O.C. 1025-2012, 7 November 2012

Professional Code
(chapter C-26)

Psychoeducators

— Certain professional activities that may be engaged in by persons other than psychoeducators

Regulation respecting certain professional activities that may be engaged in by persons other than psychoeducators

WHEREAS, under paragraph h of section 94 of the Professional Code (R.S.Q., c. C-26), the board of directors of a professional order may, by regulation, determine, among the professional activities that may be engaged in by members of the order, those that may be engaged in by the persons or categories of persons indicated in the regulation, in particular persons serving a period of professional training determined pursuant to paragraph i of that section, and the terms and conditions on which such persons may engage in such activities;

WHEREAS the board of directors of the Ordre des psychoéducateurs et psychoéducatrices du Québec made the Regulation respecting certain professional activities that may be engaged in by persons other than psychoeducators;

WHEREAS, pursuant to section 95 of the Professional Code and subject to sections 95.0.1 and 95.2 of the Code, every regulation made by the board of directors of a professional order under the Code or an Act constituting such an order must be transmitted to the Office des professions du Québec for examination and be submitted, with the recommendation of the Office, to the Government which may approve it with or without amendment;

WHEREAS, in accordance with sections 10 and 11 of the Regulations Act (R.S.Q., c. R-18.1), a draft of the Regulation respecting certain professional activities that may be engaged in by persons other than psychoeducators was published in Part 2 of the Gazette officielle du Québec of 9 May 2012 with a notice that it could be submitted to the Government for approval on the expiry of 45 days following that publication;

WHEREAS, in accordance with section 95 of the Professional Code, the Office has examined the Regulation and submitted it to the Government with its recommendation;

WHEREAS it is expedient to approve the Regulation without amendment;

IT IS ORDERED, therefore, on the recommendation of the Minister of Justice:

THAT the Regulation respecting certain professional activities that may be engaged in by persons other than psychoeducators, attached to this Order in Council, be approved.

Regulation respecting certain professional activities that may be engaged in by persons other than psychoeducators

Professional Code
(chapter C-26, s. 94, par. h)

1. Among the professional activities that may be engaged in by psychoeducators, the activities required for the completion of a program of studies in psychoeducation may be engaged in by a student registered in a program of studies leading to a diploma giving access to the permit issued by the Ordre des psychoéducateurs et psychoéducatrices du Québec, on the condition that the student engages in the activities under the supervision of a training supervisor within the scope of learning activities of the master's level program.

2. A person who must complete a training period or training for the purposes of the recognition of an equivalence in accordance with the Règlement sur les normes d'équivalence pour la délivrance d'un permis de l'Ordre des psychoéducateurs et psychoéducatrices du Québec (c. C-26, r. 208.01) may, among the professional activities that may be engaged in by psychoeducators, engage in the activities required for the completion of the training period or training that would enable the person to be granted an equivalence, on the condition that the person engages in the activities under the supervision of a training supervisor.

3. The training supervisor referred to in sections 1 and 2 must meet the following conditions:

(1) be a member of the Ordre des psychoéducateurs et psychoéducatrices du Québec;

(2) not have been the subject of any penalty imposed by the disciplinary council of the Order or the Professions Tribunal; and

(3) not have been the subject, in the 5 years preceding the date on which the training supervisor acts as a training supervisor, of a decision by the board of directors of the Order imposing a refresher training period or course, a restriction or suspension of the right to engage in professional activities or the striking off the roll of the Order.

4. This Regulation comes into force on the fifteenth day following the date of its publication in the Gazette officielle du Québec.

Regulation respecting certain professional activities that may be engaged in by persons other than psychologists and by psychologists

Professional Code
(chapter C-26, s. 94, par. h)

DIVISION I

PERSONS OTHER THAN PSYCHOLOGISTS

1. Among the professional activities that may be engaged in by psychologists, the activities required for the completion of a program of studies in psychology may be engaged in by a student registered in a program, on the condition that the student engages in the activities under supervision and in keeping with the regulatory standards that apply to psychologists relating to ethics and the keeping of records and consulting rooms, and that

(1) the program of studies in psychology in which the student is registered leads to a diploma giving access to the permit issued by the Ordre des psychologues du Québec; or

(2) the program of studies in psychology in which the student is registered leads to a diploma in psychology issued by an educational institution situated outside Québec of a level equivalent to that of the program provided for in paragraph 1.
