1 has effect from 1 December 1999. However, it does not apply in respect of the disposition of a property before 1 July 2000 by an individual, other than a trust, if the individual so elects by notifying the Minister of Revenue in writing on or before the individual’s filing-due date for the individual’s taxation year that includes 14 June 2001, and the disposition was made

(1) to a person who was obliged on 30 November 1999 to acquire the property pursuant to an agreement in writing made on or before that day; or

(2) in a transaction, or as part of a series of transactions, the arrangements for which, evidenced in writing, were substantially advanced before 1 December 1999, other than a transaction or series of transactions a main purpose of which can reasonably be considered to have been to enable an unrelated person to obtain the benefit, for the purposes of Part I of this Act, of any deduction in computing income, taxable income, taxable income earned in Canada or tax payable under that Part I, or any balance of undeducted outlays, expenses or other amounts.

(3) Paragraph 2 of subsection 1 has effect from 1 January 1996.

c. I-3, s. 93.14, added.

19. The said Act is amended by inserting the following section after section 93.13:

Presumption.

“93.14. Notwithstanding paragraph a of section 130R101 of the Regulation respecting the Taxation Act (R.R.Q., 1981, chapter I-3, r.1), the classes of property prescribed for the purposes of any regulations made under paragraph a of section 130 or section 130.1 are deemed to include, for taxation years that end after 31 December 1987 and before 6 December 1996, property of a taxpayer that, if the Act were read without reference to Divisions I to IV.1 of Chapter X of Title VI, would be included in one of the classes.”

c. I-3, s. 106.4, am.

20. (1) Section 106.4 of the said Act is amended by replacing “section 785.1, 785.2 or” in subparagraph iii of subparagraph a of the second paragraph by “Chapter I of Title I.1 of Book VI or section”.

(2) Subsection 1 has effect from 1 January 1996.

c. I-3, ss. 106.5 and 106.6, added.

21. (1) The said Act is amended by inserting the following sections after section 106.4:

Deemed disposition.

“106.5. Where at a particular time a taxpayer not resident in Canada ceases to use, in connection with a business or part of a business carried on by the taxpayer in Canada immediately before the particular time, a property that was immediately before the particular time intangible capital property of the taxpayer, other than a property that was disposed of by the taxpayer at the particular time, the taxpayer is deemed to have disposed of the property immediately before the particular time for proceeds of disposition equal to the amount determined by the formula

$$A - B.$$

Interpretation.

In the formula provided for in the first paragraph,

(a) A is the fair market value of the property immediately before the particular time; and

(b) B is

i. where at a previous time before the particular time the taxpayer ceased to use the property in connection with a business or part of a business carried on by the taxpayer outside Canada and began to use it in connection with a business or part of a business carried on by the taxpayer in Canada, the amount by which the fair market value of the property at the previous time exceeded its cost to the taxpayer at the previous time, and

ii. in any other case, an amount equal to zero.

Deemed disposition.

“106.6. Where at a particular time a taxpayer not resident in Canada ceases to use, in connection with a business or part of a business carried on by the taxpayer outside Canada immediately before the particular time, and begins to use, in connection with a business or part of a business carried on by the taxpayer in Canada, a property that is an intangible capital property of the taxpayer, the taxpayer is deemed to have disposed of the property immediately before the particular time and to have reacquired the property at the particular time for consideration equal to the lesser of the cost to the taxpayer of the property immediately before the particular time and its fair market value immediately before the particular time.”

(2) Subsection 1 has effect from 28 June 1999 in respect of authorized foreign banks, and from 9 August 2000 in any other case.

c. I-3, s. 127.1, am.

22. (1) Section 127.1 of the said Act is amended by replacing the definition of “exempt loan or transfer” by the following definition:

“exempt loan or transfer”.

(a) a loan made by a corporation resident in Canada where the interest rate charged on the loan is not less than the interest rate that a lender and a borrower would have been willing to agree to if they were dealing with each other at arm’s length at the time the loan was made;

(b) a transfer of property by a corporation resident in Canada, other than a transfer of property made for the purpose of acquiring shares of the capital stock of a foreign affiliate of a corporation or a foreign affiliate of a person resident in Canada with whom the corporation was not dealing at arm’s length, or payment of an amount by a corporation resident in Canada pursuant to an agreement made on terms and conditions that persons who were dealing with each other at arm’s length at the time the agreement was entered into would have been willing to agree to;

(c) a dividend paid by a corporation resident in Canada on shares of a class of its capital stock; or

(d) a payment made by a corporation resident in Canada on a reduction of the paid-up capital in respect of shares of a class of its capital stock, not exceeding the total amount of the reduction;”.

(2) Subsection 1 applies to taxation years that begin after 23 February 1998.

c. I-3, ss. 127.3.1-127.3.3, added.

23. (1) The said Act is amended by inserting the following sections after section 127.3:

Rule for determining whether persons are related.

“127.3.1. For the purposes of this division, in determining whether persons are related to each other at any time, any rights referred to in paragraph b of section 20 that exist at that time are deemed not to exist at that time to the extent that the exercise of those rights is prohibited at that time under a law of the country under the jurisdiction of which the corporation was formed or last continued and is governed, that restricts the foreign ownership or control of the corporation.

Multiple loans.

“127.3.2. For the purposes of section 127.7 and paragraph b of section 127.8, where an intermediate lender makes a loan to an intended borrower, and that loan arises out of another loan which the intermediate lender received from an initial lender, the following rules apply:

(a) the loan made by the intermediate lender to the intended borrower is deemed to have been made by the initial lender to the intended borrower, to the extent of the lesser of the amount of that loan and the amount of the loan made by the initial lender to the intermediate lender, under the same terms and conditions and at the same time as it was made by the intermediate lender; and

(b) the loan made by the initial lender to the intermediate lender and the loan made by the intermediate lender to the intended borrower are deemed not to have been made to the extent of the amount of the loan deemed to have been made under subparagraph a.

Interpretation.

For the purposes of the first paragraph, the expressions “intermediate lender”, “intended borrower” and “initial lender” refer to a person not resident in Canada or a partnership each member of which is not resident in Canada.

Rule for determining whether persons are related.

“127.3.3. For the purpose of applying paragraph b of section 127.8 in respect of a corporation resident in Canada, in determining whether persons described in subparagraph i of that paragraph b are related to each other at any time, any rights referred to in paragraph b of section 20 that otherwise exist at that time are deemed not to exist at that time where, if the rights were exercised immediately before that time,

(a) all of those persons would at that time be controlled foreign affiliates of the corporation resident in Canada; and

(b) because of section 127.13, section 127.6 would not apply to the corporation in respect of the amount that would, but for this section, have been deemed to have been owing at that time to the corporation by the person not resident in Canada described in subparagraph i of paragraph b of section 127.8.”

(2) Subsection 1 applies to taxation years that begin after 23 February 1998.

c. I-3, s. 133.6, added.

24. (1) The said Act is amended by inserting the following section after section 133.5:

31. (1) Section 175.1 of the said Act is amended

Limitation on outlay or expense.

"(1) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, a taxpayer shall not, in computing the taxpayer's income for a taxation year from a business or property other than income from a business computed in accordance with the method authorized by section 194, make any deduction in respect of an outlay or expense to the extent that it can reasonably be regarded as having been made or incurred

(a) as consideration for services to be rendered after the end of the year;

(b) as consideration for insurance in respect of a period after the end of the year, other than, where the taxpayer is an insurer, consideration for reinsurance; or

(c) as, or in lieu of, full or partial payment of interest, tax or taxes other than taxes payable by an insurer in relation to the insurance premiums of a policy referred to in paragraph a or b of subsection 4, rent or royalty in respect of a period that is after the end of the year.";

c. I-3, ss. 175.2.8-175.2.15, added.

Definitions:

“175.2.8. For the purposes of this section and sections 175.2.9 to 175.2.11,

“branch advance”;

“branch advance” of an authorized foreign bank means an amount allocated or provided by, or on behalf of, the bank to, or for the benefit of, its Canadian banking business under terms that were documented, before the amount was so allocated or provided, to the same extent as, and in a form similar to the form in which, the bank would ordinarily document a loan by it to a person with whom it deals at arm's length;

“branch financial statements”;

“branch financial statements” of an authorized foreign bank for a taxation year means the unconsolidated statements of assets and liabilities and of income and expenses, in relation to its Canadian banking business,

(a) that form part of the bank's annual report for the year filed with the Superintendent of Financial Institutions of Canada as required under section 601 of the Bank Act (Statutes of Canada, 1991, chapter 46), and accepted by the Superintendent; and

(b) if such a report is not required to be filed for the year, that are prepared in a manner consistent with the statements in the annual report or reports so filed and accepted for the period or periods in which the year falls;

“calculation period” of an authorized foreign bank for a taxation year means any one of a series of regular periods into which the year is divided in a designation by the bank in its fiscal return for the year or, in the absence of such a designation, by the Minister,

(a) none of which is longer than 31 days;

(b) the first of which commences at the beginning of the year and the last of which ends at the end of the year; and

(c) that are, unless the Minister otherwise agrees in writing, consistent with the calculation periods designated by the bank for its preceding taxation year.

Special rule.

If the Minister demonstrates that the statements referred to in the definition of “branch financial statements” in the first paragraph are not prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in Canada as modified by any specifications applicable to the bank made by the Superintendent of Financial Institutions of Canada under subsection 4 of section 308 of the Bank Act, in this paragraph referred to as “modified accounting principles”, the expression “branch financial statements” means the statements subject to such modifications as are required to make them comply with modified accounting principles.

Deduction of interest.

“175.2.9. In computing the income of an authorized foreign bank from its Canadian banking business for a taxation year, there may be deducted on account of interest for each calculation period of the bank for the year,

(a) where the total amount at the end of the period of its branch advances and debts to other persons and partnerships is 95% or more of the amount of its assets at that time, an amount not exceeding

i. if the amount of debts to other persons and partnerships at that time is less than 95% of the amount of its assets at that time, the amount determined by the formula

$$E + D \times (0.95 \times A - C) / B, \text{ and}$$

ii. if the amount of debts to other persons and partnerships at that time is equal to or greater than 95% of the amount of its assets at that time, the amount determined by the formula

$$(0.95 \times A) - (B + C).$$

Interpretation.

In the formulas provided for in the first paragraph,

(a) A is the amount of the bank's assets at the end of the period;

(b) B is the amount of the bank's branch advances at the end of the period;

(c) C is the amount of the bank's debts to other persons and partnerships at the end of the period;

(d) D is the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a reasonable amount on account of notional interest for the period, in respect of a branch advance, that would be deductible in computing the bank's income for the year if it were interest payable by, and the advance were indebtedness of, the bank to another person and if this Act were read without reference to sections 133.6 and 175.2.8 to 175.2.11; and

(e) E is the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount on account of interest for the period in respect of a debt of the bank to another person or partnership that would be deductible in computing the bank's income for the year if this Act were read without reference to sections 133.6 and 175.2.8 to 175.2.11.

Amounts used for the application of section 175.2.9.

“175.2.10. Only amounts that are in respect of an authorized foreign bank's Canadian banking business, and that are entered in the accounting records of the business in a manner consistent with the manner in which they are required to be treated for the purposes of the branch financial statements, shall be used to determine the amounts referred to in the first paragraph of section 175.2.9 of an authorized foreign bank's assets, debts to other persons and partnerships, and branch advances, and the amounts in the second paragraph of section 175.2.9.

Notional interest.

“175.2.11. For the purposes of subparagraph d of the second paragraph of section 175.2.9, a reasonable amount on account of notional interest for a calculation period in respect of a branch advance is the amount that would be payable on account of interest for the period by a notional borrower, having regard to the duration of the advance, the currency in which repayment is required and all other terms, as determined with reference to paragraph c, of the advance, if

(a) the borrower were a person that carried on the bank's Canadian banking business, that dealt at arm's length with the bank and that had the same credit-worthiness and borrowing capacity as the bank;

(b) the advance were a loan by the bank to the borrower; and

(c) any of the terms of the advance, excluding the rate of interest, but including the structure of the interest calculation, such as whether the rate is fixed or floating and the choice of any reference rate referred to, that are not terms that would be made between the bank as lender and the borrower, having regard to all the circumstances, including the nature of the Canadian banking business, the use of the advanced funds in the business and normal risk management practices for banks, were instead terms that would be agreed to by the bank and the borrower.

(a) the foreign resource expenses, in relation to the foreign country, incurred by the taxpayer

i. before the particular time, and

ii. at a time, in this section and section 418.1.4 referred to as a “resident time”, at which the taxpayer was resident in Canada and, where the taxpayer became resident in Canada before the particular time, that is after the last time before the particular time, that the taxpayer became resident in Canada;

Deductions in computing cumulative foreign resource expense.

“418.1.4. The aggregate which, for the purposes of section 418.1.3, must be determined under this section, is the aggregate of

(a) each amount deducted in computing the taxpayer’s income for a taxation year ending before the particular time and at a resident time, in respect of the taxpayer’s cumulative foreign resource expense in relation to the foreign country;

(b) each amount in respect of a foreign resource property, in relation to the foreign country, in section 418.1.5 referred to as the “particular property”, disposed of by the taxpayer equal to the amount by which the amount designated under subparagraph ii of paragraph a of section 330 by the taxpayer in respect of the portion of the proceeds of that disposition that became receivable before the particular time and at a resident time exceeds the excess amount determined under section 418.1.5;

(c) each amount in respect of the foreign country that is included in the amount determined under this paragraph by reason of section 390.1 that became receivable by the taxpayer before the particular time and at a resident time;

(d) each amount received by the taxpayer before the particular time and at a resident time in respect of a debt referred to in paragraph c of section 418.1.3;

Computation of amount.

The first amount referred to in the first paragraph is the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that would be determined under the second paragraph of section 418.17.3, immediately before the time, in this section referred to as the “relevant time”, when such proceeds of disposition became receivable, in respect of the taxpayer, the foreign country and an original owner of the particular property, or of any other property acquired by the taxpayer with the particular property in circumstances to which section 418.17.3 applied and in respect of which the proceeds of disposition became receivable by the taxpayer at the relevant time, if

(a) amounts that became receivable at or after the relevant time were not taken into account;

(b) the second paragraph of section 418.17.3 were read without reference to “30% of”; and

(c) no reduction under section 485.8 at or after the relevant time were taken into account.

Computation of amount.

The second amount referred to in the first paragraph is the total of

In this chapter, the adjusted cumulative foreign resource expense of a taxpayer at the end of a taxation year, in relation to a country, means the aggregate of the cumulative foreign resource expense of the taxpayer, in relation to that country, at the end of the year, and the amount by which the aggregate determined for the year under paragraph a of section 418.32.2 in respect of the taxpayer and that country exceeds the amount that would, but for subparagraph ii of paragraph e.1 of section 330, be determined for the year under that paragraph e.1 in respect of the taxpayer and that country.

Foreign resource income.

“418.1.7. In this division, the foreign resource income of a taxpayer for a taxation year, in relation to a country other than Canada, means the total of

(b) the taxpayer's income for the year from royalties in respect of a natural accumulation of petroleum or natural gas in that country, an oil or gas well in that country or a mine in that country, determined without reference to sections 371 and 418.1.10; and

Foreign resource loss.

“418.1.8. In this division, the foreign resource loss of a taxpayer for a taxation year in relation to a country other than Canada means the amount of that loss computed, with the necessary modifications, in accordance with section 418.1.7.

Global foreign resource limit.

“418.1.9. In this division, the global foreign resource limit of a taxpayer for a taxation year means the amount that is the lesser of

(a) the amount by which the amount determined under paragraph b of section 374 in respect of the taxpayer for the year exceeds the total of

i. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the maximum amount that the taxpayer would be permitted to deduct, in relation to a country, under section 418.1.10 in computing the taxpayer's income for the year if, in its application to the year, that section were read without reference to paragraph b thereof, and

ii. the amount deducted under section 371 in computing the taxpayer's income for the year; and

(b) the amount by which 30% of the aggregate of all amounts each of which is, at the end of the year, the taxpayer's adjusted cumulative foreign resource expense in relation to a country exceeds the aggregate described in subparagraph i of paragraph a.

(a) the greater of

i. 10% of an amount, in this section referred to as a “particular amount”, equal to the taxpayer’s adjusted cumulative foreign resource expense in relation to that country at the end of the year, and

ii. the least of

(1) if the taxpayer ceases to be resident in Canada immediately after the end of the year, the particular amount,

(2) if subparagraph 1 does not apply, 30% of the particular amount,

(4) the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the taxpayer’s foreign resource income for the year in relation to a country exceeds the total of the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the taxpayer’s foreign resource loss for the year in relation to a country and the amount deducted under section 371 in computing the taxpayer’s income for the year; and

(b) the lesser of

i. the amount by which the particular amount exceeds the amount determined for the year under paragraph a in respect of the taxpayer, and

i. the taxpayer’s specified foreign exploration and development expenses in relation to that country, and

ii. the profits or gains to which those expenses relate; and

(b) not inconsistent with the allocation made under section 418.17.1 for the preceding taxation year.

Deduction.

“418.17.3. Subject to sections 418.22 and 418.24, where a corporation acquires, in any manner whatever, a particular foreign resource property, in this section referred to as the “particular property”, in relation to a particular country, there may be deducted by the corporation in computing its income for a taxation year an amount not exceeding the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount equal to the lesser of the amount described in the second paragraph and the amount described in the third paragraph determined in respect of an original owner of the particular property.

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a particular amount, reduced by the portion of that amount provided for in the fifth paragraph, that became receivable by a predecessor owner of the particular property, or by the corporation in the year or a preceding taxation year, and that i. was included by the predecessor owner or the corporation in computing an amount determined, without reference to section 418.1.5, under paragraph b of section 418.1.4 at the end of the year, and

ii. can reasonably be attributed to the disposition of a property, in the fifth paragraph referred to as the "particular resource property", that is the particular property or another foreign resource property, in relation to the particular country, that was acquired from the original owner with the particular property by the corporation or a predecessor owner of the particular property; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount by which the amount determined under this paragraph is required by reason of section 485.8 to be reduced at or before the end of the year.

Computation of amount.

The last amount to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the amount by which the amount determined under the fourth paragraph is exceeded by the aggregate of

(a) the lesser of

i. the part of the corporation's income for the year, determined before any deduction under section 88.4 of the Act respecting the application of the Taxation Act (chapter I-4) or any of sections 359 to 419.6, that can reasonably be attributed to the production from the particular property, and

ii. where the corporation acquires the particular property from the original owner at any time in the year, otherwise than as a result of an amalgamation or merger or solely by reason of the application of paragraph a of section 418.26 and did not deal with the original owner at arm's length at that time, nil; and

(b) unless the amount determined under subparagraph a is nil by reason of subparagraph ii of that subparagraph, the lesser of

i. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount designated by the corporation for the year in respect of a Canadian resource property owned by the original owner immediately before being acquired with the particular property by the corporation or a predecessor owner of the particular property, not exceeding the amount included in computing the corporation's income for the year, determined before any deduction under section 88.4 of the Act respecting the application of the Taxation Act or any of sections 359 to 419.6, that can reasonably be attributed to the production from the Canadian resource property, and

ii. the amount by which 10% of the amount described in the second paragraph for the year, in respect of the original owner, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which would, but for this subparagraph, subparagraph ii of subparagraph b of the third paragraph of section 418.17 and subparagraph ii of paragraph f of section 418.26, be determined under this paragraph for the year in respect of the particular property or other foreign resource property, in relation to the particular country, owned by the original owner immediately before being acquired with the particular property by the corporation or a predecessor owner of the particular property.

