- Other standards. “If it issues a certificate of authorization for the realization of a project to establish or enlarge a landfill site used in whole or in part as a final disposal site for household garbage collected by or for a municipality, the Government or the committee of ministers may, if it considers it necessary for greater environmental protection, establish standards other than those prescribed by a regulation under this Act and include them in the certificate.”

The decision of the Government or of the committee of ministers must describe the situation that warrants the exemption. The operation period of a landfill site so authorized may not exceed one year. A decision made under this paragraph may be renewed only once in respect of the same project.”

- Remuneration. The remuneration of the arbitrator shall be determined by the Minister. The arbitration and homologation costs shall be paid in equal shares by the municipalities concerned unless the arbitrator or the court decides otherwise by a decision giving reasons.”

- c. E-13.1 and c. I-14.1, repealed. 5. The Act respecting the establishment and enlargement of certain waste elimination sites (R.S.Q., chapter E-13.1) and the Act to prohibit the establishment or enlargement of certain waste elimination sites (R.S.Q., chapter I-14.1) are repealed.

AN ACT RESPECTING THE DIRECTOR OF CRIMINAL AND PENAL PROSECUTIONS

THE PARLIAMENT OF QUÉBEC ENACTS AS FOLLOWS:

CHAPTER I

CREATION OF OFFICE OF DIRECTOR OF CRIMINAL AND PENAL PROSECUTIONS AND APPOINTMENT OF DIRECTOR

- Office. 1. This Act creates the office of Director of Criminal and Penal Prosecutions.
- Functions. Under the general authority of the Minister of Justice and Attorney General, the Director directs all criminal and penal prosecutions in Québec on behalf of the State. The Director exercises the functions conferred on the Director of Criminal and Penal Prosecutions by this Act, with the independence provided for in this Act.
- Deputy Attorney General. The Director is by virtue of office “Deputy Attorney General” for criminal and penal prosecutions. The Director is also the lawful deputy of the Attorney General of Québec within the meaning of the Criminal Code, as are the prosecutors under the Director’s authority.
- Appointment. 2. On the recommendation of the Minister of Justice, the Government appoints the Director from among advocates with at least ten years’ practice. The person recommended must be chosen from a list of persons declared qualified to hold the office by the selection committee formed for that purpose.
- Notice. 3. During the year that precedes the end of the Director’s term or as soon as the office becomes vacant, the Minister publishes a notice inviting the members of Québec’s legal community to apply for the office of Director or to propose the name of a person they consider qualified to hold that office, in accordance with the procedure the Minister determines.
- Selection committee. The Minister also forms a selection committee. The committee is made up of the Deputy Minister of Justice and four other members including an advocate recommended by the Bâtonnier of the Province of Québec, a professor of law recommended by the deans of Québec’s law faculties, a person recommended by bodies representing the municipal sector and a person chosen by the Minister from among persons active in crime victims support organizations.

- Choice of candidates. The committee promptly evaluates the candidates' aptitude on the basis of their knowledge, particularly in criminal and penal law, their experience and their qualifications, according to the criteria determined by government regulation. Without delay, the committee presents to the Minister a report in which it lists the candidates it has met whom it considers qualified to hold the office of Director. All information and documents regarding the candidates and the proceedings of the committee are confidential.
- Remuneration. The members of the committee receive no remuneration except in the cases and on the conditions that may be determined by the Government. They are, however, entitled to the reimbursement of expenses to the extent determined by the Government.
- Term. 4. The Director is appointed for a non-renewable seven-year term. At the expiry of the term, the Director remains in office until replaced. The Director may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Minister of Justice.
- Deputy Director. 5. On the recommendation of the Minister of Justice, the Government appoints a Deputy Director from among criminal and penal prosecuting attorneys with at least ten years' practice as advocates. The Government also determines the length of the Deputy Director's term, which may not be shorter than five years nor longer than seven.
- Selection. The person recommended must be chosen from a list of persons declared qualified to hold the office by a selection committee formed for that purpose and made up of the Deputy Minister of Justice, a person recommended by the Bâtonnier of the Province of Québec and the Director, following the issue of a notice inviting criminal and penal prosecuting attorneys to apply.
- Resignation. The Deputy Director may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Director. At the expiry of the term, the Deputy Director remains in office until replaced.
- Dismissal or suspension. 6. The Director and the Deputy Director cannot be dismissed or suspended without remuneration by the Government except for cause, on the recommendation of the Minister after receiving a report from the Commission de la fonction publique. The suspension may not exceed three months.
- Suspension with remuneration. In an urgent situation requiring prompt intervention, or in a presumed case of serious fault, the Minister may provisionally relieve the Director or the Deputy Director from their duties with remuneration.
- Conditions of employment. 7. The Government determines the remuneration, employment benefits and other conditions of employment of the Director and the Deputy Director on the recommendation of the Minister of Justice; their remuneration, once set, cannot be reduced.
- Oath. 8. Before entering office, the Director and the Deputy Director take the oath provided in Schedule 1 before the chief judge of the Court of Québec.

Duties of the Deputy Director.	9. The Director defines the duties of the Deputy Director. If the Director is absent or unable to act or if the position of Director is vacant, the Deputy Director replaces the Director.
Replacement of Deputy Director.	If the Deputy Director is absent or unable to act, the Government appoints a person to replace the Deputy Director for as long as the latter is absent or unable to act, and determines the person's remuneration. The replacement may not exceed six months.
Full-time functions.	10. The Director and the Deputy Director must exercise their functions on a full-time basis.
Political activity.	They may not engage in any partisan political activity.
Binding documents.	11. An act, document or writing is binding on or may be attributed to the Director only if it is signed by the Director or by the Deputy Director or, to the extent provided in the delegation of signature instrument, by a member of the Director's personnel. The delegation instrument must be published in the Gazette officielle du Québec but takes effect upon its signing by the Director.
Evidence of contents.	In any civil or penal proceedings, any document purporting to be signed by the Director or Deputy Director is evidence of its contents and of the capacity of the signatory, in the absence of proof to the contrary.
Chief executive officer.	12. The Director is the chief executive officer of an agency.
Head office.	The head office of the Director is in the territory of Ville de Québec. A notice of the location of the head office is published in the Gazette officielle du Québec .

CHAPTER II

FUNCTIONS AND POWERS OF DIRECTOR OF CRIMINAL AND PENAL PROSECUTIONS

Functions.	13. The Director has the following functions: (1) to act as prosecutor in proceedings under the Criminal Code (Revised Statutes of Canada, 1985, chapter C-46), the Youth Criminal Justice Act (Statutes of Canada, 2002, chapter 1) or any other federal Act or rule of law in respect of which the Attorney General of Québec has the authority to act as prosecutor; (2) to act as prosecutor in proceedings under the Code of Penal Procedure (R.S.Q., chapter C-25.1).
Other functions.	The Director also exercises any other function appropriate to the Director's mission, including authorizing a prosecution, instituting an appeal and intervening in proceedings to which the Director is not a party if, in the Director's opinion, it is required in the interests of justice. Finally, the Director exercises any other function conferred on the Director by the Attorney General or the Minister of Justice.

Custody and management of property.

14. When seized of a case, the Director carries out on behalf of the Attorney General the responsibilities conferred on the latter by the Act respecting the Ministère de la Justice (R.S.Q., chapter M-19) regarding the custody and management of property seized, restrained or forfeited pursuant to federal legislation. The Director also carries out the responsibilities conferred on the Attorney General by that Act regarding the disposition of such property, to the extent specified by the Attorney General.

Administrator of the property of others.

Subject to the rules set out in an order of seizure or restraint, the Director, in carrying out these responsibilities, acts as administrator of the property of others entrusted with full administration; however, the Director must comply with any directions given by the Minister of Justice or the Attorney General as beneficiary of the administration, regarding such matters as the intervals at which remittance of the sums administered by the Director must be made to the Minister of Justice or Attorney General, and rendering of account by the Director.

Duties.

15. The Director must

(1) inform the Attorney General, as soon as possible, of any appeal brought before the Supreme Court of Canada and of any appeal brought before the Court of Appeal when the appeal raises questions of general interest beyond the scope of those usually raised in criminal and penal prosecutions;

(2) inform the Attorney General, as soon as possible, of any case that could raise questions of general interest or require the intervention of the Minister of Justice or Attorney General; and

(3) when constitutional questions are raised before the courts, see to it that the provisions of articles 95 and 95.1 of the Code of Civil Procedure (R.S.Q., chapter C-25) are respected.

Crime victims and witnesses.

The Director must also, in criminal and penal proceedings, take the measures needed to ensure that the legitimate interests of crime victims are taken into account and that witnesses are respected and protected.

Delegation.

16. The Director may delegate to one or more persons under the Director's authority a function essential to the carrying out of the Director's responsibilities; these persons act under the Director's supervision.

Delegation prohibited.

However, the Director may not delegate the powers of the Deputy Attorney General under the Criminal Code, which powers may be exercised by the Deputy Director when replacing the Director.

- Participation in inquiries. 17. The Director may participate in the inquiries held by a coroner or fire investigation commissioner and by a person vested with the powers of commissioners appointed under the Act respecting public inquiry commissions (R.S.Q., chapter C-37) at their request. The Director may also intervene on the Director's own initiative.
- Instructions. 18. The Director issues instructions with respect to criminal and penal prosecutions for the benefit of the prosecutors under the Director's authority. The instructions must incorporate the policies and measures established by the Minister of Justice, and the Director ensures that they are accessible to the public.
- Application of instructions. These instructions apply, with the necessary modifications determined after taking into account the opinion of designated prosecutors, including municipalities, to any attorney acting for the prosecution in criminal or penal proceedings, including before municipal courts. The Director publishes a notice in the Gazette officielle du Québec indicating the date as of which an instruction applies to one or more designated prosecutors. Subsequently, if the Director must intervene in criminal or penal proceedings because the instructions were not complied with, the prosecutor concerned must assume the costs.
- Private prosecutors. The Director supervises proceedings instituted by private prosecutors and, if the interests of justice so require, acts as advisor, intervenes, conducts the proceedings or terminates them.
- Advisory opinions. 19. At the request of the Attorney General, the Director provides expertise on the administration of the Acts within the Director's jurisdiction, in particular by issuing advisory opinions.
- Recommendations. The Director may submit recommendations to the Attorney General regarding the administration of those Acts.
- Peace officers. 20. The Director may advise peace officers and persons entrusted with law enforcement on all aspects of an investigation or criminal or penal proceedings. The Director may require such peace officers or persons to conduct further investigation into cases referred to the Director.
- Police investigation. The Director may also bring to the attention of the Deputy Minister of Public Security any situation which, in the Director's opinion, requires a police investigation.
- Agreements. 21. The Director may, in accordance with the applicable legislative provisions, enter into an agreement with holders of similar positions with the federal government or with a provincial or territorial government, particularly to provide that a party to the agreement may act as prosecutor in certain prosecutions.

- Other agreements. The Director may also enter into an agreement with government departments, or, with the Minister's authorization, with municipalities, bodies or persons having the power to institute criminal or penal proceedings, to provide that the Director will act in their name as prosecutor. The Director may also enter into a service agreement in any area to facilitate the exercise of the Director's functions or to provide them with a product or service related to the Director's expertise, provided this does not interfere with the Director's functions.
- Policies and measures. 22. The policies developed and the measures implemented by the Minister of Justice concerning the general conduct of criminal and penal proceedings must be aimed particularly at ensuring that the legitimate interests of the victims of crime are taken into account, that witnesses are respected and protected, that criminal and penal prosecuting attorneys are present and assigned throughout the territory of Québec, that certain types of proceedings are processed and that non-judicial approaches or alternatives to prosecution are applied.
- Publication. The policies and measures are published by the Minister of Justice in the Gazette officielle du Québec and are brought to the Director's attention.
- Information. The Minister of Justice may ask the Director for any information needed to carry out this responsibility.
- Attorney General. 23. When a matter comes under the Director's responsibility, the Attorney General may only take charge of the matter or give instructions on its conduct after consulting the Director.
- Notice of intent. In such a case, the Attorney General is required to give the Director a notice of intent to take charge of the matter or instructions on the conduct of the matter, and publish the notice of intent or instructions in the Gazette officielle du Québec without delay. Publication may be delayed, however, if the Director considers that it may undermine the interests of justice or public policy.
- Obligation. The Director is required to turn the matter over to the Attorney General or act on the Attorney General's instructions and to provide any information the Attorney General requires within the time specified.
- Intervention of Attorney General. 24. When, in the Attorney General's opinion, proceedings raise questions of public interest beyond the scope of those usually raised in criminal and penal prosecutions, the Attorney General may, after notifying the Director, intervene in first instance or in appeal without further formality.

CHAPTER III*DIRECTOR OF CRIMINAL AND PENAL PROSECUTIONS PERSONNEL*DIVISION I*CRIMINAL AND PENAL PROSECUTING ATTORNEYS§1. — Appointment and functions*

- Prosecuting attorneys. 25. The Director appoints criminal and penal prosecuting attorneys in accordance with this Act from among advocates authorized by law to practise in Québec, who are empowered to represent the Director in the exercise of the functions of office.
- Duties and functions. Criminal and penal prosecuting attorneys perform, under the Director's authority, the duties and functions determined by the Director. When acting as prosecutors, they are deemed to be authorized to act in the Director's name and are not required to prove such authorization.
- Oath. Before entering office, criminal and penal prosecuting attorneys must take the oath provided in Schedule 2 before the Director or the Deputy Director.
- Provisions applicable. Except where inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, the Public Service Act (R.S.Q., chapter F-3.1.1) applies to criminal and penal prosecuting attorneys. The provisions of that Act concerning standards of ethics and discipline also apply to casual attorneys.
- Chief attorneys. 26. The Director may appoint, from among criminal and penal prosecuting attorneys, one or more chief attorneys and assistant chief attorneys. The Director determines their duties and functions in addition to those which they must perform as attorneys.
- Conditions of employment. The Government may, by an order made on the recommendation of the Director, determine the rules, standards and scales applicable to the appointment, remuneration, employment benefits and other conditions of employment of chief attorneys and assistant chief attorneys.
- Exclusive function. 27. A criminal and penal prosecuting attorney must attend exclusively to the duties of office and may not hold any other function, office or employment unless so authorized by the Director. A criminal and penal prosecuting attorney thus authorized to work for the Ministère de la Justice or another department, a body or a third party retains the status of criminal and penal prosecuting attorney, regardless of the nature of the function, office or employment held or, if applicable, of the conditions and term of the service agreement.

- Representative. 28. The Director may specially appoint any advocate authorized by law to practise in Québec to represent the Director before the courts of criminal or penal jurisdiction.
- Mandate. Persons appointed under the first paragraph are deemed to be criminal and penal prosecuting attorneys, but only for the purposes of the mandate given to them.
- §2. — Exercise of certain political activities
- Prohibition. 29. No criminal and penal prosecuting attorney may, while holding that status, be a candidate in a federal, provincial, municipal or school election.
- Prohibition. Nor may a criminal and penal prosecuting attorney be a member of a political party, pay a contribution to a political party, to a political party authority or to a candidate in such an election or engage in other political partisan activity in favour of or against a political party or a candidate in such an election. A criminal and penal prosecuting attorney may, however, attend a political rally.
- Reclassification. 30. A criminal and penal prosecuting attorney who intends to engage in a political activity must inform the Director without delay. After consultation with the attorney concerned, the Director or a person so authorized in writing by the Director reclassifies the attorney to a class of positions in the public service for which the minimum conditions of eligibility are equivalent to those of the class to which the attorney belongs and for which the salary level is substantially equivalent. Reclassification must be effected as soon as possible, in time to enable the person reclassified to engage in the political activity. Upon reclassification, the person may engage in the political activity.
- Failure to inform. If the attorney fails to inform the Director, the Director reclassifies the attorney as soon as the Director becomes aware that the attorney has engaged in a political activity.
- Salary and benefits. A reclassification may not entail a reduction in the regular salary or employment benefits to which the attorney was entitled prior to reclassification.
- Application. 31. Nothing prevents a person who has been reclassified and who no longer engages in political activities from applying for a position as criminal and penal prosecuting attorney.

(c) in the case of the deduction provided for in section 737.18.34, any particular amount otherwise included in the investment expense or investment income of the individual for the year, to the extent that that particular amount is taken into account in computing an income realized, or a loss sustained, in a specified period of the individual, within the meaning of section 737.18.29, in relation to the employment, or is such an income or loss, is deemed to be equal to the product obtained by multiplying that particular amount by the amount by which 100% exceeds the percentage determined under subparagraph a of the second paragraph of section 737.18.34 in respect of that period.

“investment income”;

“investment income” of an individual for a taxation year means the investment income of the individual for that year within the meaning that would be assigned to that expression by subparagraph e of the first paragraph of section 726.6 if,

Death of individual.

However, for the purpose of computing the individual’s income for the taxation year in which the individual died and for the preceding taxation year, the first paragraph is to be read as if “for the taxation years that precede the particular year and those for the three taxation years that follow the particular year, up to the amount by which the amount of the individual’s investment income for the particular year exceeds the individual’s total investment expense for the particular year” was replaced by “for all of the individual’s taxation years”.

Deductibility.

336.7. No amount is deductible under section 336.6 in respect of an unused portion of the total investment expense for a taxation year until the unused portions of the total investment expense for the preceding taxation years have been deducted.

Condition.

(2) Subsection 1, except when it enacts the second paragraph of section 336.6 of the Act, applies from the taxation year 2001. However, when the definition of “investment expense” in section 336.5 of the Act applies to any of the taxation years 2001 to 2003, no account is to be taken of paragraph a of that definition.

“752.0.0.3. If an individual is resident in Québec on the last day of a taxation year and is the beneficiary of a covered benefit attributable to that year, the total provided for in the first paragraph of section 752.0.0.1 that would otherwise be taken into account in computing the amount deductible by the individual for the year, under section 752.0.0.1, shall be reduced by the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount determined for the year under any of sections 752.0.0.4 to 752.0.0.6.

Covered benefit.

In the first paragraph and sections 752.0.0.4 to 752.0.0.6, “covered benefit” attributable to a taxation year means an amount that is an income replacement indemnity, or a compensation for the loss of financial support, determined in that year under a public compensation plan and established on the basis of net income following an accident, employment injury or death or in order to prevent bodily injury, other than Rules applicable.

(a) in respect of a covered benefit attributable to the year and paid by an employer for the first 14 full days following the beginning of the individual’s disability, the lesser of the amounts determined by the following formulas:

i.  $A \times B$ , and

ii.  $0.90 \times C/D \times E$ ; and

(b) in respect of a covered benefit attributable to the year, other than the covered benefit referred to in subparagraph a, for each day of the year for which the covered benefit is determined, in this section referred to as the “particular day”, the lesser of the amounts determined for the particular day by the following formulas:

i.  $[(0.90 \times A \times F/G) - (A \times H/G)] \times (1 - I)$ , and

ii.  $[(0.90 \times J/G) - K] \times (1 - I)$ .

(g) G is the number of days in the year;

(h) H is the annual gross revenue from a suitable employment or employment held, for the particular day;

(i) I is the percentage that applies for the purpose of reducing, for the particular day, the covered benefit attributable to the year;

(j) J is the total of the amounts mentioned in subparagraph b of the third paragraph of section 750.2 and determined under the first paragraph of that section, that are applicable for the year, to the extent that that total is used by the Commission de la santé et de la sécurité du travail to establish the weighted net income for the purpose of computing the covered benefit attributable to the year; and

(k) K is the lesser of

i. the amount obtained by multiplying the percentage determined for the year under subparagraph a by the amount obtained by dividing the annual gross revenue from a suitable employment or employment held, for the particular day, by the number of days in the year, and

ii. the amount obtained by dividing the recognized amounts used to establish the weighted net income from a suitable employment or employment held, for the particular day, by the number of days in the year.

Annual gross revenue.

For the purposes of subparagraph h and subparagraph i of subparagraph k of the second paragraph, “annual gross revenue from a suitable employment or employment held”, for a particular day, means the annual gross revenue relating to a suitable employment or employment held that is taken into account in determining, for the particular day, the covered benefit attributable to the year, including the annual gross revenue from any benefit paid to the individual, because of a termination of employment, under an Act of Québec or of any other jurisdiction, other than the Act respecting industrial accidents and occupational diseases (chapter A-3.001), that is taken into account in determining, for the particular day, the covered benefit attributable to the year, or, if the covered benefit attributable to the year is adjusted in accordance with section 119 of the Act respecting the Québec Pension Plan, the amount that would be the annual gross revenue relating to a suitable employment or employment held that would be taken into account in determining, for the particular day, the covered benefit attributable to the year if, from the year following that for which that gross revenue was last established, it were adjusted according to the same rules as those applicable to the covered benefit.

Recognized amounts.

For the purposes of subparagraph ii of subparagraph k of the second paragraph, “recognized amounts used to establish the weighted net income from a suitable employment or employment held”, for a particular day, means the total of the amounts mentioned in subparagraph b of the third paragraph of section 750.2 and determined under the first paragraph of that section, that are applicable for the year, to the extent that that total is used by the Commission de la santé et de la sécurité du travail to establish the weighted net income from a suitable employment or employment held, for the particular day.

Covered benefit determined by the SAAQ.

“752.0.0.5. If section 752.0.0.3 applies to an individual in respect of a covered benefit attributable to a taxation year and the amount of which is determined by the Société de l’assurance automobile du Québec, there shall be included in computing for that year the aggregate referred to in the first paragraph of section 752.0.0.3, an amount equal to the aggregate of all amounts each of which is, for each day of the year for which the covered benefit is determined, in this section referred to as the “particular day”, equal to the lesser of the amounts determined for the particular day by the following formulas:

(a)  $\{[(0.90 \times A \times B/C) - (D \times A \times E/C)] \times (1 - F)\} - G/C$ ; and

Interpretation.

