EXPLANATORY NOTES

This Act makes amendments concerning participation in and decision making at meetings of the boards of directors and of members of legal persons without share capital.

It provides that, subject to any provisions to the contrary in the constituting acts or by-laws of such legal persons,

(1) directors or members, as applicable, will be able to take part in any meeting from separate locations using means enabling all participants to communicate directly with one another, without the consent of all the directors or members being required;

(2) participants in any assembly will be able to vote by any means of communication enabling votes to be cast in a way that allows them to be verified afterwards and protects the secrecy of the vote when a ballot has been requested.

The Act also recognizes that resolutions in writing signed by all the members are as valid as if they had been passed at a general meeting.

LEGISLATION AMENDED BY THIS ACT:

– Companies Act (chapter C-38).