(a) any other amount deducted for the year under this section, section 418.17 or section 418.19 as a consequence of the application of subparagraph c of the first paragraph of section 418.20, that can reasonably be attributed to the part of the corporation's income for the year, described in subparagraph a of the third paragraph, in relation to the particular property;

(b) any other amount deducted for the year under this section or section 418.17, that can reasonably be attributed to a part of the corporation's income for the year, described in subparagraph i of subparagraph b of the third paragraph, in respect of which an amount is designated by the corporation under that subparagraph; and

(c) any amount added, by reason of section 485.13, in computing the amount determined under subparagraph a of the third paragraph.

Reduction of particular amount.

The particular amount referred to in subparagraph a of the second paragraph shall be reduced by the portion thereof that can reasonably be considered to result in a reduction of the amount otherwise determined under that paragraph in relation to another original owner of a particular resource property who is not a predecessor owner of a particular resource property or who became such a predecessor owner before the original owner became a predecessor owner of a particular resource property.

“DIVISION II

“APPLICABLE RULES

Rules applicable to an eligible distribution.

“578.4. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Part, where an eligible distribution is made to a taxpayer, the following rules apply:

(a) the amount of the eligible distribution shall not be included in computing the income of the taxpayer; and

(b) section 304 does not apply to the eligible distribution.

Cost adjustment of each share.

“578.5. Where a spin-off share is distributed by a corporation to a taxpayer pursuant to an eligible distribution in relation to an original share of the taxpayer, the following rules apply:

(a) there shall be deducted in computing the cost amount to the taxpayer of the original share at any time the amount determined by the formula

$A \times (B / C)$; and

(b) the cost to the taxpayer of the spin-off share is the amount by which the cost amount of the taxpayer's original share was reduced under subparagraph a.

Interpretation.

In the formula provided for in subparagraph a of the first paragraph,

(a) A is the cost amount, determined without reference to this chapter, to the taxpayer of the original share immediately before the distribution or, if the original share is disposed of by the taxpayer before the distribution, immediately before its disposition;

(b) B is the fair market value of the spin-off share immediately after its distribution to the taxpayer; and

(c) C is the aggregate of

i. the fair market value of the original share immediately after the distribution of the spin-off share to the taxpayer, and

ii. the fair market value of the spin-off share immediately after its distribution to the taxpayer.

Property described in an inventory.

“578.6. For the purpose of determining the value of property described in the inventory of a taxpayer’s business, the following rules apply:

(a) the distribution to the taxpayer of a spin-off share that is property described in the inventory, in respect of an eligible distribution, is deemed not to be an acquisition of property in the fiscal period of the business in which the distribution occurs; and

(b) the value of the spin-off share must be included in computing the value of the property described in the inventory at the end of that fiscal period.

Assessments.

“578.7. Notwithstanding the expiry of the time limits provided for in section 1010, the Minister may, where the Minister obtains information according to which the condition in subparagraph c of the first or second paragraph of section 578.2 is not, or is no longer, satisfied, make under this Part, for any taxation year, such assessments or reassessments of tax, interest and penalties or such determinations or redeterminations as are necessary,

(a) within three years after the day on which the Minister obtains the information; or

(b) within four years after the day referred to in paragraph a if, at the end of the taxation year concerned, the taxpayer is a mutual fund trust or a corporation other than a Canadian-controlled private corporation.”

(2) Subsection 1 applies in respect of distributions of property made after 31 December 1997. In addition, the information referred to in paragraph e of section 578.1 of the said Act is deemed to be provided to the Minister of Revenue within the time prescribed in that paragraph if it is provided before 12 September 2001.

c. I-3, s. 584.2, added.

117. (1) The said Act is amended by inserting the following section after section 584.1:

Adjusted cost base of a share.

“584.2. For the purposes of section 584, where a taxpayer resident in Canada acquires a share of the capital stock of a corporation that is immediately after the acquisition a foreign affiliate of the taxpayer from a partnership of which the taxpayer, or a corporation resident in Canada with which the taxpayer was not dealing at arm’s length at the time the share was acquired, was a member at any time during any fiscal period of the partnership that began before the acquisition, the following rules apply:

(a) that portion of any amount that the partnership was required by section 587 to add to the adjusted cost base of the share of the foreign affiliate equal to the amount included in computing the income of the member of the partnership because of section 600 in relation to the amount that was included in computing the income of the partnership under section 580 or 582 in respect of the foreign affiliate and added to that adjusted cost base, is deemed to be an amount that the taxpayer was required by section 587 to add in computing the adjusted cost base of the share; and

(b) that portion of any amount that the partnership was required by section 587 to deduct from the adjusted cost base of the share of the foreign affiliate equal to the amount by which the income of the member of the partnership was reduced because of section 600 in relation to the amount deducted in computing the income of the partnership, in respect of the foreign affiliate, under any of sections 581, 583 and 584 and deducted from that adjusted cost base, is deemed to be an amount that the taxpayer was required by section 587 to deduct in computing the adjusted cost base of the share.”

(2) Subsection 1 applies in respect of shares acquired after 30 November 1999.

c. I-3, ss. 588.1 and 588.2, added.

118. (1) The said Act is amended by inserting the following sections after section 588:

Disposition of an interest in a partnership.

“588.1. A corporation resident in Canada or a foreign affiliate of such a corporation that disposes at any particular time of all or a portion of an interest in a partnership of which it is a member, shall add, in computing the proceeds of disposition of that interest, an amount equal to the amount determined by the formula

$$[(A - B) - (C + D)] \times (E / F).$$

Interpretation.

In the formula provided for in the first paragraph,

(a) A is the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that was deductible under paragraph d of section 746 in computing the taxable income of the member for any taxation year that began before the particular time in relation to any portion of a dividend received by the partnership, or that would have been so deductible if the member were a corporation resident in Canada;

(b) B is the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the portion of any income or profits tax paid by the partnership or the member to a government of a country other than Canada that can reasonably be attributed to the member’s share of the dividend described in paragraph a;

(c) C is the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount added under this section in computing the member’s proceeds of a disposition before the particular time of another interest in the partnership;

(d) D is the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount deemed by section 588.2 to be a gain of the member from a disposition before the particular time of a share of the capital stock of a corporation by the partnership;

(e) E is the adjusted cost base, immediately before the particular time, of the portion of the member's interest in the partnership disposed of by the member at the particular time; and

(f) F is the adjusted cost base, immediately before the particular time, of the member's interest in the partnership.

Gain from the disposition of a share by a partnership.

“588.2. Where a partnership disposes of a share of the capital stock of a corporation, at any particular time in a fiscal period of the partnership at the end of which a corporation resident in Canada or a foreign affiliate of a corporation resident in Canada is a member of the partnership, the amount determined by the following formula is deemed to be a gain of the member from the disposition of the share by the partnership for the member's taxation year in which that fiscal period ends:

$$(A - B) - C.$$

Interpretation.

In the formula provided for in the first paragraph,

(a) A is the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that was deductible under paragraph d of section 746 in computing the member's taxable income for a taxation year in relation to any portion of a dividend received by the partnership on the share in a fiscal period that began before the particular time and ended in the member's taxation year, or would have been so deductible if the member were a corporation resident in Canada;

(b) B is the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the portion of any income or profits tax paid by the partnership or the member to a government of a country other than Canada that can reasonably be attributed to the member's share of the dividend described in paragraph a; and

(c) C is the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount added under section 588.1 in computing the member's proceeds of a disposition before the particular time of an interest in the partnership.”

(2) Subsection 1 applies in respect of dispositions that occur after 30 November 1999.

c. I-3, ss. 589.2 and 589.3, added.

119. (1) The said Act is amended by inserting the following sections after section 589.1:

Election in respect of the disposition of a share of a foreign affiliate by a partnership.

“589.2. Where the disposition of shares of a class of the capital stock of a foreign affiliate of a particular corporation resident in Canada by a partnership would, but for this section, result in a taxable capital gain for a corporation, in this section referred to as the “disposing corporation”, that is the particular corporation or a foreign affiliate of the particular corporation, the following rules apply if the particular corporation so elects in prescribed form and prescribed manner:

(a) the amount determined in accordance with the second paragraph in respect of those shares is deemed to be a dividend received immediately before the disposition on the number of those shares that is the amount by which the number of those shares that the disposing corporation is deemed to own under section 592.1 immediately before the disposition exceeds the number of those shares that the disposing corporation is deemed to own under that section immediately after the disposition;

(b) notwithstanding Title XI, the disposing corporation's taxable capital gain from the disposition of those shares is deemed to be the amount by which the disposing corporation's taxable capital gain from the disposition of the shares otherwise determined exceeds the amount designated by the particular corporation in relation to those shares;

(c) for the purposes of any regulation made under this section, the disposing corporation is deemed to have disposed of the number of shares of the capital stock of the foreign affiliate that is the amount by which the number of those shares that the disposing corporation is deemed to own under section 592.1 immediately before the disposition exceeds the number of those shares that the disposing corporation is deemed to own under that section immediately after the disposition;

(d) for the purposes of sections 746 to 749 in relation to the dividend referred to in subparagraph a, the shares of the capital stock of the foreign affiliate on which that dividend was received are deemed to have been owned by the disposing corporation; and

(e) where the application of section 261 in respect of the partnership, in relation to those shares, results in a taxable capital gain for the disposing corporation, the partnership is deemed, for the purposes of this section, to have disposed of those shares.

Amount determined.

The amount to which subparagraph a of the first paragraph refers in respect of shares is, subject to the third paragraph, twice

(a) the amount designated in the election by the particular corporation, which amount shall not exceed the proportion of the taxable capital gain of the partnership that the amount by which the number of shares of that class of the capital stock of the foreign affiliate that are deemed to be owned by the disposing corporation under section 592.1 immediately before the disposition exceeds the number of those shares that are deemed to be owned by the disposing corporation under that section immediately after the disposition, is of the number of shares of that class of the capital stock of the foreign affiliate that are owned by the partnership immediately before the disposition; or

(b) where section 589.3 applies, the amount prescribed for the purposes of this section.

Rule applicable.

For the purposes of the second paragraph in respect of a disposing corporation for any of the following taxation years, the reference to "twice" in that paragraph shall be replaced, with the necessary modifications, by the following fraction, as the case may be:

(a) in the case of a taxation year that ends before 28 February 2000, $\frac{4}{3}$; and

(b) in the case of a taxation year that includes 28 February 2000 or 17 October 2000 or that begins after 28 February 2000 and ends before 17 October 2000, the fraction that is the reciprocal of the fraction in paragraphs a to d of section 231.0.1 that applies in respect of the disposing corporation for the year.

Deemed election.

“589.3. Where a partnership disposes at a particular time of excluded property that are shares of a class of the capital stock of a foreign affiliate of a particular corporation resident in Canada and the disposition results in a taxable capital gain for a foreign affiliate, in this section referred to as the “disposing corporation”, of the particular corporation, the particular corporation is deemed to have made an election under section 589.2 in relation to the number of shares of that class of the capital stock of the foreign affiliate that is the amount by which the number of those shares that are deemed to be owned by the disposing corporation under section 592.1 immediately before the disposition exceeds the number of those shares that are deemed to be owned by the disposing corporation under that section immediately after the disposition.”

(2) Subsection 1 applies in respect of dispositions that occur after 30 November 1999.

c. I-3, s. 591, replaced.

120. (1) Section 591 of the said Act is replaced by the following section:

Capital loss resulting from the disposition of a share in a foreign affiliate.

“591. Where a corporation resident in Canada has a loss from the disposition by it at any time of a share of the capital stock of a corporation that is a foreign affiliate of the corporation, in this section referred to as the “affiliate share”, or a foreign affiliate of a corporation resident in Canada has a loss from the disposition by it at any time of a share of the capital stock of another foreign affiliate of the corporation resident in Canada that is not excluded property, in this section also referred to as the “affiliate share”, the amount of the loss is deemed to be the amount determined by the formula

$$A - (B - C).$$

Interpretation.

In the formula provided for in the first paragraph,

(a) A is the amount of the loss determined without reference to this section;

(b) B is the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount received before that time, in respect of a tax-exempt dividend on the affiliate share or on a share for which the affiliate share was substituted, by

- i. the corporation resident in Canada,

ii. $\frac{4}{3}$ of the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount by which an allowable capital loss, determined without reference to this chapter, of a corporation or foreign affiliate described in subparagraph b for a taxation year that ended before 28 February 2000, from a previous disposition by a partnership of the affiliate share or a share for which the affiliate share was substituted, was reduced under section 591.1 in respect of the tax-exempt dividends referred to in subparagraph b,

iii. the product obtained by multiplying the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount by which an allowable capital loss, determined without reference to this chapter, of a corporation or foreign affiliate described in subparagraph b for a taxation year that includes 28 February 2000 or 17 October 2000 or that began after 28 February 2000 and ended before 17 October 2000, from a previous disposition by a partnership of the affiliate share or a share for which the affiliate share was substituted, was reduced under section 591.1 in respect of the tax-exempt dividends referred to in subparagraph b, by the fraction that is the reciprocal of the fraction in paragraphs a to d of section 231.0.1 that applies to the corporation or foreign affiliate for the year,

iv. twice the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount by which an allowable capital loss, determined without reference to this chapter, of a corporation or foreign affiliate described in subparagraph b for a taxation year that began after 17 October 2000, from a previous disposition by a partnership of the affiliate share or a share for which the affiliate share was substituted, was reduced under section 591.1 in respect of the tax-exempt dividends referred to in subparagraph b,

v. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount by which a loss, determined without reference to this chapter, from a disposition at or before that time by a corporation or foreign affiliate described in subparagraph b of an interest in a partnership, was reduced under section 591.2 in respect of the tax-exempt dividends referred to in subparagraph b, vi. $\frac{4}{3}$ of the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount by which an allowable capital loss, determined without reference to this chapter, of a corporation or foreign affiliate described in subparagraph b for a taxation year that ended before 28 February 2000, from a disposition at or before that time by a partnership of an interest in another partnership, was reduced under section 591.3 in respect of the tax-exempt dividends referred to in subparagraph b,

vii. the product obtained by multiplying the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount by which an allowable capital loss, determined without reference to this chapter, of a corporation or foreign affiliate described in subparagraph b for a taxation year that includes 28 February 2000 or 17 October 2000 or that began after 28 February 2000 and ended before 17 October 2000, from a disposition at or before that time by a partnership of an interest in another partnership, was reduced under section 591.3 in respect of the tax-exempt dividends referred to in subparagraph b, by the fraction that is the reciprocal of the fraction in paragraphs a to d of section 231.0.1 that applies to the corporation or foreign affiliate for the year, and viii. twice the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount by which an allowable capital loss, determined without reference to this chapter, of a corporation or foreign affiliate described in subparagraph b for a taxation year that began after 17 October 2000, from a disposition at or before that time by a partnership of an interest in another partnership, was reduced under section 591.3 in respect of the tax-exempt dividends referred to in subparagraph b.”

(2) Subsection 1 applies in respect of dispositions that occur after 30 November 1999.

c. I-3, ss. 591.1-591.3, added.

121. (1) The said Act is amended by inserting the following sections after section 591:

“591.1. Where a corporation resident in Canada has an allowable capital loss from a disposition at any time by a partnership of a share of the capital stock of a corporation that is a foreign affiliate of the corporation, in this section referred to as the “affiliate share”, or a foreign affiliate of a corporation resident in Canada has an allowable capital loss from a disposition at any time by a partnership of a share of the capital stock of another foreign affiliate of the corporation resident in Canada that would not be excluded property of the affiliate if the affiliate owned the share immediately before it was disposed of, in this section also referred to as the “affiliate share”, the amount of the allowable capital loss is deemed to be the amount determined by the formula

$$A - (B - C).$$

Interpretation.

In the formula provided for in the first paragraph,

(a) A is the amount of the allowable capital loss determined without reference to this section;

(b) B is the product obtained by multiplying the appropriate fraction described in the third paragraph by the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount received before that time, in respect of a tax-exempt dividend on the affiliate share or on a share for which the affiliate share was substituted, by

iv. $\frac{1}{2}$ of the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount by which the loss, determined without reference to this chapter, of a corporation or foreign affiliate described in subparagraph b for a taxation year that began after 17 October 2000, from another disposition at or before that time of the affiliate share or a share for which the affiliate share was substituted, was reduced under section 591 in respect of the tax-exempt dividends referred to in subparagraph b,

v. $\frac{3}{4}$ of the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount by which a loss, determined without reference to this chapter, for a taxation year that ended before 28 February 2000, from a disposition at or before that time by a corporation or foreign affiliate described in subparagraph b of an interest in a partnership, was reduced under section 591.2 in respect of the tax-exempt dividends referred to in subparagraph b,

vii. $\frac{1}{2}$ of the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount by which a loss, determined without reference to this chapter, for a taxation year that began after 17 October 2000, from a disposition at or before that time by a corporation or foreign affiliate described in subparagraph b of an interest in a partnership, was reduced under section 591.2 in respect of the tax-exempt dividends referred to in subparagraph b, and viii. the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount by which an allowable capital loss, determined without reference to this chapter, of a corporation or foreign affiliate described in subparagraph b, from a disposition at or before that time by a partnership of an interest in another partnership, was reduced under section 591.3 in respect of the tax-exempt dividends referred to in subparagraph b.

Appropriate fraction.

The appropriate fraction to which subparagraph b of the second paragraph refers is (a) where this section applies to a taxation year that ended before 28 February 2000, $\frac{3}{4}$;

Capital loss from the disposition of an interest in a partnership.

“591.2. Where a corporation resident in Canada has a loss from the disposition by it at any time of an interest in a partnership which has a direct or indirect interest in shares of the capital stock of a corporation that is a foreign affiliate of the corporation resident in Canada, in this section referred to as “affiliate shares”, or a foreign affiliate of a corporation resident in Canada has a loss from the disposition by it at any time of an interest in a partnership which has a direct or indirect interest in shares of the capital stock of another foreign affiliate of the corporation resident in Canada that would not be excluded property if the shares were owned by the affiliate, in this section also referred to as “affiliate shares”, the amount of the loss is deemed to be the amount determined by the formula

$$A - (B - C).$$

Interpretation.

In the formula provided for in the first paragraph,

(a) A is the amount of the loss determined without reference to this section;

(b) the amount that would be determined under paragraph a if section 785.2 did not apply to the individual for the year.

Resident back in Canada.