In the formulas in the first paragraph,

(a) A is the percentage obtained by dividing the percentage specified in paragraph a of section 750 that is applicable for the year by the percentage specified in section 750.1 for the year;

(b) B is the annual gross revenue used as a basis for determining, for the particular day, the covered benefit attributable to the year, or, if the covered benefit attributable to the year is adjusted in accordance with section 119 of the Act respecting the Québec Pension Plan (chapter R-9), the amount that would be the annual gross revenue used as a basis for determining, for the particular day, the covered benefit attributable to the year, if it were adjusted according to the same rules as those applicable to the covered benefit;

(c) C is the number of days in the year;

(d) D is,

(e) E is the annual gross revenue from a suitable employment or employment held, for the particular day;

(f) F is the percentage that applies for the purpose of reducing, for the particular day, the covered benefit attributable to the year;

(g) G is the amount obtained by multiplying the percentage determined for the year under subparagraph a by the amount that is payable for the year as an old age pension or as a disability benefit payable under a plan established by a jurisdiction, other than Québec, that is equivalent to the plan established under the Act respecting the Québec Pension Plan, and that is, in determining, for the particular day, the covered benefit attributable to the year, used by the Société de l'assurance automobile du Québec to reduce the amount of that covered benefit;

(h) H is the total of the first amount mentioned in subparagraph b of the third paragraph of section 750.2 and determined under the first paragraph of that section, that is applicable for the year and the amounts estimated by the Société de l'assurance automobile du Québec for the year, as an employee's premium under the Employment Insurance Act (Statutes of Canada, 1996, chapter 23), as an employee's contribution under the Act respecting the Québec Pension Plan and as an employee's premium under the Act respecting parental insurance (chapter A-29.011), to the extent that that total is used by the Société to establish the weighted net income for the purpose of computing, for the particular day, the covered benefit attributable to the year; and

(i) I is the lesser of

i. the amount obtained by multiplying the percentage determined for the year under subparagraph a by the amount obtained by dividing the annual gross revenue from a suitable employment or employment held, for the particular day, by the number of days in the year, and

ii. the amount obtained by dividing the recognized amounts used to establish the weighted net income from a suitable employment or employment held, for the particular day, by the number of days in the year.

Annual gross revenue.

For the purposes of subparagraph e and subparagraph i of subparagraph i of the second paragraph, “annual gross revenue from a suitable employment or employment held”, for a particular day, means the annual gross revenue relating to a suitable employment or employment held that is taken into account in determining, for the particular day, the covered benefit attributable to the year, or, if the covered benefit attributable to the year is adjusted in accordance with section 119 of the Act respecting the Québec Pension Plan, the amount that would be the annual gross revenue relating to a suitable employment or employment held that would be taken into account in determining, for the particular day, the covered benefit attributable to the year if, from the year for which that gross revenue was last established, it were adjusted according to the same rules as those applicable to the covered benefit.

Recognized amounts.

For the purposes of subparagraph ii of subparagraph i of the second paragraph, “recognized amounts used to establish the weighted net income from a suitable employment or employment held”, for a particular day, means the total of the first amount mentioned in subparagraph b of the third paragraph of section 750.2 and determined under the first paragraph of that section, that is applicable for the year and the amounts estimated by the Société de l’assurance automobile du Québec for the year, as an employee’s premium under the Employment Insurance Act, as an employee’s contribution under the Act respecting the Québec Pension Plan and as an employee’s premium under the Act respecting parental insurance, to the extent that that total is used by the Société to establish the weighted net income from a suitable employment or employment held, for the particular day.

(a)  $A \times B$ ; and

(b)  $0.90 \times C/D \times E$ .

Interpretation.

In the formulas in the first paragraph,

(a) A is the percentage obtained by dividing the percentage specified in paragraph a of section 750 that is applicable for the year by the percentage specified in section 750.1 for the year;

(b) B is the total of the covered benefits attributable to the year and determined by the entity referred to in the first paragraph;

(d) D is the number of days in the year; and

(e) E is the number of days in the year for which the covered benefits attributable to the year are determined by the entity referred to in the first paragraph.”

(2) Subsection 1 applies from the taxation year 2005. However, when section 752.0.0.5 of the Act applies to the taxation year 2005, it reads as if

(1) “under the Employment Insurance Act (Statutes of Canada, 1996, chapter 23), as an employee’s contribution under the Act respecting the Québec Pension Plan and as an employee’s premium under the Act respecting parental insurance (chapter A-29.011)” in subparagraph h of the second paragraph was replaced by “under the Employment Insurance Act (Statutes of Canada, 1996, chapter 23) and as an employee’s contribution under the Act respecting the Québec Pension Plan”; and heading, replaced.

161. (1) The heading of Chapter II.1 of Title I of Book V of Part I of the Act is replaced by the following heading:

“TAX ADJUSTMENT RELATING TO CERTAIN RETROACTIVE PAYMENTS”.

(2) Subsection 1 applies from the taxation year 2004.

c. I-3, s. 766.2,
replaced.

Tax adjustment.

162. (1) Section 766.2 of the Act is replaced by the following section:

“766.2. An individual’s tax otherwise payable for a particular taxation year is to be adjusted in accordance with the second paragraph if

(a) the individual is not required to include, by reason of the second paragraph of section 312.5, an amount in computing the individual’s income for the particular taxation year;

(b) the individual is required to include, by reason of section 694.0.1, an amount in computing the individual’s taxable income for the particular taxation year; or

(c) the individual deducts, by reason of section 725.1.2, an amount in computing the individual’s taxable income, or the individual’s taxable income earned in Canada as determined under Part II, for the particular taxation year.

Terms of the tax

The adjustment to which the first paragraph refers is made in the following manner:

(a) the amount of the adjustment, in relation to the particular taxation year, is equal to the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount of the tax adjustment relating to the averaging, determined in respect of the individual, that is attributable to a preceding taxation year that is an eligible taxation year of the individual, hereinafter called the “taxation year to which the averaging applies”, to which an amount referred to in any of subparagraphs a to c of the first paragraph that the individual receives or pays in the particular taxation year relates, in whole or in part;

(b) if the amount of the adjustment, in relation to the particular taxation year, determined in accordance with subparagraph a, is greater than or equal to zero, that amount is an amount that the individual is required to add to the individual’s tax otherwise payable under this Part for that particular year; and

(c) if the amount of the adjustment, in relation to the particular taxation year, determined in accordance with subparagraph a, is less than zero, that amount expressed as a positive number is an amount that the individual may deduct from the individual’s tax otherwise payable under this Part for that particular year.

Amount of the tax

The amount of the tax adjustment relating to the averaging, determined in respect of the individual, that is attributable to a taxation year to which the averaging applies, for the purpose of determining the amount of the adjustment in relation to the particular taxation year, is equal to the amount determined by the formula

$$(A - B) + C + D - (E - F).$$

Interpretation.

In the formula in the third paragraph,

(a) A is the total of the tax that would have been payable by the individual, for the taxation year to which the averaging applies, under this Part and, if the taxation year to which the averaging applies precedes the taxation year 1998, under Part I.1, as it read for that year, if the portion of each amount subject to an averaging mechanism, in relation to the individual for the particular taxation year or a preceding taxation year, that relates to the taxation year to which the averaging applies had been included or deducted in computing the individual's taxable income for the taxation year to which the averaging applies;

(b) B is the total of the tax payable by the individual, for the taxation year to which the averaging applies, under this Part and, if the taxation year to which the averaging applies precedes the taxation year 1998, under Part I.1, as it read for that year;

(c) C is the aggregate of the amount by which the amount that a person, other than the individual, has deducted in computing the person's tax otherwise payable under section 752.0.15 for the taxation year to which the averaging applies, as it read before being repealed, in respect of that taxation year, exceeds the amount that the person could have deducted in computing the person's tax otherwise payable under section 752.0.15 for that year if the portion of each amount subject to an averaging mechanism, in relation to the individual for the particular taxation year or a preceding taxation year, that relates to the taxation year to which the averaging applies had been included or deducted in computing the individual's taxable income for the taxation year to which the averaging applies, and the following amount:

i. if the taxation year to which the averaging applies is subsequent to the taxation year 2002 and, in the case of the taxation year 2003 or 2004, the rules set out in Book V.2.1, as it read for that year, did not apply to the individual's eligible spouse for the year, within the meaning of sections 776.41.1 to 776.41.4, the amount by which the amount that the spouse has deducted in computing the spouse's tax otherwise payable for that year under section 776.41.5, exceeds the amount that the spouse could have deducted in computing the spouse's tax otherwise payable for that year under section 776.41.5, if the portion of each amount subject to an averaging mechanism, in relation to the individual for the particular taxation year or a preceding taxation year, that relates to the taxation year to which the averaging applies had been included or deducted in computing the individual's taxable income for that year,

ii. if the taxation year to which the averaging applies is the taxation year 2003 or 2004 and the rules set out in Book V.2.1, as it read for that year, did apply to the individual's eligible spouse for the year, within the meaning of sections 776.41.1 to 776.41.4, the amount by which the amount that the spouse has deducted in computing the spouse's tax otherwise payable for that year under section 776.78, as it read for that year, exceeds the amount that the spouse could have deducted in computing the spouse's tax otherwise payable for that year under section 776.78, if the portion of each amount subject to an averaging mechanism, in relation to the individual for the particular taxation year or a preceding taxation year, that relates to the taxation year to which the averaging applies had been included or deducted in computing the individual's taxable income for that year,

iii. if the taxation year to which the averaging applies precedes the taxation year 2003 and the rules set out in Book V.2.1, as it read for that year, did apply to the individual's spouse for the year, the amount by which the amount that the spouse has deducted in computing the spouse's tax otherwise payable for that year under section 776.78, as it read for that year, exceeds the amount that the spouse could have deducted in computing the spouse's tax otherwise payable for that year under section 776.78, if the portion of each amount subject to an averaging mechanism, in relation to the individual for the particular taxation year or a preceding taxation year, that relates to the taxation year to which the averaging applies had been included or deducted in computing the individual's taxable income for that year, and

iv. if the taxation year to which the averaging applies precedes the taxation year 2003 and subparagraph iii does not apply, the amount by which the amount that the individual's spouse has deducted in computing the spouse's tax otherwise payable for that year under section 752.0.19, as it read for that year, exceeds the amount that the spouse could have deducted in computing the spouse's tax otherwise payable for that year under section 752.0.19, if the portion of each amount subject to an averaging mechanism, in relation to the individual for the particular taxation year or a preceding taxation year, that relates to the taxation year to which the averaging applies had been included or deducted in computing the individual's taxable income for that year;

(d) D is the amount by which the amount that would be determined under subparagraph a for the taxation year to which the averaging applies, if the portion of each amount subject to an averaging mechanism, to which subparagraph a refers, that relates to the taxation year to which the averaging applies was determined without taking into account the portion of the amounts referred to in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.50 that relates to the taxation year to which the averaging applies in respect of which the individual is deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister under section 1029.8.50 for the particular taxation year, exceeds the amount determined under subparagraph a for the taxation year to which the averaging applies;

(e) E is the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount of the tax adjustment relating to the averaging, determined in respect of the individual, that may reasonably be attributed to the taxation year to which the averaging applies and that is determined for a taxation year preceding the particular taxation year; and

(f) F is the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount determined under subparagraph d, in respect of the taxation year to which the averaging applies, for a taxation year preceding the particular taxation year.

Special computation rules.

For the purpose of determining any amount under the third and fourth paragraphs, the following rules apply:

(a) the proportion referred to in the second paragraph of section 22 for any taxation year to which the averaging applies is deemed to be equal to 1;

(b) if the individual was resident in Canada but outside Québec on the last day of a taxation year to which the averaging applies, the individual is deemed to have been resident in Québec on the last day of that year; and

(c) if the amount referred to in subparagraph c of the first paragraph includes the amount determined under the fourth paragraph of section 725.1.2, the latter amount is deemed to relate, in the same proportion, to each of the taxation years subsequent to the taxation year 1985 that precede the particular taxation year.

Special rule.

An amount that is not otherwise deducted in computing an individual's taxable income or tax payable under this Part for a taxation year to which the averaging applies, but that is deducted for the purpose of establishing the amount determined in respect of the individual under any of subparagraphs a, c and d of the fourth paragraph for that taxation year, is deemed, for the application of this Part to any subsequent taxation year, to have been deducted in computing the individual's taxable income or tax payable under this Part for the taxation year to which the averaging applies.

Amount subject to an averaging mechanism.

For the purposes of the fourth paragraph, "amount subject to an averaging mechanism", in relation to an individual for a taxation year, means an amount that is received or paid by the individual in the year and that is referred to in any of subparagraphs a to c of the first paragraph or an amount paid by the individual in the year and in respect of which the first paragraph of section 1029.8.50 applies, except, in respect of a taxation year to which the averaging applies and that ends before 1 January 2003, such an amount received or paid in a taxation year that ends before 1 January 2004."

(2) Subsection 1 applies from the taxation year 2004. However, when section 766.2 of the Act applies to the taxation years 2004 and 2005, the portion of subparagraph c of the fourth paragraph of that section before subparagraph i reads as if " , as it read before being repealed, in respect of that taxation year" was struck out.

c. I-3, ss. 766.2.1 and 766.2.2, added.

Amount to be added.

"766.2.1. If section 766.2 applies in respect of an amount referred to in subparagraph a or c of the first paragraph of section 766.2 that an individual receives in a particular taxation year and that relates, in whole or in part, to an individual's eligible taxation year, in this section referred to as the "affected taxation year", that is before the taxation year that precedes the particular taxation year, the individual shall add to the individual's tax otherwise payable under this Part for the particular taxation year, an amount equal to the aggregate of all amounts each of which is equal to the amount of interest that would be computed, in respect of an affected taxation year, in accordance with the second paragraph of section 28 of the Act respecting the Ministère du Revenu (chapter M-31) for the period beginning on 1 May of the year following the affected taxation year and ending before the beginning of the particular taxation year, on the portion of the amount of the tax adjustment relating to the averaging that is attributable to the affected taxation year, determined in accordance with the third paragraph of section 766.2 in respect of the individual, that exceeds the amount determined under subparagraph d of the fourth paragraph of section 766.2, in respect of the individual and in relation to the affected taxation year, if that excess amount were a refund due by the Minister under a fiscal law.

Eligible taxation year.

“766.2.2. For the purposes of sections 766.2 and 766.2.1, “eligible taxation year” of an individual means a taxation year throughout which the individual was resident in Canada, other than a taxation year that ends in a calendar year in which the individual became a bankrupt or a taxation year included in the averaging period determined in respect of the individual for the purposes of Division II of Chapter II of Title I of Book V, as it read before being repealed.”

(2) Subsection 1 applies from the taxation year 2004.

c. I-3, s. 766.3,
replaced.

164. (1) Section 766.3 of the Act is replaced by the following section:

Sections applicable.

“766.3. Sections 766.2 and 766.2.1 apply, for a taxation year, to an individual to whom Book II applies for that year.

Restriction.

In addition, an individual to whom the second paragraph of any of sections 22, 25 and 26 applies may add or deduct in computing the individual’s tax otherwise payable for a taxation year under section 766.2 or 766.2.1 only the portion of the amount determined under section 766.2 or 766.2.1 that is the proportion referred to in the second paragraph of section 22, 25 or 26 that is applicable in respect of the individual for the year.”

(2) Subsection 1 applies from the taxation year 2006. In addition, when paragraph b of the definition of “excluded amount” in section 766.5 of the Act applies from the taxation year 2000 and before the taxation year 2006, it reads as if “section 752.0.14” was replaced by “section 752.0.14 or 752.0.15”.

c. I-3, Chaps. II.4 and II.5, ss. 766.8-766.17, added.

“TAX ADJUSTMENT RELATING TO A BENEFIT ATTRIBUTABLE TO THE TAXATION YEAR 2004

Covered benefit.

“766.8. In this chapter, “covered benefit” attributable to the taxation year 2004 means an amount determined in that year, other than an amount that is attributable to a period preceding that year and other than an amount that replaces an income referred to in paragraph e of section 725, and that is

(a) a benefit, other than an excluded benefit, intended to compensate a total or partial disability affecting a person’s capacity to perform the duties of an office or employment or to carry on a business either alone or as a partner actively engaged in the business, that is established on the basis of net income and determined under the Workers’ Compensation Act (chapter A-3), the Act respecting industrial accidents and occupational diseases (chapter A-3.001), the Act to promote good citizenship (chapter C-20) or the Act respecting occupational health and safety (chapter S-2.1);

ii.  $0.90 \times B/C \times D$ ; and

(b) in respect of a covered benefit attributable to the year, other than the covered benefit referred to in subparagraph a, for each day of the year for which the covered benefit is determined, in this section referred to as the “particular day”, the lesser of the amounts determined for the particular day by the following formulas:

ii.  $[(0.90 \times I/F) - J] \times (1 - H)$ .

Interpretation.

In the formulas in the first paragraph,

(a) A is the total of the covered benefits attributable to the year and paid by the employer for the first 14 full days following the beginning of the individual’s disability;

(f) F is the number of days in the year;

(g) G is the annual gross revenue from a suitable employment or employment held, for the particular day;

(h) H is the percentage that applies for the purpose of reducing, for the particular day, the covered benefit attributable to the year;

(i) I is the total of the amount that the Commission de la santé et de la sécurité du travail estimated for the year on account of the amount in dollars that was referred to in the portion of section 752.0.1 before paragraph a, as it applied for the taxation year 2004, and the amount it estimated for the year on account of the flat amount referred to in the second paragraph of section 776.77, as it applied for the taxation year 2004, to the extent that that total is used by the Commission de la santé et de la sécurité du travail to establish the weighted net income for the purpose of computing the covered benefit attributable to the year; and

(j) J is the lesser of

i. the amount obtained by multiplying 0.80 by the amount obtained by dividing the annual gross revenue from a suitable employment or employment held, for the particular day, by the number of days in the year, and

Annual gross revenue.

For the purposes of subparagraph g and subparagraph i of subparagraph j of the second paragraph, "annual gross revenue from a suitable employment or employment held", for a particular day, means the annual gross revenue relating to a suitable employment or employment held that is taken into account in determining, for the particular day, the covered benefit attributable to the year, including the annual gross revenue from any benefit paid to the individual, because of a termination of employment, under a law of Québec or of any other jurisdiction, other than the Act respecting industrial accidents and occupational diseases (chapter A-3.001), or, if the covered benefit attributable to the year is adjusted in accordance with section 119 of the Act respecting the Québec Pension Plan, the amount that would be the annual gross revenue relating to a suitable employment or employment held that would be taken into account in determining, for the particular day, the covered benefit attributable to the year if, from the year following that for which that gross revenue was last established, it were adjusted according to the same rules as those applicable to the covered benefit.

Recognized amounts.

For the purposes of subparagraph ii of subparagraph j of the second paragraph, “recognized amounts used to establish the weighted net income from a suitable employment or employment held”, for a particular day, means the total of the amount that the Commission de la santé et de la sécurité du travail estimated for the year on account of the amount in dollars that was referred to in the portion of section 752.0.1 before paragraph a, as it applied for the taxation year 2004, and the amount it estimated for the year on account of the flat amount referred to in the second paragraph of section 776.77, as it applied for the taxation year 2004, to the extent that that total is used by the Commission to establish the weighted net income from a suitable employment or employment held, for the particular day.

(a)  $\{[(0.90 \times 0.80 \times A/B) - (C \times 0.80 \times D/B)] \times (1 - E)\} - F/B$ ; and

(b)  $\{[(0.90 \times G/B) - (C \times H)] \times (1 - E)\} - F/B$ .

Interpretation.

In the formulas in the first paragraph,

(a) A is the annual gross revenue used as a basis for determining, for the particular day, the covered benefit attributable to the year, or, if the covered benefit attributable to the year is adjusted in accordance with section 119 of the Act respecting the Québec Pension Plan (chapter R-9), the amount that would be the annual gross revenue used as a basis for determining, for the particular day, the covered benefit attributable to the year, if it were adjusted according to the same rules as those applicable to the covered benefit;

(b) B is the number of days in the year;

(c) C is,

i. if only part of the net income from an employment held is used to reduce, for the particular day, the covered benefit attributable to the year, the percentage

(g) G is the total of $6,150 and the amounts estimated by the Société de l'assurance automobile du Québec for the year 2003, as an employee's premium under the Employment Insurance Act (Statutes of Canada, 1996, chapter 23) and as an employee's contribution under the Act respecting the Québec Pension Plan, to the extent that that total is used by the Société to establish the weighted net income for the purpose of computing, for the particular day, the covered benefit attributable to the year; and

(h) H is the lesser of

i. the amount obtained by multiplying 0.80 by the amount obtained by dividing the annual gross revenue from a suitable employment or employment held, for the particular day, by the number of days in the year, and

ii. the amount obtained by dividing the recognized amounts used to establish the weighted net income from a suitable employment or employment held, for the particular day, by the number of days in the year.

Annual gross revenue.

For the purposes of subparagraph d and subparagraph i of subparagraph h of the second paragraph, "annual gross revenue from a suitable employment or employment held", for a particular day, means the annual gross revenue relating to a suitable employment or employment held that is taken into account in determining, for the particular day, the covered benefit attributable to the year, or, if the covered benefit attributable to the year is adjusted in accordance with section 119 of the Act respecting the Québec Pension Plan, the amount that would be the annual gross revenue relating to a suitable employment or employment held that would be taken into account in determining, for the particular day, the covered benefit attributable to the year if, from the year following that for which that gross revenue was last established, it were adjusted according to the same rules as those applicable to the covered benefit.

Covered benefit determined by another entity. “766.12. If section 766.9 applies to an individual in respect of a covered benefit attributable to the taxation year 2004 and the amount of which is determined by an entity, other than the Commission de la santé et de la sécurité du travail and the Société de l’assurance automobile du Québec, there shall be included in computing, for that year, the aggregate referred to in the first paragraph of section 766.9, an amount equal to the lesser of the amounts determined by the following formulas:

(a)  $0.80 \times A$ ; and

(b)  $0.90 \times $9,200/B \times C$ .

Interpretation. In the formulas in the first paragraph,

(a) A is the total of the covered benefits attributable to the year and determined by the entity referred to in the first paragraph;

(b) B is the number of days in the year; and

(c) C is the number of days in the year for which the covered benefits attributable to the year are determined by the entity referred to in the first paragraph.

