Committee on Culture

General consultation

Towards a government policy to fight against racism and discrimination

The Committee on Culture has been instructed to hold public hearings beginning on 12 September 2006 in pursuance of a general consultation on the document entitled Vers une politique gouvernementale de lutte contre le racisme et la discrimination.

Individuals and organizations who wish to express their views on this matter must submit a brief to the above Committee. The Committee will select the individuals and organizations it wishes to hear from among those who have submitted a brief. The consultation document may be obtained by contacting the Clerk or by consulting the Internet site of the Committee at the following address: www.assnat.qc.ca

Briefs must be received by the committees secretariat not later than 25 August 2006. Every brief must be accompanied by a concise summary of its contents, and both documents must be submitted in 25 copies printed on letter-size paper. Those who wish to have their brief forwarded to the press gallery must provide an additional 20 copies. You may also add an electronic version of your brief by e-mailing it to the Clerk of the Committee. However, this does not exempt you from producing a written version. Please note that unless otherwise decided by the Committee, your brief will be made public, as well as all personal information contained therein, and will be placed on the Internet site of the Committee.

Briefs, correspondence, and requests for information should be addressed to: Mr. Martin Cardinal, Clerk of the Committee on Culture, édifice Pamphile-Le May, 1035, rue des Parlementaires, 3^e étage, Québec (Québec) G1A 1A3.
