EXPLANATORY NOTES

This bill amends the Act to facilitate the payment of support in order to solve various problems related to the application and interpretation of the Act.

First, amendments are proposed to standardize the provisions relating to the security required of debtors of support and to exempt debtors from furnishing security if they receive employment insurance benefits or an employment-assistance allowance.

In addition, existing mechanisms for the recovery of outstanding amounts are modified and new mechanisms are introduced. In that connection, the powers of the Minister of Revenue to determine an employment relationship and to obtain information are clarified. As well, a notice sent by the Minister of Revenue to a third party concerning the collection of amounts due to a person owing an amount under the Act will remain valid no longer for one year only but until the debt in respect of which the notice was sent is wholly paid or until the third party has discharged all obligations towards his or her creditor. Moreover, the person to whom a debtor of support transfers property will henceforth, on certain conditions, become solidarily liable for the amount owed by the debtor.

Lastly, the time allowed to exercise certain remedies is extended from 10 to 20 days.

THE PARLIAMENT OF QUÉBEC ENACTS AS FOLLOWS :

3. Section 8 of the said Act is amended by inserting “or maintain” after “furnish” in the second paragraph.

4. Section 14 of the said Act is amended by adding the following sentence at the end : “The same applies where the Minister has reason to believe that a debtor works for a person who declares that that is not the case.”

5. Section 26 of the said Act is amended by replacing the second paragraph by the following paragraph :

“In such cases, security must be furnished to the Minister and maintained by the debtor, except where the debtor receives employment insurance benefits from the federal government or an employment-assistance allowance from Emploi-Québec.”

6. Section 30 of the said Act is amended by replacing “three months” in the first paragraph by “one month”.

7. Section 48 of the said Act is amended

(1) by replacing “is bound to make a payment, within one year after the date of the notice,” in the first and second lines of the first paragraph by “, by virtue of an existing obligation, is or will be bound to make a payment” ;

(2) by replacing the second paragraph by the following paragraph :

“The same applies in the case of a payment to be made to a creditor holding a security furnished by a person owing an amount under this Act or to the assignee of a claim assigned by such person where the payment would, but for the security or assignment of claim, be made to that person.”

8. Section 49 of the said Act is replaced by the following section :

“49. Where a person owing an amount under this Act is or is to become the debtor of a financial institution and has furnished security for the debt, and the institution has not yet paid its consideration for the debt, the Minister may, by written notice, require that the institution pay to the Minister all or part of the consideration.”

9. Section 50 of the said Act is amended

(1) by striking out “, within one year after the date of the notice,” in the second line of the first paragraph ;

Release is given by the Minister upon full payment of the debt in respect of which the notice was sent or upon full discharge by the person referred to in the first paragraph of all obligations towards the person’s creditor.”

11. The said Act is amended by inserting the following sections after section 51 :

“51.1. Where a person owing an amount under this Act transfers property, directly or indirectly, by means of a trust or by any means whatever to a person with whom the person is not dealing at arm’s length within the meaning of the Taxation Act (chapter I-3), a person under 18 years of age, the person’s spouse or a person who, after the transfer, becomes the person’s spouse, the transferee becomes solidarily liable with the transferor to pay an amount equal to the lesser of the following amounts

(a) the amount by which the fair market value of the property at the time of the transfer exceeds the fair market value at that time of the consideration given for the property ; and

(b) the aggregate of the amounts owed by the transferor under this Act that are payable at the time of the transfer or are to become payable within one year following the transfer.

“51.2. A payment by the transferor affects the transferee’s liability only where that payment operates to reduce the aggregate of the amounts referred to in paragraph b of section 51.1 to an amount that is less than the amount in respect of which the transferee is solidarily liable under the provisions of section 51.1.
