Draft Regulation

An Act respecting health services and social services (R.S.Q., c. S-4.2)

Classification of services offered by family-type resources and the rates of compensation applicable to each type of service

— Amendments

Notice is hereby given, in accordance with sections 10 and 11 of the Regulations Act (R.S.Q., c. R-18.1), that the Amendments to the Classification of services offered by family-type resources and the rates of compensation applicable to each type of service, appearing below, may be made by the Minister of Health and Social Services on the expiry of 45 days following this publication.

The main purpose of the Amendments is to increase the daily lump sum granted to family-type resources and the allowances paid to foster families to cover the personal expenses of children in their care. The Amendments will have a positive impact on the amounts paid to family-type resources for the services they provide and allow them to meet the needs of the children in their care.

The Amendments will also increase the annual compensation paid to foster families to cover expenses related to school supplies for the children.

Draft Regulation

An Act respecting health services and social services
(R.S.Q., c. S-4.2)

Certain rates of compensation applicable to services provided by intermediate resources

Notice is hereby given, in accordance with sections 10 and 11 of the Regulations Act (R.S.Q., c. R-18.1), that the Regulation respecting certain rates of compensation applicable to services provided by intermediate resources, appearing below, may be made by the Minister of Health and Social Services on the expiry of 45 days following this publication.

The purpose of the draft Regulation is to provide for the payment to intermediate resources of a daily allowance to cover the personal expenses of each child in their care and for the payment of an annual compensation to cover expenses related to school supplies for the children.

The Regulation will have a positive impact on the amounts made available to allow intermediary resources to meet the needs of the children.

PHILIPPE COUILLARD,
Minister of Health and Social Services

Regulation respecting certain rates of compensation applicable to services provided by intermediate resources

An Act respecting health services and social services
(R.S.Q., c. S-4.2, s. 303)

1. In addition to the compensation to which they are entitled pursuant to section 6 of chapter 12 of the Statutes of 2003, intermediate resources are also entitled to special compensation in accordance with sections 2 to 4.

2. Intermediate resources are entitled to a daily amount of $5 as an allowance to cover the personal expenses of each child in their care.

3. Intermediate resources are entitled at the beginning of the school year, for the purchase of books and school supplies and for certain extracurricular activities of a child, to the following annual compensation:

(1) for each child at the preschool or elementary level: $115.89;

(2) for each child at the secondary level: $195.76.

In addition, after receiving the prior authorization of the identified institution and upon presentation of vouchers, intermediate resources are also entitled, during the school year, to the reimbursement of the purchase cost of any other school supplies needed by the child.