“785.2.2. Where an individual, other than a trust, becomes resident in Canada at a particular time in a taxation year and the time, in this section referred to as the “emigration time”, before the particular time, at which the individual last ceased to be resident in Canada was after 1 October 1996, the following rules apply:

(a) subject to paragraph b, if the individual so elects by notifying the Minister in writing on or before the individual's filing-due date for the year, paragraphs b and c of section 785.2 do not apply to the individual's cessation of residence at the emigration time in respect of all properties that were taxable Canadian properties of the individual throughout the period that began at the emigration time and that ends at the particular time;

(b) where, if a property in respect of which an election under paragraph a is made had been acquired by the individual at the emigration time at a cost equal to its fair market value at the emigration time and had been disposed of by the individual immediately before the particular time for proceeds of disposition equal to its fair market value immediately before the particular time, the application of section 238.4 would reduce the amount that would, but for that section and this section, be the individual's loss from the disposition, the individual is deemed

i. to have disposed of the property at the time of disposition, within the meaning assigned by paragraph b of section 785.2, in respect of the emigration time for proceeds of disposition equal to the aggregate of

(1) the adjusted cost base to the individual of the property immediately before the time of disposition, and

(2) the amount, if any, by which that reduction exceeds the lesser of the adjusted cost base to the individual of the property immediately before the time of disposition and the amount, if any, that the individual specifies for the purposes of this paragraph in the election under paragraph a in respect of the property, and

ii. to have reacquired the property at the emigration time at a cost equal to the amount, if any, by which the amount determined under subparagraph 1 of subparagraph i exceeds the lesser of that reduction and the amount specified by the individual in accordance with subparagraph 2 of that subparagraph i;

(c) notwithstanding paragraph c of section 785.1 and paragraph b of section 785.2, if the individual so elects by notifying the Minister in writing on or before the individual's filing-due date for the year, in respect of each property that the individual owned throughout the period that began at the emigration time and that ends at the particular time and that is deemed by paragraph b of section 785.1 to have been disposed of because the individual became resident in Canada, the individual's proceeds of disposition at the time of disposition, within the meaning assigned by paragraph b of section 785.2, and the individual's cost of acquiring the property at the particular time, are deemed to be those proceeds and that cost, determined without reference to this paragraph, minus the least of

i. the amount that would, but for this paragraph, have been the individual's gain from the disposition of the property deemed by paragraph b of section 785.2 to have occurred,

ii. the fair market value of the property at the particular time, and

iii. the amount that the individual specifies for the purposes of this paragraph in the election; and

(d) notwithstanding sections 1010 to 1011, any assessment of tax that is payable under this Part by the individual for a taxation year that is before the year that includes the particular time and that is not before the year that includes the emigration time shall be made by the Minister as is necessary to give effect to an election under this section, except that no such assessment shall affect the computation of

i. interest payable under this Part to or by a taxpayer in respect of any period that is before the day on which the taxpayer's fiscal return for the taxation year that includes the particular time is filed, or

ii. any penalty payable under this Part.

Canada.

“785.2.3. Where an individual, other than a trust, becomes resident in Canada at a particular time in a taxation year, owns at the particular time a property that the individual last acquired on a trust distribution to which section 688 would, but for section 692, have applied and at a time, in this section referred to as the “distribution time”, that was after 1 October 1996 and before the particular time, and was a beneficiary of the trust at the last time, before the particular time, at which the individual ceased to be resident in Canada, the following rules apply:

(a) subject to paragraphs b and c, if the individual and the trust jointly so elect by notifying the Minister in writing on or before the earlier of their filing-due dates for their taxation years that include the particular time, section 688.1 does not apply to the distribution in relation to all properties acquired by the individual at the distribution time that were taxable Canadian properties of the individual throughout the period that began at the distribution time and that ends at the particular time;

(b) where the application of section 238.4 would reduce the amount that would, but for that section and this section, have been the individual's loss from the disposition of a property in respect of which an election under paragraph a is made, paragraph c applies in respect of the individual, the trust and the property, if the individual

- i. had been resident in Canada at the distribution time,
- ii. had acquired the property at the distribution time at a cost equal to its fair market value at that time,
- iii. had ceased to be resident in Canada immediately after the distribution time, and
- iv. had, immediately before the particular time, disposed of the property for proceeds of disposition equal to its fair market value immediately before that time;

(c) where this paragraph applies in respect of an individual, a trust and a property, the following rules apply:

i. notwithstanding paragraph a of section 688.1, the trust is deemed to have disposed of the property at the distribution time for proceeds of disposition equal to the aggregate of

(1) the cost amount to the trust of the property immediately before the distribution time, and

(2) the amount, if any, by which the reduction under section 238.4 described in paragraph b exceeds the lesser of the cost amount to the trust of the property immediately before the distribution time and the amount, if any, which the individual and the trust specify for the purposes of this paragraph in the joint election made in respect of the property under paragraph a, and

ii. notwithstanding paragraph b of section 688.1, the individual is deemed to have acquired the property at the distribution time at a cost equal to the amount, if any, by which the amount otherwise determined under paragraph b of section 688 exceeds the lesser of the reduction under section 238.4 described in paragraph b and the amount specified in accordance with subparagraph 2 of subparagraph i;

(d) notwithstanding paragraphs a and b of section 688.1, if the individual and the trust jointly so elect by notifying the Minister in writing on or before the earlier of their filing-due dates for their taxation years that include the particular time, in respect of each property that the individual owned throughout the period that began at the distribution time and that ends at the particular time and that is deemed by paragraph b of section 785.1 to have been disposed of because the individual became resident in Canada, the trust's proceeds of disposition of the property under paragraph a of section 688.1 at the distribution time, and the individual's cost of acquiring the property at the particular time, are deemed to be those proceeds and that cost, determined without reference to this paragraph, minus the least of

i. the amount that would, but for this paragraph, have been the trust's gain from the disposition of the property deemed by paragraph a of section 688.1 to have occurred,

ii. the fair market value of the property at the particular time, and

iii. the amount that the individual and the trust specify in the joint election made for the purposes of this paragraph;

(e) if the trust ceases to exist before the individual's filing-due date for the individual's taxation year that includes the particular time,

i. an election or specification described in this section may be made by the individual alone by notifying the Minister in writing on or before that filing-due date, and

ii. if the individual alone makes such an election or specification, the individual and the trust are solidarily liable for any amount payable under this Part by the trust as a result of the election or specification; and

(f) notwithstanding sections 1010 to 1011, such assessment of tax payable under this Part by the trust or the individual for any year that is before the year that includes the particular time and that is not before the year that includes the distribution time shall be made by the Minister as is necessary to give effect to an election under this section, except that no such assessment shall affect the computation of

i. interest payable under this Part to or by the trust or the individual in respect of any period that is before the individual's filing-due date for the taxation year that includes the particular time, or

ii. any penalty payable under this Part.

Loss after emigration.

“785.2.4. Except for the purposes of paragraph c of section 785.2, where an individual, other than a trust, was deemed by paragraph b of that section to have disposed of a capital property at any particular time after 1 October 1996, has disposed of the property at a later time at which the capital property was a taxable Canadian property of the individual, and so elects in writing in the individual's fiscal return for the taxation year that includes the later time, there shall be deducted from the individual's proceeds of disposition of the capital property at the particular time, and added to the individual's proceeds of disposition of the capital property at the later time, an amount equal to the least of

(a) the amount specified in the election made in respect of the capital property;

(b) the amount that would, but for the election, be the individual's gain from the disposition of the capital property at the particular time; and

(c) the amount that would be the individual's loss from the disposition of the capital property at the later time, if the loss were determined having reference to every other provision of this Part including sections 238.4 and 738 to 745, but without reference to the election.

List of reportable properties.

“785.2.5. An individual who ceases at a particular time in a taxation year to be resident in Canada, and who owns immediately after the particular time one or more reportable properties the fair market value of which at that time is greater than $25,000, shall file with the Minister in prescribed form, on or before the individual's filing-due date for the year, a list of all the reportable properties that the individual owned immediately after the particular time.

Treatment of losses after the winding-up of a Canadian affiliate.

“851.22.41. For the purposes of the provisions of Title VII of Book IV for the purpose of computing the taxable income of an entrant bank for any taxation year that begins after the issue of the dissolution order described in subparagraph i of paragraph a of subsection 12 of section 142.7 of the Income Tax Act (Revised Statutes of Canada, 1985, chapter 1, 5th Supplement) or after the commencement of the winding-up of a Canadian affiliate of the entrant bank, as the case may be, the rules in the second paragraph apply where

The rules to which the first paragraph refers are as follows:

(a) subject to subparagraphs b and e, the portion of a non-capital loss of the Canadian affiliate for a taxation year, in this subparagraph referred to as the “Canadian affiliate’s non-capital loss year”, that can reasonably be regarded as being its loss from carrying on a business in Canada, in this subparagraph referred to as the “loss business”, is deemed, for the taxation year of the entrant bank in which the Canadian affiliate’s non-capital loss year ended, to be a non-capital loss of the entrant bank from carrying on the loss business that was not deductible by the entrant bank in computing its taxable income for any taxation year that began before the date of the dissolution order or the commencement of the winding-up, as the case may be, to the extent that

i. the portion of the non-capital loss of the Canadian affiliate was not deducted in computing the taxable income of the Canadian affiliate or any other entrant bank for any taxation year, and

ii. the portion of the non-capital loss of the Canadian affiliate would have been deductible in computing the taxable income of the Canadian affiliate for any taxation year that begins after the date of the dissolution order or the commencement of the winding-up, as the case may be, if it had such a taxation year and if it had sufficient income for that year;

(b) if at any time control of the Canadian affiliate or entrant bank has been acquired by a person or group of persons, no amount in respect of the Canadian affiliate's non-capital loss for a taxation year that ends before that time is deductible in computing the taxable income of the entrant bank for a particular taxation year that ends after that time, except that the portion of the loss that can reasonably be regarded as the Canadian affiliate's loss from carrying on a business in Canada and, where a business was carried on by the Canadian affiliate in Canada in the preceding year, the portion of the loss that can reasonably be regarded as being attributable to an amount deductible under section 725.1.1 in computing its taxable income for the year are deductible only if that business is carried on by the Canadian affiliate or the entrant bank for profit or with a reasonable expectation of profit throughout the particular year, and to the extent of the aggregate of the entrant bank's income for the particular year from that business, and where properties were sold, leased, rented or developed or services rendered in the course of carrying on that business before that time, from any other business substantially all the income of which was derived from the sale, leasing, rental or development, as the case may be, of similar properties or the rendering of similar services;

(c) subject to subparagraphs d and e, a net capital loss of the Canadian affiliate for a taxation year, in this subparagraph referred to as the "Canadian affiliate's loss year", is deemed to be a net capital loss of the entrant bank for its taxation year in which the Canadian affiliate's loss year ended to the extent that the loss

i. was not deducted in computing the taxable income of the Canadian affiliate or any other entrant bank for any taxation year, and

ii. would have been deductible in computing the taxable income of the Canadian affiliate for any taxation year beginning after the date of the dissolution order or the commencement of the winding-up, as the case may be, if the Canadian affiliate had such a taxation year and if it had sufficient income and taxable capital gains for the year;

(d) if at any time control of the Canadian affiliate or the entrant bank has been acquired by a person or group of persons, no amount in respect of the Canadian affiliate's net capital loss for a taxation year that ended before that time is deductible in computing the entrant bank's taxable income for a taxation year that ends after that time; and

(e) any loss of the Canadian affiliate that would otherwise be deemed by subparagraph a or c to be a loss of the entrant bank for a particular taxation year that begins after the date of the dissolution order or the commencement of the winding-up, as the case may be, is deemed, for the purpose of computing the entrant bank's taxable income for taxation years that begin after that date, to be such a loss of the entrant bank for its preceding taxation year and not for the particular year, if the entrant bank makes the election under paragraph h of subsection 12 of section 142.7 of the Income Tax Act for the particular year.

Presumption.

For the purposes of subparagraph b of the second paragraph, where sections 564.2 to 564.4.4 applied to the winding-up of another corporation in respect of which the Canadian affiliate was the parent and sections 564.4.1 to 564.4.3 applied in respect of losses of that other corporation, the Canadian affiliate is deemed to be the same corporation as, and a continuation of, that other corporation with respect to those losses.

(2) Paragraph 2 of subsection 1 applies to taxation years that end after 1 October 1996.

c. I-3, s. 1012.2,
added.

179. (1) The said Act is amended by inserting the following section after section 1012.1:

Foreign accrual property income of a foreign affiliate of a taxpayer.

“1012.2. Where a taxpayer has filed for a particular taxation year the fiscal return required by section 1000 and the amount included in computing the taxpayer’s income for the particular taxation year under section 580 is subsequently reduced because of a reduction described in the second paragraph, the Minister shall, if the taxpayer files with the Minister, on or before the filing-due date for the taxpayer’s subsequent taxation year in respect of the reduction, a request in prescribed form to amend the fiscal return for the particular taxation year, reassess the taxpayer’s tax for any relevant taxation year other than a taxation year preceding the particular taxation year in order to take into account the reduction in the amount included in computing the income of the taxpayer for the particular taxation year under section 580.

Reduction.

The reduction to which the first paragraph refers is the reduction in the foreign accrual property income of a foreign affiliate of the taxpayer, within the meaning of section 579, for a taxation year of the foreign affiliate that ends in the particular taxation year and is

(a) attributable to the amount, determined under the regulations made under the Income Tax Act (Revised Statutes of Canada, 1985, chapter 1, 5th Supplement), that is the deductible loss of the foreign affiliate for the taxation year that it sustained in a subsequent taxation year that ended in a subsequent taxation year of the taxpayer; and

(b) included in the value of F of the formula provided for in the definition of “foreign accrual property income” in subsection 1 of section 95 of the Income Tax Act in relation to the foreign affiliate for the taxation year.”

(2) Subsection 1 applies to taxation years of foreign affiliates of taxpayers that begin after 30 November 1999.

c. I-3, Chap. IV.1,
ss. 1033.2-1033.13,
added.

180. (1) The said Act is amended by inserting the following after section 1033.1:

“CHAPTER IV.1

“SECURITY FOR DEPARTURE FROM CANADA

Security.

“1033.2. Where, at any particular time in a taxation year, in this section and sections 1033.3 and 1033.4 referred to as the “emigration year”, an individual is deemed by section 785.2 to have disposed of a property, other than a right to a benefit under, or an interest in a trust governed by, an employee benefit plan, and the individual elects, in prescribed manner on or before the individual’s balance-due day for the emigration year, that this section and sections 1033.3 to 1033.6 apply to the emigration year, the following rules apply:

(a) the Minister shall, until the individual’s balance-due day for a particular taxation year that begins after the particular time, accept security satisfactory to the Minister and furnished by or on behalf of the individual on or before the individual’s balance-due day for the emigration year for the lesser of

i. the amount determined by the formula

$$A - B - \{[(A - B) / A] \times C\}, \text{ and}$$

ii. if the particular year is the year that follows the emigration year, the amount determined under subparagraph i, and in any other case, the amount determined under this subparagraph in respect of the individual for the taxation year that precedes the particular year; and

(b) except for the purposes of the first, second and third paragraphs of section 1038, the following interest and penalties shall be computed as if the particular amount for which security satisfactory to the Minister has been accepted under this section were an amount paid by the individual on account of the particular amount:

i. interest payable under this Part for any period that ends on the individual’s balance-due day for the particular year and throughout which security is accepted by the Minister, and

ii. penalties payable under this Part computed with reference to an individual’s tax payable for the year that was, without reference to this subparagraph, unpaid.

Interpretation.

In the formula provided for in subparagraph i of subparagraph a of the first paragraph,

(a) A is the amount of tax that would be payable by the individual under this Part for the emigration year if the exclusion from income or deduction of an amount referred to in the first paragraph of section 1044 were not taken into account;

(b) B is the amount of tax that would have been so payable by the individual under this Part if each property, other than a right to a benefit under, or an interest in a trust governed by, an employee benefit plan, deemed by section 785.2 to have been disposed of at the particular time, and that has not been subsequently disposed of before the beginning of the particular year, were not deemed by that section to have been disposed of by the individual at the particular time; and

(c) C is the aggregate of all amounts deemed under this or any other Act to have been paid on account of the individual's tax payable under this Part for the emigration year.

Security deemed accepted.

“1033.3. For the purposes of section 1033.2, this section and sections 1033.4 to 1033.6, where an individual, other than a trust, elects under section 1033.2 that that section apply in respect of a taxation year, the Minister is deemed to have accepted at any time after the election was made security satisfactory to the Minister for a total amount of tax payable under this Part by the individual for the emigration year equal to the lesser of

(a) the amount of tax that would be payable for the year by an inter vivos trust resident in Canada, other than a trust described in section 769, the taxable income of which for the year is $50,000; and

(b) the greatest amount for which the Minister is required to accept security furnished by or on behalf of the individual under section 1033.2 at the particular time in respect of the emigration year.

Time when security is furnished.

The security referred to in the first paragraph is deemed to have been furnished by the individual before the individual's balance-due day for the emigration year.

Limit.

“1033.4. Notwithstanding sections 1033.2 and 1033.3, the Minister is deemed at any time not to have accepted security under section 1033.2 in respect of an individual's emigration year for any amount greater than the amount by which the particular tax that would be payable by the individual under this Part for the year if the exclusion from income or deduction of an amount referred to in the first paragraph of section 1044, in respect of which the date determined in accordance with the second paragraph of that section is after that time, were not taken into account, exceeds the amount determined under the second paragraph.

Amount.

The amount to which the first paragraph refers is equal to the particular tax that would be determined under that paragraph if this Act were read without reference to section 785.2.

Additional security.

“1033.5. Subject to section 1033.11, if it is determined at any particular time that security accepted by the Minister under section 1033.2 is not adequate to secure the particular amount for which it was furnished by or on behalf of an individual, the following rules apply:

(a) subject to a subsequent application of this section, the security shall be considered after the particular time to secure only the amount for which it is security considered satisfactory at the particular time;

(b) the Minister shall notify the individual in writing of the determination and shall accept security satisfactory to the Minister, for all or any part of the particular amount, furnished by or on behalf of the individual within 90 days after the day of notification; and

(c) any security accepted in accordance with paragraph b is deemed to have been accepted by the Minister under section 1033.2 on account of the particular amount at the particular time.

Extensions.

“1033.6. If in the opinion of the Minister it would be just and equitable to do so, the Minister may at any time extend

(a) the time for making an election under section 1033.2;

(b) the time for furnishing and accepting security under section 1033.2; or

(c) the 90-day period for the acceptance of security under paragraph b of section 1033.5.

Security upon the distribution of taxable Canadian property to a beneficiary not resident in Canada.

“1033.7. The rules in the second paragraph apply where

(a) solely because of the application of section 692, subparagraphs a to c of the first paragraph of section 688 do not apply to a distribution by a trust in a particular taxation year, in this section and section 1033.8 referred to as the “distribution year”, of taxable Canadian property; and

(b) the trust elects, in prescribed manner on or before the trust’s balance-due day for the distribution year, that this section and sections 1033.8 to 1033.10 apply in respect of the distribution year.

Rules applicable.

The rules to which the first paragraph refers are as follows:

(a) the Minister shall, until the trust’s balance-due day for a subsequent taxation year, accept security satisfactory to the Minister and furnished by or on behalf of the trust on or before the trust’s balance-due day for the distribution year for the lesser of

i. the amount determined by the formula

$A - B - \{[(A - B) / A] \times C\}$, and

ii. if the subsequent year is the year that follows the distribution year, the amount determined under subparagraph i, and in any other case, the amount determined under this subparagraph in respect of the trust for the taxation year that precedes the subsequent year; and

(b) except for the purposes of the first, second and third paragraphs of section 1038, the following interest and penalties shall be computed as if the particular amount for which security satisfactory to the Minister has been accepted under this section were an amount paid by the trust on account of the particular amount:

i. interest payable under this Part for any period that ends on the trust's balance-due day for the subsequent year and throughout which security is accepted by the Minister, and

ii. penalties payable under this Part computed with reference to the trust's tax payable for the year that was, without reference to this subparagraph, unpaid.