Rules applicable to an individual resident in Canada during part of the year. “766.13. For the purposes of this chapter, if an individual to whom section 766.9 applies for the taxation year 2004 was resident in Canada only during part of that year, the following rules apply:

(a) there shall be taken into account, as a covered benefit attributable to that year, only an amount that can reasonably be considered wholly attributable to any period in the year throughout which the individual was resident in Canada; and

(b) the amount of $1,840 referred to in the first paragraph of section 766.9 is to be replaced by an amount equal to the amount obtained by multiplying $1,840 by the proportion that the number of days in any period of the year throughout which the individual was resident in Canada is of the number of days in the year.

Individual resident in Québec and carrying on a business in Canada but outside Québec.

“766.14. For the purposes of this chapter, if an individual to whom section 766.9 applies for the taxation year 2004 is referred to in the second paragraph of section 22, the amount of $1,840 provided for in the first paragraph of section 766.9 is to be replaced by the amount obtained by multiplying $1,840 by the proportion determined under the second paragraph of section 22 in respect of the individual for the year.

(a) if the preceding taxation year is the year 2004, an amount referred to in any of subparagraphs a to c of the first paragraph of section 766.8, other than an amount that replaces income described in paragraph e of section 725; and

(b) in any other case, an amount that is an income replacement indemnity or a compensation for the loss of financial support, determined under a public compensation plan and established on the basis of net income following an accident, employment injury or death or in order to prevent bodily injury, other than

i. an amount that is the net salary or wages paid by an employer, in accordance with the Act respecting industrial accidents and occupational diseases (chapter A-3.001), for each day or part of a day when a worker must be absent from work to receive care or undergo medical examinations in connection with the worker’s injury, or to take part in a personal rehabilitation program, or

ii. an amount that replaces income described in paragraph e of section 725.

Amount to be added.      “766.17. If an individual is resident in Québec at the end of a particular taxation year and is the beneficiary of a covered benefit attributable to a preceding taxation year, the individual shall add to the individual’s tax otherwise payable, for the particular year, the amount determined by the formula

$$(A - B) + (C - D) + E - F.$$

Interpretation.      In the formula in the first paragraph,

(a) A is the tax that would have been payable by the individual under this Part for the preceding year if the covered benefit attributable to the preceding year had been determined in that preceding year;

(e) E is the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount deemed to have been paid to the Minister under section 1029.8.50.3 on account of the individual’s tax payable under this Part for a preceding taxation year because of the application of this section in respect of a covered benefit attributable to the preceding year; and

(f) F is the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the individual shall add to the individual’s tax otherwise payable under this Part for a preceding taxation year because of the application of this section in respect of a covered benefit attributable to the preceding year.

Eligible spouse.      In subparagraphs c and d of the second paragraph, the individual’s eligible spouse for the preceding taxation year means a person who would be the individual’s eligible spouse for that year, within the meaning of sections 776.41.1 to 776.41.4, if the portion of section 776.41.1 before paragraph a were read as if “for a taxation year” were replaced by “for a preceding taxation year”.

Presumption.      For the purposes of this section, if an individual dies or ceases to be resident in Canada in the particular taxation year, the last day of that taxation year is deemed to be the day on which the individual died or the last day on which the individual was resident in Canada.

Exception.

Determination of amount.

“771.2.1.2. The amount that, for the purposes of paragraphs d.2 and h of subsection 1 of section 771, is to be determined in respect of a corporation for a taxation year under this section is equal to the least of

(a) the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the income of the corporation for the year from an eligible business carried on by it in Canada, other than the income of the corporation for the year from a business carried on by it as a member of a partnership, and the specified partnership income of the corporation for the year exceeds the aggregate of

i. all amounts each of which is a loss of the corporation for the year from an eligible business carried on by it in Canada, other than a loss of the corporation for the year from a business carried on by it as a member of a partnership, and

ii. the specified partnership loss of the corporation for the year;

(b) the amount by which the taxable income of the corporation for the year exceeds the aggregate of the amount determined in respect of the corporation for the year under section 771.0.2.2 and the portion of the corporation's taxable income for the year that is not, because of an Act of the Legislature of Québec, subject to tax under this Part; and

(c) the corporation's business limit for the year.

Business limit.

“771.2.1.3. In this Title, a corporation's business limit for a taxation year is equal to $400,000 unless the corporation is associated in the year with one or more other Canadian-controlled private corporations in which case, except as otherwise provided in this Title, its business limit for the year is equal to zero.

Association with a third corporation.

For the purposes of the first paragraph and sections 771.2.1.4 to 771.2.1.8, if two corporations are deemed, under section 21.21, to be associated with each other at any time because they are associated, or deemed to be associated under section 21.21, at that time with the same corporation, in this paragraph referred to as the “third corporation”, and the third corporation is not a Canadian-controlled private corporation at that time or elects, in prescribed form, for its taxation year that includes that time not to be associated with either of the other two corporations, the following rules apply:

(a) the third corporation is deemed not to be associated with either of the other two corporations in that taxation year; and

(b) the third corporation's business limit for that taxation year is deemed to be equal to zero.

Allocation of a business limit.

“771.2.1.4. Despite the first paragraph of section 771.2.1.3, if a Canadian-controlled private corporation is associated with one or more other Canadian-controlled private corporations and all of those corporations have filed with the Minister in prescribed form an agreement whereby, for the purposes of this Title, they allocate an amount to one or more of them for the year and the amount so allocated or the aggregate of the amounts so allocated, as the case may be, is equal to $400,000, the business limit for the year of each of the corporations is equal to the amount so allocated to it.

Allocation of a business limit by the Minister.

“771.2.1.5. If any of the Canadian-controlled private corporations referred to in section 771.2.1.4 fails to file with the Minister an agreement referred to in that section within 30 days after notice in writing by the Minister has been forwarded to any of them that such an agreement is required for the purposes of any assessment of tax under this Part, the Minister shall, for the purposes of this Title, allocate an amount to one or more of them for the taxation year, which amount or the aggregate of which amounts, as the case may be, shall be equal to $400,000, and in any such case, despite the first paragraph of section 771.2.1.3, the business limit for the year of each of the corporations is equal to the amount so allocated to it.

Associated corporation having an establishment in a province other than Québec.

“771.2.1.6. If any of the Canadian-controlled private corporations that are associated with each other in a taxation year has, in that year, an establishment in a province other than Québec and a percentage or an amount is allocated, in accordance with subsection 3 or 4 of section 125 of the Income Tax Act (Revised Statutes of Canada, 1985, chapter 1, 5th Supplement), to one or more of those corporations for the year, the business limit for the year of each of the corporations, determined in accordance with section 771.2.1.4 or 771.2.1.5, shall not be less than its business limit that, but for subsections 5 and 5.1 of that section 125, would be determined for that year for the purposes of paragraph c of subsection 1 of that section.

Filing of an agreement.

If, for a taxation year, a corporation referred to in the first paragraph has filed an agreement with the Minister of National Revenue in accordance with subsection 3 of section 125 of the Income Tax Act, the corporation shall file with the Minister, for that year, a copy of the agreement.

Determination of the business limit in certain cases.

“771.2.1.7. Despite the first paragraph of section 771.2.1.3 and sections 771.2.1.4 to 771.2.1.6, the following rules apply:

(a) if a Canadian-controlled private corporation, in this paragraph referred to as the “first corporation”, has more than one taxation year ending in the same calendar year and is associated in two or more of those taxation years with another Canadian-controlled private corporation that has a taxation year ending in that calendar year, the business limit of the first corporation for each particular taxation year that ends in the calendar year in which it is associated with the other corporation and that ends after the first taxation year ending in that calendar year is, subject to paragraph b, an amount equal to the lesser of

- i. its business limit for the first taxation year ending in the calendar year, determined in accordance with section 771.2.1.4 or 771.2.1.5, and
- ii. its business limit for the particular taxation year ending in the calendar year, determined in accordance with section 771.2.1.4 or 771.2.1.5; and

(b) if a Canadian-controlled private corporation has a taxation year of fewer than 51 weeks, its business limit for the year is that proportion of its business limit for the year, determined without reference to this paragraph and section 771.2.1.8, that the number of days in the year is of 365.

Reduction of the business limit.

“771.2.1.8. Despite the first paragraph of section 771.2.1.3 and sections 771.2.1.4 to 771.2.1.7, a Canadian-controlled private corporation’s business limit for a taxation year ending in a calendar year is equal to the amount by which its business limit for the taxation year, determined without reference to this section, exceeds the amount determined by the formula

$$A \times [(B - $10,000,000) / $5,000,000].$$

Interpretation.

In the formula in the first paragraph,

(a) A is the corporation’s business limit for the taxation year, determined without reference to this section; and

i. if the corporation is not associated with any other corporation in the taxation year, the corporation’s paid-up capital determined as provided in section 771.2.1.9 of its preceding taxation year or, if the corporation is in its first fiscal period, on the basis of its financial statements prepared at the beginning of the fiscal period in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and

ii. if the corporation is associated with one or more other corporations in the taxation year, the aggregate of all amounts each of which is, for the corporation or any of the other corporations, the amount of its paid-up capital determined as provided in section 771.2.1.9 for its last taxation year ending in the preceding calendar year or, if the corporation is in its first fiscal period, on the basis of its financial statements prepared at the beginning of the fiscal period in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

Paid-up capital of a corporation.

“771.2.1.9. For the purposes of section 771.2.1.8, the paid-up capital of a corporation for a taxation year is equal to

(a) in respect of a corporation referred to in paragraph a of section 1132, twice its paid-up capital determined for that year in accordance with Title II of Book III of Part IV;

(b) in respect of a corporation referred to in paragraph c of section 1132, a mining corporation that has not reached the production stage or a cooperative, its paid-up capital determined for that year in accordance with Title I of Book III of Part IV; and

(c) in respect of an insurance corporation, other than a corporation referred to in paragraph a or b, twice its paid-up capital that would be determined for that year in accordance with Title II of Book III of Part IV, if the corporation were a bank and if paragraph a of section 1140 were replaced by paragraph a of subsection 1 of section 1136.

Rule for computing the specified partnership income.

“771.2.1.10. If in a taxation year a corporation is a member of a particular partnership and the corporation or a corporation with which it is associated in the year is a member of one or more other partnerships in the year and it may reasonably be considered that one of the main reasons for the separate existence of the partnerships is to increase for a corporation the amount determined in its respect under subparagraph ii of paragraph d.2 of subsection 1 of section 771, the specified partnership income of the corporation for the year shall, for the purposes of this Title, be computed in respect of those partnerships as if all amounts each of which is the income of one of the partnerships for a fiscal period ending in the year from an eligible business carried on by it in Canada were equal to zero except for the greatest of such amounts.

Corporation deemed to be a member of a partnership.

“771.2.1.11. For the purposes of this Title, a corporation that is a member, or is deemed under this section to be a member, of a partnership that is itself a member of another partnership is deemed to be a member of that other partnership and the corporation’s share of the income of the other partnership for a fiscal period is deemed to be equal to the amount of such income to which the corporation is directly or indirectly entitled.

Income of a partnership deemed to be equal to zero.

“771.2.1.12. Despite any other provision of this Title, if a corporation is a member of a partnership that was controlled, directly or indirectly in any manner whatever, by one or more persons not resident in Canada, by one or more public corporations other than a prescribed venture capital corporation, or by any combination thereof at any time in its fiscal period ending in a taxation year of the corporation, the income of the partnership for that fiscal period from an eligible business carried on in Canada is, for the purpose of computing the specified partnership income of the corporation for the year, deemed to be equal to zero.

Control of a partnership.

“771.2.1.13. For the purposes of section 771.2.1.12, a partnership is deemed to be controlled by one or more persons at any time if the share of that person or the aggregate of the shares of those persons of the income of the partnership from a particular source for the fiscal period of the partnership that includes that time exceeds one half of the income of the partnership from that source for that fiscal period.”

(2) Subsection 1 applies from the taxation year 2006.

c. I-3, s. 771.2.2,
replaced.

“771.2.2. For the purposes of paragraphs d.2 and h of subsection 1 of section 771 and sections 771.2.1.2 and 771.8.3 in respect of a corporation for a taxation year, the following rules apply:

(a) the excess amount described in subparagraph 2 of subparagraph i of that paragraph d.2, in subparagraph 2 of subparagraph ii of that paragraph h or in paragraph a of section 771.2.1.2, as the case may be, shall be computed as if the corporation had, for the year,

i. realized an additional income from an eligible business it carries on, or carries on in Canada, equal to the second aggregate that is mentioned in the first paragraph of section 52 of the Act respecting international financial centres (chapter C-8.3) and determined in its respect for the year under that paragraph, and

ii. sustained an additional loss from an eligible business it carries on, or carries on in Canada, equal to the first aggregate that is mentioned in the first paragraph of section 52 of the Act respecting international financial centres and determined in its respect for the year under that paragraph; and

(b) the excess amount described in paragraph d of section 771.8.3 shall be computed as if the corporation had, for the year,

i. realized an additional income from an eligible business it carries on in Canada, equal to the second aggregate that is mentioned in the first paragraph of section 52 of the Act respecting international financial centres, which, if the percentage specified in computing that aggregate were equal to 100%, would be determined in its respect for the year under that paragraph, and

ii. sustained an additional loss from an eligible business it carries on in Canada, equal to the first aggregate that is mentioned in the first paragraph of section 52 of the Act respecting international financial centres, which, if the percentage specified in computing that aggregate were equal to 100%, would be determined in its respect for the year under that paragraph.”

(2) Subsection 1 applies to a taxation year that begins after 30 March 2004. However, when section 771.2.2 of the Act applies to such a taxation year that precedes the taxation year 2006,

(1) the portion of that section before paragraph a reads as if “sections 771.2.1.2 and 771.8.3” was replaced by “section 771.8.3”;

(2) the portion of paragraph a of that section before subparagraph i reads as if “, in subparagraph 2 of subparagraph ii of that paragraph h or in paragraph a of section 771.2.1.2, as the case may be” were replaced by “or in subparagraph 2 of subparagraph ii of that paragraph h”; and

(3) subparagraphs i and ii of paragraph a of that section read without reference to “, or carries on in Canada”.

(3) In addition, for the application of section 771.2.2 of the Act to a corporation for a taxation year that begins before 31 March 2004, if, in that taxation year, the corporation is a member of a partnership that, in a fiscal period of the partnership that ends in that taxation year and began after 30 March 2004, operates an international financial centre, paragraphs a and b of section 771.2.2 read as follows, subject to subsection 4:

“(a) in the case of paragraphs d.2 and h of subsection 1 of section 771,

i. 75% of any income or loss of the corporation for the year from the operations of an international financial centre operated by the corporation were nil, ii. if, in the year, the corporation is a member of a partnership that, in a fiscal period of the partnership that ends in that year and began before 31 March 2004, operates an international financial centre, 75% of its share of any income or loss of the partnership for that fiscal period from the operations of an international financial centre operated by the partnership were nil, and

iii. if, in the year, the corporation is a member of a partnership that, in a fiscal period of the partnership that ends in that year and began after 30 March 2004, operates an international financial centre,

(1) the corporation had realized for the year an additional income from an eligible business it carries on, that is equal to 75% of its share of the specified loss, within the meaning of section 49 of the Act respecting international financial centres (chapter C-8.3), of the partnership for that fiscal period from the operations of an international financial centre operated by the partnership, and

(2) the corporation had sustained for the year an additional loss from an eligible business it carries on, that is equal to 75% of its share of the specified income, within the meaning of section 49 of the Act respecting international financial centres, of the partnership for that fiscal period from the operations of an international financial centre operated by the partnership; and

“(b) in the case of section 771.8.3, the rules set out in subparagraphs i to iii of paragraph a, as they would read if any percentage mentioned in those subparagraphs were replaced by a percentage of 100% and if “it carries on” in subparagraphs 1 and 2 of subparagraph iii of paragraph a were replaced by “it carries on in Canada”, applied.”

(4) When the percentage of 75%, provided for in subparagraphs i and ii of paragraph a of section 771.2.2 of the Act, enacted by subsection 3, is to be applied

(1) to the income or loss of the corporation for a taxation year of the corporation that includes 12 June 2003, from the operations of an international financial centre operated by the corporation, the percentage of 75% is to be replaced by the total of

(a) the percentage obtained by multiplying 100% by the proportion that the number of days in the taxation year that precede 13 June 2003 during which the corporation operates the international financial centre is of the number of days in the taxation year during which the corporation operates the international financial centre, and

(b) the percentage obtained by multiplying 75% by the proportion that the number of days in the taxation year that follow 12 June 2003 during which the corporation operates the international financial centre is of the number of days in the taxation year during which the corporation operates the international financial centre; and

(2) to the corporation's share of the income or loss of a partnership for a fiscal period of the partnership that ends in a taxation year of the corporation and includes 12 June 2003, from the operations of an international financial centre operated by the partnership, the percentage of 75% is to be replaced by the total of

(a) the percentage obtained by multiplying 100% by the proportion that the number of days in the fiscal period that precede 13 June 2003 during which the partnership operates the international financial centre is of the number of days in the fiscal period during which the partnership operates the international financial centre, and

(b) the percentage obtained by multiplying 75% by the proportion that the number of days in the fiscal period that follow 12 June 2003 during which the partnership operates the international financial centre is of the number of days in the fiscal period during which the partnership operates the international financial centre.

(6) A corporation is not liable to pay interest under sections 1038 and 1040 of the Act in respect of the excess amount described in paragraph 2 if

(2) Subsection 1 applies to a taxation year that ends after 21 April 2005.

c. I-3, s. 1029.8.50,
replaced.
Refundable tax credit.

276. (1) Section 1029.8.50 of the Act is replaced by the following section:

“1029.8.50. An individual who is resident in Québec on the last day of a particular taxation year and repays, in that year, all or part of an amount that is a benefit received by the individual under the Act respecting parental insurance (chapter A-29.011), the Act respecting the Québec Pension Plan (chapter R-9) or a similar plan within the meaning of that Act, or under the Unemployment Insurance Act (Revised Statutes of Canada, 1985, chapter U-1) or the Employment Insurance Act (Statutes of Canada, 1996, chapter 23) and included by the individual in computing the individual’s income for one or more preceding taxation years, is deemed to have paid to the Minister on the individual’s balance-due day for the particular taxation year, on account of the individual’s tax payable for the particular year under this Part, the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount determined, for a preceding taxation year that is an eligible taxation year of the individual, within the meaning of section 766.2.2, to which the amount so repaid relates, in whole or in part, hereinafter called the “taxation year to which the averaging applies”, by the formula

Exception.

However, the first paragraph does not apply

(a) in respect of an amount repaid by the individual in the particular year under Part VII of the Unemployment Insurance Act or Part VII of the Employment Insurance Act; and

(b) in respect of an individual who deducts an amount for the particular year under paragraph d of section 336 as a repayment of a benefit referred to in the first paragraph.

Interpretation.

In the formula in the first paragraph,

(a) A is the total of the tax that would have been payable by the individual, for the taxation year to which the averaging applies, under this Part and, if the taxation year to which the averaging applies precedes the year 1998, under Part I.1, as it read for that year, if the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the portion of an amount subject to an averaging mechanism, in relation to the individual for the particular taxation year or a preceding taxation year, that relates to the taxation year to which the averaging applies, except such an amount that is a repayment referred to in the first paragraph that the individual makes in the particular year, had been included or deducted in computing the individual's taxable income for the taxation year to which the averaging applies; and

(b) B is the total of the tax that would have been payable by the individual, for the taxation year to which the averaging applies, under this Part and, if the taxation year to which the averaging applies precedes the year 1998, under Part I.1, as it read for that year, if the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the portion of an amount subject to an averaging mechanism, in relation to the individual for the particular taxation year or a preceding taxation year, that relates to the taxation year to which the averaging applies, had been included or deducted in computing the individual's taxable income for the taxation year to which the averaging applies.

Amount subject to an averaging mechanism.

For the purposes of the third paragraph, "amount subject to an averaging mechanism", in relation to an individual for a taxation year, means an amount that is received or paid by the individual in the year and that is referred to in any of subparagraphs a to c of the first paragraph of section 766.2, or an amount paid by the individual in the year and in respect of which the first paragraph applies, except, in respect of a taxation year to which the averaging applies and that ends before 1 January 2003, such an amount received or paid in a taxation year that ends before 1 January 2004.

Restriction.

If the second paragraph of section 22 applies to an individual, the amount that the individual is deemed to have paid to the Minister for the year under the first paragraph shall not exceed such portion of that amount as is represented by the proportion determined in respect of the individual for the year under the second paragraph of section 22.

Death or residence outside Canada.

For the purposes of the first paragraph, if an individual dies or ceases to be resident in Canada in a taxation year, the last day of that taxation year is deemed to be the day on which the individual died or the last day on which the individual was resident in Canada.

Rules applicable.

In addition, for the purpose of establishing the amount determined by the formula in the first paragraph in respect of a taxation year to which the averaging applies, the following rules apply:

(a) the proportion referred to in the second paragraph of section 22 for the taxation year to which the averaging applies is deemed to be equal to 1; and

(b) if an individual was resident in Canada outside Québec on the last day of the taxation year to which the averaging applies, the individual is deemed to have been resident in Québec on the last day of that year."

(2) Subsection 1 applies from the taxation year 2004. However, when the portion of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.50 of the Act before the formula applies before the taxation year 2006, it reads without reference to "the Act respecting parental insurance (chapter A-29.011)."

c. I-3, Div. II.8.3,
s. 1029.8.50.3, added.

277. (1) The Act is amended by inserting the following after section 1029.8.50.2, enacted by section 228 of chapter 23 of the statutes of 2005:

“DIVISION II.8.3

“CREDIT RELATING TO THE RETROACTIVE DETERMINATION OF CERTAIN BENEFITS

Deemed overpayment relating to the retroactive determination of an income replacement indemnity or a compensation for the loss of financial support.

“1029.8.50.3. If section 766.17 applies to an individual for a taxation year and the amount determined for that year by the formula in the first paragraph of section 766.17 is, without reference to section 7.5, less than zero, the negative amount so computed must be expressed as a positive amount that the individual is deemed to have paid, on the individual’s balance-due day for that year, on account of the individual’s tax payable for that year under this Part.”

