GÉRALD LAPRISE

Tuition fees regulation of the École nationale de police du Québec

Police Act
(R.S.Q., c. P-13.1, s. 42)

1. The tuition fees chargeable to a student admitted to the basic training program in police patrolling are $3,086 for the 2005-2006 academic year.

The tuition fees chargeable to a native student admitted within the framework of a tripartite agreement between the Government of Québec, the Government of Canada and a native community, or to any student who is not a Québec resident pursuant to section 1 of the Regulation respecting the definition of resident in Québec approved by Order in Council n° 910-98 dated July 8, 1998, are $14,098 for the 2005-2006 academic year.

Beginning August 1, 2006, the tuition fees chargeable pursuant to this regulation shall be increased on August 1 of each year, based on the rate of increase of the consumer price index for Canada as determined by Statistics Canada for the 12-month period ending August 31 of the previous year.

The increased tuition fees are reduced in even dollars if they include a dollar mark lower than $0.50 or are increased in even dollars if they include a dollar mark equal to or higher than $0.50.

The Minister informs the public of the result of the indexation carried out pursuant to this section through the Gazette officielle du Québec or by any other means it deems appropriate.

2. A student who abandons, interrupts or is suspended or expelled from the study program between the first and the twentieth day of his training inclusively, shall have two-thirds of the amount paid for tuition refunded.

3. This regulation replaces the Tuition fees regulation adopted by the École nationale de police du Québec¹ on June 28, 2002.

4. This regulation comes into force on the fifteenth day following the date of publication in the Gazette officielle du Québec.