Interpretation.

In the formula provided for in subparagraph i of subparagraph a of the second paragraph,

(a) A is the amount of tax that would be payable by the trust under this Part for the distribution year if the exclusion from income or deduction of an amount referred to in the first paragraph of section 1044 were not taken into account;

(b) B is the amount of tax that would be so payable by the individual under this Part if the rules in section 688, other than the election referred to in that section, had applied to each distribution by the trust in the distribution year of property, other than property subsequently disposed of before the beginning of the subsequent year, to which subparagraph a of the first paragraph applies; and

Limit.

“1033.8. Notwithstanding section 1033.7, the Minister is deemed at any time not to have accepted security under that section in respect of a trust's distribution year for any amount greater than the amount by which the particular tax that would be payable by the trust under this Part for the year if the exclusion from income or deduction of an amount referred to in the first paragraph of section 1044 in respect of which the date determined in accordance with the second paragraph of that section is after that time, were not taken into account, exceeds the amount determined under the second paragraph.

Amount.

first paragraph of section 688 had applied to each distribution by the trust in the year of property to which subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1033.7 applies.

Additional security.

“1033.9. Subject to section 1033.11, if it is determined at any particular time that security accepted by the Minister under section 1033.7 is not adequate to secure the particular amount for which it was furnished by or on behalf of a trust, the following rules apply:

(a) subject to a subsequent application of this section, the security shall be considered after the particular time to secure only the amount for which it is security considered satisfactory at the particular time;

(b) the Minister shall notify the trust in writing of the determination and shall accept security satisfactory to the Minister, for all or any part of the particular amount, furnished by or on behalf of the trust within 90 days after the notification; and

(c) any security accepted in accordance with paragraph b is deemed to have been accepted by the Minister under section 1033.7 on account of the particular amount at the particular time.

Extensions.

“1033.10. If in the opinion of the Minister it would be just and equitable to do so, the Minister may at any time extend

(a) the time for making an election under section 1033.7;

(b) the time for furnishing and accepting security under section 1033.7; or

(c) the 90-day period for the acceptance of security under paragraph b of section 1033.9.

Undue hardship.

“1033.11. The Minister may, in respect of an election made by an individual under section 1033.2 or 1033.7, accept for any particular period of time security different from, or of lesser value than, that which the Minister would otherwise accept under that section, if, in respect of that period, the Minister determines that the individual cannot, without undue hardship, pay or reasonably arrange to have paid on the individual's behalf, an amount of tax to which security under that section would relate, and cannot, without undue hardship, furnish or reasonably arrange to have furnished on the individual's behalf, adequate security under that section.

Restriction.

“1033.12. In making a determination under section 1033.11, the Minister shall ignore any transaction that is a disposition, lease, encumbrance, hypothec, or other voluntary restriction by a person or partnership of the person's or partnership's rights in respect of a property, if the transaction can reasonably be considered to have been entered into for the purpose of influencing the determination.

prescription.

“1033.13. The prescription provided for in the first paragraph of section 27.3 of the Act respecting the Ministère du Revenu (chapter M-31) is suspended for the time during which a security is accepted or is deemed to be accepted by the Minister under this chapter.”

(2) Subsection 1 applies in respect of dispositions and distributions that occur after 1 October 1996. However,

(1) where sections 1033.2 to 1033.4, 1033.7 and 1033.8 of the said Act apply to emigration years or distribution years, as the case may be, that are before 1 January 2000, the reference therein to “this Part” shall be read, wherever it appears, as a reference to “this Act”;

(2) where subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1033.3 of the said Act applies to emigration years that are before 1 January 2001, the reference therein to “$50,000” shall be read as a reference to “$75,000”; and

(3) in the case of an individual who ceased to be resident in Canada before 7 June 2004, or of a distribution by a trust before that date and to which subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1033.7 of the said Act applies in relation to the trust, the following rules apply:

(a) an election by the individual under section 1033.2 of the said Act, or by the trust under section 1033.7 of the said Act, as the case may be, in respect of the taxation year that includes the time of disposition or attribution is deemed to have been made in a timely manner if it is made on or before the individual’s filing-due date for the individual’s taxation year that includes 7 June 2004, and

(b) security furnished by or on behalf of the individual under section 1033.2 of the said Act, or by or on behalf of the trust under section 1033.7 of the said Act, as the case may be, is deemed to have been furnished in a timely manner if it is furnished on or before the individual’s filing-due date for the individual’s taxation year that includes 7 June 2004.

c. I-3, s. 1044, am.

181. (1) Section 1044 of the said Act is amended by replacing the first paragraph by the following paragraph:

Effect of carry-back of loss.

“1044. Where, for a particular taxation year, a taxpayer is entitled to exclude from the taxpayer’s income under sections 294 to 298 an amount in respect of the exercise of an option in a subsequent taxation year, to exclude from the taxpayer’s income or to deduct an amount by reason of the disposition in a subsequent taxation year of a work of art referred to in section 714.1 or 752.0.10.11.1 by a donee referred to in that section, to deduct an amount relating to a subsequent taxation year, or because of an event in a subsequent taxation year, and referred to in any of paragraphs b, b.1, c to d.1 and d.1.1 to f of section 1012.1, or to deduct an amount under any of sections 785.2.2 to 785.2.4 from the proceeds of disposition of a property because of an election made in a fiscal return for a subsequent taxation year, the tax payable under this Part by the taxpayer for the taxation year is deemed, for the purpose of computing interest payable under sections 1037 to 1040, to be equal to the tax that the taxpayer would have been required to pay if the consequences of the deduction or exclusion of those amounts were not taken into account.”

(2) Subsection 1 applies to taxation years that end after 1 October 1996. However, where the first paragraph of section 1044 of the said Act applies in respect of applications for loss carry-over made before 15 May 2002, it shall be read as follows:

“1044. Where, for a particular taxation year, a taxpayer is entitled to exclude from the taxpayer’s income under sections 294 to 298 an amount in respect of the exercise of an option in a subsequent taxation year, to exclude from the taxpayer’s income or to deduct an amount by reason of the disposition in a subsequent taxation year of a work of art referred to in section 714.1 or 752.0.10.11.1 by a donee referred to in that section, to deduct an amount relating to a subsequent taxation year, or because of an event in a subsequent taxation year, and referred to in any of paragraphs b, b.1, c to d.1 and d.1.1 to f of section 1012.1, to deduct an amount relating to a preceding taxation year and referred to in any of sections 727 to 737 where the deduction is claimed after the expiry of the time limit provided for in section 1000 applicable to the particular taxation year or to deduct an amount under any of sections 785.2.2 to 785.2.4 from the proceeds of disposition of a property because of an election made in a fiscal return for a subsequent taxation year, the tax payable under this Part by the taxpayer for the taxation year is deemed, for the purpose of computing interest payable under sections 1037 to 1040, to be equal to the tax that the taxpayer would have been required to pay if the consequences of the deduction or exclusion of those amounts were not taken into account.”

c. I-3, s. 1053, am.

182. (1) Section 1053 of the said Act is amended by replacing the portion before paragraph a by the following:

Overpayment.

“1053. For the purposes of section 1052, the portion of any overpayment of the tax payable by a taxpayer for a taxation year that arose as a consequence of the exclusion of an amount from the taxpayer’s income under sections 294 to 298 in respect of the exercise of an option in a subsequent taxation year, as a consequence of the exclusion of an amount from the taxpayer’s income, or of the deduction of an amount, by reason of the disposition, in a subsequent taxation year, of a work of art referred to in section 714.1 or 752.0.10.11.1 by a donee referred to in that section, as a consequence of the deduction of an amount relating to a subsequent taxation year, or because of an event in a subsequent taxation year, and referred to in any of paragraphs b, b.1, c to d.1 and d.1.1 to f of section 1012.1, as a consequence of the deduction of an amount under any of sections 785.2.2 to 785.2.4 from the proceeds of disposition of a property, because of an election made in a fiscal return for a subsequent taxation year, or as a consequence of the deduction of an amount relating to a preceding taxation year and referred to in any of sections 727 to 737 where that deduction is claimed after the expiry of the time limit provided for in section 1000 applicable to the taxation year, is deemed to have been paid to the Minister on the latest of”.

(2) Subsection 1 applies to taxation years that end after 1 October 1996.

c. I-3, s. 1082.3, am.

183. (1) Section 1082.3 of the said Act, amended by section 284 of chapter 2 of the statutes of 2003, is again amended

(1) by striking out the definitions of “arm’s length allocation”, “arm’s length transfer price”, “documentation-due date”, “qualifying cost contribution arrangement”, “transfer price”, “transfer pricing capital setoff adjustment” and “transfer pricing income setoff adjustment” in the first paragraph;

(2) by replacing the definitions of “transfer pricing capital adjustment” and “transfer pricing income adjustment” in the first paragraph by the following definitions:

“transfer pricing capital adjustment”;

““transfer pricing capital adjustment” of a taxpayer for a taxation year means

(a) an amount by which the adjusted cost base to the taxpayer of a capital property, other than a depreciable property, or an intangible capital amount of the taxpayer in respect of a business is reduced in the year because of an adjustment made under section 1082.4, or an amount by which the capital cost to the taxpayer of a depreciable property is reduced in the year because of an adjustment made under section 1082.4; or

(b) the product obtained when the proportion that the taxpayer’s share of the income or loss of a partnership for a fiscal period that ends in the year is of the income or loss of the partnership for that fiscal period is multiplied by the amount by which the adjusted cost base to the partnership of a capital property, other than a depreciable property, or an intangible capital amount of the partnership in respect of a business is reduced in the fiscal period because of an adjustment made under section 1082.4, or by the amount by which the capital cost to the partnership of a depreciable property is reduced in the fiscal period because of an adjustment made under section 1082.4;

““transfer pricing income adjustment” of a taxpayer for a taxation year means the amount by which an adjustment made under section 1082.4, other than an adjustment included in determining a transfer pricing capital adjustment of the taxpayer for a taxation year, would result in an increase in the taxpayer’s income for the year or a decrease in a loss of the taxpayer for the year from a source if that adjustment were the only adjustment made under section 1082.4.”;

(3) by replacing the second paragraph by the following paragraph:

Interpretation.

“For the purposes of the definition of “transfer pricing capital adjustment” in the first paragraph, where the income and loss of a partnership for a fiscal period are nil, it shall be assumed that the income of the partnership for that fiscal period is equal to $1,000,000.”

(2) Paragraphs 1 and 2 of subsection 1 apply to taxation years or fiscal periods that begin after 31 December 1997. However, where paragraph b of

“(b) the product obtained when the proportion that the taxpayer’s share of the income or loss of a partnership for a fiscal period that ends in the year is of the income or loss of the partnership for that fiscal period is multiplied by the amount by which the adjusted cost base to the partnership of a capital property, other than a depreciable property, or an intangible capital amount of the partnership in respect of a business is reduced in the fiscal period because of an adjustment made under section 1082.4, or by the amount by which the capital cost to the partnership of a depreciable property is reduced in the fiscal period because of an adjustment made under section 1082.4, on the assumption that, if the income or loss of the partnership for that fiscal period were nil, the partnership’s income for that fiscal period is equal to $1,000,000;”.

(3) Paragraph 3 of subsection 1 applies to taxation years or fiscal periods that end after 27 February 2000.

c. I-3, ss. 1082.5-1082.8 and 1082.12, repealed.

c. F-2.1, s. 255, replaced.

187. Section 255 of the said Act is replaced by the following sections:

Computation.

“255. The amount payable under the first paragraph of section 254 for an immovable whose owner is a person mentioned in paragraph 1 or 2.1 of section 204 is equal to the amount of the municipal property taxes that would be exigible for that immovable if it were taxable. The amount payable under the second paragraph of section 254 for a business establishment whose occupant is such a person is equal to the business tax that would be exigible for that business establishment if it were taxable.

Computation.

The amount payable under the first paragraph of section 254 for each of the following immovables is equal to the product obtained by multiplying the non-taxable value of the immovable by 80% of the aggregate taxation rate of the local municipality:

(1) an immovable whose owner is the person mentioned in paragraph 1.2 of section 204;

(2) an immovable whose owner is a person mentioned in subparagraph a of paragraph 14 of section 204;

(3) an immovable whose owner is a person mentioned in subparagraph b or c of paragraph 14 of section 204 and that is used for the purposes mentioned in the subparagraph;

(4) an immovable whose owner is a non-profit legal person holding a permit to operate a private educational institution issued under the Act respecting private education (chapter E-9.1) and that is at the disposal of that institution, subject to the fourth paragraph.

Computation.

The amount payable under the first paragraph of section 254 for each of the following immovables is equal to the product obtained by multiplying the non-taxable value of the immovable by 80% of the aggregate taxation rate of the local municipality:

(1) an immovable whose owner is a university institution within the meaning of the University Investments Act (chapter I-17), a college-level institution whose instructional program is the subject of an international agreement within the meaning of the Act respecting the Ministère des Relations internationales (chapter M-25.1.1), a general and vocational college or a private educational institution accredited for purposes of subsidies under the Act respecting private education with respect to college-level general and vocational instructional services;

(2) an immovable whose owner is a religious institution and that is used by an institution or college referred to in paragraph 1 for its normal activities.

Computation.

The amount payable under the first paragraph of section 254 for each of the following immovables is equal to the product obtained by multiplying the non-taxable value of the immovable by 25% of the aggregate taxation rate of the local municipality:

(1) an immovable whose owner is a school board;

(2) an immovable whose owner is a non-profit legal person holding a permit to operate a private educational institution issued under the Act respecting private education and that is at the disposal of that institution, when the owner is competent in matters of preschool, elementary or secondary education;

(3) an immovable whose owner is a private educational institution accredited for purposes of subsidies under the Act respecting private education and that is at the disposal of that institution, when the owner is competent in matters of preschool, elementary or secondary education;

(4) an immovable whose owner is an institution whose instructional program is the subject of an international agreement within the meaning of the Act respecting the Ministère des Relations internationales, when the owner is competent in matters of preschool, elementary or secondary education;

(5) an immovable whose owner is a religious institution and that is used by a school board, a legal person referred to in paragraph 2 or an institution referred to in paragraph 3 or 4, for the purposes of preschool, elementary or secondary education.

Amount not paid.

“255.1. When a unit of assessment that includes an immovable referred to in section 255 is taxable and is entered on the roll in the name of a person other than the owner of the immovable, the amount payable under the first paragraph of section 254 for that immovable is not paid.

Amount paid.

When the unit of assessment is non-taxable and entered on the roll in the name of a person other than the owner of the immovable, the amount for that immovable is paid. The roll must then, in accordance with section 61, indicate the information required to calculate the amount, based on the part of the non-taxable value of the unit that corresponds to that of the immovable.

Amount paid.

The same applies to a non-taxable unit of assessment that is entered on the roll in the name of the owner of the immovable and that does not consist solely of the immovable.

Application.

“255.2. When an immovable referred to in a provision under section 255 is included in a non-taxable unit of assessment and belongs to several owners, not all of whom are persons referred to in that provision, the second or third paragraph of section 255.1, as the case may be, applies as if the immovable consisted only of that part attributable to the owner or owners referred to in that provision.

Application.

The provisions of section 255 under which the amount provided for in the first paragraph of section 254 is computed in the same way make up a group. The first paragraph does not apply if all the owners of the immovable are referred to in provisions that are part of a same group. If several of the owners but not all of them are referred to in provisions that are part of a same group, the parts of the immovable attributable to them are grouped together and constitute the part referred to in the first paragraph.”

Section 257 of the said Act is amended by adding the following sentence at the end of the second paragraph: “For the purposes of this paragraph, in addition to the meaning assigned by section 1, “owner” means the person in whose name the unit of assessment that includes the immovable is entered on the roll.”

ACT TO AMEND VARIOUS LEGISLATIVE PROVISIONS CONCERNING MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS

2003, c. 3, s. 12,
replaced.

215. Section 12 of the Act to amend various legislative provisions concerning municipal affairs (2003, chapter 3) is replaced by the following section:

Surplus assets.

“12. Despite any provision of the pension plan or of any document ancillary to the plan, the surplus assets of a pension plan to which a municipality or a body referred to in section 18 of the Act respecting the Pension Plan of Elected Municipal Officers (R.S.Q., chapter R-9.3) is a party may, on a resolution of the municipality or the body and according to the terms and conditions stated in sections 146.1 to 146.3 of the Supplemental Pension Plans Act (R.S.Q., chapter R-15.1), be appropriated for the payment of contributions payable by the municipality or the body.

Redemption of bond.

However, if a bond was remitted to the pension fund of a pension plan for the purposes of section 212.2 of the Act to amend various legislative provisions concerning municipal affairs (2004, chapter 20), any actuarial gain determined by an actuarial valuation of the whole plan must be appropriated for the redemption of that bond. The appropriation of the gain may nevertheless not cause an amount payable to be determined under subparagraph 4 of the second paragraph of section 137 of the Supplemental Pension Plans Act or to be higher than it would have been without the appropriation.

Amounts paid by the municipality or body.

Surplus assets or an actuarial gain can be appropriated under the first or second paragraph only up to the value of the amounts that the municipality or body has paid in respect of a technical actuarial deficiency or an amount established under subparagraph 4 of the second paragraph of section 137 of the Supplemental Pension Plans Act determined by an actuarial valuation of the whole plan dated not earlier than 31 December 2001 or later than 1 January 2003.

Calculation.

For the purposes of this section, the value of the amounts paid by the municipality or the body, that of the contributions paid by the appropriation of surplus assets and that of redemptions realized by appropriation of actuarial gain are calculated using the rate set by the bond remitted to the pension fund or the market rate for financing the amount paid into the fund or, in the absence of such a rate, the rate that the federal government bond market would require, at the time of payment of the amount into the fund, for a bond with a ten-year term.

Actuarial gain.

The actuarial gain referred to in this section is the positive difference between the value of the assets of the plan, increased by the value of the amortization amounts remaining to be paid for one or more unfunded actuarial liabilities, and the value of the obligations arising out of the pension plan, given the service credited to the members. The gain is measured using the funding method provided for in Chapter X of the Supplemental Pension Plans Act. If the municipality or the body pays a contribution exceeding that required under that Act, the excess is not taken into account in determining the actuarial gain referred to in this section.”

2003, c. 3, s. 13, am.

216. Section 13 of the said Act, amended by section 242 of chapter 19 of the statutes of 2003, is again amended by adding the following paragraph at the end:

Redemption of bond.

“However, if a bond was remitted to the pension fund of the pension plan for the purposes of section 255 of the Act to amend various legislative provisions concerning municipal affairs (2004, chapter 20), any actuarial gain determined by an actuarial valuation of the whole plan must be appropriated for the redemption of the bond in accordance with section 12, except to the extent that it corresponds to surplus assets for which the municipality or the body may not determine the appropriation.”