(2) Subsection 1 applies from the taxation year 2005.

(a) is the child, grandchild, nephew, niece, brother, sister, father, mother, uncle, aunt, grandfather, grandmother, great-uncle or great-aunt of the individual or of the individual’s spouse or any other direct ascendant of the individual or of the individual’s spouse; and

(b) has a severe and prolonged mental or physical impairment the effects of which are such that the person’s ability to perform a basic activity of daily living is markedly restricted, unless the person has reached 70 years of age or over or would have reached that age had the person not died before the end of the year, and is the father, mother, uncle, aunt, grandfather, grandmother, great-uncle or great-aunt of the individual or of the individual’s spouse or any other direct ascendant of the individual or of the individual’s spouse;

“minimum housing period”.

“minimum housing period” of a person for a taxation year in relation to an individual is a period of at least

For the purpose of computing the payments that a corporation referred to in the first paragraph is required to make under subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 1027, or any of sections 1145, 1159.7, 1175 and 1175.19 if they refer to that subparagraph a, the following rules apply:

(a) the corporation shall estimate its tax payable for the particular taxation year under this Part as if that tax were computed without reference to the first paragraph; and

(b) the corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister, on account of the aggregate of its tax payable for the particular taxation year under Part I and of its tax payable for the particular year under this Part and Parts IV.1, VI and VI.1, on the date on or before which each payment is required to be made, an amount equal to the lesser of

i. the amount by which the amount determined in accordance with the first paragraph for the particular year exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the portion of that amount that may reasonably be considered to be deemed to have been paid to the Minister under this paragraph in the particular year but before that date, and

ii. the amount by which the amount of that payment, determined without reference to Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX of Part I and this section, exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that is deemed, under that Chapter III.1, to have been paid to the Minister on that date, for the purpose of computing that payment.

Carry-over of the credit relating to a qualified investment.

“1135.2. A corporation to which Title I of Book III applies may deduct from its tax otherwise payable under this Part for a particular taxation year, determined before the application of section 1135.1, an amount not exceeding the amount by which the balance of the amount that the corporation has not deducted under the first paragraph of section 1135.1, in respect of costs referred to in that paragraph, for any taxation year, otherwise than because of the application of section 1135.8, exceeds any amount deducted under this section, in respect of such costs, for a taxation year that precedes the particular taxation year.

Assistance.

However, the amount that a corporation may deduct under the first paragraph, in respect of costs referred to in that paragraph, is to be reduced by the aggregate of

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount of government assistance or non-government assistance, attributable to such costs, that the corporation has received, is entitled to receive or may reasonably expect to receive, on or before the corporation's filing-due date for the particular taxation year, other than such an amount of assistance, attributable to such costs, that reduced the amount of costs incurred by the corporation or the corporation's share of the amount of the costs incurred by a partnership of which the corporation is a member at the end of its fiscal period that ends in the particular taxation year, in accordance with subparagraph a or b of the first paragraph of section 1135.1; and (b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the corporation's share of an amount of government assistance or non-government assistance, attributable to such costs, that a partnership of which the corporation is a member at the end of its fiscal period that ends in the particular taxation year of the corporation has received, is entitled to receive or may reasonably expect to receive, on or before the day that is six months after the end of that fiscal period, other than such an amount of assistance, attributable to such costs, that reduced the amount of the costs incurred by the partnership in accordance with subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1135.1.

Qualified property.

“1135.3. The property to which the first paragraph of section 1135.1 refers is a property described in Class 43 of Schedule B to the Regulation respecting the Taxation Act (R.R.Q., 1981, chapter I-3, r.1) that

(a) is acquired after 21 April 2005 and before 1 January 2008, but is not a property acquired pursuant to an obligation in writing entered into before 22 April 2005 or the construction of which, where applicable, by or on behalf of the purchaser, had begun before 21 April 2005;

(b) begins to be used within a reasonable time after being acquired;

(c) is used solely in Québec and mainly in the course of carrying on a business; and

(d) was not, before its acquisition, used for any purpose or acquired to be used or leased for any purpose whatever.

Benefits or advantages.

“1135.4. If, in respect of costs incurred by a particular corporation or a particular partnership to acquire a property described in section 1135.3, a person or a partnership has obtained, is entitled to obtain or may reasonably expect to obtain a benefit or advantage, other than a benefit or advantage that may reasonably be attributed to the acquisition of that property, whether in the form of a reimbursement, compensation, guarantee, in the form of proceeds of disposition of property which exceed the fair market value of the property, or in any other form or manner, the following rules apply:

(a) for the purpose of computing the amount that the particular corporation may deduct in computing its tax otherwise payable under the first paragraph of section 1135.1 for a particular taxation year, the amount determined in accordance with subparagraph a of that first paragraph, in respect of the particular corporation for the particular year, in relation to those costs, is to be reduced by the amount of that benefit or advantage that the person or partnership has obtained, is entitled to obtain or may reasonably expect to obtain on or before the particular corporation's filing-due date for the particular year;

(b) for the purpose of computing the amount that the particular corporation may deduct in computing its tax otherwise payable under the first paragraph of section 1135.1 for a particular taxation year, if the particular corporation is a member of the particular partnership at the end of the fiscal period of the particular partnership that ends in the particular year, the amount determined in accordance with subparagraph b of that first paragraph, in respect of the particular corporation for the particular year, in relation to those costs, is to be reduced

i. by its share, for that fiscal period, of the amount of that benefit or advantage, relating to those costs, that the person, other than a person referred to in subparagraph ii, or the partnership has obtained, is entitled to obtain or may reasonably expect to obtain on or before the day that is six months after the end of that fiscal period, and

ii. by the amount of that benefit or advantage, relating to those costs, that the particular corporation or a person with which it does not deal at arm's length has obtained, is entitled to obtain or may reasonably expect to obtain on or before the particular corporation's filing-due date for the particular year; and

(c) for the purpose of computing, for a particular taxation year, the amount that the particular corporation may deduct in computing its tax otherwise payable under section 1135.2, the amount determined in accordance with section 1135.2, in respect of the particular corporation for the particular year, in relation to those costs, is to be reduced

i. if the costs were incurred by the particular corporation, by the amount of that benefit or advantage that the person or partnership has obtained, is entitled to obtain or may reasonably expect to obtain, on or before the particular corporation's filing-due date for the particular year, other than such a benefit or advantage that reduced, under paragraph a, the amount of those costs, and

ii. if the costs were incurred by the particular partnership and the particular corporation is a member of the particular partnership at the end of the fiscal period of the particular partnership that ends in the particular year,

(1) by the particular corporation's share, for that fiscal period, of the amount of that benefit or advantage, relating to those costs, that the person, other than a person referred to in subparagraph 2, or the partnership has obtained, is entitled to obtain or may reasonably expect to obtain, on or before the day that is six months after the end of the fiscal period, other than such a benefit or advantage that reduced, under subparagraph i of paragraph b, the amount of those costs, or

(2) by the amount of that benefit or advantage, relating to those costs, that the particular corporation or a person with which it does not deal at arm's length has obtained, is entitled to obtain or may reasonably expect to obtain, on or before the particular corporation's filing-due date for the particular year, other than such a benefit or advantage that reduced, under subparagraph ii of paragraph b, the corporation's share of those costs.

Member's share.

“1135.5. For the purposes of sections 1135.1, 1135.2 and 1135.4, the share of a corporation that is a member of a partnership, for a fiscal period of that partnership, of an amount is equal to the proportion of that amount that the corporation's share of the partnership's income or loss for that fiscal period is of the partnership's income or loss for that fiscal period, on the assumption that, if the income and loss of the partnership for that fiscal period are nil, the partnership's income for that fiscal period is equal to $1,000,000.

Repayment of certain amounts.

“1135.6. If a corporation pays, at a particular time of a taxation year and before 1 January 2009, pursuant to a legal obligation, a particular amount, in relation to costs incurred to acquire a property, that may reasonably be considered to be a repayment of a particular assistance referred to in subparagraph a or b of the first paragraph of section 1135.1 or in the second paragraph of section 1135.2 or of a particular benefit or advantage referred to in section 1135.4 that reduced the amount determined, in respect of the corporation, under that subparagraph a or b of the first paragraph of section 1135.1 or the first paragraph of section 1135.2, for the purpose of determining the amount that the corporation could deduct, in respect of those costs, in computing its tax otherwise payable for a preceding taxation year under this Part, or in respect of which the corporation has paid tax under Part VI.1.1 in relation to a preceding taxation year, as the case may be, the following rules apply:

(a) the particular amount is deemed, for the purposes of sections 1135.1 to 1135.12, to have been paid at the particular time by the corporation as costs to acquire, in the year, a property of which the corporation is the owner at the end of the year and that meets the conditions set out in section 1135.3; and

(b) the costs referred to in paragraph a are deemed to be related to a business that the corporation carries on in the year in Québec and included, at the end of that year, in the capital cost of the property.

Deemed repayment of assistance.

For the purposes of the first paragraph, an amount of assistance, a benefit or an advantage is deemed to be repaid, at a particular time, by a corporation, pursuant to a legal obligation, where that amount

(a) reduced the amount determined in accordance with subparagraph a or b of the first paragraph of section 1135.1 or the first paragraph of section 1135.2, for the purpose of determining the amount that the corporation could deduct, in respect of the costs, in computing its tax otherwise payable for a taxation year under this Part, or is an amount in respect of which the corporation has paid tax under Part VI.1.1;

(b) was not received by the corporation; and

(c) ceased at the particular time to be an amount that the corporation may reasonably expect to receive.

Repayment of certain amounts.

“1135.7. If a partnership pays, at a particular time of a particular fiscal period and before 1 January 2009, pursuant to a legal obligation, a particular amount, in relation to costs incurred to acquire a property, that may reasonably be considered to be a repayment of a particular assistance referred to in subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1135.1 or in the second paragraph of section 1135.2 or of a particular benefit or advantage referred to in section 1135.4 that reduced the amount determined, in respect of a particular corporation that is a member of the partnership, under that subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1135.1 or the first paragraph of section 1135.2, for the purpose of determining the amount that the particular corporation could deduct, in respect of that property, in computing its tax otherwise payable under this Part for a taxation year of the corporation in which ends a fiscal period of the partnership that precedes the particular fiscal period, or in respect of which the particular corporation has paid tax under Part VI.1.1 in relation to a preceding taxation year, as the case may be, the following rules apply:

(a) the particular amount is deemed, for the purposes of sections 1135.1 to 1135.12, to have been paid at the particular time by the partnership as costs to acquire, in the particular fiscal period, a property of which the partnership is the owner at the end of that particular fiscal period and that meets the conditions set out in section 1135.3; and

(b) the costs referred to in paragraph a are deemed to be related to a business that the partnership carries on in the particular fiscal period in Québec and included, at the end of that fiscal period, in the capital cost of the property.

Deemed repayment of assistance.

For the purposes of the first paragraph, an amount of assistance, a benefit or an advantage is deemed to be repaid, at a particular time, by a partnership, pursuant to a legal obligation, where that amount

(a) reduced the amount determined in accordance with subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 1135.1 or the first paragraph of section 1135.2, for the purpose of determining the amount that a particular corporation that is a member of the partnership could deduct, in respect of the costs, in computing its tax otherwise payable for a taxation year under this Part, or is an amount in respect of which the particular corporation has paid tax under Part VI.1.1;

(b) was not received by the partnership; and

(c) ceased at the particular time to be an amount that the partnership may reasonably expect to receive.

Restriction.

“1135.8. No amount may be deducted by a corporation, for a taxation year, under sections 1135.1 and 1135.2, in relation to a property described in the first paragraph of section 1135.3, in respect of costs incurred to acquire the property, if, at any time before the day after the day that is the end of the period of 730 days following the beginning of the use of the property by the first purchaser or by a subsequent purchaser of the property that acquired the property in any of the circumstances in which section 130R71 of the Regulation respecting the Taxation Act (R.R.Q., 1981, chapter I-3, r.1) applies, or, if it precedes the day that is the end of that period, the corporation's filing-due date, for that taxation year, the property ceases, otherwise than by reason of the loss or involuntary destruction of the property by fire, theft or water or of a major breakdown of the property, to be used solely in Québec to earn income from a business carried on

i. by the first purchaser of the property and if that time is also in the portion of that period in which the first purchaser owns the property; or

ii. by a subsequent purchaser of the property that acquired the property in any of the circumstances in which section 130R71 of the Regulation respecting the Taxation Act applies, and if that time also is in the portion of that period in which the subsequent purchaser owns the property.

Acquisition of control.

“1135.9. If, at any time, control of a corporation is acquired by a person or group of persons, no amount may be deducted by the corporation, under section 1135.2, in computing its tax otherwise payable under this Part for a taxation year ending after that time.

Continuance of a business.

However, the corporation may deduct, under section 1135.2, from its tax otherwise payable under this Part for a particular taxation year ending after that time, the balance of the amount the corporation has not deducted, under section 1135.1, for a taxation year ending before that time, otherwise than because of the application of section 1135.8, that may reasonably be considered to be attributable to costs to acquire a property described in section 1135.3 that were incurred in the course of carrying on a business, if the corporation carried on the business throughout the particular year for profit or with a reasonable expectation of profit.

Rule relating to the amount of tax on capital otherwise payable.

The amount that the corporation may deduct in respect of the balance referred to in the second paragraph is to be determined as if the reference to the tax otherwise payable under this Part were a reference to the portion of the tax otherwise payable under this Part by the corporation for the particular year that may reasonably be attributed to the carrying on of that business and, if the corporation sold, leased, rented or developed properties or rendered services in the course of carrying on that business before that time, of any other business substantially all the income of which is derived from the sale, leasing, rental or development, as the case may be, of similar properties, or the rendering of similar services.

Rules applicable in cases of amalgamation.

“1135.10. If a corporation, in this section referred to as the “new corporation”, resulting from the amalgamation, within the meaning of section 544, of two or more corporations, each of which is referred to in this section as the “predecessor corporation”, carries on after the amalgamation a business carried on before the amalgamation by a predecessor corporation, the new corporation is deemed, for the purposes of sections 1135.1 to 1135.8, to continue the existence of the predecessor corporation.

Rules applicable where a subsidiary is wound up.

“1135.11. If, after the beginning of the winding-up of a subsidiary, within the meaning of section 556, to which the rules of sections 556 to 564.1 and 565 apply, the parent, within the meaning of section 556, begins to carry on a business that the subsidiary carried on before the beginning of its winding-up, the parent is deemed, for the purposes of sections 1135.1 to 1135.8, to continue the existence of the subsidiary.

Credit deemed not to be assistance.

“1135.12. For the purposes of this Part, government assistance or non-government assistance does not include an amount deducted by a corporation from its tax otherwise payable under this Part under section 1135.1 or 1135.2.”

(3) the person fails to comply with a condition imposed in relation to a “conditional” safety rating, unless the person shows that other measures have resulted in the correction of the deficiencies for which the condition was imposed;

(4) an “unsatisfactory” safety rating has been assigned to any partner of the person or, in the case of a legal person, any director or officer judged by the Commission to have a determining influence;

(5) the Commission judges that, given the information it has at its disposal concerning the person, the person’s directors, partners, officers or employees, or an undertaking to which the second paragraph of section 32 applies, the person is unable to properly put a heavy vehicle into operation or operate a heavy vehicle.

Rating applicable to partners.

The Commission may apply a registered person’s “unsatisfactory” safety rating to any of the person’s partners or directors judged by the Commission to have a determining influence.

Registration.

In that case, the Commission shall enter such partners or directors or any other person in its register, if they are not already registered.

Effect of rating.

An “unsatisfactory” safety rating results in the registered person’s being prohibited from putting a heavy vehicle into operation or operating a heavy vehicle.

Conditions.

“28. When it assigns or maintains a “conditional” safety rating, the Commission may impose any condition it judges likely to correct the deficiencies observed, whether with regard to the heavy vehicles, the qualifications of partners, directors, officers and employees, or the management and operation of the undertaking or of any undertaking acquired by the registered person.

Other measures.

The Commission may also take any other measure it judges appropriate and reasonable, such as requiring as a condition that an administrative agreement entered into with the registered person be complied with.

Appointment of a director.

“29. In the case of a person whose activities the Commission considers to be in the public interest and whose deficient conduct cannot, in the Commission’s opinion, be corrected by the imposition of conditions, the Commission may, for a period it determines and at the person’s expense, appoint a director to exercise all the powers of the board of directors with regard to the use of any heavy vehicle.

(2) the person was convicted within the past three years of an indictable offence related to the use of a heavy vehicle;

(3) one of the person’s directors, partners, officers or employees was convicted within the past five years of an indictable offence related to the use of a heavy vehicle with respect to which a pardon has not been granted;

(4) the person refuses to allow a place of business inspection to be conducted or hinders the work of a person authorized under this Act, the Highway Safety Code or the Transport Act to make such an inspection.

Note in register.

In the cases described in the first paragraph, the Commission shall indicate in the register that the person’s right to put a heavy vehicle into operation or operate a heavy vehicle has been suspended.

Deficient conduct.

“31. The Commission may impose on a driver of a heavy vehicle any condition it judges likely to correct deficient conduct and may take any other measure it judges appropriate and reasonable.

Prohibition.

When it judges that a driver of a heavy vehicle is unfit to drive a heavy vehicle because of deficient conduct that cannot, in its opinion, be corrected by the imposition of conditions, the Commission may order the Société to prohibit that person from driving a heavy vehicle. The person’s right to have the prohibition lifted is subject to the prior authorization of the Commission. The Société must execute the order of the Commission immediately upon receipt of a copy of the decision.

Information.

“32. The Commission may require of a registered person any information it judges necessary, including the number, class, assignment and habitual use made of the heavy vehicles owned or operated as well as a description of the transport services offered and any information it judges necessary as to the past conduct of the person or the person’s directors, partners, officers and employees regarding road safety and the integrity of public roads.

In the case of an amalgamation of undertakings, a change in the control of an undertaking or the acquisition of an undertaking by the owner or operator of a heavy vehicle, the Commission may require any information it judges necessary as to the past conduct of the person who operated or controlled the undertaking or of the undertaking’s directors, partners, officers and employees regarding road safety and the integrity of public roads.

(11) the sector-based agreement reached on 15 December 2005 by the Centrale des syndicats du Québec (CSQ) for the Fédération du personnel de la santé et des services sociaux (FPSSS) and the management negotiating committee known as the Comité patronal de négociation du secteur de la santé et des services sociaux (CPNSSS);

(12) the sector-based agreement reached on 15 December 2005 by the Centrale des syndicats du Québec (CSQ) for the Fédération des syndicats de professionnelles/s de la santé et des services sociaux (FSPPSSS) and the management negotiating committee known as the Comité patronal de négociation du secteur de la santé et des services sociaux (CPNSSS); and

(13) the sector-based agreement reached on 15 December 2005 by the Centrale des syndicats du Québec (CSQ) for the Union québécoise des infirmières et infirmiers (UQII) and the management negotiating committee known as the Comité patronal de négociation du secteur de la santé et des services sociaux (CPNSSS).

Effective date.

The provisions of the agreement referred to in subparagraph 1 of the first paragraph under which new job titles are created take effect on the date determined under section 15.

Modifications to conditions of employment.

14. The conditions of employment stipulated in a collective agreement renewed by section 5 between an institution and an association of employees are also modified to give effect to the provisions of Schedule 4.

Provisions not applicable.

The provisions of Schedule 4 do not apply to a collective agreement amended by an agreement mentioned in section 13 unless they expressly so provide.

Job titles.

15. The job titles and corresponding job descriptions as well as the working hours, and the wage rates or scales attached to the job titles stipulated in a collective agreement renewed by section 5 between an institution and an association of employees representing employees in its employ are replaced by the provisions of the document entitled “List of job titles, descriptions, and salary rates and scales in the health and social services network” tabled in the National Assembly on 15 December 2005 by the Minister of Health and Social Services as Sessional Paper No. 2575-20051215.

Effective date.

The list has effect as of 16 December 2005. However, as regards the job titles it specifies, the list takes effect on 21 November 2006.

Negotiating committee (CPNSSS).

16. The management negotiating committee known as the Comité patronal de négociation du secteur de la santé et des services sociaux (CPNSSS) and the bargaining agents must continue discussions with a view to reaching an agreement on new clauses that establish a new sector-based mechanism for amending the list of job titles, descriptions and wage rates and scales in the health and social services network to replace the negotiating committees with regard to jobs not included in the list.

Disagreement on amending mechanism.

If, after 31 March 2006, disagreement persists between the management negotiating committee and a bargaining agent on the clauses relating to the mechanism for amending the list, the Minister of Health and Social Services may, with the authorization of the Conseil du trésor and after giving a 10-day notice to the management negotiating committee and the bargaining agent, file the clauses of the collective agreement relating to that mechanism at an office of the Commission des relations du travail.

Consolidated text.

17. The management negotiating committee must submit to each bargaining agent of an association of employees certified to represent employees of institutions who are included in a bargaining unit, a consolidated text containing the clauses of the collective agreement applicable to those employees as renewed and modified in accordance with this Act.

Scope of text.

The proposed text must also take into account the effect of section 58 of the Act respecting the process of negotiation of the collective agreements in the public and parapublic sectors and Schedule A.1 to that Act with regard to the matters henceforth defined as being the subject of clauses negotiated and agreed at the local or regional level, as well as any agreement reached between the Minister of Health and Social Services and the bargaining agent on a formulation excluding conditions of employment related to the matters so defined. If no such agreement has been reached with a bargaining agent, the proposed text must be prepared on the basis of the interpretation of the provisions of Schedule A.1 to that Act that led to agreements with other bargaining agents on the formulation of conditions of employment.

Aim of text.

Moreover, the proposed text must aim to integrate and harmonize the conditions of employment that are the subject of clauses negotiated and agreed at the national level for all employees represented by associations of employees forming part of the same employee-associations group. It must also take into account all the missions within the scope of which the employees may be called upon to carry on their activities for the institutions concerned.

Discussions.

