EXPLANATORY NOTES

This Act prohibits, for a period of three years, the lessor of a dwelling from evicting a lessee to subdivide the dwelling, enlarge it substantially or change its destination. It allows the Government to exempt any part of the territory of Québec from the application of that prohibition and provides that the prohibition ends, unless the Government decides otherwise, if the vacancy rate for rental townhomes and apartments published by the Canada Mortgage and Housing Corporation for all of Québec's urban centres with a population of at least 10,000 inhabitants reaches 3%.

In addition, the Act provides that the protection against evictions and repossession of dwellings conferred by article 1959.1 of the Civil Code applies to persons 65 years of age or over whose revenue does not exceed 125% of the revenue qualifying a person for a dwelling in low-rental housing.

The Act amends the minimum content of a notice of modification of the lease of a dwelling, specifying among other things that the notice must contain any particular determined by government regulation.

Lastly, the Act includes transitional and final provisions.

LEGISLATION AMENDED BY THIS ACT:

- Civil Code of Québec;
- Act to amend various legislative provisions with respect to housing (2024, chapter 2).

8. Section 1 applies to eviction processes under way on 6 June 2024.

Article 1959.1 of the Civil Code, as amended by section 5, applies to processes of eviction and of repossession of a dwelling that are under way on 6 June 2024.

Section 1 of this Act and article 1959.1 of the Civil Code, as amended by section 5, do not apply to processes of eviction or of repossession of a dwelling in the following situations:

(1) the notice of eviction or of repossession of a dwelling was sent before 22 May 2024; or

(2) the notice of eviction or of repossession of a dwelling was sent after 21 May 2024 and, as the case may be,

(a) the lessee notified the lessor before 6 June 2024 of their intention to comply with the notice; or

(b) the lessor applied to the Administrative Housing Tribunal before 6 June 2024 for authorization to evict the lessee or to repossess the dwelling.

9. Section 1 does not apply to the following evictions:

(1) an eviction that concerns a dwelling situated in a part of the territory that has been exempted from the application of section 1, in accordance with section 2, insofar as the notice of eviction was sent while that part of the territory was thus exempted; or

(2) an eviction to change the destination of a dwelling situated in a private seniors' residence in the following situations:

(a) the lessor is the holder of an authorization to operate such a residence referred to in section 557 of the Act to make the health and social services system more effective (2023, chapter 34) and

i. the lessor's cessation-of-activities plan has been approved in accordance with the fourth paragraph of section 346.0.17.1 of that Act; and

ii. the dwelling is situated in the part of the residence covered by the plan, in cases where the lessor ceases activities with respect to that part only.

10. Until the date of coming into force of section 1293 of the Act to make the health and social services system more effective, subparagraph b of paragraph 2 of section 9 of this Act is to be read as if "for the Inuit and Naskapi" in the introductory clause were struck out.

11. The Minister must publish a notice in the Gazette officielle du Québec when the vacancy rate for rental townhomes and apartments published by the Canada Mortgage and Housing Corporation with regard to all of Québec's urban centres with a population of at least 10,000 inhabitants reaches 3%.

The first paragraph ceases to have effect on the date of publication of the notice and Division I ceases to have effect, with regard to any part of the territory of Québec, on the sixtieth day after the date of publication of the notice unless the Government decides otherwise before that last day with regard to any part of the territory of Québec the Government determines.
