1. The national committee of flood zone management experts provided for in section 79.19 of the Act respecting land use planning and development (chapter A-19.1) is composed of members appointed by the Minister of Municipal Affairs, Regions and Land Occupancy.

2. To obtain applications from persons interested in becoming members of the committee, the Minister issues an invitation for applications and, if the Minister considers it useful, proceeds by any other means.

3. The Minister appoints to the committee persons who are qualified in fields relevant to the committee's mandate, in particular

- (1) hydrology, hydraulics or hydrogeomorphology;
- (2) land use planning and development;
- (3) architecture or building construction; and
- (4) the environment.

4. The Minister publishes on the Internet a list of the members of the committee, indicating each member's expertise relevant to the committee's mandate.

5. The appointment of a person as a member of the committee is in effect for the period determined by the Minister.

At the end of that period, the Minister may renew the appointment of a member. The Minister must first verify the interest and ability of the person concerned to act as a member of the committee.

6. If a consultation must be held under section 79.18 of the Act respecting land use planning and development (chapter A-19.1), the Minister mandates members of the committee to examine the regulation which is the subject of the consultation.