18. The management negotiating committee and the bargaining agents must continue discussions on the proposed text referred to in section 17 with a view to reaching an agreement on the formulation of the clauses setting out the conditions of employment applicable to the employees.

Disagreement on text.

If, after 31 March 2006, disagreement persists between the management negotiating committee and a bargaining agent on the text of the clauses applicable to the employees that the bargaining agent represents, the Minister of Health and Social Services may, with the authorization of the Conseil du trésor and after giving a 10-day notice to the management negotiating committee and the bargaining agent, file the text containing the clauses of the collective agreement applicable to those employees in the matters not defined as being the subject of clauses negotiated and agreed at the local or regional level at an office of the Commission des relations du travail. The text must take into account any agreement on the formulation of the clauses between the management negotiating committee and a bargaining agent.

Documents.

19. The provisions of the documents tabled by the Minister under sections 16 and 18 replace, as of the dates they specify, the clauses of the collective agreements renewed and modified in accordance with this Act as regards matters other than those defined as being the subject of clauses negotiated and agreed at the local or regional level.

Identical effect.

Those provisions have the same effect as the new clauses negotiated and agreed at the national level for the purposes of the fourth paragraph of section 89 of the Act respecting bargaining units in the social affairs sector.

Association of employees.

An association of employees newly certified following the carrying out of the Act respecting bargaining units in the social affairs sector must, at the employer's request, inform the employer of the employee-associations group to which it belongs, if applicable. If the association of employees fails or refuses to so inform the employer or if it indicates that it is an association of employees or forms part of an employee-associations group for which no text determining conditions of employment is applicable under section 18, it is bound by the clauses, if any, that replace those of the association of employees or the employee-associations group it was formerly part of that are identified by the employees by a secret ballot held by the Commission des relations du travail at the employer's request, according to rules and on the date set by the Commission.

Exception. The first paragraph does not apply to employees not reporting for work because they have tendered their resignation, unless they have done so as part of concerted action, or because they have been fired or suspended or have exercised their right to retire.

Performance of duties. 23. Employees must, as of 00:01 a.m. on 16 December 2005, perform all the duties attached to their respective functions, according to the applicable conditions of employment, without any stoppage, slowdown, reduction or degradation of their normal activities.

sector body or the performance of work related to such services by employees, or directly or indirectly contribute to slowing down, degrading or delaying the performance of such work.

Access.

29. No person may hinder a person's access to a place to which that person has a right of access to exercise functions for or obtain services from a public sector body.

§2. — Administrative measures if obligations not fulfilled

Suspension of withholding.

30. On noting that its employees are not complying with section 22 or 23 in sufficient number to ensure that normal services are provided, a public sector body must suspend withholding any union assessment or dues or amount in lieu thereof from the wages paid to the employees represented by an association of employees.

Duration of suspension.

The suspension is effective for a period equal to 12 weeks per day or part of a day during which it is noted by the public sector body that the employees are not complying with section 22 or 23 in sufficient number to ensure that normal services are provided.

Payment not required.

31. Despite any clause of a collective agreement or of an agreement, employees represented by an association referred to in section 30 are not required to pay an assessment or dues, a contribution or an amount in lieu thereof to the association or to a third party for the benefit of the association for the duration of the suspension under section 30.

Contravention of section 22 or 23.

32. No employee who contravenes section 22 or 23 may receive remuneration for the contravention period.

Absence or work stoppage.

In addition, if the contravention consists in absence from work or participation in a work stoppage, the salary to be paid to the employee under the applicable collective agreement for work performed after the absence or work stoppage is reduced by an amount equal to the salary the employee would have received for each period of absence or work stoppage.

Deductions.

A public sector body must make the deductions resulting from the second paragraph up to 20% of the salary per pay period, and pay the sums deducted to a registered charity within the meaning of the Taxation Act (R.S.Q., chapter I-3) designated by order of the Government.

Reimbursement.

The employee is entitled to the reimbursement of the amount deducted only on showing that he or she complied with section 22 or 23, as applicable, or that he or she was unable to comply despite having taken every reasonable means to do so and that the failure to comply was not part of concerted action.

Arbitration.

Any person to whom a decision by a public sector body under this section is referred for arbitration may only confirm or quash the decision, and may do so only on the basis of the fourth paragraph.

- Release for union activities. 33. No employee released to carry on union activities for an association on a day or part of a day during which the association contravenes section 25 may receive remuneration from the public sector body for that day or part of day.
- Salary. In addition, the salary to be paid to the employee after the association's contravention, according to the applicable conditions of employment, is reduced by an amount equal to the amount that would have been paid to the employee had the contravention not occurred.
- Deductions. On noting that an offence referred to in the first paragraph has been committed, a public sector body must make the deductions resulting from the second paragraph up to 20% of the salary per pay period, and pay the sums deducted to a registered charity within the meaning of the Taxation Act designated by order of the Government.
- Reimbursement. An employee who did not participate in the activities of the association that are related to the contravention is entitled to a reimbursement of the deductions made under the second paragraph.
- Arbitration. Any person to whom a decision by a public sector body under this section is referred for arbitration may only confirm or quash the decision, and may do so only on the basis of the fourth paragraph.

- Normal services. The first paragraph also applies if it is noted by the public sector body that the employees are not complying with section 22 or 23 in sufficient number to ensure that normal services are provided.
- Duration of suspension. The suspension prescribed by this section is effective for a period equal to 12 weeks per day or part of a day during which the circumstances described in the first or second paragraph are noted by the public sector body.
- Sanctions. 35. The highest authority within a public sector body must take the necessary measures to ensure that the sanctions under sections 30, 32, 33 and 34 are applied not later than the third pay period after the pay period during which the contraventions occurred.
- Application. The application of those measures may not be deferred, cancelled or reduced by agreement.
- Government order. 36. If the employees of a public sector body do not comply with section 22 or 23 in sufficient number to ensure that normal services are provided, the Government may, by order, from the date, for the period and on the conditions it specifies and exclusively for the purpose of ensuring the provision of services by the body, replace, amend or strike out any clause of the collective agreement between that body and the association representing the employees in order to determine how the body is to fill a position, hire new employees and handle any matter related to work organization.

§3. — Civil liability

Liability. 37. An association is liable for any damage caused during a contravention of section 22 or 23 by employees it represents unless it shows that the damage is not a result of the contravention or that the contravention is not part of concerted action.

Extension of liability. The same applies to a group of which the association of employees is a member, to which it belongs, with which it is affiliated or to which it is bound by contract, if the group has not complied with section 27.

Compensation. 38. Any person who suffers damage by reason of an act in contravention of section 22 or 23 may apply to the competent court to obtain compensation.

Class action. Despite article 1003 of the Code of Civil Procedure (R.S.Q., chapter C-25), if a person brings a class action under Book IX of that Code by way of a motion under the second paragraph of article 1002 of that Code, the court authorizes the class action if it is of the opinion that the person to whom the court intends to ascribe the status of representative is in a position to adequately represent the members of the group described in the motion.

§4. — Penal proceedings

Offence and penalty. 39. A person that contravenes any provision of section 22, 23, 24, 27, 28 or 29 is guilty of an offence and is liable, for each day or part of a day during which the offence continues, to a fine of

(1) $100 to $500 if the person is an employee or a natural person other than a person referred to in paragraph 2;

(2) $7,000 to $35,000 if the person is an executive, employee or representative of an association or group, or if the person is an executive or representative of a body; and

- Penalty. A person convicted under this section is liable to the same penalty as that prescribed for the offence committed by the other person.

AMENDING AND FINAL PROVISIONS

- c. I-13.3, s. 187.1, added. 43. The Education Act (R.S.Q., chapter I-13.3) is amended by inserting the following section after section 187:
- Financial resources. “187.1. Each year, the school board shall inform the advisory committee on services for handicapped students and students with social maladjustments or learning disabilities of the amount of the financial resources available for services intended for those students and of the allocation of those resources in light of the policies defined by the Minister.
- Report. The school board shall report each year to the committee and the Minister on requests for reconsideration made under section 9 relating to services for handicapped students and students with social maladjustments or learning disabilities.”
- Effective date. 44. The first paragraphs of sections 10, 11 and 13 have effect as of 1 February 2006.
- Notice. If, before that date, an association of employees or an employee-associations group that made an agreement under one of those paragraphs gives notice to the Chair of the Conseil du trésor that the agreement has not been ratified, the conditions of employment of the employees covered by the agreement are modified to give effect to Schedule 2, 3 or 4, as applicable. The first paragraphs of sections 10, 11 and 13 have no effect as regards those employees.
- Term. 45. A collective agreement resulting from this Act or a collective agreement entered into by the parties that replaces such a collective agreement until not later than 31 March 2010 applies, as regards its term, despite any provision of the Labour Code limiting the term of a collective agreement in the public and parapublic sectors.
- Reference. The reference to paragraph d of section 22 of the Labour Code in section 111.3 of that Code must therefore be read as a reference to paragraph e of that section 22.

- Presumption. 46. The provisions of this Act or of an order under this Act relating to a collective agreement are deemed to be part of the collective agreement. They prevail over any conflicting provisions of the collective agreement.
- Renewal. The renewal of a collective agreement by sections 5 to 7 is not to be interpreted as reviving a lapsed provision of the collective agreement.
- Administration of the Act. 47. The chair of the Conseil du trésor is responsible for the administration of this Act.
- Division II. 48. Division II does not operate to restrict the application of the Pay Equity Act (R.S.Q., chapter E-12.001).
- Division IV. 49. Division IV ceases to have effect on 1 April 2010 or on any earlier date set by the Government.
- Exclusion. The taking of an administrative measure or bringing of penal proceedings under a provision of sections 30 to 42 against a person or body referred to in the provision excludes the taking of a measure or bringing of proceedings under a similar provision of the Labour Code and of the Act to ensure that essential services are maintained in the health and social services sector (R.S.Q., chapter M-1.1) against the person or body on the same grounds.
- Coming into force. 50. This Act comes into force on 16 December 2005.

(section 9)

Conditions of employment of employees covered by any collective agreement with a public sector body

Salary

- 1. Salary rates and scales applicable to the employees are increased by 2% on 1 April of each of the years 2006, 2007, 2008 and 2009, subject to paragraphs 2 to 4.
- 2. For school board teachers, the increase is effective on the 141st day of each of the 2005-2006, 2006-2007, 2007-2008 and 2008-2009 school years.
- 3. For college teachers represented by an association of employees whose bargaining agent is the Fédération nationale des enseignantes et des enseignants du Québec or the Fédération autonome du collégial, the increase is effective on 1 December of each of the years 2006, 2007, 2008 and 2009.

However, for college teaching assistants represented by an association of employees whose bargaining agent is the Fédération nationale des enseignantes et des enseignants du Québec or the Fédération autonome du collégial, and for aeronautics teachers represented by an association of employees whose bargaining agent is the Fédération nationale des enseignantes et des enseignants du Québec, the increase is effective on 1 October of each of the years 2006, 2007, 2008 and 2009.

- 4. For college teachers represented by an association of employees whose bargaining agent is the Fédération des enseignantes et enseignants de Cégep, the increase is effective on 15 August of each of the years 2006, 2007, 2008 and 2009.

However, for college teaching assistants represented by an association of employees whose bargaining agent is the Fédération des enseignantes et enseignants de Cégep, the increase is effective on 15 June of each of the years 2006, 2007, 2008 and 2009.

- 5. The salary rates and scales set out in the collective agreements renewed by sections 5 to 7 that do not include the salary adjustments determined and paid under Chapter IX of the Pay Equity Act are adjusted to take those adjustments into account.
- 6. The salary rates and scales of employees in the employ of an institution, except for employees referred to in section 7 or the second paragraph of section 9, are set out in the “List of job titles, descriptions, and salary rates and scales in the health and social services network” referred to in section 15. Those salary rates and scales include the increases provided for in paragraph 1 and the adjustments provided for in paragraph 5.

7. The increase in salary rates and scales is calculated on the basis of the hourly rate or, in the case of professionals, teachers and peace officers, on the basis of the annual rate of pay or, in the case of court bailiffs, on the basis of the daily rate of pay.

8. The dates on which the increases in the salary rates and scales of college teachers are taken into account, for the purposes of retirement plans, are those set out in paragraphs 3 and 4.

Bonuses and allowances

9. Bonuses and allowances are increased by 2% on 1 April of each of the years 2006, 2007, 2008 and 2009 or, for employees referred to in paragraphs 2 to 4, on the dates specified in those paragraphs, except for

(1) bonuses and allowances expressed as a percentage of salary; and

(2) bonuses and allowances that were not increased when the latest clauses were negotiated and agreed at the national level.

The salary supplements provided for in the list referred to in section 15 include the increases provided for in the first paragraph.

Civil union

10. Unless the context indicates otherwise, provisions referring to the concepts of marriage, nullity and dissolution of a marriage and divorce are to be read as referring also to the concepts of civil union and nullity and dissolution of a civil union.

Parental rights

11. When an employee is receiving benefits under the Act respecting parental insurance (R.S.Q., chapter A-29.011) or would receive such benefits if he or she applied for them, any indemnity provided for in a collective agreement and paid by an employer because of maternity or adoption leave is paid as a supplement to those benefits.

The duration of maternity leave is 21 weeks in the case of an employee who is receiving maternity or parental benefits under the Act respecting parental insurance during that period or would receive such benefits if she applied for them. For each of those weeks, the employee receives the indemnity provided for in the collective agreement.

12. The period during which an indemnity provided for in a collective agreement is paid because of maternity or adoption leave is not extended because of the payment of benefits under the Act respecting parental insurance.

The maternity or adoption leave is concurrent with the period during which benefits are paid under the Act respecting parental insurance. The leave must begin not later than the week after the payment of benefits under the Act respecting parental insurance begins.

The combined duration of adoption leave and of leave without pay to extend adoption leave may not exceed 114 weeks.

An employee the payment of whose benefits under the Act respecting parental insurance is suspended and who does not return to work is considered to be on leave without pay.

13. In the case of an employee who is not entitled to receive benefits under the Act respecting parental insurance but is entitled to receive similar benefits under the Employment Insurance Act (Statutes of Canada, 1996, chapter 23), the indemnity paid under a collective agreement because of maternity or adoption leave is paid, subject to the provisions of the Employment Insurance Act, as a supplement to the benefits granted under that Act.

Letters of agreement or schedules

15. Any letter of agreement or schedule providing for further work, negotiations between the parties or the determination of salary adjustments regarding pay equity, pay relativity or the determination of the value of jobs for remuneration purposes on which no final agreement between the parties has been reached on 16 December 2005 or in respect of which adjustments have not been determined on that date, is cancelled.

16. After completion of a pay equity plan in accordance with the Pay Equity Act, the parties must begin talks to agree on solutions regarding internal pay relativities.

To establish internal pay relativities, the parties are to use the method used in establishing the pay equity plan.

If upward salary adjustments are to be applied, the parties must agree on spreading them over time. If downward salary adjustments are to be applied, the parties must agree on salary protection mechanisms to ensure the differences are eliminated progressively within a reasonable time.

SCHEDULE 2
(Section 10)

Conditions of employment of employees covered by a collective agreement in the public service sector

Release for union activities

1. With regard to any employee released for union activities on a full-time or part-time basis whose salary is reimbursed by the union, the union must also reimburse the employee's employment benefits for the period of release.

For the purposes of this paragraph, the reimbursement of employment benefits is equal to 15% of the employee's gross salary.

In addition, the time an employee spends attending meetings of a joint committee or doing work judged necessary by the committee cannot be claimed as overtime.

Employee placed on reserve in another class of positions

2. During the period of employment stability, an employee placed on reserve may be assigned or transferred to a vacant position or a position occupied by an employee without job security, in the employee's class of positions or in a class of positions accessible through reclassification, if the employee meets the conditions of admission to that class and is qualified for the position.

Temporary use of the services of an employee placed on reserve

3. The services of an employee placed on reserve can be used temporarily outside the public service.

Salary insurance

4. A period of disability during which an employee refuses or neglects the treatment or care prescribed by his or her physician is not recognized as a period of disability.

Reimbursement of physician's fees

5. An employee who fails to undergo a required medical examination must reimburse to the employer the fees charged by the physician designated by the Deputy Minister or, if the physician was chosen by mutual agreement between the parties, that part of the fees that was paid by the employer.

Vacation leave during a gradual return to work

6. During a period of rehabilitation, an employee receives his or her salary only for the time worked.

However, during that period the employee may, with the authorization of the Deputy Minister, be absent from work for a maximum period of five consecutive working days. The days are deducted from the employee's vacation reserve.

The rehabilitation period, including, if applicable, vacation days used under the second paragraph, cannot operate to prolong the period of disability beyond 104 weeks.

Parking

7. Until 31 March 2006, the monthly rate payable by an employee to lease a subsidized parking space is 130% of the average cost, on 1 January 2005, of the monthly public transit pass of the Réseau de transport de la Capitale (RTC) and the Société de transport de Montréal (STM).

As of 1 April 2006 and as of 1 April of each subsequent year, the monthly rate is that of the preceding year plus the difference between the market rate for the current year and the monthly rate on 1 April of the preceding year, divided by the number of years remaining before 1 April 2010.

As of 1 April 2009, the monthly rate is the market rate and no subsidy is granted.

Direct deposit

8. As of 30 March 2010, the employer may pay employees exclusively by direct deposit into a single account at the Québec financial institution of the employee's choice.

Thus, no later than 45 days prior to that date, each employee must have completed a direct deposit form and sent it to the Deputy Minister.

Recovery of overpayments

9. In the absence of an agreement on how overpayments received by an employee are to be repaid, the Deputy Minister makes deductions from salary for a period equal to that during which the overpayment was made. However, a deduction must not exceed 30% of the employee's gross salary per pay period.

Letters of agreement

10. The provisions of the letters of agreement relating to the payment of contributions to the pension plans within the framework of a departmental time management program that comprises reductions of work time and salary for a specific period are renewed until 30 March 2010.

11. The letters of agreement concerning the employer's administration of the basic health insurance plan and supplementary insurance plans are renewed until 31 March 2010.

12. In a letter of agreement, any provision regarding the administration of reserved competitions or candidates' eligibility to participate in them, or regarding the transitional measures that are applicable until the lists of candidates declared qualified are issued or until employees who are not eligible or are not declared qualified following the issue of those lists are laid off, is struck out.

13. The following letters of agreement are cancelled:

(1) "Lettre d'entente numéro 4 concernant la révision de certaines dispositions spécifiques au régime d'assurance traitement" applicable to peace officers in correctional services;

(2) "Lettre d'entente numéro 8 concernant l'intégration des employés dans l'échelle de traitement applicable au 1<sup>er</sup> janvier 2001 et l'octroi de montants forfaitaires" applicable to peace officers in correctional services; and

(3) "Lettre d'entente concernant les frais remboursables lors d'un déplacement et autres frais inhérents".

SCHEDULE 3
(Section 11)

Conditions of employment of employees covered by a collective agreement in the education sector

Section 1. Provisions applicable to all employees covered by a collective agreement

Arbitration expenses

1. The fees and expenses of a grievance arbitrator are paid by the party that filed the grievance if it is rejected, by the party against whom or which the grievance was filed if it is upheld or by the party that withdraws the grievance.

If the grievance is partially upheld, the arbitrator determines the proportion of the arbitrator's fees and expenses to be paid by each party.

If the grievance is resolved, the arbitrator's fees and expenses are shared equally, unless the parties agree otherwise.

In all cases, the party that requests a postponement of a hearing pays the resulting fees and expenses; in the case of a joint request, the parties share the resulting fees and expenses equally.

However, in the case of a grievance the hearing of which began before 16 December 2005, the arbitrator's fees and expenses are paid according to the rules applicable before that date.

Section 2. Provisions applicable to employees covered by a collective agreement with a French-language or English-language school board

§1. — Teachers

Reassignment and retraining of staff on availability

2. A teacher who is on availability must participate in any training or retraining program that is recommended by the school board and that is in keeping with the needs to be filled and the training and experience of the person concerned.

Failure by a teacher who is on availability to fulfil that obligation entails the same consequences for him or her as the failure to fulfil any other obligation concerning job security under the collective agreement.

Student activities

3. “Student activities” means

(1) educational, cultural, tourist, sports, social and extracurricular activities (e.g. excellence award days, Christmas parties, proms, national sports days, shows, thematic conferences, plays, concerts, industrial visits, museum visits, organized tours, winter sports activities, rural discovery activities); and

(2) committees or meetings related to the student activities.

4. Student activities are an integral part of a teacher's workload.

5. As student activities are fundamental in a student's personal and social development, the participation of teachers in the organization and delivery of these activities is essential.

6. The very nature of student activities and their detailed organization and delivery may require certain changes or increases in the workload (e.g. daily span, regular workweek, work schedule, workday, meal period).

7. After consulting with the teacher concerned, the administration determines the student activities that can be assigned to a teacher, taking into account in particular and wherever possible, the teacher's preferences and other duties and responsibilities.

8. The teacher's consent is required for any student activity held over two or more consecutive days for which the workload parameters must be modified or adjusted.

9. The administration sees to it that the extra hours are compensated during other weeks in the year.

10. The Centrale des syndicats du Québec (CSQ), the Fédération des syndicats de l'enseignement (FSE), the Quebec Provincial Association of Teachers (QPAT) and the union as well as their representatives and leaders cannot order, encourage or support any work slowdown, including one that affects student activities.

11. A teacher cannot participate in any concerted action that results or is likely to result in the teacher evading his or her obligations.

Students with handicaps, social maladjustments or learning disabilities

12. A student with a handicap, social maladjustment or learning disability means a student whom the school board identifies as such. At-risk students are not included in that definition.

13. It is the responsibility of the board to identify or not to identify a student as a student with a handicap, social maladjustment or learning disability.

14. The appendix to the collective agreement entitled “Students with handicaps, social maladjustments or learning disabilities” is not an integral part of the collective agreement. It is intended to serve as a guide or reference to help those involved in intervention efforts and may be modified by the Ministère.