229. Ville de Gatineau, Ville de Rouyn-Noranda, Ville de Saguenay and Ville de Saint-Jean-sur-Richelieu are dispensed from the obligation to divide their territories into electoral districts for the purposes of the general election of 2005.

Division applicable.

The division of their territories, for the purposes of that election and any by-election before the general election of 2009, is that which was applicable for the purposes of their last general election.

No general election in 2004.

230. Despite section 7 of Order in Council 705-2001 dated 13 June 2001 respecting Ville de Chandler, no general election will be held in that municipality in 2004.

Office of mayor vacant.

231. Despite the first paragraph of section 335 of the Act respecting elections and referendums in municipalities (R.S.Q., chapter E-2.2), a vacancy in the office of mayor of Ville de Murdochville need not be filled by means of a by-election.

Election by town councillors.

Not later than 1 December 2004, the town councillors must elect one of their number to the office of mayor. The second, third, fourth and fifth paragraphs of section 336 of this Act apply to that election.

Loan by-law.

232. The council of Ville de Montréal may adopt a loan by-law for the purpose of repaying into the general fund of the city sums paid out to reimburse excess taxes pursuant to a judgment on a contestation of the property assessment, filed before 1 January 2002, for an assessment unit situated in the territory of the former Ville de Montréal-Est.

Authorization required.

Such a by-law requires only the authorization of the Minister of Municipal Affairs, Sports and Recreation.

Property assessment roll.

233. The property assessment roll of Municipalité de Pierreville, in force at the beginning of the 2004 fiscal year, remains in force until the end of that fiscal year, which is considered as the third year of application of that roll.

Fiscal years.

For the purpose of determining the fiscal years for which rolls subsequent to that referred to in the first paragraph must be drawn up in accordance with section 14 of the Act respecting municipal taxation (R.S.Q., chapter F-2.1), that roll is deemed to have been drawn up for the fiscal years 2002, 2003 and 2004.

Drawing up and filing valid.

The drawing up and filing of the roll for the fiscal years 2005, 2006 and 2007 may not be invalidated on the grounds that they were carried out before the effective date of the first two paragraphs.

By-laws.

234. The by-laws of Ville d'Asbestos on the imposition of general property taxes for the fiscal years 2000 to 2003 may not be invalidated on the grounds that they provide for different general property taxes depending on whether the immovables are situated in the territory of the former Municipalité de Trois-Lacs or the territory of the former Ville d'Asbestos.

Tax credit.

For the fiscal years 2004 and 2005, Ville d'Asbestos may grant the owner of an immovable situated in the territory of the former Municipalité de Trois-Lacs a tax credit the amount of which, per $100 of assessed value, is established in keeping with resolution No. 2004-35 adopted by the council of Ville d'Asbestos on 16 February 2004.

Budget valid.

The budget adopted by the council of Ville d'Asbestos for the 2004 fiscal year may not be invalidated on the grounds that it provides for such a tax credit.

Applicability.

The second paragraph applies despite the Municipal Aid Prohibition Act (R.S.Q., chapter I-15).

Amendment of order in council.

235. Despite section 176 of the Act respecting the consultation of citizens with respect to the territorial reorganization of certain municipalities (2003, chapter 14), the Government may, until 31 December 2004, amend Order in Council 371-2003 dated 12 March 2003 respecting Ville de La Tuque.

Time limit.	236. Sections 5, 14, 124 and 132 do not apply to a time limit that began to run on 1 November 2004.
Hog farms.	237. A local municipality may not, with respect to hog farms, take advantage of subparagraph 4.1 of the second paragraph of section 113 of the Act respecting land use planning and development (R.S.Q., chapter A-19.1), amended by section 7, until an amendment to the land use planning and development plan, a revised plan or an interim control by-law in conformity with aims complementary to this Act and related to the objectives referred to in subparagraph 2.1 of the first paragraph of section 5 of that Act comes into force in its territory.
By-law continued.	238. A by-law in force on 31 October 2004 and adopted under the provisions repealed by section 91 remains in force until replaced or repealed under the provisions enacted by section 9.
Additions or extensions.	239. For the purposes of subparagraph 2 of the second paragraph of section 165.4.2 of the Act respecting land use planning and development (R.S.Q., chapter A-19.1), enacted by section 10, only additions or extensions built in accordance with a permit issued after that section takes effect may be included in the calculation.
Effective date.	240. Sections 10 and 12 take effect on the date that is 90 days after the day on which the Government adopts aims complementary to this Act and related to the objectives referred to in subparagraph 2.1 of the first paragraph of section 5 of the Act respecting land use planning and development (R.S.Q., chapter A-19.1). As soon as practicable after that adoption, the Minister of Municipal Affairs, Sports and Recreation must publish in the Gazette officielle du Québec a notice mentioning the adoption and the effective date of sections 10 and 12.
Prohibition.	No permit or certificate referred to in section 165.4.1 of that Act, enacted by section 10, may be issued by a municipality before that section takes effect.
Validity of permit or certificate.	No permit or certificate referred to in section 165.4.1 and issued by a municipality after 30 April 2002 and before 1 November 2004, or application for such a permit or certificate made before section 10 takes effect, is valid, unless the work authorized by a permit already issued has been carried out by 1 November 2004.
Provisions applicable.	The second and third paragraphs do not apply to a permit applied for or issued for work required for an increase of up to 250 hogs referred to in subparagraph b of subparagraph 3 of the first paragraph of section 46 of the Agricultural Operations Regulation, enacted by Order in Council 695-2002 (2002, G.O. 2, 2643), for which the Minister of the Environment issued an authorization certificate before 15 June 2004.
Provisions applicable.	From the effective date of section 10, an application for a building permit to replace a building that exists on the effective date of that section and that, after that date, is totally or partially destroyed by a disaster, is subject to the application of the provisions enacted by that section, if the annual production of phosphoric anhydride attributable to the project for which the application is made is more than 3,200 kg greater than the annual production at the site before it was totally or partially destroyed.

- Provisions applicable. 241. Sections 15 and 16, paragraph 1 of section 19, paragraph 1 of section 20, sections 21, 24, 27 and 28, paragraph 1 of section 31, paragraph 1 of section 32, sections 33, 36, 39, 40 and 43, paragraph 1 of section 44, paragraph 1 of section 45, sections 46 and 49, paragraph 1 of section 53, paragraphs 2 and 5 of section 54, section 55, paragraph 1 of section 58, paragraph 1 of section 59, sections 60, 64, 65 and 73 to 76, paragraph 1 of section 79, paragraph 1 of section 80 and sections 81, 84, 93, 99, 100, 115, 116, 135 to 144, 146, 149 to 154, 156 to 171, 173 to 179 and 181 to 189 have effect for the purposes of every fiscal year as of the fiscal year 2005.
- Provisions applicable. However, with respect to Ville de Longueuil, sections 39, 40 and 43, paragraph 1 of section 44, paragraph 1 of section 45 and sections 46, 49, 99, 100, 140 to 144, 146, 150 to 154, 156, 161, 167 to 170, 174, 175, 177, 179, 181 to 185 and 189 have effect for the purposes of every fiscal year as of the fiscal year 2006.
- Acts valid. 242. Any act performed for the 2003 or the 2004 fiscal year under a provision referred to in section 151.5.1 of the Charter of Ville de Montréal (R.S.Q., chapter C-11.4), repealed by section 63, is valid despite the fact that the provision was applicable only for the 2002 fiscal year.
- Presumption. 243. Until the coming into force of the first amendment made after 31 October 2004 to the regulation made under paragraph 2 of section 263 of the Act respecting municipal taxation (R.S.Q., chapter F-2.1), a reference in the regulation to a case where the clerk makes use of the power provided for in the third paragraph of section 81 of that Act is deemed a reference to a case where the assessor makes use of that power, as a result of the application of section 82.1 of that Act, enacted by section 145.
- Effective date. 244. Section 172 has effect from 24 August 1989.
- By-law retroactive. 245. A by-law adopted in 2004 under the fifth paragraph of section 252 of the Act respecting municipal taxation (R.S.Q., chapter F-2.1), enacted by paragraph 3 of section 180, may be retroactive to the date specified in the by-law.
- Amounts per inhabitant. 246. Until the coming into force of the first regulation made under paragraph 1 of section 31.6 of the Act respecting the remuneration of elected municipal officers (R.S.Q., chapter T-11.001), enacted by section 205, the amounts per inhabitant applicable to each population bracket established in section 12 of that Act, enacted by section 199, are the following:

Minimum remuneration of warden.

249. Maximum expense allowance.

250. Until the coming into force of the first regulation made under section 32.1 of the Act respecting the remuneration of elected municipal officers (R.S.Q., chapter T-11.001), enacted by section 207, the maximum expense allowance for a member of the council of a municipality referred to in the first paragraph of section 22 of that Act, amended by section 202, is $13,434.

251. The amounts of remuneration set out in the order in council made by the Minister of Municipal Affairs, Sports and Recreation on 20 August 2003 and published in the Gazette officielle du Québec on 3 September 2003, under sections 259, 261 and 281 of the Act respecting Northern villages and the Kativik Regional Government (R.S.Q., chapter V-6.1), continue to apply despite the repeal or amendment of those provisions by sections 208 to 210, as if the order in council had been made under section 296.1 of that Act, enacted by section 211.

Effective date.

254. Sections 215 and 216 have effect from 16 July 2003.

Payment of all or part of contributions.

255. A municipality or a body referred to in section 18 of the Act respecting the Pension Plan of Elected Municipal Officers (R.S.Q., chapter R-9.3) may elect to pay all or part of the contributions payable for a technical actuarial deficiency or for a sum established under subparagraph 4 of the second paragraph of section 137 of the Supplemental Pension Plans Act (R.S.Q., chapter R-15.1) determined by an actuarial valuation referred to in section 12 of the Act to amend various legislative provisions concerning municipal affairs (2003, chapter 3), enacted by section 215, or an actuarial valuation of the whole plan dated not earlier than 2 January 2003 nor later than 1 January 2005, by remitting to the pension fund of the plan concerned a bond it issues for that purpose.

Condition.

However, that election may only be exercised if the limit set in the first paragraph of section 172 of the Supplemental Pension Plans Act is respected. For that purpose, a percentage of 17.5% is deemed to replace that of 10% provided for in that paragraph, until the expiry of the time determined to send the Régie des rentes du Québec the report on a complete actuarial valuation of the plan showing for the first time that the bond was wholly redeemed.

Bond.

The bond must be non-negotiable, have a maximum term of ten years and carry interest at a rate approved by the pension committee. Failing approval, the bond must carry interest at rates the federal government bond market would require, at the time of payment into the pension fund, for a bond with a ten-year term.

Resolution.

Effective date.

Effective date. 258. Section 230 has effect from 24 September 2004.

Individual who holds employment on 1 January 2001.

“69.2. For the purposes of this subdivision, an individual referred to in the fifth paragraph is deemed to take up employment, as an employee, with a corporation or partnership operating an international financial centre at the particular time referred to in subparagraph 2 where

(1) the individual holds employment with the corporation or partnership on 1 January 2001; and

(2) at a particular time when the individual works for the corporation or partnership, the individual would begin, for the first time since 1 January 2001, to satisfy the requirements set out in subparagraphs 3 and 4 of the first paragraph of section 66 if

(a) that subparagraph 3 were read with “from the particular time to the end of the particular year or the part of the particular year” replaced by “throughout the particular year or the part of the particular year”, and

(b) that subparagraph 4 were replaced by the following subparagraph:

Presumption.

The individual to whom the first or third paragraph applies is also deemed to begin performing the duties of the employment the individual holds with the corporation or partnership at the particular time referred to in subparagraph 2 of that paragraph.

Individual referred to in the first paragraph.

The individual to whom the first paragraph refers is the individual who

(1) has no reference period that is running on 1 January 2001 in relation to that employment; and

(2) may deduct, in computing the individual’s taxable income for a taxation year preceding the year 2001, in relation to a preceding employment, an amount under any of the sections mentioned in the third paragraph of section 737.19.2 of the Taxation Act (chapter I-3), or could so deduct such an amount if an employer had not failed to apply, in respect of the individual, for a qualification certificate or a certificate referred to in any of the sections mentioned in subparagraph ii of paragraph a of section 737.20 of that Act.

Individual referred to in the second paragraph.

The individual to whom the second paragraph refers is the individual who

Individual referred to in the third paragraph.

The individual to whom the third paragraph refers is the individual who

(1) has not worked to establish the international financial centre immediately before taking up employment, as an employee, with the corporation or partnership or, if such is not the case, took up employment more than 12 months after becoming resident in Canada in order to establish that center in Canada or does not satisfy the requirements set out in subparagraphs 3 and 4 of the first paragraph of section 66 on the day of taking up employment; and

(2) may deduct, in computing the individual's taxable income for the taxation year in which the individual entered into the individual's employment contract or for a preceding taxation year, in relation to a preceding employment, an amount under any of the sections mentioned in the third paragraph of section 737.19.2 of the Taxation Act, or could so deduct such an amount if an employer had not failed to apply, in respect of the individual, for a qualification certificate or a certificate referred to in any of the sections mentioned in subparagraph ii of paragraph a of section 737.20 of that Act.

Deemed change of employment.

“69.3. For the purposes of this subdivision, the employment contract that an individual entered into with a corporation or a partnership operating an international financial centre, in this section referred to as the “original contract”, or a deemed contract within the meaning of subparagraph 1 of the third paragraph, is deemed to end at the time when the individual ceases to satisfy the requirements set out in subparagraphs 3 and 4 of the first paragraph of section 66.

Individual who holds employment on 1 January 2001.

Where on 1 January 2001, an individual referred to in the fourth paragraph holds employment with a corporation or partnership operating an international financial centre, the employment contract entered into with the corporation or partnership, in this section referred to as the “original contract”, is deemed to have ended before that date.

Deemed new employment.

In addition, where at a particular time an individual would again satisfy the requirements set out in subparagraphs 3 and 4 of the first paragraph of section 66 if that subparagraph 3 were read with “from the particular time to the end of the particular year or the part of the particular year” replaced by “throughout the particular year or the part of the particular year”, and if that subparagraph 4 were read without reference to “for any part of the period beginning at the particular time and ending at the end of the particular year or the part of the particular year,” and with “for that part of the period” replaced by “for the particular year or the part of the particular year”, the following rules apply:

(1) the individual is deemed to enter into, with the corporation or partnership, a new employment contract, in this section referred to as the “deemed contract”, and that contract is deemed to be entered into before 13 June 2003; and

(2) the individual is deemed to take up employment, as an employee, with the corporation or partnership at the particular time and is also deemed to begin at that time to perform the duties of that new employment.

(3) may deduct, in computing the individual's taxable income for a taxation year preceding the year 2001, in relation to that employment, an amount under section 737.16 of the Taxation Act (chapter I-3), or could so deduct such an amount if the corporation or partnership had not failed to apply, in respect of the individual, for a certificate referred to in section 19 or in section 737.15 of the Taxation Act, as it read before being repealed, or the qualification certificate referred to in section 14.

Termination of the original contract.

The expiry, termination or cancellation of the original contract or any other event having the effect of terminating the original contract also entails the expiry, termination or cancellation, as the case may be, of a deemed contract continuing the original contract, or otherwise terminates such a contract.

Renewal of the original contract.

Employment contract renewed after 12 June 2003.

“69.4. For the purposes of this subdivision, the contract resulting from the renewal, after 12 June 2003, of an employment contract referred to in section 66 is deemed not to be an employment contract separate from the employment contract referred to in that section.

Exception.

The first paragraph does not apply in respect of a contract that is deemed to have ended under the first or second paragraph of section 69.3.”

(2) Subsection 1 applies from 1 January 2001, except where it enacts section 69.4 of the said Act, in which case it applies from the taxation year 2003.

139. (1) Section 737.18.7 of the said Act is replaced by the following section:

Rule applicable.

(2) Subsection 1 applies from 1 January 2001.

c. I-3, ss. 737.18.7.1-
737.18.7.3, added.

140. (1) The said Act is amended by inserting the following sections after section 737.18.7:

Individual who holds employment on
1 January 2001.

“737.18.7.1. For the purposes of this Title, an individual to whom the fourth paragraph applies is deemed to take up employment, as an employee, with an eligible employer at the particular time referred to in subparagraph b where

(a) the individual holds employment with the eligible employer on 1 January 2001; and

(b) at a particular time, the individual would be, for the first time since 1 January 2001, a foreign specialist working for the eligible employer if the definition of “foreign specialist” in the first paragraph of section 737.18.6 were read

i. without reference to paragraph b thereof, and

ii. with the reference to “from the particular time to the end of the year or the part of the year” in the portion of paragraph c before subparagraph i and in paragraph d replaced by a reference to “throughout the year or the part of the year”.

Individual who enters into a new employment contract.

An individual to whom the fifth paragraph applies is deemed to take up employment, as an employee, with an eligible employer at the particular time referred to in subparagraph b where

(a) the individual enters into an employment contract with the eligible employer after 31 December 2000; and

(b) at a particular time, the individual would be, for the first time since the entering into the contract referred to in subparagraph a, a foreign specialist working for the eligible employer if the portion of paragraph c of the definition of “foreign specialist” in the first paragraph of section 737.18.6 before subparagraph i and paragraph d of that definition were read with the reference to “from the particular time to the end of the year or the part of the year” replaced by a reference to “throughout the year or the part of the year”.

Presumption.

In addition, the individual to whom the first or second paragraph applies is also deemed to begin performing the duties of the employment the individual holds with the eligible employer at the particular time referred to in subparagraph b of that paragraph.

Individual referred to in the first paragraph.

The individual to whom the first paragraph refers is the individual who

(a) has no exemption period that is running on 1 January 2001 in relation to that employment; and

(b) may deduct, in computing the individual’s taxable income for a taxation year preceding the year 2001, in relation to a preceding employment, an amount under any of the sections mentioned in the third paragraph of section 737.19.2, or could so deduct such an amount if an employer had not failed to apply, in respect of the individual, for a qualification certificate or a certificate referred to in any of the sections mentioned in subparagraph ii of paragraph a of section 737.20.

Individual referred to in the second paragraph.

The individual to whom the second paragraph refers is the individual who may deduct, in computing the individual’s taxable income for the taxation year in which the individual has entered into the individual’s employment contract or for a preceding taxation year, in relation to a preceding employment, an amount under any of the sections mentioned in the third paragraph of section 737.19.2, or could so deduct such an amount if an employer had not failed to apply, in respect of the individual, for a qualification certificate or a certificate referred to in any of the sections mentioned in subparagraph ii of paragraph a of section 737.20.

Deemed change of employment.

“737.18.7.2. For the purposes of this Title, the employment contract that an individual entered into with an eligible employer, in this section referred to as the “original contract”, or a deemed contract within the meaning of subparagraph a of the third paragraph, is deemed to end at the time when the individual ceases to be a foreign specialist.

Individual who holds employment on 1 January 2001.

Where on 1 January 2001 an individual to whom the fourth paragraph applies holds employment with an eligible employer, the employment contract the individual entered into with that employer, in this section referred to as the “original contract”, is deemed to have ended before that date.

Deemed new employment.

