

11.0 Declaration

I declare that I have examined the by-laws of the institution operating the centre in which I seek to practise my profession, as well as the agreements that it has entered into under section 108 of the Act respecting health services and social services (R.S.Q., c. S-4.2). I undertake to comply with those by-laws and agreements and to practise within the limits of the health services and social services determined by the institution and within the limits of the activities that it organizes under section 105 of the said Act. I undertake to comply with the obligations attached to the enjoyment of the privileges granted to me and the rules regarding care, use of resources and use of medicines approved by the board of directors of the institution.

I also declare that I have examined the services organization plan of the institution operating the centre in which I seek to practise my profession as well as the current staffing plan of the institution.

Draft Regulation

An Act respecting the conservation and development of wildlife
(R.S.Q., c. C-61.1)

Hunting activities — Amendments

Notice is hereby given, in accordance with sections 10 and 11 of the Regulations Act (R.S.Q., c. R-18.1), that the Regulation to amend the Regulation respecting hunting activities, the text of which appears below, may be made by the Government upon the expiry of 45 days following this publication.

The purpose of the draft Regulation is to implement a system for selling hunting licences by electronic medium.

To that means, the draft Regulation proposes new conditions for obtaining a hunting licence, that is, the obligation to provide one's name, address and date of birth. A resident must also provide the number of his hunter's or trapper's certificate when it is required. A licence holder will have to enter the required information on the back of his licence should any of it be missing or inaccurate.

To date, study of the matter has revealed no impact on businesses and in particular on small and medium-sized businesses.

Further information may be obtained by contacting :