15. Those involved in intervention efforts must work with students in the area of prevention and early intervention so as to create an environment conducive to learning and success for all students. In this context,

(1) particular attention must be devoted to meeting the needs of at-risk students and to detecting students who have handicaps, social maladjustments or learning disabilities in the early stages of their schooling;

(2) being in the first line of response in working with students, a teacher must be attentive to a student’s situation and, for this reason, must record and share information or observations with fellow staff members concerning students, especially those pertaining to the interventions carried out by the teacher;

(3) as soon as a teacher detects in a student signs of potential difficulties or recognizes the first manifestations of problems, he or she must carry out the appropriate interventions, especially as regards the adaptation of his or her teaching practices;

(4) an individualized education plan must be developed for every handicapped student or student with a social maladjustment or a learning disability and may be developed for an at-risk student depending on his or her needs; the teacher must be involved in the development of an individualized education plan.

16. The school administration must, in keeping with the individualized education plan, periodically review the situation of a student with a handicap, social maladjustment or learning disability. The identification of a student as a student with a handicap, social maladjustment or learning disability may be reviewed by the school board.

17. Students with handicaps, social maladjustments or learning disabilities who, on 16 December 2005, are totally or partially integrated so remain until such time as their situation is reviewed in accordance with paragraph 16.

18. The integration support services provided for in the school board’s policy on the organization of educational services for students with handicaps, social maladjustments or learning disabilities are designed to support both the student and the teacher and, for this reason, are interrelated.

19. When students with handicaps, social maladjustments or learning disabilities are integrated into regular groups, the school board is responsible for determining the support services required.

20. Only in the case where students integrated into regular groups are identified by the school board as students with behavioural difficulties or students with severe behavioural difficulties linked to psychosocial disturbances, the students are weighted according to the provisions of the appendix to the collective agreement pertaining to the “Establishment of the maximum number of students in a group into which handicapped students or students with social maladjustments or learning disabilities are integrated”.

21. Unless the school board and the union agree otherwise, when a teacher detects, in his or her class, a student who, in his or her opinion, demonstrates a social maladjustment or a learning disability or manifests signs of a mild motor impairment, an organic impairment or a language disorder, or signs of a moderate to profound intellectual handicap, or demonstrates a severe developmental disorder or a severe physical handicap, the following process applies:

(1) the teacher carries out the appropriate interventions, including adaptation of teaching methods;

(2) if the teacher finds that the student’s situation shows no sign of improvement, despite the interventions carried out, he or she prepares and submits a written report to the school administration, using the form designed by the school board;

(3) solely in the case where the teacher’s report concerns a student who, in the teacher’s opinion, should be identified as being a student with a handicap or as having behavioural difficulties or severe behavioural difficulties linked to psychosocial disturbances, the teacher may request that the ad hoc committee prescribed in the collective agreement be set up;

(4) if, in the teacher’s opinion, the student referred to in subparagraph 3 should be identified as having behavioural difficulties, the request to set up an ad hoc committee can only be made after having observed the student’s behaviour for a period of at least two months;

(5) the school administration normally sets up an ad hoc committee within 15 days of receiving the request;

(6) after receiving the teacher’s report, the school administration meets with the teacher, if necessary;

(7) when, as part of its mandate, the ad hoc committee requests pertinent evaluations from the competent personnel, the committee studies the evaluations as soon as possible after having received them;

(8) the competent authority makes the appropriate decisions, with dispatch, given the circumstances, based on the teacher’s report or the ad hoc committee’s findings. The measures come into effect, whenever possible, within 15 days of the decision.

Amendments at the school level

22. The administration and the teachers of a school, a vocational training centre or an adult education centre may modify certain provisions of the collective agreement in accordance with the following:

(1) the amendment must be designed to modify or replace the following provisions of the collective agreement:

- (a) the provisions concerning the organization of the workload;
- (b) the provisions concerning the rules respecting the formation of pupil groups; or
- (c) the provisions concerning oversize class compensation;

(2) the proposed amendment must be forwarded to the participating body of teachers of the school or centre;

(3) the proposed amendment must receive the consent of 80% of the teachers, unless the school board and the union agree on a different percentage;

(4) the provisions of Chapter 8-0.00 of the collective agreement have precedence over any other amendment agreed to under this paragraph and are deemed to remain in force for the purposes of article 5-3.00 of the agreement with respect to the security of employment system, especially as regards the determination of staffing needs and surpluses. The same applies to the corresponding provisions of Chapters 11-0.00 and 13-0.00 of the collective agreement;

(5) an amendment agreed to under this paragraph is null and void, in whole or in part, insofar as it determines conditions of employment that would generate costs in excess of those resulting from the application of the provisions of Chapter 8-0.00 or the application of the corresponding provisions of Chapters 11-0.00 and 13-0.00 of the collective agreement;

(6) such an amendment is also null and void, in whole or in part, insofar as it would result in increasing or reducing the staffing level in a school or centre of the school board.

23. The school or centre administration must submit the amendment to the school board and to the union for validation. If it is consistent with the elements contained in paragraph 22, the amendment is approved. If it is not, the reasons underlying the decision must be provided in writing. The school board and the union must make a decision no later than 15 days after receiving the proposed amendment, failing which it is deemed approved.

24. An amendment approved under paragraphs 22 and 23 applies for a maximum one-year period and cannot establish a precedent.

Staffing levels

25. In the adult education sector, for the duration of the agreement, as defined in the collective agreement, the school board is to maintain the number of regular positions existing on 30 June 1998, except where this would result in placing a teacher on availability.

However, the number of regular positions existing on 30 June 2003 is to be reduced by the number of permanent departures in specialties where there has been a decrease in clientele which the school board considers significant for three consecutive years.

26. In the vocational training sector, for the duration of the agreement, as defined in the collective agreement, the school board is to maintain the number of regular positions existing on 30 June 1998, except where this would result in placing a teacher on availability.

However, the number of regular positions existing on 30 June 2003 is to be reduced by the number of permanent departures in specialties where there has been a decrease in clientele which the school board considers significant for four consecutive years.

27. It is up to the school board to determine in what specialties or sub-specialties regular positions referred to in paragraphs 25 and 26 are to be maintained and, following a permanent departure, the union may make the representations it considers appropriate to the school board.

§2. — Support staff

28. As regards the appendices entitled “Classification of certain employees” and “Special leaves plan of the Commission scolaire de Montréal (CSDM)”, the dates of 30 June 2002, 30 June 1998, 1 July 1998, 1 July 2000 and the expression “1995-1998 agreement” are replaced by 31 March 2010, 30 June 2003, 1 July 2003, 1 July 2006 and “2000-2002 agreement”, respectively.

Special education

29. In the special education sector, any position that is newly created or that becomes vacant after the first day of class may be filled temporarily until the end of the school year as regards a collective agreement that does not provide such an option.

30. A position in the special education sector described in paragraph 29 must, where applicable, be temporarily filled by an employee on availability or, failing that, by a person registered on a priority hiring list; the same applies to special education technicians and attendants for handicapped students as regards a collective agreement that does not contain specific provisions concerning a special education sector.

31. A temporarily vacant position or an increase in work of an anticipated duration of at least one month in the special education sector must, where applicable, be filled or staffed according to the same process.

32. The school board may, during the year, add hours to an employee's regular work schedule. The addition of hours is temporary and does not change the employee's status and position. This modification applies to a collective agreement that does not provide such an option.

Day care services

33. In day care service sector, the school board may reduce the number of hours or carry out a temporary layoff between May 15 and September 15 as regards a collective agreement that does not provide such an option.

Section 3. Provisions applicable to employees covered by a collective agreement binding a college

§1. — Teachers

Coordination resources

34. Notwithstanding the provisions of the collective agreement concerning the allocation of resources to component 2 of the workload, the resources distributed or reserved for department coordination are assigned to department and program coordination.

Job security

— Terms and conditions

35. A teacher on availability in a core discipline in a closed program is required to accept an available position in his or her discipline in a college in the same zone, in another college in the same sector or in a college in another zone, as soon as he or she is placed on availability.

36. A teacher who has been on availability for at least three years must participate in any employability measure recommended by the college and the Placement Bureau.

However, a teacher on availability must participate in such a measure in a single location or in a core discipline in a closed program as soon as he or she is placed on availability.

Despite retraining provisions intended for a reserved position, the parity committee must, as a priority, grant the retraining requests mentioned in the first and second subparagraphs.

Failure by a teacher placed on availability to fulfill the obligations imposed under this paragraph has the same consequences for the teacher as a refusal to accept an annual full-time replacement workload or position that meets the conditions prescribed in the collective agreement concerning job security.

— Order of employment priority for available positions

37. A teacher placed on availability has absolute priority for an available position in his or her discipline.

Subject to the employment priorities for a position of any teacher placed on availability in the college, the following priorities apply to a teacher placed on availability from another college for a position in his or her discipline:

- (1) a teacher placed on availability in a core discipline in a closed program;
- (2) a teacher placed on availability from another college in the same zone if he or she has indicated such a choice;
- (3) a teacher placed on availability from a college in another zone if he or she has indicated such a choice;
- (4) a teacher placed on availability from another college in the same zone; and
- (5) a teacher placed on availability from another college in the same sector who has been on availability for the greatest number of years from among those who have been on availability for at least three years after having received their notice of placement on availability.

Provisional program authorizations

38. The allocation of resources to the core disciplines in a program subject to a provisional authorization issued by the Minister of Education, Recreation and Sports are not to be taken into account in determining the number of positions. Any position that could have resulted from the allocations is, for this reason, deemed to be a full-time teaching load.

However, if the program authorization becomes permanent, the teacher who had such a full-time teaching load is deemed to have held a position.

§2. — Professionals

Abolishment of position

39. A college may abolish a position that has become vacant following an incumbent's transfer as regards a collective agreement that does not provide such an option.

SCHEDULE 4
(Section 14)

Conditions of employment of employees covered by a collective agreement in the health and social services sector

Arbitration expenses

1. The fees and expenses of a grievance arbitrator are paid by the party that filed the grievance if it is rejected, by the party against whom or which the grievance was filed if it is upheld or by the party that withdraws the grievance.

If the grievance is partially upheld, the arbitrator determines the proportion of the arbitrator's fees and expenses to be paid by each party.

If the grievance is resolved, the arbitrator's fees and expenses are shared equally.

In the case of a dispute, other than a grievance, submitted to a third party for a decision, the fees and expenses of the decision maker are shared equally by the employer and the union.

In all cases, the party that requests a postponement of a hearing pays the resulting fees and expenses; in the case of a joint request, the parties share the resulting fees and expenses equally.

However, in the case of a grievance the hearing of which began before 16 December 2005, the arbitrator's fees and expenses are paid according to the rules applicable before that date.

Part-time employees

2. An employee with part-time status in the nursing and cardio-respiratory care personnel category holds a position comprising a minimum of 8 shifts per 28-day period. The following conditions apply to this measure:

- (1) The employer determines the number of part-time employees needed.
- (2) All job titles are covered, except the titles of nursing and respiratory therapy extern and candidate to the nursing profession.
- (3) The modification is effective as of the date agreed upon by the parties, following negotiation of provisions negotiated and agreed to at the local level, but no later than six months following the effective date of provisions negotiated and agreed to at the local or regional level.
- (4) An employee who refuses to bid on a position is deemed to have resigned.

(5) An employee who has bid on a position and was not granted that position at the end of the local bidding period is laid off, has his or her name entered on the list of the Regional Manpower Service (RMS) and benefits from the provisions pertaining to priority of employment. The Regional Parity Committee on job security is informed about each of these entries at the end of every fiscal period.

(6) An employee covered by a special measure under the collective agreement who refuses to choose a position or refuses a transfer is deemed to have resigned.

(7) An employee without job security who was not granted a position following the application of a special measure is laid off, has his or her name entered on the list of the Regional Manpower Service (RMS) and benefits from the provisions pertaining to priority of employment.

(8) An employee with job security who refuses a job offer or refuses retraining is deemed to have resigned.

(9) The notion of available position, for the purposes of the job security system, is modified to take into account that part-time employees hold a position comprising a minimum of 8 shifts per 28-day period.

Remuneration for statutory holidays

3. Work performed on Christmas Day and New Year's Day is paid at a rate of time and a half of the regular salary rate, and the rules concerning compensatory time-off are unchanged.

Union leave

4. The provisions referring to paid union leave granted to employees for internal union activities are subject to the following maximum number of days:

Number of existing employees in the unit on January 1st of each year	Number of paid union leave days per year
100-299	52
300-749	104
750-1549	156
1550 or more	208

If there are less than 50 members in the bargaining unit, a local union representative may be granted paid leave, upon authorization from the employer or the employer's representative.

5. The provisions referring to paid union leave granted to employees for union activities other than those referred to in paragraph 4 are subject to the following maximum number of days:

Number of existing employees in the unit on January 1st of each year	Number of paid union leave days per year
51-100	25
101-200	30
201-300	40
301-400	50
401-500	60
501-600	70
601-700	75
701-800	80
801-900	85
901-1000	90
1001-1200	95
1201-1500	100
1501 or more	110

6. Paid union leave requested for the purposes of meetings with an external union representative or meetings with an employee to discuss a grievance or inquire into working conditions is subject to five days' notice.

7. The provisions relating to paid union leave required to participate in a joint committee made up of management representatives and union representatives are maintained and the number of union leave days used for that purpose are not to be subtracted from the union leave credits provided for in paragraphs 4 and 5.

The provisions relating to union leave for an employee for the purposes of a meeting between an employer representative and a union representative, whether the meeting was initiated by one party or the other, are maintained, and the number of union leave days used for that purpose and for the purpose of paragraph 9 are not to be subtracted from the union leave credits provided for in paragraph 4.

8. The provisions relating to union leave for a local union representative, an interested employee or a witness in an arbitration case are maintained and the number of used union leave days are not to be subtracted from the union leave credits provided for in paragraph 4.

9. The provisions relating to paid union leave for the purposes of local or regional negotiations, or local arrangements, are modified in order for the employer to grant paid union leave to employees as designated by the union to attend sessions of local arrangements and local or regional negotiations.

The number of employees granted union leave will be as follows:

Number of existing employees in the unit on January 1st of each year	Number of employees on union leave
251 to 1000	3
1001 or more	4

The parties may, by local arrangement, agree on union leave for employees for the purpose of preparing the local arrangement and local or regional negotiation sessions provided for in this paragraph.

10. Any paid or unpaid union leave for an employee is granted provided the employer can ensure continuity of services in the department and provided also no additional costs are involved for the employer.

Salary insurance

11. A disability period means any continuous disability period or a series of successive disability periods interrupted by a period of full-time actual work or availability for work, unless the employee establishes to the satisfaction of the employer or the employer's representative that a subsequent period is attributable to an illness or accident completely unrelated to the cause of the previous disability.

The period of full-time actual work or availability for work is

- (1) less than 22 days for disability lasting less than 26 weeks; and
- (2) less than 60 days for disability lasting 26 weeks or more.

12. For part-time employees, the amount of salary insurance benefits is pro-rated based on time worked during the 52 calendar weeks preceding disability, compared with the amount of benefits payable based on full time, taking into account the periods of time excluded from calculation under the collective agreement. However, the calculation must include a minimum of 12 weeks. If not, the employer must consider the weeks preceding the 52-week period, until calculation can be made over 12 weeks.

If the calculation cannot include a minimum of 12 weeks because the period between the last hiring date of the employee and the disability date does not allow it, the calculation is made based on this last period.

13. A rehabilitation period is available to any employee, whether or not he or she is holding a position, as provided for in the collective agreement.

14. The employer may, upon recommendation from the employer's designated physician, initiate, extend or terminate a rehabilitation period. In the event of a disagreement with the employee's attending physician, the dispute shall be dealt with according to the disability dispute settlement procedure provided for in paragraph 15.

15. An employee may contest the employer's decision to not recognize or no longer recognize the existence of a disability, or the employer's decision to impose or extend a rehabilitation period, according to the procedure provided for in paragraphs 16 to 20.

16. The employer must give a written notice to the employee and to the union about his decision to not recognize or no longer recognize the disability or to impose or extend the rehabilitation period. Notice to the employee shall include copies of report(s) and expertise directly related to the disability that the employer will forward to the physician-arbitrator, and which will be used in the arbitration procedure provided for in paragraph 18 or paragraph 19.

17. If the employee fails to return to work on the date indicated in the notice provided in paragraph 16, he or she is deemed to have contested the employer's decision through the grievance procedure on that date. In the case of a part-time employee whose name is on the availability or recall list but has not been assigned, the grievance is deemed to have been filed on the day the union received a notice from the employer indicating that the employee did not report to work on an assignment that was offered to him or her, or, at the latest, seven days following the receipt of the notice provided for in paragraph 16.

18. If the disability is within the area of competence of a physiatrist, a psychiatrist or an orthopedist, the following medical arbitration procedure applies:

(1) The parties have 10 days following the date the grievance is filed to agree on the choice of a physician-arbitrator. Failing an agreement within the first five days on which medical specialty is relevant, it shall be determined within the following two days by the general physician designated by the Minister of Health and Social Services or the Minister's representative, based on the reports and expertise provided by the attending physician and the first physician designated by the employer. In this case, the parties have the days remaining from the initial 10-day period to agree on the designation of the physician-arbitrator. Failing an agreement on the choice of a physician-arbitrator, the person appointed for that purpose by the Minister designates one from the list agreed by the parties or, failing that, determined by the Minister, in rotation and according to the three relevant specialties and the two geographic sectors identified in subparagraph 8.

(2) To be designated, the physician-arbitrator must be able to render a decision within the prescribed time.

(3) Within 15 days following determination of the relevant specialty, the employee or the union representative and the employer send the physician-arbitrator the files and expertise directly related to the disability, as produced by their respective physicians.

(4) The physician-arbitrator meets with and, if necessary, examines the employee. The meeting must take place within 30 days following determination of the relevant specialty.

(5) Reasonable travelling expenses incurred by the employee are reimbursed by the employer according to the provisions of the collective agreement. If the employee's health condition does not allow him or her to travel, the employee is not required to.

(6) If he or she comes to the conclusion that the employee is or remains disabled, the physician-arbitrator may also decide on the ability of the employee to go through a rehabilitation period.

(7) The physician-arbitrator renders a decision based on the documents provided in accordance with subparagraph 3 and the meeting provided for in subparagraph 4. The decision must be rendered within 45 days from the date the grievance was filed. The decision is final and binding.

(8) The two geographic sectors are as follows:

(a) East Sector, which includes the following regions: Bas-Saint-Laurent, Saguenay–Lac-Saint-Jean, Québec, Chaudière-Appalaches, Côte-Nord, and Gaspésie–Îles-de-la-Madeleine;

(b) West Sector, which includes the following regions: Mauricie, Estrie, Montréal-Centre, Outaouais, Abitibi-Témiscamingue, Northern Québec, Laval, Lanaudière, Laurentides, Montérégie, Centre du Québec, Nunavik and James-Bay Cree Territory.

19. If the disability is not within the area of competence of a physiatrist, a psychiatrist or an orthopedist, the medical arbitration procedure provided for in the collective agreement applies.

20. To contest the termination of an employee's disability, the employer must advise the employee and the union in writing. The employee has 30 days following the employer's decision to file a grievance. Paragraphs 18 and 19 apply in this case.

21. The employer cannot force an employee to return to work before the date indicated on the medical certificate or as long as the physician-arbitrator has not decided otherwise.

22. An employee cannot contest his or her ability to return to work under the provisions of the collective agreement if a competent court or authority established under an Act, such as the Automobile Insurance Act, the Act respecting industrial accidents and occupational diseases or the Crime Victims Compensation Act, has already ruled on his or her ability to return to work with regard to the same disability and the same diagnosis.

Framework for the bumping procedure to be negotiated at the local or regional level

23. The bumping and layoff procedure agreed to at the local or regional level must take the seniority of employees into account, provided they meet the job requirements. It cannot result in the layoff of an employee with job security, as long as an employee without job security could be laid off.

Acquired benefits or privileges

24. The provisions of the collective agreements that pertain to acquired benefits, privileges or rights are replaced by the provisions of paragraphs 25 to 31.

25. Subject to paragraphs 30 and 31, the benefits or privileges related to a matter defined as being the subject of clauses negotiated and agreed at the national level within the meaning of the Act respecting the process of negotiation of the collective agreements in the public and parapublic sectors, acquired by an employee before the effective date of the 2000-2002 or, as the case may be, the 2000-2003 collective agreement applicable to the employee that are superior to the conditions of employment determined under this Act are maintained for the sole benefit of that employee.

26. The benefits or privileges related to a matter defined as being the subject of clauses negotiated and agreed at the national level within the meaning of the Act respecting the process of negotiation of the collective agreements in the public and parapublic sectors, acquired by an employee between the effective date of the 2000-2002 or, as the case may be, the 2000-2003 collective agreement applicable to him or her and 16 December 2005 that are superior to the conditions of employment determined under this Act are null and void.

27. The benefits or privileges related to one of the matters provided in Schedule A.1 of the Act respecting the process of negotiation of the collective agreements in the public and parapublic sectors, acquired by an employee that are superior to the clauses of the 2000-2002 or, as the case may be, 2000-2003 collective agreement applicable to him or her are not extended and it is up to the parties to dispose of them at the local level.

28. The benefits or privileges conferred by the 2000-2002 or, as the case may be, the 2000-2003 collective agreements, and those conferred by collective agreements prior to 2000-2002 or 2000-2003, that are superior to the conditions of employment determined under this Act cannot be invoked as acquired benefits or privileges.

List of job titles, descriptions and salary scales and rates

29. Any derogation to the list of job titles, descriptions and salary scales and rates made by an institution is null and without effect.

30. Despite any provision of the collective agreement, no derogation to the list of job titles, descriptions and salary scales and rates by an institution may constitute an acquired benefit or privilege or be invoked as such by an employee.

31. In the case of such a derogation, the employer, within 60 days after 16 December 2005, must reclassify an employee whose job title is not consistent with the list as an employee with the appropriate job title in the same class of personnel within the meaning of the Act respecting bargaining units in the social affairs sector.

The reclassified employee is integrated into the salary scale of the new job title. In the case of a red-circled employee, the rules set out in paragraph 34 concerning red-circled employees apply.

The reclassified employee is deemed to meet the normal requirements of his or her position or assignment at the time of reclassification.