In addition, where at a particular time an individual would again become a foreign specialist if this section were read without reference to the first and second paragraphs and the portion of paragraph c of the definition of “foreign specialist” in the first paragraph of section 737.18.6 before subparagraph i and paragraph d of that definition were read with the reference to “from the particular time to the end of the year or the part of the year” replaced by a reference to “throughout the year or the part of the year”, the following rules apply:

(a) the individual is deemed to enter into, with the eligible employer, a new employment contract, in this section referred to as the “deemed contract”, and that contract is deemed to be entered into before 13 June 2003; and

(b) the individual is deemed to take up employment, as an employee, with the eligible employer at the particular time and is also deemed to begin at that time to perform the duties of that new employment.

Individual referred to in the second paragraph.

The individual to whom the second paragraph refers is the individual who

(a) is not resident in Canada immediately before taking up employment, as an employee, with the eligible employer;

(b) has no exemption period that is running on 1 January 2001 in relation to that employment; and

(c) may deduct, in computing the individual’s taxable income for a taxation year preceding the year 2001, in relation to that employment, an amount under section 737.18.10, or could so deduct such an amount if the eligible employer had not failed to apply, in respect of the individual, for a certificate referred to in paragraph f of the definition of “foreign specialist” in section 737.18.6, as it read for that preceding taxation year.

Individual who took up employment before 10 March 1999.

Where an individual holds employment with an eligible employer on 10 March 1999 under the original contract, but took up employment, as an employee, with that employer before that date, the following rules apply:

(a) the third paragraph, where it applies for the first time since the original contract is deemed to have ended under the first or second paragraph, shall be read with the reference to “from the particular time” replaced by a reference to “from 10 March 1999”; and

(b) if the second paragraph applies to the original contract, subparagraph a of the fourth paragraph shall be read as follows:

“(a) the individual is not resident in Canada immediately before 10 March 1999;”.

Termination of the original contract.

The expiry, termination or cancellation of the original contract or any other event having the effect of terminating the original contract also entails the expiry, termination or cancellation, as the case may be, of a deemed contract continuing the original contract, or otherwise terminates such a contract.

Renewal of the original contract.

Employment contract renewed after 12 June 2003.

“737.18.7.3. For the purposes of this Title, the contract resulting from the renewal, after 12 June 2003, of an employment contract referred to in the definition of “foreign specialist” in the first paragraph of section 737.18.6 and in this section referred to as the “original contract”, is deemed not to be an employment contract separate from the original contract.

New employment contract.

The rule set out in the first paragraph applies, with the necessary modifications, to a new employment contract that is entered into after 12 June 2003 with another eligible employer, who is deemed not to be an employer separate from the eligible employer, in this section referred to as the “first employer”, who entered into the original contract, provided that

(a) the other eligible employer

i. controls directly or indirectly the first employer,

ii. is, directly or indirectly, a controlled subsidiary of the first employer, or

iii. as a result of a transaction referred to in section 518 or 566, continues to carry on the business of the first employer in the course of which the individual who entered into the original contract performed the individual’s duties as a foreign specialist; and

(b) it may reasonably be considered that, but for the change of employer, the individual who entered into the original contract would have continued to be a foreign specialist working for the first employer until the time when the individual took up employment, as an employee, with the other eligible employer.

Exception.

The first paragraph does not apply in respect of a contract that is deemed to have ended under the first or second paragraph of section 737.18.7.2.”

(2) Subsection 1 applies from 1 January 2001, except where it enacts section 737.18.7.3 of the said Act, in which case it applies from the taxation year 2003.

c. I-3, ss. 737.18.9.1 and 737.18.9.2, added.

Rules applicable.

“737.18.9.2. For the purposes of this Title, where, at any time after 11 June 2003, control of a corporation that carries on at that time a recognized business or is a member of a partnership that carries on at that time a recognized business is acquired by a person or group of persons, otherwise than under the circumstances described in the second paragraph, the following rules apply:

ii. the base period applicable to the corporation, in respect of the eligible activities of the recognized business, is deemed to end immediately before that time; and

(b) where the recognized business is carried on by the partnership, the base period applicable to the partnership, in respect of the eligible activities of the recognized business, is deemed, for the purpose of computing the amount that the corporation may deduct under section 737.18.11 for the taxation year in which the fiscal period of the partnership that includes that time ends and for a subsequent taxation year, to end immediately before that time.

Exceptions.

The first paragraph does not apply if acquiring control of the corporation

(a) occurs after 11 June 2003 and before 1 July 2004 where the Minister of Finance certifies that the acquisition of control results from a transaction that was sufficiently advanced on 11 June 2003 and was binding on the parties on that date;

Individual who holds employment on 1 January 2001.

Where on 1 January 2001 an individual to whom the fourth paragraph applies holds employment with a qualified corporation, the employment contract the individual entered into with that corporation, in this section referred to as the “original contract”, is deemed to have ended before that date.

Deemed new employment.

In addition, where at a particular time an individual would again become a foreign specialist if this section were read without reference to the first and second paragraphs and paragraph c of the definition of “foreign specialist” in the first paragraph of section 737.18.29 and the portion of paragraph e of that definition before subparagraph i were read with the reference to “from the particular time to the end of the year or the part of the year” replaced by a reference to “throughout the year or the part of the year”, the following rules apply:

“foreign researcher” for all or part of a taxation year, means an individual in respect of whom the following conditions are met:

(a) at a particular time, the individual takes up employment, as an employee, with an eligible employer under an employment contract entered into with that employer;

(b) the individual is not resident in Canada immediately before entering into the employment contract or immediately before taking up employment, as an employee, with the eligible employer;

(c) from the particular time to the end of the year or the part of the year,

i. the individual works exclusively or almost exclusively for the eligible employer, and

ii. the individual's duties for the eligible employer consist exclusively or almost exclusively in carrying on, as an employee, scientific research and experimental development that cannot reasonably be considered to be scientific research and experimental development activities carried on in an eligible university entity within the meaning of paragraph f of section 1029.8.1 or an eligible public research centre within the meaning of paragraph a.1 of that section; and

(d) the eligible employer obtained in respect of the individual from the Minister of Economic and Regional Development and Research, after having applied therefor in writing before 1 March of the calendar year following the taxation year, a certificate, that has not been revoked, certifying that the individual is specialized in the field of pure or applied science or a related field and holds, or possesses knowledge equivalent to the knowledge acquired by the holder of, a Master's degree recognized by a Québec university in such a field;

"research activity period" of an individual who is a foreign researcher for all or part of a taxation year, in relation to an employment the individual holds with an eligible employer, means the period that, subject to the second paragraph, begins on the day on which the individual begins to perform the duties of that employment and ends on the earlier of

(a) the day preceding the day on which the individual ceases to be a foreign researcher; and

i. where the individual began to stay or became resident in Canada after 19 December 2002 by reason of an employment contract entered into after that date, the aggregate of all periods each of which is a preceding period within the meaning of section 737.19.2 that is established in respect of the individual, and

ii. in any other case, the aggregate of all preceding periods each of which is

(1) all or part of a preceding period, established in respect of the individual under this definition, to which an amount that the individual may deduct in computing the individual's taxable income for a taxation year, under section 737.21, in relation to a preceding employment, may reasonably be attributed, or

(2) a preceding period within the meaning of section 737.19.2 that is established in respect of the individual since the last time the individual became resident in Canada, other than a period described in subparagraph 1;

Research activity period.

Where an individual is not a foreign researcher for any part of the taxation year that includes the particular day on which the individual begins to perform the duties of an employment the individual holds with an eligible employer because the certificate referred to in the definition of “foreign researcher” in the first paragraph was not obtained in respect of the individual, the individual’s research activity period in relation to that employment begins only on the first day of the first taxation year following the particular day for all or part of which the individual is a foreign researcher.”

(2) Subsection 1 applies from 1 January 2001 in respect of an individual

(1) who takes up employment for the first time after 9 March 1999 with an eligible employer under an employment contract entered into after that date; or

(2) in respect of certificates issued before 29 April 2003, the reference therein to “Minister of Economic and Regional Development and Research” shall be read as a reference to “Minister of Research, Science and Technology”.

c. I-3, s. 737.19.2, added.

157. (1) The said Act is amended by inserting the following section after section 737.19.1:

Preceding period.

“737.19.2. For the purpose of establishing the research activity period of an individual in relation to an employment, a period preceding the period to which subparagraph i of paragraph b of the definition of “research activity period” in the first paragraph of section 737.19 and subparagraph 2 of subparagraph ii of that paragraph b refer means all or part of a particular period referred to in the second paragraph to which an amount referred to in the third paragraph may reasonably be attributed.

Particular period.

The particular period to which the first paragraph refers is a period that precedes the research activity period and is established in respect of the individual under any of sections 737.18.6, 737.18.29, 737.19, 737.22.0.0.1, 737.22.0.0.5, 737.22.0.1 and 737.22.0.5, or section 69 of the Act respecting international financial centres (chapter C-8.3), or regulations made under the first paragraph of section 737.16, as they read for a taxation year beginning on or before 20 December 1999.

Amount referred to.

The amount to which the first paragraph refers is an amount that the individual may deduct in computing the individual's taxable income for a taxation year, in relation to a preceding employment, under any of sections 737.16, 737.18.10, 737.18.34, 737.21, 737.22.0.0.3, 737.22.0.0.7, 737.22.0.3 and 737.22.0.7."

(2) Subsection 1 applies from 1 January 2001 in respect of an individual

(1) who takes up employment for the first time after 9 March 1999 with an eligible employer under an employment contract entered into after that date; or

(2) whose research activity period was running at any time in the year 1999.

c. I-3, s. 737.20, replaced.

158. (1) Section 737.20 of the said Act is replaced by the following section:

Rules applicable.

"737.20. For the application of the definition of "foreign researcher" in the first paragraph of section 737.19 to an individual who is resident in Canada immediately before entering into an employment contract with an eligible employer and immediately before taking up employment, as an employee, with that employer, the following rules apply:

(a) the individual is deemed not to be resident in Canada immediately before taking up employment, as an employee, with the eligible employer if

i. the individual may deduct an amount in computing the individual's taxable income for the taxation year in which the individual so took up employment or for a preceding taxation year, in relation to a preceding employment, under any of the sections mentioned in the third paragraph of section 737.19.2, or

ii. the individual would meet the condition set out in subparagraph i if an employer had not failed to apply, in respect of the individual, for a qualification certificate or a certificate referred to in any of sections 737.18.6, 737.18.29, 737.19, 737.22.0.0.1, 737.22.0.0.5, 737.22.0.1 and 737.22.0.5, in section 19 of the Act respecting international financial centres (chapter C-8.3) or in section 737.15, as it read before being repealed; and

(b) a certificate referred to in paragraph d of the definition of "foreign researcher" in the first paragraph of section 737.19 that has been issued in respect of the individual, in relation to a preceding employment contract entered into with any eligible employer, is deemed to be issued to the eligible employer, in relation to an employment contract, if it has not been revoked."

(2) Subsection 1 applies from 1 January 2001 in respect of an individual

(1) who takes up employment for the first time after 9 March 1999 with an eligible employer under an employment contract entered into after that date; or

(2) whose research activity period was running at any time in the year 1999.

c. 1-3, ss. 737.20.1-737.20.3, added.

159. (1) The said Act is amended by inserting the following sections after section 737.20:

Individual who holds employment on 1 January 2001.

“737.20.1. For the purposes of this Title, an individual to whom the fourth paragraph applies is deemed to take up employment, as an employee, with an eligible employer at the particular time referred to in subparagraph b where

(a) the individual holds employment with the eligible employer on 1 January 2001; and

(b) at a particular time, the individual would be, for the first time since 1 January 2001, a foreign researcher working for the eligible employer if the definition of “foreign researcher” in the first paragraph of section 737.19 were read

i. without reference to paragraph b thereof, and

ii. with the reference to “from the particular time to the end of the year or the part of the year” in the portion of paragraph c before subparagraph i replaced by a reference to “throughout the year or the part of the year”.

Individual who enters into a new employment contract.

An individual to whom the fifth paragraph applies is deemed to take up employment, as an employee, with an eligible employer at the particular time referred to in subparagraph b where

(a) the individual enters into an employment contract with the eligible employer after 31 December 2000; and

(b) at a particular time, the individual would be, for the first time since the entering into the contract referred to in subparagraph a, a foreign researcher working for the eligible employer if the portion of paragraph c of the definition of “foreign researcher” in the first paragraph of section 737.19 before subparagraph i were read with the reference to “from the particular time to the end of the year or the part of the year” replaced by a reference to “throughout the year or the part of the year”.

Presumption.

In addition, the individual to whom the first or second paragraph applies is also deemed to begin performing the duties of the employment the individual holds with the eligible employer at the particular time referred to in subparagraph b of that paragraph.

Individual referred to in the first paragraph.

The individual to whom the first paragraph refers is the individual who

(a) has no research activity period that is running on 1 January 2001 in relation to that employment; and

(b) may deduct, in computing the individual's taxable income for a taxation year preceding the year 2001, in relation to a preceding employment, an amount under any of the sections mentioned in the third paragraph of section 737.19.2, or could so deduct such an amount if an employer had not failed to apply, in respect of the individual, for a qualification certificate or a certificate referred to in any of the sections mentioned in subparagraph ii of paragraph a of section 737.20.

Individual referred to in the second paragraph.

The individual to whom the second paragraph refers is the individual who may deduct, in computing the individual's taxable income for the taxation year in which the individual has entered into the individual's employment contract or for a preceding taxation year, in relation to a preceding employment, an amount under any of the sections mentioned in the third paragraph of section 737.19.2, or could so deduct such an amount if an employer had not failed to apply, in respect of the individual, for a qualification certificate or a certificate referred to in any of the sections mentioned in subparagraph ii of paragraph a of section 737.20.

Deemed change of employment.

“737.20.2. For the purposes of this Title, the employment contract that an individual entered into with an eligible employer, in this section referred to as the “original contract”, or a deemed contract, is deemed to end at the time when the individual ceases to be a foreign researcher.

Individual who holds employment on 1 January 2001.

Where on 1 January 2001 an individual to whom the fourth paragraph applies holds employment with an eligible employer, the employment contract the individual entered into with that employer, in this section referred to as the “original contract”, is deemed to have ended before that date.

Deemed new employment.

In addition, where at a particular time an individual would again become a foreign researcher if this section were read without reference to the first and second paragraphs and the portion of paragraph c of the definition of “foreign researcher” in the first paragraph of section 737.19 before subparagraph i were read with the reference to “from the particular time to the end of the year or the part of the year” replaced by a reference to “throughout the year or the part of the year”, the following rules apply:

(a) the individual is deemed to enter into, with the eligible employer, a new employment contract, in this section referred to as the “deemed contract”, and that contract is deemed to be entered into before 13 June 2003; and

(b) the individual is deemed to take up employment, as an employee, with the eligible employer at the particular time and is also deemed to begin at that time to perform the duties of that new employment.

Individual referred to in the second paragraph.

The individual to whom the second paragraph refers is the individual who

(a) is not resident in Canada immediately before entering into the original contract or immediately before taking up employment, as an employee, with the eligible employer;

(b) has no research activity period that is running on 1 January 2001 in relation to that employment; and

(c) may deduct, in computing the individual's taxable income for a taxation year preceding the year 2001, in relation to that employment, an amount under section 737.21, or could so deduct such an amount if the eligible employer had not failed to apply, in respect of the individual, for a certificate referred to in the definition of "foreign researcher" in section 737.19, as it read for that preceding taxation year.

Termination of the original contract.

The expiry, termination or cancellation of the original contract or any other event having the effect of terminating the original contract also entails the expiry, termination or cancellation, as the case may be, of a deemed contract continuing the original contract, or otherwise terminates such a contract.

Renewal of the original contract.

Employment contract renewed after 12 June 2003.

"737.20.3. For the purposes of this Title, the contract resulting from the renewal, after 12 June 2003, of an employment contract referred to in the definition of "foreign researcher" in the first paragraph of section 737.19 is deemed not to be an employment contract separate from the employment contract referred to in that definition.

Exception.

The first paragraph does not apply in respect of a contract that is deemed to have ended under the first or second paragraph of section 737.20.2."

(2) Subsection 1, where it enacts sections 737.20.1 and 737.20.2 of the said Act, applies from 1 January 2001 in respect of an individual

(1) who takes up employment for the first time after 9 March 1999 with an eligible employer under an employment contract entered into after that date; or

(2) whose research activity period was running at any time in the year 1999.

(3) Subsection 1, where it enacts section 737.20.3 of the said Act, applies from the taxation year 2003.

c. I-3, s. 737.21, replaced.

160. (1) Section 737.21 of the said Act is replaced by the following section:

Amount deductible by foreign researcher.

“737.21. An individual who, at any time, holds employment, as a foreign researcher, with an eligible employer may deduct, in computing the individual’s taxable income for a taxation year, an amount not greater than the amount determined by the formula

$$A \times (B - C).$$

In the formula provided for in the first paragraph,

(a) A is

i. 75%, where the individual entered into the individual’s employment contract with the eligible employer after 12 June 2003, or entered into the contract before 13 June 2003 but began to perform the duties of that employment after 1 September 2003, and

ii. 100%, in any other case;

(b) B is the individual’s eligible income for the year, in relation to that employment, that the eligible employer certified in prescribed manner; and

(2) Subsection 1 applies from 1 January 2001 in respect of an individual

(1) who takes up employment for the first time after 9 March 1999 with an eligible employer under an employment contract entered into after that date; or

(2) whose research activity period was running at any time in the year 1999.

(3) However, where section 737.21 of the said Act, enacted by subsection 1, applies before the taxation year 2003, it shall be read as follows:

“737.21. An individual who, at any time, holds employment, as a foreign researcher, with an eligible employer may deduct, in computing the individual’s taxable income for a taxation year, an amount not greater than the amount by which the individual’s eligible income for the year, in relation to that employment, that the eligible employer certified in prescribed manner exceeds the aggregate of all amounts that the individual may deduct in computing the individual’s income for the year under Chapter III of Title II of Book III and that may reasonably be attributed to the individual’s employment as a foreign researcher during the individual’s research activity period in relation to that employment.”

c. I-3, s. 737.22,
replaced.

(d) the eligible employer obtained, in respect of the individual, a certificate, for the taxation year, issued by the Minister of Education, after having applied therefor in writing before 1 March of the following calendar year, and that certificate, that has not been revoked in respect of the year or the part of the year, certifies that the individual is specialized in the field of pure or applied science or a related field and holds a doctoral degree; and

(e) the certificate referred to in paragraph d and, where applicable, all the unrevoked certificates obtained in respect of the individual for preceding taxation years, also certify that, from the particular time to the end of the year or the part of the year, the individual performed, exclusively or almost exclusively, the individual's duties as a researcher in connection with a post-doctoral internship for the employer;";

(2) by replacing the definition of "research activity period" by the following definition:

(a) the day preceding the day on which the individual ceases to be a foreign researcher on a post-doctoral internship; and

(b) the day on which that period totals five years, with reference to

i. where the individual began to stay or became resident in Canada after 19 December 2002 by reason of an employment contract entered into after that date, the aggregate of all periods each of which is a preceding period within the meaning of section 737.22.0.0.1.1 that is established in respect of the individual, and

ii. in any other case, the aggregate of all preceding periods each of which is

(4) by adding the following paragraph:

Research activity period.

