Notice

An Act respecting industrial accidents and occupational diseases
(R.S.Q., c. A-3.001)

Applicable percentages for the purposes of levying the assessment on employers personally liable for the payment of benefits for 2011

Notice is hereby given in accordance with sections 10 and 11 of the Regulations Act (R.S.Q., c. R-18.1) that upon the expiry of 45 days following this publication the "Regulation respecting the applicable percentages for the purposes of levying the assessment on employers personally liable for the payment of benefits for 2011", the text of which appears below, may be made by the Commission de la santé et de la sécurité du travail.

This draft regulation seeks to determine the percentages that the Commission must use in order to levy on employers personally liable for the payment of benefits the expenses that it incurs for the application of Chapter X of the Act respecting industrial accidents and occupational diseases.

The examination of this file reveals no significant impact on the enterprises directly concerned by this regulation given that the Commission de la santé et de la sécurité du travail adopts such percentages on an annual basis.

Any interested person having comments to make on this matter is asked to send them in writing, before the expiry of this period, to Mr. André Beauchemin, ViceChairman, Finance, Commission de la santé et de la sécurité du travail, 524, rue Bourdages, Québec (Québec) G1K 7E2.

Notice

An Act respecting industrial accidents and occupational diseases
(R.S.Q., c. A-3.001)

Classification of employers, the statement of wages and the rates of assessment - Amendments

Notice is hereby given, in accordance with sections 10 and 11 of the Regulations Act (R.S.Q., c. R-18.1), that the Regulation to amend the Regulation respecting the classification of employers, the statement of wages and the rates of assessment, appearing below, may be made by the Commission de la santé et de la sécurité du travail on the expiry of 45 days following this publication.

The Regulation determines the units of classification for 2011, as well as the rates of assessment applicable to the units.

The Regulation establishes new rules for granting exceptional units to employers classified both into units that expressly provide for classification into such units and into units that do not expressly provide for that classification. An employer who has an insufficient proportion of activities to which units that provide for such a classification apply will no longer have a vested right to exceptional units. The purpose of the rules is also to help maintain entitlement to those units in certain other conditions.

The great majority of employers will not be affected by the amendments. A small number of employers may not comply with the new rules whose purpose is to maintain entitlement to those units and, therefore, those employers' entitlement to exceptional units may be withdrawn. Better equity between the employers competing in their respective sectors of activities could be achieved through new rules.

Any person wishing to comment on the draft Regulation is requested to submit written comments within the 45-day period to André Beauchemin, Vice-President for Finance, Commission de la santé et de la sécurité du travail, 524, rue Bourdages, Québec (Québec) G1K 7E2.

Regulation to amend the Regulation respecting the classification of employers, the statement of wages and the rates of assessment ${ }^{*}$

An Act respecting industrial accidents and occupational diseases
(R.S.Q., c. A-3.001, s. 454, 1st par., subpars. 4.3, 5, 5.1, 6 and 8.1)

1. The Regulation respecting the classification of employers, the statement of wages and the rates of assessment is amended by replacing sections 9 and 10 by the following:
"9. An employer is also classified into an exceptional unit if, according to Division 1, the employer is classified only into units which expressly provide for that classification, insofar as at least one of the employer's workers carries out a task to which the exceptional unit applies.
2. The employer who, according to Division 1 , is not classified only into units that expressly provide for the employer's classification into an exceptional unit is classified into such an exceptional unit if
(1) at least $45 \%$ of the insurable wages of the employer's workers for the year preceding the year that precedes the year of assessment are stated with respect to the units expressly providing for classification into that exceptional unit; and
(2) at least one of the employer's workers carries out a task to which the exceptional unit applies.

The employer who may not be classified into an exceptional unit for the sole reason that the employer does not meet the condition set out in subparagraph 1 of the first paragraph may however be classified as if the employer were classified into an exceptional unit for the year preceding the year of assessment and if at least 40\% of the insurable wages of the employer's workers for the year preceding the year that precedes the year of [^1]assessment are stated with respect to the units expressly providing for classification into that unit.

Where an employer begins activities following a transaction within the meaning of section 2 of the Regulation respecting the use of employer experience, made by Order in Council 529-99 dated 5 May 1999, the insurable wages of the employer's predecessor are used for the purpose of calculating the percentages provided for in the first and second paragraphs insofar as the successor has continued in whole the activities of the predecessor.