If the main duties of an employee do not fall under any job title in the list, the employer must make a request, using the mechanism to be established, for the creation of a new job title. The employer maintains the employee's job title and salary scale or rate until a decision is rendered through that mechanism.

32. The negotiating committees with regard to jobs not included in the list are abolished as of 16 December 2005. All the files pending before those committees are referred to arbitration according to the regular procedure provided for in the collective agreement. Subsequent applications are subject to the mechanism referred to in the fourth subparagraph of paragraph 31.

Remuneration of red-circled employees

34. If an employee is reclassified according to paragraph 24, the employee's salary is reduced to arrive at the uniform salary rate or the maximum of the salary scale of his or her new job title, or is maintained, if his or her salary is already at the same uniform rate as that of his or her new job title or within the limits of the salary rate of his or her new job title.

In the latter case, the employee is integrated into the salary scale of the new job title at the hourly salary rate that is equal to, or the next higher than, the hourly salary rate the employee had.

If the employee's salary is reduced,

(1) during the first three years after the reclassification, the entire difference between the salary the employee had before being reclassified and the new salary to which the employee is entitled is paid to the employee in lump sums;

(2) during the fourth year, two thirds of the difference between the salary the employee had before being reclassified and the new salary to which the employee is entitled for the fourth year is paid to the employee in the same manner; and

(3) during the fifth year, one third of the difference between the salary the employee had before being reclassified and the new salary to which the employee is entitled for the fifth year is paid to the employee in the same manner.

Special provisions

35. Nothing in the list of job titles, the job descriptions or the salary scales or rates prevents an employee from carrying out the activities which membership in a professional order authorizes him or her to carry out.

36. Any provision of a collective agreement whose purpose is to grant a guaranteed salary or a non-reduction in salaries to an employee must be interpreted and enforced as granting a guaranteed hourly salary or a non-reduction in hourly salary, except in the case of the bumping procedure where the guaranteed salary or the non-reduction in salary is weekly; in the latter case, the status of the employee is taken into account.

EDUCATIONAL CHILDCARE ACT

DIVISION I

SCOPE AND INTERPRETATION

- Object. 1. The object of this Act is to enhance the quality of the educational services provided by childcare providers covered by this Act so as to ensure the health and safety of the children to whom childcare services are provided, particularly those with special needs or who live in a precarious socio-economic situation, foster their development and well-being and provide them with equality of opportunity.
- Object. A further object of this Act is to foster the harmonious development of childcare services, taking into account the needs of parents — particularly their need to reconcile their parental and professional responsibilities — and their right to choose their childcare provider.
- Application. 2. This Act applies to childcare centres, day care centres and recognized home childcare providers and to home childcare coordinating offices accredited by the Minister.
- Exceptions. This Act does not apply to
- (1) persons who provide or offer to provide occasional organized childcare services, in a health or social services institution, in a commercial establishment, at a fair or exhibition or during a special event, to children whose parents are on site and can be reached if needed;
  - (2) day camp or vacation camp operators; or
  - (3) school boards or private educational institutions that provide childcare at school within the meaning of the Education Act (R.S.Q., chapter I-13.3) or the Act respecting private education (R.S.Q., chapter E-9.1);

(4) public bodies and community organizations that provide temporary childcare as part of their mandate to support and assist families or as part of a specific activity involving parents or children.

Presumption.

3. In this Act, unless otherwise required by the context,

(1) the person who has de facto custody of a child is considered to be a parent of the child, except if the person having parental authority objects;

(2) a person is related to another person if that other person is

(a) the person's spouse or child, the child of the person's spouse, or the person's mother, father, aunt, uncle, brother or sister or their spouse;

(b) the person's partner or the partnership in which the person is a partner;

(c) a legal person controlled by the person or by a person referred to in subparagraph a;

(d) a legal person in which the person holds 10% or more of all voting rights attached to issued shares or 10% or more of all issued shares; or

(e) a legal person of which the person is a director or officer.

CHILDCARE SERVICES

Right.

Considerations.

Such right must be exercised taking into account the organization and resources of childcare providers and of accredited home childcare coordinating offices and their right to agree or refuse to provide childcare to a child, the rules relating to subsidies and the priority given to children from birth until their admission to preschool education.

Educational program.

5. In order to ensure the provision of educational childcare services, the educational program applied by a childcare provider must include activities aimed at

(1) fostering children's overall development, particularly their emotional, social, moral, cognitive, language, physical and motor development; and

(2) helping children gradually adapt to life in society and integrate a group harmoniously.

Promotion and prevention.

The educational program must also include promotional and preventive elements aimed at providing an environment conducive to the development of a healthy lifestyle, healthy eating habits and behaviour that have a positive effect on the children's health and well-being.

Other elements. It may also include any other element or service determined by the Minister.

Restriction. 6. No person may provide or offer to provide childcare to more than six children unless the person holds a childcare centre or day care centre permit or is a home childcare provider recognized by an accredited home childcare coordinating office.

CHAPTER II

CHILDCARE CENTRES AND DAY CARE CENTRES

DIVISION I

(3) at least one of its members is from the business sector or the institutional, social, education or community sector;

(4) no more than two of its members are staff members of the centre; and

(5) none of its members is related to another.

Prohibition. No board member referred to in subparagraph 2 or 3 may be a staff member of the centre or a person related to a staff member of the centre.

Exception. The prohibition concerning related persons does not apply to an Aboriginal board of directors formed for the establishment or operation of a centre on Aboriginal territory.

Rules. The Government may make rules concerning the election of the members of the board of directors, its operation and the content of its internal by-laws.

Conditions. 8. An applicant for a childcare centre permit must also

  - (3) at least one member is a provider of home childcare coordinated by the centre.
- Refusal. 10. The Minister may refuse to issue a childcare centre permit if the Minister judges that the permit application does not address the needs and priorities identified by the Minister considering, among other factors, the permits already issued, the permit applications and other applications for authorization under section 21 awaiting a decision, the subsidies available and the relevance of subsidizing a permit applicant on the proposed territory.
- Prohibition. No childcare centre permit may be issued to a private education institution within the meaning of the Act respecting private education.
- Exception. In order to provide for the implementation of an agreement between the Government and a Mohawk community, the Minister may issue a childcare centre permit to a non-profit organization that does not meet the requirements of section 7, on the condition that the organization is governed as provided for in that section.
- Permit conditions. 11. The Minister may issue a day care centre permit to a person provided
- (1) the person undertakes to provide educational childcare to children in a single facility;
  - (2) the person meets the other conditions prescribed by regulation; and
  - (3) the person pays the fees determined by regulation.
- Exception. However, the Minister may not issue a day care centre permit to a school board or a municipality.
- Native band council. For the purposes of this section, a Native band council is considered a legal person.
- Particulars. 12. A permit must state
- (1) the name and address of the permit holder;

(2) the address of the permit holder's main establishment and of each of the facilities where childcare is provided;

Restriction. 13. A permit holder may not provide childcare in a facility to more children than the number stated on the permit or provide childcare to children for periods exceeding 48 consecutive hours.

Restriction. A permit holder may not provide childcare to children in age classes other than those stated on the permit or to more children in each age class or age class group than the number stated on the permit.

Standards. 14. A permit holder must comply with the standards established by this Act and, if so required by regulation, file a certificate with the Minister establishing compliance with those standards.

Name. 15. Only the holder of a permit issued by the Minister may use a name that includes the term "childcare centre" or "day care centre".

Address. 16. Childcare services must be provided by a permit holder at the address appearing on the permit, except during outings organized for the children.

Exception. However, with the Minister's authorization, childcare services may be provided elsewhere than at that address for a specified period, provided the permit holder shows

(1) that childcare services cannot be provided in the facility whose address appears on the permit for reasons beyond the permit holder's control;

(2) that the situation is temporary; and

(3) that the alternate facility is suitable for the children's health and safety.

Notice of change. 17. A permit holder must notify the Minister in writing, within 15 days, of a change of name or address and, in the case of a legal person, of a change of director.

- Architect. Such plans must be signed and sealed by an architect or any other professional authorized to do so.
- Decision. 19. The Minister must make a decision within 60 days after receiving the plans. The Minister may refuse to approve the plans if the proposed premises or alterations do not appear to comply with the standards established by regulation.
- Compliance. 20. The permit holder must ensure that the premises and alterations comply at all times with the approved plans and the standards established by regulation.
- Written authorization. 21. The childcare centre permit holder must obtain the Minister's written authorization before increasing the number of children beyond the maximum stated on the permit, altering a facility, adding a new facility or relocating a facility permanently.
- Refusal. The Minister may refuse to grant the authorization requested if the Minister judges that the proposed change does not address the needs and priorities identified by the Minister considering, among other factors, the permits already issued, the permit applications and other applications for authorization under the first paragraph awaiting a decision, the subsidies available and the relevance of subsidizing the permit holder on the proposed territory.
- Display. 22. A permit holder must display the permit in each facility, in a place readily visible and accessible to the public at all times.

DIVISION II

- Period. 45. Accreditation is granted for a renewable period of three years.
- Publication. 46. Notice of each accreditation, renewal or revocation is published in the Gazette officielle du Québec.
- Modification. 47. The Minister may, at the request of a coordinating office, modify its accreditation according to the criteria set out in section 43.
- Authorization. 48. A coordinating office must obtain the Minister's authorization before changing the address of its head office, disposing of or transferring a significant asset that is necessary for its operations and was acquired by means of a subsidy, or making a change in its organization.
- §3. — Revocation of accreditation
- Circumstances. 49. The Minister may revoke an accreditation in the following circumstances:
- (1) the accredited party requests revocation of the accreditation;
  - (2) the accreditation was granted on the basis of false or misleading information;
  - (3) the accredited party does not comply with the conditions determined by law;
  - (4) the Minister judges that a change in the accredited party's circumstances makes revocation necessary given the criteria considered in granting the accreditation; or
  - (5) the accredited party acts contrary to the rules of sound management applicable to an organization receiving subsidies out of public funds, or there has been malfeasance or breach of trust.
- Written notice. Unless the revocation is at the accredited party's request, the Minister must notify the accredited party in writing and give the accredited party at least 10 days to submit observations.
- Written decision. 50. The Minister's decision, with reasons, is communicated in writing.
- Interim. 51. When an accreditation is revoked, the Minister assumes the coordination of services provided by the home childcare providers recognized by the former coordinating office, until a new coordinating office is accredited for the territory concerned. As of that time, the home childcare providers are deemed to have been recognized by the new coordinating office.

DIVISION II*HOME CHILDCARE PROVIDERS

- Number of children. 52. A natural person who, in return for payment, provides childcare in a private residence
- (1) to up to six children of whom not more than two are under the age of eighteen months, including the person's own children under nine years of age and any other children under nine who ordinarily live with the person and are present while the childcare is provided, or
- (2) if the person is assisted by another adult, to up to six children of whom not more than four are under the age of eighteen months, including their own children under nine years of age and any other children under nine who ordinarily live with them and are present while the childcare is provided,
- may be recognized as a home childcare provider by a coordinating office, according to the terms and conditions determined by regulation.
- Assistance. 53. A natural person, other than a day care centre permit holder, who, in return for payment, provides childcare in a private residence to at least seven but no more than nine children must be recognized as a home childcare provider by a coordinating office in the manner determined by regulation and must be assisted by another adult.
- Calculation. The person and the adult assistant may not provide childcare to more than four children under the age of eighteen months and must, for the purpose of calculating the number of children, include any children under nine years old of their own, and any children under nine who ordinarily live with them and are present while the childcare is provided.
- Educational childcare services. 54. A recognized home childcare provider is committed to providing educational childcare services to children and is subject to monitoring by the coordinating office that granted its recognition.
- Period. 55. Recognition of a home childcare provider is granted for a three-year period, and may be renewed, suspended or revoked under the circumstances and conditions determined by regulation.
- Provider of services. 56. A recognized home childcare provider is, with regard to the services the person provides to parents in that capacity, a provider of services within the meaning of the Civil Code.
- Presumption. Despite any conflicting provision, a recognized home childcare provider, when acting within the home childcare operation, is deemed not to be in the employ of, or an employee of, the coordinating office that granted its recognition. The same applies to an adult assistant and any employees of the home childcare provider.

CHAPTER IV*DOCUMENTS

- Bookkeeping. 57. Childcare providers and coordinating offices that receive subsidies must keep and preserve the books, accounts and registers required by the Minister, in the manner the Minister prescribes.
- Registration and attendance cards. 58. Childcare providers must keep and preserve, in accordance with the regulations, a registration card and an attendance card for each child to whom they provide childcare.
- List. 59. A coordinating office must send to the Minister, not later than 30 June of each year, an up-to-date list of the names of and contact information for each home childcare provider it has recognized, along with, in each case, the date of recognition, the number of children to whom childcare is to be provided, the number of subsidized childcare spaces assigned and the number of these spaces that have been filled.
- Update. The Minister may, during the year, require a coordinating office to send an update of the list.

CHAPTER V*REPORTS

- Fiscal year. 60. The fiscal year of permit holders and coordinating offices ends on 31 March, unless another date is prescribed by another Act.
- Financial report. 61. A permit holder or coordinating office that receives a subsidy under this Act must send to the Minister, not later than three months after the end of its fiscal year, a financial report for that fiscal year.
- Audit. The report is to be audited if the subsidies received during that fiscal year total $25,000 or more.
- Incomplete fiscal year. 62. A permit holder or coordinating office that ceases to operate or whose permit or accreditation is revoked or not renewed must send to the Minister a financial report for the period that begins on the start-date of the current fiscal year and ends on the date operations cease or the permit or accreditation expires.
- Audit. The report is to be audited if the subsidies received during this period total $25,000 or more. The report must be submitted not later than three months after the cessation of operations or the notification of the Minister's decision to revoke or not to renew the permit or accreditation.
- Activities report. 63. Permit holders and coordinating offices must send an activities report to the Minister not later than 30 June of each year.

Circumstances. 66. The Minister may designate a person to provisionally administer a childcare centre, day care centre or coordinating office

(1) if its permit is suspended or revoked;

(2) if the permit holder engages in practices or tolerates a situation likely to compromise the health, safety or well-being of the children to whom childcare is provided;

(3) if the permit holder or accredited party acts contrary to the rules of sound management applicable to an organization receiving subsidies out of public funds, or if there has been malfeasance or breach of trust;

(4) if the Minister has reasonable grounds to believe that the permit holder or accredited party is using subsidies for purposes other than those for which they were granted; or

(5) if an investigation into the management and operations of the permit holder or accredited party is conducted under section 80.

- Duration. The provisional administration must not last longer than 120 days; the Minister may grant an extension of not more than 90 days.
- Suspension of powers. 67. The provisional administration suspends the powers of the permit holder or accredited party.
- Preliminary report. 68. A preliminary report of the provisional administrator's findings, with recommendations, is filed with the Minister as soon as possible.
- Observations. The Minister sends a copy of the report to the permit holder or accredited party and gives the permit holder or accredited party at least 10 days to submit observations.
- Follow-up. 69. If the preliminary report confirms the existence of a situation described in section 66, the Minister may
  - (1) make retention of the permit or accreditation subject to restrictions the Minister judges appropriate, prescribe a time limit for correcting the situation and, if the time limit is not met, impose another period of provisional administration; or
  - (2) order the provisional administrator to continue to administer the childcare centre, day care centre or coordinating office.
- Final report. 70. The provisional administrator submits a final report to the Minister upon ascertaining that the situation that gave rise to the provisional administration has been, or cannot be, corrected.
- Costs, fees and expenses. The costs, fees and expenses of the provisional administration are payable by the permit holder or accredited party concerned, unless the Minister decides otherwise.
- Immunity. 71. The provisional administrator may not be prosecuted for any act done in good faith in the exercise of his or her functions.

DIVISION III

- Inspector. An inspector is an employee of the Minister. Before conducting an inspection, the inspector must identify himself or herself and, on request, show a certificate of authority signed by the Minister.
- Powers. 73. An inspector designated by the Minister may

(1) at any reasonable time, enter any premises where he or she has reasonable grounds to believe that activities are carried on which require a permit, recognition or accreditation under this Act, for the purpose of verifying whether the Act is being complied with;

(2) at any reasonable time, enter any premises where home childcare is provided, for the purpose of verifying whether the provisions of Chapter VII are being complied with;

(3) inspect any premises and equipment covered by this Act, and take photographs or make recordings;

(4) require that any document be communicated for examination or reproduction, if he or she has reasonable grounds to believe that it contains information relating to the application of this Act.

- Non-compliance. 74. If an inspector discovers that a permit holder has failed to comply with a safety standard prescribed for a play area, play space or play equipment, he or she may issue a notice of non-compliance indicating the deficiencies observed and the time granted to correct them.
- Consequences. If the permit holder fails to comply with the notice, the Minister may order such work as is necessary at the permit holder's expense or prohibit access to the premises or equipment until the situation is corrected.
- Evacuation. 75. If an inspector discovers that the state of a play space or area or of play equipment constitutes a hazard for children, he or she must order its immediate evacuation.
- Observations. The permit holder may submit observations to the Minister within the time specified in the evacuation order.
- Minister's power. The Minister may suspend or cancel the inspector's decision.
- Access prohibited. 76. An inspector may affix a seal to play equipment to which he or she has prohibited access.
- Seal. No person may break a seal affixed by an inspector.
- Access authorized. 77. When the premises or the play equipment are no longer a hazard for children and comply with the standards prescribed by regulation, the Minister authorizes access to the premises or the equipment and the removal of any seals.
- Prohibition. 78. No person may hinder an inspector in the exercise of inspection functions, make misleading statements to an inspector or refuse to provide an inspector with the information he or she has the right to obtain under this Act.

Assistance. The person in charge of the premises being inspected and any person who works there are required to assist the inspector. In addition, the person having custody, possession or control of a document referred to in paragraph 4 of section 73 must give the inspector access to the document and assistance in examining it.

Immunity. 79. An inspector may not be prosecuted for any act done in good faith in the exercise of inspection functions.

DIVISION IV

INVESTIGATIONS

Subject. 80. The Minister or any person designated by the Minister may investigate any matter relating to the application of this Act.

Powers and immunity. In the context of an investigation, the Minister and investigators are vested with the powers and immunity of commissioners appointed under the Act respecting public inquiry commissions (R.S.Q., chapter C-37), except the power to order imprisonment.

Investigator. An investigator must, on request, identify himself or herself and show a certificate of authority signed by the Minister.

Summons. 81. An investigator may send a summons by fax machine or any other electronic means, provided the intended recipient can be so reached.

CHAPTER VII

PARENTAL CONTRIBUTION AND SUBSIDIES

CONTRIBUTIONS

Subsidized childcare provider. 82. The Government may, by regulation, set the amount of the contribution to be paid by a parent for childcare services for which the childcare provider is subsidized.

Other cases. In all other cases, the childcare provider sets the amount of the parental contribution for the childcare services provided.

Application. 83. The parental contribution referred to in the first paragraph of section 82 applies to childcare services according to the age group of the children and the type and duration of services as determined by regulation.

Indexation. The contribution may be indexed according to the method prescribed by regulation. The indexed amount is payable as of the coming into force of the amendment.

- Amount and rate. For the purposes of paragraphs e and f of section 190 and section 191 of the Consumer Protection Act (R.S.Q., chapter P-40.1), the total amount to be paid and the rate stated in the childcare services contract are revised accordingly.
- Payment and exemptions. 84. The Government may, by regulation, determine conditions of payment of the parental contribution for a day or half day of childcare, and cases in which full or partial exemption from the contribution is granted for the services determined by the Government.
- Condition. 85. A parent pays the contribution or is fully or partially exempted from paying it on condition that a subsidy has been granted to the childcare provider for the childcare space requested by the parent.
- Prohibitions. 86. A subsidized childcare provider may not demand payment of a contribution from a parent who has been exempted, or demand payment of a contribution other than that set by regulation for the services concerned. In addition, a subsidized childcare provider may not charge administration, registration or management fees for the services provided, or charge a fee for entering a person on a waiting list for a subsidized childcare space.
- Prohibitions. A subsidized childcare provider may not make a child's admission subject to a parent's undertaking to pay a contribution exceeding that set by regulation for the services concerned or to pay fees referred to in the first paragraph. In addition, a subsidized childcare provider may not refuse to provide childcare to a child because his or her parents refuse to pay such a contribution or such fees.
- Review of decision. 87. A parent who believes he or she has been wronged by the decision of a permit holder or home childcare coordinating office regarding the parent's eligibility for payment of the contribution set by regulation or for an exemption may apply to the Minister for a review of the decision.
- Application. The application must be made in writing within 90 days after the day on which the parent is notified of the decision, and must contain a brief summary of the grounds for the review.
- Extension. The Minister may grant an extension if the parent can show that he or she was unable, for serious and valid reasons, to act sooner.
- Written decision. 88. Within 30 days after receiving the application, the Minister sends a written decision, with reasons, to the parent and childcare provider concerned.

DIVISION II

SUBSIDIES

- Purpose. 89. The Minister may, according to the conditions and priorities the Minister determines, grant a subsidy

(1) to a childcare centre permit applicant, for the establishment of such a centre; or

(2) to a childcare centre permit holder or a home childcare coordinating office, for funding purposes.