"Where the certificate referred to in paragraph d of the definition of "foreign researcher on a post-doctoral internship" in the first paragraph was not issued in respect of an individual for the taxation year that includes the particular day on which the individual begins to perform the duties of an employment the individual holds with an eligible employer, the individual's research activity period in relation to that employment begins only on the first day of the first taxation year following the particular day for which such a certificate was issued in respect of the individual."

“737.22.0.0.1.1. For the purpose of establishing the research activity period of an individual in relation to an employment, a preceding period to which subparagraph i of paragraph b of the definition of “research activity period” in the first paragraph of section 737.22.0.0.1 and subparagraph 2 of subparagraph ii of that paragraph b refer means all or part of a preceding period, established in respect of the individual under any of the sections mentioned in the second paragraph of section 737.19.2 or under the regulations mentioned in that paragraph, to which an amount that the individual may deduct in computing the individual’s taxable income for a taxation year, in relation to a preceding employment, under any of the sections mentioned in the third paragraph of section 737.19.2, may reasonably be attributed.”

(a) the individual may deduct an amount in computing the individual’s taxable income for the taxation year in which the individual so took up employment or for a preceding taxation year, in relation to a preceding employment, under any of the sections mentioned in the third paragraph of section 737.19.2; or

(b) the individual would meet the condition set out in paragraph a if an employer had not failed to apply, in respect of the individual, for a qualification certificate or a certificate referred to in any of the sections mentioned in subparagraph ii of paragraph a of section 737.20.”

(2) Subsection 1 applies from 1 January 2001 in respect of an individual

(1) who takes up employment for the first time after 9 March 1999 with an eligible employer under an employment contract entered into after that date; or

(2) whose research activity period was running at any time in the year 1999.

(3) However, where section 737.22.0.0.2 of the said Act applies before the taxation year 2003, it shall be read as follows:

“737.22.0.0.2. For the application of the definition of “foreign researcher on a post-doctoral internship” in the first paragraph of section 737.22.0.0.1, to an individual who is resident in Canada immediately before entering into an employment contract with an eligible employer and immediately before taking up employment, as an employee, with that employer, the following rules apply:

c. I-3,
ss. 737.22.0.0.2.1-
737.22.0.0.2.3, added.

Individual who holds employment on
1 January 2001.

165. (1) The said Act is amended by inserting the following sections after section 737.22.0.0.2:

“737.22.0.0.2.1. For the purposes of this Title, an individual to whom the fourth paragraph applies is deemed to take up employment, as an employee, with an eligible employer at the particular time referred to in subparagraph b where

(a) the individual holds employment with the eligible employer on 1 January 2001; and

(b) at a particular time, the individual would be, for the first time since 1 January 2001, a foreign researcher on a post-doctoral internship working for the eligible employer if the definition of “foreign researcher on a post-doctoral internship” in the first paragraph of section 737.22.0.0.1 were read

i. without reference to paragraph b thereof, and

ii. with the reference to “from the particular time to the end of the year or the part of the year” in the portion of paragraph c before subparagraph i and paragraph e replaced by a reference to “throughout the year or the part of the year”.

Individual who enters
into a new employment
contract.

An individual to whom the fifth paragraph applies is deemed to take up employment, as an employee, with an eligible employer at the particular time referred to in subparagraph b where

(a) the individual enters into an employment contract with the eligible employer after 31 December 2000; and

(b) at a particular time, the individual would be, for the first time since the entering into the contract referred to in subparagraph a, a foreign researcher on a post-doctoral internship working for the eligible employer if the portion of paragraph c of the definition of “foreign researcher on a post-doctoral internship” in the first paragraph of section 737.22.0.0.1 before subparagraph i and paragraph e of that definition were read with the reference to “from the particular time to the end of the year or the part of the year” replaced by a reference to “throughout the year or the part of the year”.

Presumption.

In addition, the individual to whom the first or second paragraph applies is also deemed to begin performing the duties of the employment the individual holds with the eligible employer at the particular time referred to in subparagraph b of that paragraph.

Individual referred to in the first paragraph.

The individual to whom the first paragraph refers is the individual who

(b) may deduct, in computing the individual's taxable income for a taxation year preceding the year 2001, in relation to a preceding employment, an amount under any of the sections mentioned in the third paragraph of section 737.19.2, or could so deduct such an amount if an employer had not failed to apply, in respect of the individual, for a qualification certificate or a certificate referred to in any of the sections mentioned in subparagraph ii of paragraph a of section 737.20.

Individual referred to in the second paragraph.

The individual to whom the second paragraph refers is the individual who may deduct, in computing the individual's taxable income for the taxation year in which the individual has entered into the individual's employment contract or for a preceding taxation year, in relation to a preceding employment, an amount under any of the sections mentioned in the third paragraph of section 737.19.2, or could so deduct such an amount if an employer had not failed to apply, in respect of the individual, for a qualification certificate or a certificate referred to in any of the sections mentioned in subparagraph ii of paragraph a of section 737.20.

Deemed change of employment.

“737.22.0.0.2.2. For the purposes of this Title, the employment contract that an individual entered into with an eligible employer, in this section referred to as the “original contract”, or a deemed contract, is deemed to end at the time when the individual ceases to be a foreign researcher on a post-doctoral internship.

Individual who holds employment on 1 January 2001.

Where on 1 January 2001 an individual to whom the fourth paragraph applies holds employment with an eligible employer, the employment contract the individual entered into with that employer, in this section referred to as the “original contract”, is deemed to have ended before that date.

Deemed new employment.

In addition, where at a particular time an individual would again become a foreign researcher on a post-doctoral internship if this section were read without reference to the first and second paragraphs and the portion of paragraph c of the definition of “foreign researcher on a post-doctoral internship” in the first paragraph of section 737.22.0.0.1 before subparagraph i and paragraph e of that definition were read with the reference to “from the particular time to the end of the year or the part of the year” replaced by a reference to “throughout the year or the part of the year”, the following rules apply:

(a) the individual is deemed to enter into, with the eligible employer, a new employment contract, in this section referred to as the “deemed contract”, and that contract is deemed to be entered into before 13 June 2003; and

(b) the individual is deemed to take up employment, as an employee, with the eligible employer at the particular time and is also deemed to begin at that time to perform the duties of that new employment.

Individual referred to in the second paragraph.

The individual to whom the second paragraph refers is the individual who

(a) is not resident in Canada immediately before entering into the original contract or immediately before taking up employment, as an employee, with the eligible employer;

(b) has no research activity period that is running on 1 January 2001 in relation to that employment; and

(c) may deduct, in computing the individual’s taxable income for a taxation year preceding the year 2001, in relation to that employment, an amount under section 737.22.0.0.3, or could so deduct such an amount if the eligible employer had not failed to apply, in respect of the individual, for a certificate referred to in the definition of “foreign researcher on a post-doctoral internship” in section 737.22.0.0.1, as it read for that preceding taxation year.

Termination of the original contract.

The expiry, termination or cancellation of the original contract or any other event having the effect of terminating the original contract also entails the expiry, termination or cancellation, as the case may be, of a deemed contract continuing the original contract, or otherwise terminates such a contract.

Renewal of the original contract.

Employment contract renewed after 12 June 2003.

“737.22.0.0.2.3. For the purposes of this Title, the contract resulting from the renewal, after 12 June 2003, of an employment contract referred to in the definition of “foreign researcher on a post-doctoral internship” in the first paragraph of section 737.22.0.0.1 is deemed not to be an employment contract separate from the employment contract referred to in that definition.

Exception.

The first paragraph does not apply in respect of a contract that is deemed to have ended under the first or second paragraph of section 737.22.0.0.2.2.”

(2) Subsection 1, where it enacts sections 737.22.0.0.2.1 and 737.22.0.0.2.2 of the said Act, applies from 1 January 2001 in respect of an individual

(1) who takes up employment for the first time after 9 March 1999 with an eligible employer under an employment contract entered into after that date; or

(2) whose research activity period was running at any time in the year 1999.

(3) Subsection 1, where it enacts section 737.22.0.0.2.3 of the said Act, applies from the taxation year 2003.

(4) However, where sections 737.22.0.0.2.1 and 737.22.0.0.2.2 of the said Act apply

(1) before the taxation year 2003,

(a) subparagraph ii of subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 737.22.0.0.2.1 shall be read without reference to “and paragraph e”, and

(b) subparagraph b of the second paragraph of section 737.22.0.0.2.1 and the portion of the third paragraph of section 737.22.0.0.2.2 before subparagraph a shall be read with the reference to “and paragraph e of that definition were read” replaced by a reference to “were read”;

(2) after 31 December 2002, but in respect of an individual who took up employment, as an employee, with the eligible employer before 1 January 2003,

(a) subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 737.22.0.0.2.1 shall be read with the reference to “and paragraph e” in subparagraph ii struck out and with the following subparagraph added after subparagraph ii:

“iii. with the reference to “from 1 January 2003 to the end of the year or the part of the year” in paragraph e replaced by a reference to “throughout the year or the part of the year”.”,

(b) subparagraph b of the second paragraph of section 737.22.0.0.2.1 shall be read as follows:

“(b) at a particular time, the individual would be, for the first time since the entering into the contract referred to in subparagraph a, a foreign researcher on a post-doctoral internship working for the eligible employer if the definition of “foreign researcher on a post-doctoral internship” in the first paragraph of section 737.22.0.0.1 were read

i. with the reference to “from the particular time to the end of the year or the part of the year” in the portion of paragraph c before subparagraph i replaced by a reference to “throughout the year or the part of the year”, and

ii. with the reference to “from 1 January 2003 to the end of the year or the part of the year” in paragraph e replaced by a reference to “throughout the year or the part of the year”.”, and

(c) the portion of the third paragraph of section 737.22.0.0.2.2 before subparagraph a shall be read as follows:

“In addition, where at a particular time an individual would again become a foreign researcher on a post-doctoral internship if this section were read without reference to the first and second paragraphs, if the portion of paragraph c of the definition of “foreign researcher on a post-doctoral internship” in the first paragraph of section 737.22.0.0.1 before subparagraph i and paragraph e of that definition were read with the reference to “from the particular time to the end of the year or the part of the year” or the reference to “from 1 January 2003 to the end of the year or the part of the year” replaced by a reference to “throughout the year or the part of the year”, the following rules apply:”.

c. I-3, s. 737.22.0.0.3,

168. (1) Section 737.22.0.0.5 of the said Act, amended by section 137 of chapter 29 of the statutes of 2003, is again amended

(1) by replacing “une personne ou société de personnes” and “de la personne ou société de personnes” in the French text of the definition of “employeur admissible” by “une personne ou une société de personnes” and “de la personne ou de la société de personnes”, respectively;

(2) by replacing the definition of “foreign expert” by the following definition:

““foreign expert” for all or part of a taxation year means an individual in respect of whom the following conditions are met:

Individual who holds
employment on

171. (1) The said Act is amended by inserting the following sections after section 737.22.0.0.6:

“737.22.0.0.6.1. For the purposes of this Title, an individual to whom the fourth paragraph applies is deemed to take up employment, as an employee, with an eligible employer at the particular time referred to in subparagraph b where

(a) the individual holds employment with the eligible employer on 1 January 2001; and

(b) at a particular time, the individual would be, for the first time since 1 January 2001, a foreign expert working for the eligible employer if the definition of “foreign expert” in the first paragraph of section 737.22.0.0.5 were read

i. without reference to paragraph b thereof, and

ii. with the reference to “from the particular time to the end of the year or the part of the year” in the portion of paragraph c before subparagraph i replaced by a reference to “throughout the year or the part of the year”.

Individual who enters
contract.

An individual to whom the fifth paragraph applies is deemed to take up employment, as an employee, with an eligible employer at the particular time referred to in subparagraph b where

(a) the individual enters into an employment contract with the eligible employer after 31 December 2000; and

(b) at a particular time, the individual would be, for the first time since the entering into the contract referred to in subparagraph a, a foreign expert working for the eligible employer if the portion of paragraph c of the definition of “foreign expert” in the first paragraph of section 737.22.0.0.5 before subparagraph i were read with the reference to “from the particular time to the end of the year or the part of the year” replaced by a reference to “throughout the year or the part of the year”.

Presumption.

In addition, the individual to whom the first or second paragraph applies is also deemed to begin performing the duties of the employment the individual holds with the eligible employer at the particular time referred to in subparagraph b of that paragraph.

Individual referred to in the first paragraph.

The individual to whom the first paragraph refers is the individual who

(a) has no eligible activity period that is running on 1 January 2001 in relation to that employment; and

(b) may deduct, in computing the individual's taxable income for a taxation year preceding the year 2001, in relation to a preceding employment, an amount under any of the sections mentioned in the third paragraph of section 737.19.2, or could so deduct such an amount if an employer had not failed to apply, in respect of the individual, for a qualification certificate or a certificate referred to in any of the sections mentioned in subparagraph ii of paragraph a of section 737.20.

Individual referred to in the second paragraph.

The individual to whom the second paragraph refers is the individual who may deduct, in computing the individual's taxable income for the taxation year in which the individual has entered into the individual's employment contract or for a preceding taxation year, in relation to a preceding employment, an amount under any of the sections mentioned in the third paragraph of section 737.19.2, or could so deduct such an amount if an employer had not failed to apply, in respect of the individual, for a qualification certificate or a certificate referred to in any of the sections mentioned in subparagraph ii of paragraph a of section 737.20.

Deemed change of employment.

“737.22.0.0.6.2. For the purposes of this Title, the employment contract that an individual entered into with an eligible employer, in this section referred to as the “original contract”, or a deemed contract, is deemed to end at the time when the individual ceases to be a foreign expert.

Individual who holds employment on 1 January 2001.

Where on 1 January 2001 an individual to whom the fourth paragraph applies holds employment with an eligible employer, the employment contract the individual entered into with that employer, in this section referred to as the “original contract”, is deemed to have ended before that date.

Deemed new employment.

In addition, where at a particular time an individual would again become a foreign expert if this section were read without reference to the first and second paragraphs and the portion of paragraph c of the definition of “foreign expert” in the first paragraph of section 737.22.0.0.5 before subparagraph i were read with the reference to “from the particular time to the end of the year or the part of the year” replaced by a reference to “throughout the year or the part of the year”, the following rules apply:

(a) the individual is deemed to enter into, with the eligible employer, a new employment contract, in this section referred to as the “deemed contract”, and that contract is deemed to be entered into before 13 June 2003; and

(b) the individual is deemed to take up employment, as an employee, with the eligible employer at the particular time and is also deemed to begin at that time to perform the duties of that new employment.

(c) may deduct, in computing the individual's taxable income for a taxation year preceding the year 2001, in relation to that employment, an amount under section 737.22.0.0.7, or could so deduct such an amount if the eligible employer had not failed to apply, in respect of the individual, for a certificate referred to in the definition of "foreign expert" in section 737.22.0.0.5, as it read for that preceding taxation year.

Termination of the original contract.

The expiry, termination or cancellation of the original contract or any other event having the effect of terminating the original contract also entails the expiry, termination or cancellation, as the case may be, of a deemed contract continuing the original contract, or otherwise terminates such a contract.

Renewal of the original contract.

Employment contract renewed after 12 June 2003.

"737.22.0.0.6.3. For the purposes of this Title, the contract resulting from the renewal, after 12 June 2003, of an employment contract referred to in the definition of "foreign expert" in the first paragraph of section 737.22.0.0.5 is deemed not to be an employment contract separate from the employment contract referred to in that definition.

Exception.

The first paragraph does not apply in respect of a contract that is deemed to have ended under the first or second paragraph of section 737.22.0.0.6.2."

(2) Subsection 1 applies from 1 January 2001, except where it enacts section 737.22.0.0.6.3 of the said Act, in which case it applies from the taxation year 2003.

An individual to whom the fifth paragraph applies is deemed to take up employment, as an employee, with an eligible employer at the particular time referred to in subparagraph b where

(a) the individual enters into an employment contract with the eligible employer after 31 December 2000; and

(b) at a particular time, the individual would be, for the first time since the entering into the contract referred to in subparagraph a, a foreign specialist working for the eligible employer if paragraphs c to e of the definition of “foreign specialist” in the first paragraph of section 737.22.0.1 were read with the reference to “from the particular time to the end of the year or the part of the year” replaced by a reference to “throughout the year or the part of the year”.

Presumption.

In addition, the individual to whom the first or second paragraph applies is also deemed to begin performing the duties of the employment the individual holds with the eligible employer at the particular time referred to in subparagraph b of that paragraph.

Individual referred to in the first paragraph.

The individual to whom the first paragraph refers is the individual who

(a) has no specialized activity period that is running on 1 January 2001 in relation to that employment; and

(b) may deduct, in computing the individual’s taxable income for a taxation year preceding the year 2001, in relation to a preceding employment, an amount under any of the sections mentioned in the third paragraph of section 737.19.2, or could so deduct such an amount if an employer had not failed to apply, in respect of the individual, for a qualification certificate or a certificate referred to in any of the sections mentioned in subparagraph ii of paragraph a of section 737.20.

Individual referred to in the second paragraph.

The individual to whom the second paragraph refers is the individual who may deduct, in computing the individual’s taxable income for the taxation year in which the individual has entered into the individual’s employment contract or for a preceding taxation year, in relation to a preceding employment, an amount under any of the sections mentioned in the third paragraph of section 737.19.2, or could so deduct such an amount if an employer had not failed to apply, in respect of the individual, for a qualification certificate or a certificate referred to in any of the sections mentioned in subparagraph ii of paragraph a of section 737.20.

Deemed change of employment.

“737.22.0.2.2.” For the purposes of this Title, the employment contract that an individual entered into with an eligible employer, in this section referred to as the “original contract”, or a deemed contract, is deemed to end at the time when the individual ceases to be a foreign specialist.

Individual who holds employment on 1 January 2001.

Where on 1 January 2001 an individual to whom the fourth paragraph applies holds employment with an eligible employer, the employment contract the individual entered into with that employer, in this section referred to as the “original contract”, is deemed to have ended before that date.

Deemed new employment.

In addition, where at a particular time an individual would again become a foreign specialist if this section were read without reference to the first and second paragraphs and paragraphs c to e of the definition of “foreign specialist” in the first paragraph of section 737.22.0.1 were read with the reference to “from the particular time to the end of the year or the part of the year” replaced by a reference to “throughout the year or the part of the year”, the following rules apply:

(a) the individual is deemed to enter into, with the eligible employer, a new employment contract, in this section referred to as the “deemed contract”, and that contract is deemed to be entered into within the hiring period of that employer; and

(b) the individual is deemed to take up employment, as an employee, with the eligible employer at the particular time and is also deemed to begin at that time to perform the duties of that new employment.

Individual referred to in the second paragraph.

The individual to whom the second paragraph refers is the individual who

(a) is not resident in Canada immediately before entering into the original contract or immediately before taking up employment, as an employee, with the eligible employer;

(b) has no specialized activity period that is running on 1 January 2001 in relation to that employment; and

(c) may deduct, in computing the individual’s taxable income for a taxation year preceding the year 2001, in relation to that employment, an amount under section 737.22.0.3, or could so deduct such an amount if the eligible employer had not failed to apply, in respect of the individual, for a certificate referred to in paragraph d of the definition of “foreign specialist” in section 737.22.0.1, as it read for that preceding taxation year.

