

2. The Parity Committee can use two sources of funding for the activities of its training mutual, namely the subsidies paid to the committee for that purpose and the levy provided for in this Regulation.

3. This Regulation applies to professional employers subject to the Decree respecting the installation of petroleum equipment (chapter D-2, r. 12).

DIVISION II

LEVY

4. Professional employers must pay a monthly contribution to the Parity Committee of 0.50% of their total monthly payroll, calculated in accordance with section 4 of the Act to promote workforce skills development and recognition (chapter D-8.3), unless they are exempt from the Act.

5. Professional employers must forward the levy together with their monthly report to the Parity Committee.

DIVISION III

FUND DEDICATED TO THE ACTIVITIES OF THE TRAINING MUTUAL

6. All levies collected pursuant to this Regulation are paid into a fund dedicated exclusively to the activities of the training mutual.

7. The fund is used only for the training activities of the Parity Committee's training mutual.

When the levy collection ceases, the amounts paid into the fund and the unspent interest earned on those amounts can be used for other training activities for employees governed by the Decree respecting the installation of petroleum equipment (chapter D-2, r. 12), pursuant to the Regulation respecting training mutuals (chapter D-8.3, r. 7).

DIVISION IV

CESSATION OF LEVY COLLECTION

8. The levy collection ceases on the date of the suspension, revocation or end of the recognition of the Parity Committee as a training mutual.

The Parity Committee must inform the professional employers of the cessation of levy collection in writing and without delay. The Parity Committee must also publish a notice to this end on its website.

DIVISION V

FINAL

9. This Regulation comes into force on (indicate the date that is three months after the date of publication of the Regulation in the Gazette officielle du Québec).