- Childcare provider. 90. The Minister may, according to the conditions and priorities the Minister determines, subsidize childcare providers for the provision of childcare services for which the contribution payable is set by the Government. The amount of such subsidies may vary depending on whether the childcare provider is a childcare centre permit holder, day care centre permit holder or home childcare provider.
- Eligible children. Such subsidized childcare is for children from birth to their admission to preschool, and may be offered to children in preschool or elementary school who cannot be provided childcare at school within the meaning of the Education Act and the Act respecting private education.
- Other subsidies. 91. The Minister may likewise grant a subsidy to any person, partnership or association in order to facilitate or support the development or improvement of childcare services, to meet specific childcare needs or to foster experimentation or innovation in the field of childcare.
- Agreement. 92. The Minister may, according to the conditions the Minister determines, enter into a subsidy agreement with a permit applicant or childcare provider.
- Number of spaces. 93. The Minister determines the number of subsidized childcare spaces annually and allocates them to permit applicants, permit holders and home childcare coordinating offices, according to the needs and priorities the Minister determines.
- Exceptions. Home childcare providers may not receive a subsidy for the childcare they provide, within their childcare operation, to their own children or to children who ordinarily live with them. Nor may they receive a subsidy for childcare provided to their assistants' children or to children who ordinarily live with their assistants, if the services are provided at the children's residence.
- Reallocation of spaces. 94. The Minister may reallocate childcare spaces that a permit applicant or a permit holder fails to make available, or that a coordinating office fails to distribute, within the time determined by the Minister.
- Unoccupied space. Likewise, the Minister may reallocate a childcare space allocated to a permit holder if it becomes unoccupied.
- Home childcare space. A coordinating office may reallocate a childcare space allocated to a home childcare provider if it becomes unoccupied or if the services offered no longer satisfy the terms of the subsidy agreement.
- Restriction. 95. A childcare provider that has been allocated fewer childcare spaces than the allowable maximum may only make up the difference by accepting children who will occupy the spaces already allocated or who do not meet the conditions set out in the second paragraph of section 90.

Payment to coordinating office.

Remittance to home childcare provider.

The coordinating office must remit the subsidy to the home childcare provider within 15 days following the provision of the childcare services.

Cancellation, reduction or suspension.

97. The Minister may cancel or reduce a subsidy or suspend payment in whole or in part if the recipient

- (1) is not entitled to the subsidy;
- (2) refuses or neglects to comply with the subsidy agreement;
- (3) refuses or neglects to comply with sections 57 to 65;
- (4) refuses or neglects to pay an amount due to the Minister under this Act;
- (5) acts contrary to the rules of sound management applicable to an organization receiving subsidies out of public funds, or uses such subsidies for purposes other than those for which they were granted;
- (6) files a financial report containing a qualification or reasons for a denial of opinion, and the Minister judges that corrective measures must be taken;
- (7) contravenes section 86; or
- (8) refuses or neglects to establish or comply with a recovery plan under section 98.

Observations.

If a non-compliance notice has not already been issued to the subsidy recipient, the Minister, before applying a measure provided for in the first paragraph, gives the recipient at least 10 days to submit observations.

Recovery plan.

98. In a case described in subparagraph 5 or 6 of the first paragraph of section 97, the Minister may, before cancelling, reducing or suspending a subsidy, establish, in cooperation with a permit holder or a coordinating office and within the time determined by the Minister, a recovery plan to correct the situation.

Content.

The plan may include recommendations regarding the management of human, financial or physical resources and provide for the presence, for a specified time, of a person designated by the Minister to assist in carrying out the plan.

Supporting documents.

99. The recipient of a subsidy must, for a period of six years, keep all supporting documents related to the granting and use of the subsidy, and must allow the Minister to audit such documents at any time.

Repayment. 100. Any subsidy received without entitlement must be repaid to the Minister by the recipient.

Interest. Any amount due is subject to interest at the rate determined under section 28 of the Act respecting the Ministère du Revenu (R.S.Q., chapter M-31), and may be deducted from any future subsidies.

Transfer of assets. 101. When a childcare centre permit holder or a home childcare coordinating office ceases to operate, is dissolved, or has its permit or accreditation revoked, the assets it acquired out of subsidies are transferred to a non-profit legal person with similar objects designated by the Minister.

CHAPTER VIII

COMMUNICATION OF INFORMATION

Obligation. 102. A permit holder, a home childcare coordinating office or a recognized home childcare provider must communicate to the Minister, on request, the personal or other information needed by the Minister for the purposes of this Act, whether for studies, research or the administration of a subsidy.

Home childcare provider. In the case of a coordinating office, the information referred to in the first paragraph includes that obtained from a home childcare provider that it has recognized. A home childcare provider must likewise, on request, communicate to the coordinating office the information it needs to exercise its functions or administer a subsidy.

Information required. The information concerned may relate to the permit holder, the coordinating office or a home childcare provider, their directors or personnel, the childcare services they provide or coordinate, or the children receiving childcare and their parents.

Personal documents and information. 103. In order to determine whether the objectives of the Act are being achieved, the Minister may require that parents whose child is receiving subsidized childcare communicate to the Minister, at the time determined and using the form supplied by the Minister, the documents and information prescribed by regulation concerning their employment, annual income bracket, family make-up and childcare needs.

CHAPTER IX

PROCEEDING BEFORE THE ADMINISTRATIVE TRIBUNAL OF QUÉBEC

Right to contest. 104. An applicant who is denied a permit, a permit holder whose permit is suspended, revoked or not renewed, a home childcare provider whose recognition is suspended, revoked, or not renewed, or a parent who believes he or she had been wronged by a decision under section 88 may contest the decision of the Minister or the home childcare coordinating office, as the case may be, before the Administrative Tribunal of Québec within 60 days after being notified of the decision.

Party to proceeding.

105. A home childcare coordinating office whose decision is contested is a party to the proceeding within the meaning of section 101 of the Act respecting administrative justice (R.S.Q., chapter J-3) and must, among other things, send the documents and information referred to in the first paragraph of section 114 of that Act to the secretary of the Tribunal within 30 days after receiving a copy of the motion.

Consultation. Before making such an agreement, the Minister consults with all representative associations of home childcare providers and with all home childcare coordinating offices, and submits the draft agreement to the Government for approval.

Third party. 126. If, during the process that is to lead to an agreement, the parties wish to bring in a third party to advise them on any matter that may be covered by the agreement or to facilitate the making of the agreement, they may agree on the appointment and terms of appointment of a third party.

Binding force. 127. The agreement is binding on all home childcare providers, whether or not they are members of an association that is party to the agreement, and on all home childcare coordinating offices.

§2. — Representative association

Interpretation. 128. A representative association is

(1) an association whose membership consists solely of home childcare providers and comprising at least 350 members; or

(2) an alliance of associations whose membership consists solely of home childcare providers and which, together, comprise at least 350 members.

Prohibition. 131. In no case may a home childcare coordinating office or a person acting in its name represent or play a role in forming or administering a representative association of home childcare providers.

MISCELLANEOUS AND TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

c. C-8.2, replaced. 150. This Act replaces the Act respecting childcare centres and childcare services (R.S.Q., chapter C-8.2).

Regulations continued. 151. A regulation made under the Act respecting childcare centres and childcare services remains in force until it is replaced or repealed by a regulation made under this Act.

Rights and obligations. 152. Rights and obligations relating to home childcare services conferred on childcare centre permit holders by the Regulation respecting childcare centres, made by Order in Council 1069-97 (1997, G.O. 2, 4368), and the Regulation respecting reduced contributions, made by Order in Council 1071-97 (1997, G.O. 2, 4393), are conferred on accredited home childcare coordinating offices, with the necessary modifications.

Exception. 153. Section 6 does not apply to a person operating a nursery school that establishes that the person was operating that nursery school on 25 October 2005.

- “Nursery school”. “Nursery school” means an establishment that provides educational childcare in a facility where seven or more children from two to five years of age are received, in a stable group, on a regular basis for periods not exceeding four hours a day and are offered activities conducted over a fixed period.
- Time limit. 154. A legal person or cooperative that holds a childcare centre permit on 1 June 2006 has until 1 June 2007 to bring the composition of its board of directors into compliance with the requirements of section 7.
- School board. 155. Despite the second paragraph of section 11, a school board that holds a day care centre permit on 1 June 2006 may obtain a permit renewal from the Minister on the conditions prescribed by law.
- Application. 156. Section 12 applies to a permit in force on 1 June 2006 only as of its renewal unless the permit holder requests a modification of the permit before its renewal.
- Exception. 157. Section 15 does not apply to a person, partnership or association which, on 14 May 1997, was using a name that includes the term “childcare centre” and appears in the declaration of registration filed under the Act respecting the legal publicity of sole proprietorships, partnerships and legal persons (R.S.Q., chapter P-45). The person, partnership or association may continue to use that name, provided that it is not used in such a manner as to lead to the belief that the centre is a childcare centre within the meaning of this Act.
- Condition. 158. The Minister may accredit, as a home childcare coordinating office, a legal person that holds a childcare centre permit on 16 December 2005 and that has been dispensed from providing childcare in a facility under section 73.1.1 of the Act respecting childcare centres and childcare services if it undertakes to bring its board of directors into compliance with the requirements of subparagraphs 3 and 5 of the first paragraph and the second, third and fourth paragraphs of section 7 and the requirements of section 9, with the necessary modifications, within six months after it is accredited.
- Requirement. However, the parent members of the board of directors must be parents whose children are provided childcare coordinated by the office.
- Information to the Minister. 159. A childcare centre permit holder that coordinates home childcare services on 16 December 2005 must communicate to the Minister, in the manner and according to the conditions determined by the Minister and not later than 20 January 2006, the names of and contact information for each home childcare provider the centre has recognized, the date of recognition and the number of subsidized childcare spaces granted.
- Information to the coordinating office. 160. A childcare centre permit holder that has not been accredited by the Minister as a home childcare coordinating office and operates a childcare centre in a territory assigned to a coordinating office must, without delay at the Minister’s request, communicate to the coordinating office the names and addresses of the persons the centre has recognized as home childcare providers, as well as the records drawn up concerning those persons in accordance with the Act respecting childcare centres and childcare services and the regulations.

- Presumption. Such persons are deemed to be recognized by the coordinating office as of 1 June 2006 unless they notify the coordinating office of their intention to give up the recognition.
- Assessment. 161. A person who, on 1 June 2006, is a recognized home childcare provider must undergo an assessment not later than 31 March 2007 for the renewal of the person's recognition by the competent accredited coordinating office in accordance with section 55.
- Application. 162. Section 59 applies with respect to the year 2006 from 30 September 2006.
- Application. 163. Sections 61 and 63 apply to coordinating offices from the fiscal year 2006-2007.
- Exception. 164. The second paragraph of section 97 does not apply to a childcare centre permit holder whose subsidies have been cancelled or reduced because the permit holder no longer coordinates home childcare services.
- Cases pending. 165. Any case pending on 1 June 2006 before the Administrative Tribunal of Québec concerning the suspension or revocation of the recognition of a home childcare provider by a childcare centre permit holder is continued, without continuance of suit, by the territorially competent home childcare coordinating office. The same applies to any application for judicial review of a decision rendered by the Tribunal in such a matter pending on that date.
- Copy of file. The childcare centre permit holder must, without delay, send the coordinating office a copy of the file prepared for that purpose. The coordinating office notifies the tribunal or court concerned.
- Party to proceedings. However, the childcare centre permit holder may remain a party to the proceedings if it proves its interest.
- Publication period. 166. A regulation made under this Act before 1 September 2006 may have a shorter publication period than that provided for in section 11 of the Regulations Act (R.S.Q., chapter R-18.1), but not shorter than 20 days. Furthermore, such a regulation is not subject to the requirement of section 17 of that Act as regards its date of coming into force.
- Other transitional provisions or measures. 167. The Government may, by a regulation made before 1 April 2007, enact any other transitional provision or measure needed to carry out this Act.
- Regulation. A regulation made under this section is not subject to the publication requirement set out in section 8 of the Regulations Act or to the date of coming into force set out in section 17 of that Act.

- Application.                   Such a regulation may, if it so provides, apply from any date not prior to 16 December 2005.
- Coming into force.           168. This Act comes into force on 16 December 2005, except sections 1 to 39, the first paragraph of section 41, sections 52 to 93, 95 to 157 and 161 to 165, which come into force on 1 June 2006.

- Management contract. 129. A contract entered into before 1 January 2006 relating to the management of the cultural and recreational activities of a municipality may not be declared invalid on the grounds that it was between the municipality and a person other than a non-profit partnership or legal person.
- Agreements. 130. Any agreement entered into on 30 August 2005 under section 659.2 of the Act respecting elections and referendums in municipalities (R.S.Q., chapter E-2.2) by a local municipality whose territory is included in that of a regional county municipality whose warden is elected in accordance with section 210.29.2 of the Act respecting municipal territorial organization (R.S.Q., chapter O-9) is deemed to specify that it applies, with the necessary modifications, to a poll held to elect a warden in the territory of the local municipality.
- Regional county municipality. Any such agreement entered into by a regional county municipality is without effect with regard to the election of a warden.
- Agglomeration orders. 131. A provision of an agglomeration order on a matter referred to in any of sections 145 to 147 of the Act respecting the exercise of certain municipal powers in certain urban agglomerations (R.S.Q., chapter E-20.001) may have retroactive effect to 1 January 2006.
- Ville de Saint-Pie. 132. As of 1 January 2006, Ville de Saint-Pie ceases to adhere to the pension plan established by the Act respecting the Pension Plan of Elected Municipal Officers (R.S.Q., chapter R-9.3).
- Cessation of participation. As of that date, a person referred to in section 66 of that Act ceases to participate in that plan.
- Provisions applicable. 133. Sections 7, 17 to 20, 29 to 32, 70 and 71 apply for the purposes of every fiscal year from the fiscal year 2006.
- Fiscal years 2006 to 2008. However, for the purposes of the fiscal years 2006 to 2008, if the agglomeration council of Ville de Montréal creates a financial reserve under section 569.7 of the Cities and Towns Act (R.S.Q., chapter C-19), amended by section 18, the reserve is to be used solely to finance expenditures made to improve techniques and procedures and to develop and repair infrastructures related either to the supply of water or to roads.
- Fiscal year 2006. 134. For the purposes of the fiscal year 2006, section 114.11 of the Cities and Towns Act (R.S.Q., chapter C-19) applies without reference to the amendments under paragraph 3 of section 10.
- Provision applicable. For the purposes of that fiscal year, the second sentence of the first paragraph of section 114.11 of the Cities and Towns Act, enacted by paragraph 2 of section 10, applies even if the borough mayor did not exercise the power provided for in section 114.4 of that Act, amended by section 9, before the budget for that fiscal year was adopted or even if the borough mayor exercised the power in anticipation of that amendment. To that end, the second paragraph of section 114.11 is deemed to read as follows:

Maximum appropriation.

“However, the appropriation may not exceed the amount determined by the Minister or the amount that corresponds to the percentage, determined by the Minister, of the total of the other appropriations provided for in the borough budget. If the Minister determines both an amount and a percentage with regard to that budget, the higher amount constitutes the applicable maximum.”

Effective date.

The fourth paragraph of that section 114.11, enacted by paragraph 4 of section 10, has effect from 1 September 2005.

Effective date.

Call for tenders.

If a call for tenders was published or sent after 16 June 2005 for the purpose of awarding a supply or services contract, without the prior approval of the Minister of Municipal Affairs and Regions required under section 76.2 of the Act respecting the consultation of citizens with respect to the territorial reorganization of certain municipalities (2003, chapter 14), amended by section 95, the call for tenders and any document referred to in it must be approved by the Minister, even if the call for tenders has been published or sent and a contract awarded as a result. If the Minister refuses the approval, the awarding process or the contract awarded ends immediately.

Transit authority.

136. The second paragraph of section 114 of the Act respecting public transit authorities (R.S.Q., chapter S-30.01), enacted by section 85, also applies to obligations and commitments contracted by a transit authority before 1 January 2006.

Words replaced.

137. In a notice published under section 24.4 of the Act respecting the remuneration of elected municipal officers (R.S.Q., chapter T-11.001) before the beginning of the fiscal year 2006, “mayor of a municipality with a population of 500,000 or more” is replaced by “mayor of Ville de Québec”, and “mayor of a municipality with a population of 300,000 to 499,999” is replaced by “mayor of a municipality with a population of 300,000 or more”.

Effective date.

Financial interest.

139. An interest acquired by a local municipality or a regional county municipality between 31 July 2005 and 1 January 2006 in a development fund referred to in section 13.1 or 126.1 of the Municipal Powers Act (2005, chapter 6), enacted by sections 106 and 121 respectively, may not be declared invalid on the ground that it contravenes the Municipal Aid Prohibition Act (R.S.Q., chapter I-15) or on the ground that the municipality did not have the necessary jurisdiction.

Coming into force.

140. This Act comes into force on 16 December 2005, except sections 1, 13 to 15, 24 to 27, 34, 36 to 38, 40 to 47, 73 to 77, 79 to 87, 90, 91, 104 to 125, 127 and 136, which come into force on 1 January 2006.

AN ACT TO AMEND THE ACT RESPECTING INSURANCE AND THE ACT RESPECTING TRUST COMPANIES AND SAVINGS COMPANIES

ACT RESPECTING INSURANCE

c. A-32, Div. I, heading, added.

1. The Act respecting insurance (R.S.Q., chapter A-32) is amended by inserting the following heading before section 33.1:

“DIVISION I

“GENERAL PROVISIONS”.

c. A-32, Div. II, ss. 33.4 and 33.5,
added.

“DIVISION II

“SPECIAL PROVISIONS RESPECTING ANNUITIES

Control of capital.

“33.4. In an annuity contract, the fact that an insurance company offers a choice of investments does not preclude the company from having control of the capital accumulated for the payment of the annuity.

Right to withdraw.

The right to withdraw all or part of the capital accumulated for the payment of an annuity may be stipulated, but the exercise of that right reduces the insurance company’s obligations correlatively.

Amount of annuity.

In addition, the amount of the annuity to be paid periodically must, at the time the contract is entered into, be determinate, or at least determinable according to variables and a computation method specified in the contract.

Capital exempt from seizure.

“33.5. For the capital accumulated for the payment of an annuity to be exempt from seizure, a person must be designated, in accordance with article 2457 or 2458 of the Civil Code, as qualified to receive the capital or the related annuity following the death of the annuitant or the person who furnishes the capital.”

c. A-32, s. 65, am.

ACT RESPECTING TRUST COMPANIES AND SAVINGS COMPANIES

c. S-29.01, s. 170,
French text, am.

c. S-29.01, s. 178,
replaced.

5. Section 178 of the Act is replaced by the following sections:

Capital unseizable.

“178. The capital accumulated for the payment of a fixed-term annuity is unseizable in the hands of the trust company as if it were a fixed-term annuity transacted by an insurer.

Capital exempt from seizure.

For the capital to be exempt from seizure, a person must be designated, in accordance with article 2457 or 2458 of the Civil Code, as qualified to receive the capital or the related annuity following the death of the annuitant or the person who furnishes the capital.

Control of capital.

“178.1. In an annuity contract, the fact that a trust company offers a choice of investments does not preclude the company from having control of the capital accumulated for the payment of the annuity.

Right to withdraw.

The right to withdraw all or part of the capital accumulated for the payment of an annuity may be stipulated, but the exercise of that right reduces the trust company’s obligations correlatively.

Amount of annuity.

In addition, the amount of the annuity to be paid periodically must, at the time the contract is entered into, be determinate, or at least determinable according to variables and a computation method specified in the contract.”

AMENDING, TRANSITIONAL AND FINAL PROVISIONS

c. D-9.2, s. 3, am.

6. Section 3 of the Act respecting the distribution of financial products and services (R.S.Q., chapter D-9.2) is amended by striking out “, including endowment contracts,” in the second and third lines of the first paragraph.

Contracts entered into before 1 March 2006.

7. Any contract entered into with an insurance company or a trust company before 1 March 2006 that was offered to the other contracting party as an annuity contract and is not in compliance with article 2367 of the Civil Code carries with it, as of the time it was entered into, the unseizability of the accumulated capital as though it had been accumulated under an annuity contract.

Capital exempt from seizure.

For the capital to be exempt from seizure, a person must be designated in the contract, in accordance with article 2457 or 2458 of the Civil Code, as qualified to receive the capital or the related annuity following the death of the annuitant or the person who furnishes the capital. The capital remains exempt from seizure until the end of the contract.

- Restriction. This section applies only to contracts of the type offered to the public by an insurance company or a trust company before 6 December 2005.
- Effects of contract. 8. In addition to the unseizability of the capital accumulated under its stipulations, a contract referred to in section 7 has, as of the time it is entered into, all the effects of an annuity contract, particularly as regards the application of the Securities Act (R.S.Q., chapter V-1.1) to the contract, the capacity of the insurance company or the trust company to enter into the contract and the validity of designations of persons qualified to receive the accumulated capital following the death of the other contracting party or the person who furnishes the capital. Subject to a judgment confirming or revoking them, such designations do not prevail over designations validly made in a subsequent juridical act, such as a will.
- Lack of compliance. 9. An insurance company or a trust company that is a party to a contract that was offered to the other contracting party as an annuity contract and is not in compliance with article 2367 of the Civil Code must, as compensation, restore the capital accumulated under the contract at the company's expense if the capital was transferred to a third party in whole or in part following a judgment rendered before 6 December 2005 or a seizure or revendication proceeding served before that date. The amount of the compensation is equal to the sums transferred. The capital thus restored is exempt from seizure subject to the conditions set out in section 7.
- Reinstatement of contract. If all of the capital was transferred to a third party following a judgment or a seizure or revendication proceeding, the restoration of the accumulated capital by the insurance company or the trust company carries with it the reinstatement of the contract between the original contracting parties.
- Restoration of accumulated capital. The fact that an insurance company or a trust company has restored the accumulated capital in accordance with the first paragraph does not give it the right to claim the restitution of the sums transferred to a third party following a judgment or a seizure or revendication proceeding.
- Compensation. 10. An insurance company or a trust company that is a party to a contract that was offered to the other contracting party as an annuity contract, although not in compliance with article 2367 of the Civil Code and that, because of this lack of compliance, is the subject of proceedings pending on or completed before 6 December 2005 is required to compensate the other contracting party for any judicial or extrajudicial costs that party may have assumed in connection with the seizure or revendication of the capital accumulated under the contract.
- Provisions not applicable. 11. Sections 7 and 8 are declaratory, but do not apply to proceedings pending on 6 December 2005 whose purpose is to seize or revendicate the capital accumulated under a contract referred to in section 7, or to a contract entered into on or after 1 March 2006.

Restriction.

12. Sections 9 and 10 apply only in respect of a contract that would have conferred rights exempt from seizure under articles 2457 and 2458 of the Civil Code if it had been in compliance with article 2367 of that Code.

Coming into force.

13. This Act comes into force on 16 December 2005, except sections 1, 2 and 5, which come into force on 1 March 2006.
