Gouvernement du Québec

O.C. 1142-98, 2 September 1998

An Act respecting the civil aspects of international and interprovincial child abduction (R.S.Q., c. A-23.01)

Czech Republic

Application of the Act respecting the civil aspects of international and interprovincial child abduction to the Czech Republic

WHEREAS under section 41 of the Act respecting the civil aspects of international and interprovincial child abduction (R.S.Q., c. A-23.01), the Government, upon the recommendation of the Minister of Justice and, as the case may be, of the Minister for Canadian Intergovernmental Affairs or the Minister of International Relations, shall designate by order published in the Gazette officielle du Québec any State, province or territory in which it considers that Québec residents may benefit from measures similar to those set out in that Act;

WHEREAS under that same section, the order shall indicate the date of the taking of effect of the Act for each State, province or territory designated in it;

WHEREAS the Czech Republic ratified the Convention on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction on 15 December 1997 and that Convention came into force for that State on 1 March 1998;

** Of the 350 hours of training and internship, at least 50 shall be completed with children and 50 with adults. Those hours of training and internship may not include more than 35 hours in orthophony.

WHEREAS the Government considers that Québec residents may benefit in that State from measures similar to those set out in the Act respecting the civil aspects of international and interprovincial child abduction;

IT IS ORDERED, therefore, upon the recommendation of the Minister of Justice and the Minister of International Relations:

THAT the Czech Republic be designated as a State to which the Act respecting the civil aspects of international and interprovincial child abduction applies and that the Act have effect, in respect of that State, as of 1 March 1998.