For the purpose of calculating the percentages provided for in this section, the insurable wages of an auxiliary worker must be excluded. The amount of the protection that, under section 18 of the Act, an employer or one of the executive officers has, if the executive officer, in addition to sitting on the board of directors, carries out a task for the employer, is considered to be insurable wages stated with respect to the unit that corresponds to the activities in which the person participates.".
2. Schedules 1,2 and 3 are replaced by the following schedules attached to this Regulation.
3. The provisions of this Regulation apply to the 2011 year of assessment. The provisions of section 1 also apply to the subsequent years.

SCHEDULE 1

UNITS OF CLASSIFICATION AND RATES OF ASSESSMENT FOR THE YEAR 2011

Specific classification rules

(1) The Commission does not take into account the condition set out in subparagraph 3 of the first paragraph of section 7 for the purpose of classifying an employer into more than one of the 80030 to 80260 units.
(2) An employer who meets the conditions set out in Division 2 of Chapter 3 allowing him or her to be classified into the 90020 and 80020 units is classified into the latter unit.
(3) The employer who does not meet the conditions set out in sections 9 and 10 is classified into the 90020 unit if at least one of the employer's workers carries out a task to which that unit applies during the year of assessment, if the employer is classified into at least one unit that expressly provides the employer's classification into that exceptional unit and if the employer meets the conditions set out in any of the following paragraphs:
(1) the sum of the insurable wages of the employer's workers stated for the year preceding the year that precedes the year of assessment with respect to units giving entitlement to the 80020 unit and of the insurable wages for that same year with respect to units giving entitlement to the 90020 unit is equal to or greater than $45 \%$ of the insurable wages of the employer's workers for that same year;
(2) the employer had no worker in his or her employ during the year preceding the year that precedes the year of assessment and is classified only into units giving entitlement to the 80020 unit and into units giving entitlement to the 90020 unit for the year of assessment;
(3) the employer was classified into one of the 80020 or 90020 exceptional units for the year preceding the year of assessment and the sum of the insurable wages of the employer's workers stated for the year preceding the year that precedes the year of assessment with respect to units giving entitlement to the 80020 unit and of the insurable wages stated for that same year with respect to units giving entitlement to the 90020 unit is equal to or greater than $40 \%$ of the insurable wages of the employer's workers for that same year.

For the purpose of calculating the percentages provided for in this section, the insurable wages of an auxiliary worker must be excluded. The amount of the protection that, under section 18 of the Act, an employer or one of the executive officers has, if the executive officer, in addition to sitting on the board of directors, carries out a task for the employer, is considered to be insurable wages stated with respect to the unit that corresponds to the activities in which the person participates.
(4) The Commission does not take into account the classification of an employer into the 65150 unit or the wages stated with respect to that unit for the purpose of determining an employer's entitlement to exceptional units pursuant to sections 9 and 10, and sections 2 and 3 of these specific classification rules.
(5) An employer classified into a unit that concerns the manufacture of a good cannot be classified into a unit that concerns the trade in the good or in a good that the employer does not manufacture unless the employer operates at least one store situated elsewhere than on the production site of the good that the employer manufactures.
(6) An employer who hires out the services of workers in his or her employ is classified, for that activity, into the units that concern the activities of those workers when the classification unit does not expressly apply to the hiring out.

Specific rules for stating wages

(1) The second paragraph of section 14 does not apply to an employer for the purpose of stating insurable wages earned during the preceding calendar year by a worker who, without being an auxiliary worker, participates in several activities to which more than one of the 80030 to 80260 units apply.
(2) The Commission does not take into account the insurable wages stated with respect to the 65150 unit for the purpose of distributing the wages of an auxiliary worker under paragraph 3 of section 16.
(3) An employer classified both into a unit that concerns the manufacture of a good and into a unit that concerns the trade in the good or in a good that the employer does not manufacture states the wages of a worker who works in the trade with respect to the unit that concerns the manufacture of the good, except if the worker works in the trade in a store that the employer operates elsewhere than on the production site of the good that the employer manufactures. The employer then states the wages of the worker who works in the trade in the store with respect to the unit that concerns the trade in the good.

(1) Pursuant to section 297 of the Act, classification units are grouped into sectors.
(2) The primary sector comprises units 10110 to 14030 .
