

- (31) prochlorperazine;
- (32) risperidone;
- (33) loxapine succinate;
- (34) thiothixene.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the percentage of the cost of the medications referred to in subparagraphs 11 and 32 of the first paragraph which remains chargeable to the Board shall be assumed by the Board, on the condition that an application for authorization prescribed under section 72 of the Health Insurance Act (R.S.Q., c. A-29) has been forwarded to it and that,

(1) in the case of clozapine, that medication is used for the symptomatic treatment of schizophrenia in patients with normal white cells and for whom appropriate treatment with antipsychotic drugs has proven ineffective or caused intolerable side effects preventing the administration of an effective dose. The white cell differential shall be checked once a week;

(2) in the case of risperidone, that medication is used for the symptomatic treatment of schizophrenia in patients for whom appropriate treatment with antipsychotic drugs has proven ineffective or caused intolerable side effects.”

3. Section 3 is amended

(1) by inserting the words “or in section 1.1” after the words “in section 1”; and

(2) by substituting the words “referred to in those sections” for the words “referred to in that section”.

4. Section 6 is amended by inserting the words “or in section 1.1” after the words “in section 1”.

5. Section 8 is amended by adding “or in section 1.1” at the end.

6. This Regulation has effect since 1 August 1996.
