Professional Code
(R.S.Q., c. C-26)

Agrologists — Professional activities which may be engaged in by persons other than agrologists

Regulation respecting the professional activities which may be engaged in by persons other than agrologists

WHEREAS, under paragraph h of section 94 of the Professional Code (R.S.Q., c. C-26), the Bureau of a professional order may, by regulation, determine, among the professional activities that may be engaged in by members of the order, those that may be engaged in by the persons or categories of persons indicated in the regulation, and the terms and conditions on which such persons may engage in such activities;

WHEREAS, under section 95 of the Code and subject to sections 95.1 and 95.2 of the Code, every regulation made by the Bureau under the Code or an Act constituting a professional order shall be transmitted to the Office des professions du Québec for examination and submitted, with the recommendation of the Office, to the Government which may approve it with or without amendment;

WHEREAS the Bureau of the Ordre des agronomes du Québec made the Regulation respecting the activities contemplated in section 24 of the Agrologists Act which may be engaged in by classes of persons other than agrologists;

WHEREAS, in accordance with sections 10 and 11 of the Regulations Act (R.S.Q., c. R-18.1), a draft of the Regulation was published in Part 2 of the Gazette officielle du Québec of 29 November 2006 with a notice that it could be submitted to the Government for approval on the expiry of 45 days following that publication;

WHEREAS, in accordance with section 95 of the Professional Code, the Office des professions du Québec has made its recommendations;

WHEREAS it is expedient to approve the Regulation with amendments;

IT IS ORDERED, therefore, on the recommendation of the Minister responsible for the administration of legislation respecting the professions:

THAT the Regulation respecting the professional activities which may be engaged in by persons other than agrologists, attached to this Order in Council, be approved.

GÉRARD BIBEAU,
Clerk of the Conseil exécutif

Regulation respecting the professional activities which may be engaged in by persons other than agrologists

Professional Code
(R.S.Q., c. C-26, s. 94 par. h)

1. The professional activities contemplated in section 24 of the Agrologists Act (R.S.Q., c. A-12) may be engaged in by:

(1) a student who has accumulated 60 credits and is enrolled full-time in a program leading to a diploma recognized as giving access to the permit of the Order;

(2) a candidate for the practice of the profession who has completed the formalities of registration for the admission examination contemplated in Division III of the Regulation respecting admission to the practice of the profession of agrologist (R.R.Q., 1981, c. A-12, r.1), until the candidate passes the said examination, for no more than one year from the time the candidate registers for the admission examination;

(3) a candidate for the practice of the profession who has passed the admission examination in accordance with the Regulation respecting admission to the practice of the profession of agrologist where the candidate has been sworn in and has complied with the Regulation respecting professional liability insurance for agrologists, approved by the Office des professions du Québec on February 6, 2002, until the candidate is entered on the roll of the Order, for no more than three months from the time the candidate is sworn in.

2. The professional activities engaged in by a person contemplated in subparagraphs (1) and (2) of section 1 shall be engaged in under the supervision of an agrologist who meets the following conditions:

(1) the agrologist has been entered on the roll of the Order for at least three years;

(2) the agrologist has not been found guilty by the committee on discipline of the Order or the Professions Tribunal or been required to complete a refresher course or period of refresher training or had his right to engage in professional activities restricted or suspended or been struck off the roll by the Bureau pursuant to a provision of the Professional Code (R.S.Q., c. C-26), within the past five years.

3. This regulation comes into force on the fifteenth day following the date of its publication in the Gazette officielle du Québec.