Termination of the original contract.

The expiry, termination or cancellation of the original contract or any other event having the effect of terminating the original contract also entails the expiry, termination or cancellation, as the case may be, of a deemed contract continuing the original contract, or otherwise terminates such a contract.

Renewal of the original contract.

Employment contract renewed after 12 June 2003.

“737.22.0.2.3. For the purposes of this Title, the contract resulting from the renewal, after 12 June 2003, of an employment contract referred to in the definition of “foreign specialist” in the first paragraph of section 737.22.0.1 and in this section referred to as the “original contract”, is deemed not to be an employment contract separate from the original contract.

New employment contract.

The rule set out in the first paragraph applies, with the necessary modifications, to a new employment contract that is entered into after 12 June 2003 with another eligible employer, who is deemed not to be an employer separate from the eligible employer, in this section referred to as the “first employer”, who entered into the original contract, provided that

(a) the other eligible employer is a corporation described in the third paragraph;

(b) the other eligible employer meets any of the following conditions:

i. the other eligible employer controls directly or indirectly the first employer,

ii. the other eligible employer is, directly or indirectly, a controlled subsidiary of the first employer, or

iii. as a result of a transaction referred to in section 518 or 566, the other eligible employer continues to carry on the business of the first employer in the course of which the individual who entered into the original contract performed the individual’s duties as a foreign specialist; and

(c) it may reasonably be considered that, but for the change of employer, the individual who entered into the original contract would have continued to be a foreign specialist working for the first employer until the time when the individual took up employment, as an employee, with the other eligible employer.

Corporation referred to.

The corporation to which subparagraph a of the second paragraph refers is

(a) if the first employer is a corporation described in paragraph a of the definition of “eligible employer” in the first paragraph of section 737.22.0.1, a corporation described in subparagraph i or ii of paragraph a of section 771.12;

(b) if the first employer is a corporation described in paragraph d or f of the definition of “eligible employer” in the first paragraph of section 737.22.0.1, a corporation described in any of those paragraphs; or

(c) if the first employer is a corporation referred to in any of paragraphs e, g, h, i and j of the definition of “eligible employer” in the first paragraph of section 737.22.0.1, a corporation described in that paragraph.

Exception.

The first paragraph does not apply in respect of a contract that is deemed to have ended under the first or second paragraph of section 737.22.0.2.2.

Deemed eligible employer.

“737.22.0.2.4. For the purposes of this Title, a corporation that would be an eligible employer for a taxation year within the meaning of any of paragraphs g, h, i and j of the definition of “eligible employer” in the first paragraph of section 737.22.0.1, but for paragraph c of the definition of “qualified corporation” in the first paragraph of any of sections 1029.8.36.0.3.60, 1029.8.36.72.56 and 1029.8.36.72.83, is deemed to be an eligible employer for the corporation’s taxation year ending immediately before the acquisition of control described in that paragraph c and to be a corporation described in that paragraph g, h, i or j, as the case may be, for that taxation year.”

(2) Subsection 1 applies from 1 January 2001, except where it enacts sections 737.22.0.2.3 and 737.22.0.2.4 of the said Act, in which case it applies from the taxation year 2003. However, where sections 737.22.0.2.1 and 737.22.0.2.2 of the said Act apply

(1) before the taxation year 2003,

(a) subparagraph ii of subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 737.22.0.2.1 shall be read with the reference to “in paragraphs c to e” replaced by a reference to “wherever it appears in paragraphs c and d”, and

(b) subparagraph b of the second paragraph of section 737.22.0.2.1 and the portion of the third paragraph of section 737.22.0.2.2 before subparagraph a shall be read with the reference to “c to e” replaced by a reference to “c and d” and with “wherever it appears” inserted before “replaced by”;

(2) after 31 December 2002, but in respect of an individual who took up employment, as an employee, with the eligible employer before 1 January 2003,

(a) subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 737.22.0.2.1 shall be read

i. with subparagraph ii replaced by the following subparagraph:

“ii. with paragraph c replaced by the following paragraph:

“(c) the individual works exclusively or almost exclusively for the eligible employer throughout the year or the part of the year; and”,” and

ii. with the following subparagraphs added after subparagraph ii:

“iv. with the reference to “from 1 January 2003 to the end of the year or the part of the year” in paragraph e replaced by a reference to “throughout the year or the part of the year”.”,

(b) subparagraph b of the second paragraph of section 737.22.0.2.1 shall be read as follows:

“(b) at a particular time, the individual would be, for the first time since the entering into the contract referred to in subparagraph a, a foreign specialist working for the eligible employer if the definition of “foreign specialist” in the first paragraph of section 737.22.0.1 were read

i. with paragraph c replaced by the following paragraph:

“In addition, where at a particular time an individual would again become a foreign specialist if this section were read without reference to the first and second paragraphs, if paragraphs c to e of the definition of “foreign specialist” in the first paragraph of section 737.22.0.1 were read with the reference to “from the particular time to the end of the year or the part of the year” or the reference to “from 1 January 2003 to the end of the year or the part of the year” replaced by a reference to “throughout the year or the part of the year”, and if paragraph c of that definition were read without reference to “and, where the eligible employer is a corporation referred to in any of paragraphs d to j of the definition of “eligible employer”, the individual’s duties as an employee of the eligible employer are, from that particular time to 31 December 2002, exclusively or almost exclusively attributable to eligible activities of that employer”, the following rules apply:”.

c. I-3, s. 737.22.0.3,
replaced.

178. (1) Section 737.22.0.3 of the said Act is replaced by the following section:

Deduction.

ii. in any other case, the aggregate of all preceding periods each of which is

(1) all or part of a preceding period, established in respect of the individual under this definition, to which an amount that the individual may deduct in computing the individual's taxable income for a taxation year, under section 737.22.0.7, in relation to a preceding employment, may reasonably be attributed, or

Individual who holds employment on 1 January 2001.

“737.22.0.6.1. For the purposes of this Title, an individual to whom the fourth paragraph applies is deemed to take up employment, as an employee, with an eligible employer at the particular time referred to in subparagraph b where

(a) the individual holds employment with the eligible employer on 1 January 2001; and

(b) at a particular time, the individual would be, for the first time since 1 January 2001, a foreign professor working for the eligible employer if the definition of “foreign professor” in the first paragraph of section 737.22.0.5 were read

i. without reference to paragraph b thereof, and

ii. with the reference to “from the particular time to the end of the year or the part of the year” in paragraphs c and e replaced by a reference to “throughout the year or the part of the year”.

Individual who enters into a new employment contract.

An individual to whom the fifth paragraph applies is deemed to take up employment, as an employee, with an eligible employer at the particular time referred to in subparagraph b where

Presumption.

In addition, the individual to whom the first or second paragraph applies is also deemed to begin performing the duties of the employment the individual holds with the eligible employer at the particular time referred to in subparagraph b of that paragraph.

Individual referred to in the first paragraph.

The individual to whom the first paragraph refers is the individual who

(b) may deduct, in computing the individual’s taxable income for a taxation year preceding the year 2001, in relation to a preceding employment, an amount under any of the sections mentioned in the third paragraph of section 737.19.2, or could so deduct such an amount if an employer had not failed to apply, in respect of the individual, for a qualification certificate or a certificate referred to in any of the sections mentioned in subparagraph ii of paragraph a of section 737.20.

Individual referred to in the second paragraph.

The individual to whom the second paragraph refers is the individual who may deduct, in computing the individual’s taxable income for the taxation year in which the individual has entered into the individual’s employment contract or for a preceding taxation year, in relation to a preceding employment, an amount under any of the sections mentioned in the third paragraph of section 737.19.2, or could so deduct such an amount if an employer had not failed to apply, in respect of the individual, for a qualification certificate or a certificate referred to in any of the sections mentioned in subparagraph ii of paragraph a of section 737.20.

Deemed change of employment.

“737.22.0.6.2. For the purposes of this Title, the employment contract that an individual entered into with an eligible employer, in this section referred to as the “original contract”, or a deemed contract within the meaning of subparagraph a of the third paragraph, is deemed to end at the time when the individual ceases to be a foreign professor.

Individual who holds employment on 1 January 2001.

Where on 1 January 2001 an individual to whom the fourth paragraph applies holds employment with an eligible employer, the employment contract the individual entered into with that employer, in this section referred to as the “original contract”, is deemed to have ended before that date.

Deemed new employment.

In addition, where at a particular time an individual would again become a foreign professor if this section were read without reference to the first and second paragraphs and paragraphs c and e of the definition of “foreign professor” in the first paragraph of section 737.22.0.5 were read with the reference to “from the particular time to the end of the year or the part of the year” replaced by a reference to “throughout the year or the part of the year”, the following rules apply:

Termination of the original contract.

The expiry, termination or cancellation of the original contract or any other event having the effect of terminating the original contract also entails the expiry, termination or cancellation, as the case may be, of a deemed contract continuing the original contract, or otherwise terminates such a contract.

Renewal of the original contract.

Employment contract renewed after 12 June 2003.

“737.22.0.6.3. For the purposes of this Title, the contract resulting from the renewal, after 12 June 2003, of an employment contract referred to in the definition of “foreign professor” in the first paragraph of section 737.22.0.5 is deemed not to be an employment contract separate from the employment contract referred to in that definition.

“CHAPTER III.4

“POLITICAL EDUCATION ORGANIZATIONS

Definitions:

“disbursement quota”;

“disbursement quota” of a recognized political education organization for a taxation year means an amount equal to 80% of the aggregate of all amounts each of which is

(a) a gift for which the organization issued, in its preceding taxation year and after 18 December 2002, a receipt described in section 712 or 752.0.10.3, other than

i. a gift of capital received by the organization by way of bequest or inheritance, or

ii. a gift received by the organization subject to a trust or direction to the effect that the property given, or property substituted therefor, is to be held by the organization for a period of not less than 10 years; or

(b) a gift received by the organization in a preceding taxation year and for which it issued, after 18 December 2002, a receipt described in section 712 or 752.0.10.3, to the extent that the amount of the gift is expended in the year and was excluded from the disbursement quota of the organization because of subparagraph i or ii of paragraph a;

“qualified donee” means a donee that is a recognized political education organization constituted for purposes similar to those for which the recognized political education organization making the gift was constituted;

organization”;

“recognized political education organization” means a non-profit organization recognized by the Minister, on the recommendation of the Minister for the Reform of Democratic Institutions, as having the mission to promote Québec sovereignty or Canadian unity through educational means and whose recognition is in force, other than a registered charity or a political party or an authority of such a party;

Effective date of recognition.

The recognition granted by the Minister to an organization for the purposes of the definition of “recognized political education organization” in the first paragraph takes effect from the latest of

- (a) 19 December 2002;
- (b) 1 January of the year in which the recognition is granted; and
- (c) the date on which the organization was constituted.

Expenditure requirement.

“985.37. A recognized political education organization is required to expend, in any taxation year, on educational activities promoting Québec sovereignty or Canadian unity carried on by it or by way of gifts made by it to qualified donees, amounts that are at least equal to its disbursement quota for the year.

Amount specified by the Minister.

“985.38. The Minister may, on application made to the Minister in prescribed form by a recognized political education organization, specify an amount in respect of the organization for a taxation year and, for the purposes of section 985.37, that amount is deemed to be an amount expended by the organization in the year on educational activities promoting Québec sovereignty or Canadian unity carried on by it.

Use of disbursement excess.

“985.39. Where a recognized political education organization has expended a disbursement excess for a particular taxation year, the organization may, for the purpose of determining whether it complies with the requirement of section 985.37 for its preceding taxation year or any of its five subsequent taxation years, include in the computation of the amounts expended on educational activities promoting Québec sovereignty or Canadian unity carried on by it or by way of gifts made by it to qualified donees, such portion of the disbursement excess for the particular year as was not so included under this section for any preceding taxation year.

Disbursement excess.

The disbursement excess referred to in the first paragraph means the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts expended in the particular year by the recognized political education organization on educational activities promoting Québec sovereignty or Canadian unity carried on by it or by way of gifts made to qualified donees exceeds its disbursement quota for that year.

Accumulation of property for a particular purpose.

“985.40. A recognized political education organization may, with the approval in writing of the Minister, accumulate property for a particular purpose, on such terms and conditions, and over such period of time, as specified in the approval.

Presumption.

Property accumulated in accordance with the first paragraph, including any income related thereto, is deemed to have been expended on educational activities promoting Québec sovereignty or Canadian unity carried on by the recognized political education organization in the taxation year in which the property was so accumulated and not to have been expended in any other taxation year.

Property not used for the particular purpose.

However, where property accumulated by a recognized political education organization in accordance with the first paragraph, including any income related thereto, is not used for the particular purpose provided for in that paragraph either before the expiration of the period referred to in that paragraph or at an earlier time at which the organization decides not to use the property for that purpose, it is deemed to be a gift for which the organization issued a receipt described in section 712 or 752.0.10.3 in its taxation year in which such period expires or such decision is made, as the case may be.

Information returns.

“985.41. Every recognized political education organization shall, within six months from the end of each of its taxation years, file with the Minister an information return for the year, in prescribed form and containing the prescribed information, without notice or demand therefor.

Recognition revoked.

“985.42. The Minister may, in the manner described in sections 1064 and 1065, revoke the recognition of a recognized political education organization where the organization fails to comply with the requirement of section 985.37 for a taxation year.

Recognition revoked.

“985.43. Where a recognized political education organization has made a gift to another recognized political education organization and it may reasonably be considered that one of the main purposes of making the gift was to unduly delay the performance of the obligation to expend amounts on educational activities promoting Québec sovereignty or Canadian unity, the Minister may, in the manner described in sections 1064 and 1065, revoke the recognition of the recognized political education organization that made the gift and, where it may reasonably be considered that the organizations acted in concert, of the other recognized political education organization.

Provisions applicable.

“985.44. Sections 1063 to 1065 and Division V of Chapter III and sections 93.1.15 and 93.1.17 to 93.1.22 of the Act respecting the Ministère du Revenu (chapter M-31) apply, with the necessary modifications, to a recognized political education organization as if it were a registered charity.”

(2) Subsection 1 applies to taxation years that end after 18 December 2002. However, the reference to “Minister for the Reform of Democratic Institutions” in the definition of “recognized political education organization” in the first paragraph of section 985.36 of the said Act shall, in respect of a recommendation referred to in that definition that was made before 29 April 2003, be read as a reference to “Minister responsible for the Reform of Democratic Institutions”.

ii. in respect of the particular calendar year, the amount by which the amount determined pursuant to subparagraph i exceeds the amount of the particular aggregate.

Interpretation.

In the formulas provided for in subparagraphs a and b of the first paragraph,

(a) A is the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the salary or wages paid by the vendor to an employee in respect of a pay period, within the vendor's base period, for which the employee is an eligible employee;

(b) B is the aggregate of all amounts each of which is

i. the salary or wages paid by the vendor to an employee in respect of a pay period, within the vendor's base period, for which the employee is an eligible employee, or

ii. the salary or wages of an employee who reports for work at an establishment of the vendor situated in Québec but outside a designated region of the vendor, paid by the vendor in respect of a pay period, within the particular corporation's base period, throughout which the employee spends, when at work, at least 75% of the time in undertaking, supervising or supporting, in an establishment of the vendor situated in Québec or elsewhere, but in connection with the mandates attributable to such an establishment situated in Québec, work that is directly related to activities of the vendor that are described in a qualification certificate issued, for the purposes of this division, to the particular corporation for the year in respect of a recognized business, except if an amount is included, in respect of the employee, in relation to the vendor, in computing an amount determined under this subparagraph, in relation to another corporation that carries on a recognized business;

(c) C is the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the salary or wages of an employee who reports for work at an establishment of the vendor situated in Québec, paid by the vendor in respect of a pay period, within the particular corporation's base period, throughout which the employee spends, when at work, at least 75% of the time in undertaking, supervising or supporting, in an establishment of the vendor situated in Québec or elsewhere, but in connection with the mandates attributable to such an establishment situated in Québec, work that is directly related to activities of the vendor that are described in a qualification certificate issued, for the purposes of this division, to the particular corporation for the year in respect of a recognized business, except if an amount is included, in respect of the employee, in relation to the vendor, in computing an amount determined under this subparagraph, in relation to another corporation that carries on a recognized business;

(d) D is the proportion that the number of the vendor's employees referred to in any of subparagraphs a to c, as the case may be, who were assigned to the carrying on of part of the activities that diminished or ceased at the particular time is of the number of the vendor's employees assigned to those activities immediately before the particular time; and

(e) E is, where this section applies for the purpose of determining the amount that a corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under this division in respect of the particular calendar year, the proportion that the number of days in the particular calendar year following the particular time is of 365 and, in any other case, 1.

Exception.

Where a particular corporation is, at any time in a calendar year, a purchaser in relation to activities carried on by a person or partnership and, at a subsequent time in the same calendar year, the particular corporation is a vendor in relation to all of those activities, this section does not apply to the particular corporation either as vendor or as purchaser in respect of the activities and, for the purpose of determining the amount that a corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under this division, the particular corporation is deemed to have paid, from that time to the subsequent time, no portion of the salaries or wages that may reasonably be considered to relate to the employees of the corporation assigned to the carrying on of the activities that ceased after the subsequent time.

Exception.

Where a particular corporation is, at a particular time in a calendar year, a purchaser in relation to activities carried on by a person or partnership and, at a subsequent time in the same calendar year, the particular corporation is a vendor in relation to part of those activities, for the purpose of determining the amount that a corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under this division, the particular corporation is deemed not to have paid to its employees the portion of the salaries or wages that may reasonably be considered to have been paid to the employees of the corporation assigned to the part of the activities that the particular corporation ceases to carry on after the subsequent time.

Assistance, benefit or advantage deemed nil.

“1029.3.36.72.82.11. For the purposes of this division, where a corporation has received, is entitled to receive or may reasonably expect to receive non-government assistance, or where a person or partnership has obtained, is entitled to obtain or may reasonably expect to obtain a benefit or advantage, whether in the form of a reimbursement, compensation, guarantee, in the form of proceeds of disposition of property which exceed the fair market value of the property, or in any other form or manner, in respect of a taxation year or fiscal period in which the base period of a particular corporation ends, and where it may reasonably be considered that the main reason for the assistance or the benefit or advantage is to reduce, in accordance with subparagraph i or iii of subparagraph a or b of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.72.82.6, as the case may be, the amount of the salaries or wages paid by the particular corporation or a corporation that is associated with the particular corporation, in respect of the base period of the particular corporation, so as to cause the particular corporation to be deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister under this division for a taxation year or to increase an amount that the particular corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under this division for a taxation year, the amount of the assistance or of the benefit or advantage is deemed to be equal to zero.

“1029.8.36.72.82.12. Where it may reasonably be considered that one of the main reasons for the separate existence of two or more corporations in a calendar year is to cause a qualified corporation to be deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister under this division in respect of that year or to increase an amount that a qualified corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under this division in respect of that year, those corporations are deemed, for the purposes of this division, to be associated with each other at the end of the year.”

(2) Subsection 1 has effect from 1 January 2003.
