EXPLANATORY NOTES

This bill amends the Act respecting elections and referendums in municipalities to harmonize certain provisions relating to the electoral process with the provisions of the Election Act. A new chapter on election posters and billboards is introduced and the rules relating to the marking of ballot papers are modified. The bill provides that every municipal elector must have been domiciled in Québec for six months, except in the case of an elector who is the owner of an immovable or the occupant of a place of business.

The bill introduces provisions into the Act respecting elections and referendums in municipalities similar to those in the Election Act governing authorizations granted to political parties and independent candidates, the financing of those entities and control of their election expenses. Before applying for authorization, a political party will be able to reserve a name for up to six months. The bill reduces to 15% the percentage of votes a candidate is required to obtain to be entitled to reimbursement of election expenses, and allows an elector to make contributions of up to $1,000 to each of the authorized parties and independent candidates.

The powers of the chief electoral officer are extended by the bill to enable the chief electoral officer to give directives to returning officers. As well, the powers of the chief electoral officer are broadened as regards inquiries and penal matters, and immunity is granted to certain municipal election officers. The bill provides that the chapter relating to the financing of parties and candidates and the control of election expenses will also apply to municipalities having a population of 5,000 or over.

Lastly, the bill remedies various problems of application. It clarifies the powers of the Minister to authorize a returning officer to change the Sunday fixed for the holding of a by-election and enables the Commission municipale du Québec to ascertain, on its own initiative, the end of an elected person's term.

LEGISLATION AMENDED BY THIS BILL :

- Act respecting elections and referendums in municipalities (R.S.Q., chapter E-2.2);
- Election Act (R.S.Q., chapter E-3.3);
