EXPLANATORY NOTES

This Act amends the Firearms Registration Act to remove the obligation, for a person in possession of a firearm, to provide the firearm's registration number on request.

In addition, any person in possession of a firearm that is not registered in accordance with that Act is guilty of an offence and is liable to a fine.

The Act establishes that, in cases of judicial proceedings, the presence of a firearm in the territory of Québec constitutes, in the absence of any evidence to the contrary, proof of its presence in that territory for more than 45 days.

The Act also amends the Act respecting the conservation and development of wildlife to enable wildlife protection officers to enforce all provisions of the Firearms Registration Act and to grant them the power to issue, to the owner of a firearm not registered, a notice requiring the owner to apply for registration of the firearm. Firearm owners who fail to apply for registration and provide proof of having done so to a wildlife protection officer within 14 days after receiving such a notice are guilty of an offence and are liable to a fine.

LEGISLATION AMENDED BY THIS ACT:

- Act respecting the conservation and development of wildlife (chapter C-61.1);
- Firearms Registration Act (chapter I-0.01).
